Notice of Application to amend Specification.

Patent Office,
Wellington, 26th May, 1892.

REQUEST to be allowed to amend the specification relating to the under-mentioned application for letters patent has been received, and is open to public inspection at this office. Any person may, at any time within one month from the date of this Gazette, give me notice in writing, in duplicate, of opposition to the amendment, stating in such notice the particular grounds of his objection. A fee of 10s. is payable with such notice:—

No. 5310.—CORNELIUS LOT WHEELER, of Christchurch, Canterbury, New Zealand, Mill Machinist. An invention for an improved seed and grain disintegrator, to be called "Wheeler's Seed and Grain Disintegrator."

The nature of the amendment, as set forth in such request, is as follows, viz.:—

1. By inserting the words "of a churning or paddling device" immediately after the word "brushes" where it first appears in the specification.

2. By inserting the words "or inside" immediately after the word "undersides," in line 34.

3. By inserting the words "or lining" immediately after the words "jacketing," in line 35, and "jacket," in line 45, respectively.

4. By inserting the words "having a convex surface" immediately after the word "brushes" where it appears in the sentence "to which carriers, brushes are bolted."

5. By disclaiming (if it has any effect) the amendment made at the hearing of inserting the first claim immediately before the words "What I claim is," and having restored the claims as originally filed by disclaiming the whole of them and inserting the following claim in their place, viz.: "The combinations and arrangements of parts and mechanism (forming the whole machine) substantially as described in the specifications and drawings."

6. By disclaiming the machine patented by Lees and Lester, No. 3479, of 9th January, 1889.

As his reasons for seeking to make these amendments, the applicant states: "I desire to correct clerical errors or omissions, to add words by way of explanation, and to bring the claim within the meaning of the title and specification."
