The first meeting shall be held on Monday, the nineteenth day of September, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two.

2. Special meetings may be convened by the Chairman or by any two members of the Board, provided that two days' notice of such meeting be given to each member, specifying the business to be transacted at such special meeting, and no other business than that so specified shall be transacted at such meeting.

3. Any three of the said Board shall form a quorum. Any meeting may be adjourned from time to time.

4. The members of the Board shall, at their first meeting, and thereafter at an annual meeting to be held on the third Monday in January in every succeeding year thereafter, elect one of themselves to be Chairman, who may join in the discussion, and shall have an original as well as a casting vote. The Chairman shall hold office until the election of his successor.

5. If at any meeting the Chairman is not present at the time appointed for holding the same, the members present shall choose some one of their number to be Chairman of such meeting.

6. If, by resignation, death, or incapacity, or otherwise, the office of Chairman shall be or become vacant, the members may at any monthly or special meeting appoint a Chairman.

7. All questions shall be determined by the majority of votes of the members of the Board present at a meeting.

Regulations for Trout-, Perch-, and Tench-fishing, Southern Acclimatisation District.

GLASGOW, Governor.

ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government House, at Wellington, this seventh day of September, 1892.

Present:

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR IN COUNCIL.

IN pursuance of the powers and authorities vested in him by "The Fisheries Conservation Act, 1884," His Excellency the Governor of the Colony of New Zealand, acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of the said colony, doth hereby make the following regulations for that part of the South Island comprised within the Counties of Collingwood, Waimea, Sounds, Marlborough, Kaikoura, Amuri, Cheviot, Ashley, Selwyn, Akaroa, Ashburton, Mackenzie, Geraldine, Waimate, Waitaki, Vincent, Maniototo, Waihemo, Waikouaiti, Peninsula, Taieri, Tuapeka, Bruce, Clutha, Lake, Southland, Wallace, and the boroughs and town districts situated therein (hereinafter called "the Southern Acclimatisation District"), and the waters thereof (with the exception of the Aparima River and its tributary streams or waters, and also with the exception of that part of the Avon River running through the Domain, from the bridge near the Hospital to the watercourse above the bend in the river near the Riccarton Road, in which fishing is hereby prohibited, provided that this prohibition shall not extend to or include the Otautau River, a tributary of the Aparima), including all waters within half a nautical mile to seaward from high-water mark; and doth hereby declare that these regulations shall, as from the date of the publication hereof in the New Zealand Gazette, supersede all regulations at variance therewith.

REGULATIONS.

1. LICENSES to fish for trout in all the waters of the Southern Acclimatisation District (with the exception of the Aparima River and its tributary streams or waters, and also with the exception of, that part of the Avon River running through the Domain, from the bridge near the Hospital to the water-course above the bend in the river near the Riccarton Road, in which fishing is prohibited, provided that this prohibition shall not extend to or include the Otautau River, a tributary of the Aparima, will be issued by either of the Secretaries of the Nelson, Marlborough, North Canterbury, Ashburton, South Canterbury, Geraldine, Waitaki-Waimate, Otago, Lakes District, and Southland Acclimatisation Societies, and for every such license a fee of twenty shillings will be charged: Provided that it shall not be obligatory upon any of the said Secretaries to issue a license: Provided further that it shall be lawful for any of the said Secretaries to issue licenses for the whole season to ladies for the sum of five shillings each; and to boys under the age of sixteen years for the sum of ten shillings each; and to men, on and after the twentieth day of December in any year, for the sum of twelve shillings and sixpence each.

2. Licenses when issued as aforesaid for the whole season shall entitle the person named therein to fish in any of the said waters from the first day of October in any one year to the fifteenth day of April in the year following; but no such license shall confer any right of entry upon the land of any person without his consent.

3. No person shall fish for, take, catch, or kill, or have in his possession, or attempt to fish for, take, catch, or kill, in any manner whatever, any of the salmonidæ or trout, except during the above-mentioned period.

4. Every such license shall entitle the person named therein to fish with one rod and line only, and with the following baits: Natural or artificial fly, natural or artificial minnow, and any small indigenous fish, grasshoppers, beetles, spiders, caterpillars, creepers, and worms.

5. No person shall use any other bait, or any method, device, or contrivance of any sort or kind whatever for the purpose of fishing for, taking, catching, or killing trout, except a rod and line, and a landing-net or gaff for fish taken with rod and line.

6. No cross-line fishing, stroke-hauling, or any other un-sportsmanlike device shall be used for the purpose of taking, catching, or killing trout; nor shall any of the baits above mentioned be used with any medicated or chemical preparation whatever.

7. No person shall take or attempt to take trout without a license; and every person taking or attempting to take trout shall, on demand of any ranger, constable, or person producing a license, produce, and show to such ranger, constable, or person his license, and the contents of his creel or bag, and the bait used by him for taking, catching, or killing trout.

8. Every trout not exceeding nine inches in length from nose to tip of tail, taken or caught by any person, shall immediately be returned alive into the water from which the same is taken.

9. No person shall put, throw, or place, or allow to be put, thrown, or placed, in any of the said waters, any sawdust or sawmill refuse, or anything of any kind or description whatever poisonous, deleterious, or noxious to fish. This shall not apply to débris or tailings from mining claims.

10. No person shall take, fish for, catch, or kill, in any manner whatever, or have in his possession, any salmon, salmon-parr, or smolts, or the ova, young, or fry of any salmon in any stage whatever; and any of the above-named taken by accident or otherwise shall immediately be returned to the water from whence it was taken.

11. No person other than is provided by the regulations for taking lake trout shall sell, or expose or offer for sale, or have in his possession for purpose of sale, within the district to which these regulations relate, any of the salmonidæ, trout, perch, or tench, or take, fish for, catch, or kill any of the salmonidæ, trout, perch, or tench in order to make sale of same.

12. Any fish-dealer having on his business premises any of the salmonidæ, trout, perch, or tench shall be deemed to have them in his possession for purpose of sale.

13. No person shall put, throw, drag, draw, or place, or allow to be put, thrown, dragged, drawn, or placed, for any purpose whatever, any net of any description (except a landing-net) in any of the rivers or streams in the said district, or within half a mile of the mouth or entrance of any such waters, except as may be provided in regulations authorising the taking of lake trout.

14. Licenses to fish for perch and tench only in all the waters of the Southern Acclimatisation District will be issued by any of the Secretaries of the Nelson, Marlborough, North Canterbury, Ashburton, South Canterbury, Geraldine, Waitaki-Waimate, Otago, Lakes District, and Southland Acclimatisation Societies, and for any such license a fee of five shillings shall be paid: Provided that it shall not be obligatory upon any of the said Secretaries to issue a license: Provided further that a license to fish for trout shall be deemed to include permission, subject to these regulations, to fish for perch or tench.

15. No person shall take, catch, or kill any perch or tench under six inches in length, nor shall any perch or tench be taken, caught, or killed at all, or had in possession of any person, between the sixteenth day of April and the first day of December in any year.

16. The penalty for the breach of any of these regulations shall be not more than five pounds nor less than five shillings.

ALEX. WILLIS,
Clerk of the Executive Council.

Regulations for Trout-fishing, Southland District.

GLASGOW, Governor.

ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government House, at Wellington, this seventh day of September, 1892.

Present:

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR IN COUNCIL.

IN pursuance of the powers and authorities vested in him by "The Fisheries Conservation Act, 1884," His Excellency the Governor of the Colony of New Zealand, acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of the said colony, doth hereby make the following regulations for that portion of the Provincial District of Otago formerly known as the Province of Southland, and the waters thereof, with the exception of the Aparima River and its tributary streams or waters, provided that licenses may be issued for the tributary known as the Otautau River; and doth hereby declare that these regulations shall, as from the date of the publication thereof in the New Zealand Gazette, supersede all regulations at variance therewith.

REGULATIONS.

1. LICENSES to fish for trout in any one river within the above area, with the exception of the Aparima River and its tributary streams or waters, provided that this exception shall not apply to the Otautau River, will be issued under the hand of the Secretary of the Southland Acclimatisation Society (hereinafter termed "the said society") at Invercargill, and for every such license a fee of ten shillings will be charged: Provided that the name of the river for which a license is issued hereunder shall be specified in the license, and that it shall not be obligatory upon the Secretary of the said society to issue a license.

2. Licenses when issued as aforesaid shall entitle the person named therein to fish in the river specified therein from the 1st day of October in any one year to the 15th day of April in the year following; but no such license shall confer any right of entry upon the land of any person without his consent.

3. Licenses issued under this Order in Council shall be subject to the conditions imposed by the regulations for trout-fishing in the Southern Acclimatisation District, made by Order in Council of even date herewith, in so far as the same shall be applicable.

4. Any person committing a breach of any of the regulations hereby made as aforesaid shall be liable on conviction to a penalty not exceeding five pounds and not less than five shillings in each case.

ALEX. WILLIS,
Clerk of the Executive Council.

Regulations under "The Oyster Fisheries Act, 1892," for North Island.

GLASGOW, Governor.

ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government House, at Wellington, this seventh day of September, 1892.

Present:

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS by "The Oyster Fisheries Act, 1892" (hereinafter termed "the said Act"), it is, among other things, enacted that the Governor in Council may from time to time make, alter, and revoke regulations for the purposes therein mentioned, which said regulations shall have general force and effect throughout the colony, or particular force and effect only in any waters or places specified therein:

And whereas it is expedient to make the regulations herein set forth:

Now, therefore, His Excellency the Governor of the Colony of New Zealand, in pursuance and exercise of the powers conferred on him by the said Act, and by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of the said colony, doth hereby make the following regulations; and with the like advice and consent doth order that these regulations shall take effect on and after the date of the publication thereof in the New Zealand Gazette, and that all regulations now in force relating to oyster fisheries shall, from and after the date aforesaid, be and the same are hereby revoked.

REGULATIONS.

1. The months of December, January, February, and March in each year are hereby prescribed as a close season for oysters in the North Island and islands adjacent thereto. During such close season it shall be unlawful for any person to take oysters.

2. Any person may buy, sell, expose for sale, or have in possession any oysters for the space of fourteen days after the commencement of the close season for such oysters: Provided, however, that nothing contained in this regulation shall be deemed to authorise the taking or dredging for any kind of oyster during the said period of fourteen days.

3. No person shall take or burn live oysters for the purpose of converting the shells into lime.

4. No spade or other apparatus for taking rock-oysters shall be used of which the edge or blade shall exceed two inches in width.

5. Every person engaged in taking oysters shall first obtain a license from a Collector of Customs, which license shall be in the form set out in the Schedule hereto, and shall expire on the 30th day of November in each year. The fee to be paid for such license shall be 10s.

6. These regulations shall only apply to the North Island of New Zealand, and the islands, waters, tidal lands, and tidal waters adjacent thereto.

7. Every person who shall commit a breach of any of the foregoing regulations shall be liable on conviction to a penalty not exceeding £100.

SCHEDULE.

WHEREAS has applied to me to grant him a license to take oysters, and has paid into my hands the sum of 10s. for the same: Now, therefore, I do hereby license the said to take oysters in any oyster fishery situate within the North Island of the colony, and wherein it is lawful to take oysters, during the months of and of this present year, subject to the provisions of "The Oyster Fisheries Act, 1892," and the regulation in force thereunder respectively.

Prescribing Export Duty on Oysters from North Island.

GLASGOW, Governor.
ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government House, at Wellington, this seventh day of September, 1892.

Present:

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS it is provided by the seventh section of "The Oyster Fisheries Act, 1892" (hereinafter called "the said Act"), that there shall be levied, collected, and paid to Her Majesty at the Customs, in manner as provided in "The Customs Laws Consolidation Act, 1882," upon oysters in their natural state in the shell, previous to their exportation from New Zealand, a duty at such rate not exceeding one shilling the hundredweight as the Governor by Order in Council may prescribe from time to time: And whereas it is desirable to prescribe the duty which shall be so paid:

Now, therefore, His Excellency the Governor of the Colony of New Zealand, in pursuance and exercise of the powers and authorities vested in him by the said Act, and acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of the said colony, doth hereby prescribe that there shall be levied, collected, and paid to Her Majesty at the Customs, in manner provided in "The Customs Laws Consolidation Act, 1882," upon oysters in their natural state in the shell which have been produced and taken in the North Island of the colony, a duty—as an export duty—at the rate of sixpence the hundredweight, such duty to be paid previous to the exportation of such oysters from New Zealand.

Clerk of the Executive Council.

Regulations under "The Oyster Fisheries Act, 1892," for the South and Stewart Islands.

GLASGOW, Governor.
ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government House, at Wellington, this seventh day of September, 1892.

Present:

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS by section five of "The Oyster Fisheries Act, 1892" (hereinafter termed "the said Act"), it is,

amongst other things, enacted that the Governor in Council may from time to time make, alter, and revoke regulations for the purposes therein mentioned, which said regulations shall have general force and effect throughout the colony, or particular force and effect in any waters or places specified in such regulations:

And whereas it is expedient to make the regulations herein-after set forth:

Now, therefore, His Excellency the Governor of the Colony of New Zealand, in pursuance and exercise of the powers conferred on him by the said Act, and by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of the said colony, doth hereby make the following regulations; and with the like advice and consent doth order that these regulations shall take effect on and after the date of the publication thereof in the New Zealand Gazette.

REGULATIONS.

1. The months of October, November, December, and January in each year are hereby prescribed as a close season for oysters in the South Island and Stewart Island, and islands adjacent thereto. During such close season it shall be unlawful for any person to take oysters.

2. Any person may buy, sell, expose for sale, or have in possession any oysters for the space of fourteen days after the commencement of the close season for such oysters: Provided, however, that nothing contained in this regulation shall be deemed to authorise the taking or dredging for any kind of oyster during the said period of fourteen days.

3. No person shall take or burn live oysters for the purpose of converting the shells into lime.

4. No person shall take or dredge for oysters between sunset and sunrise (except an owner on his own private oyster-bed).

5. No oyster shall be taken which can be passed through a metal ring having a clear inside diameter of one inch and three-quarters.

6. Every person who shall commit a breach of any of the foregoing regulations shall be liable on conviction to a penalty not exceeding £100.

7. The South Island and Stewart Island shall be excluded from the operation of the eighth, ninth, tenth, twelfth, thirteenth, fourteenth, twenty-fourth, and twenty-fifth sections of the said Act.

8. These regulations shall only apply to the South Island of New Zealand and Stewart Island, and the waters thereof respectively, and the islands, waters, tidal lands, and tidal waters adjacent thereto.

GLASGOW, Governor.
ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government House, at Wellington, this seventh day of September, 1892.

Present:

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR IN COUNCIL.

IN pursuance of the powers and authorities vested in him by "The Agricultural and Pastoral Societies Act, 1877," His Excellency the Governor of the Colony of New Zealand, by and with the advice of the Executive Council of the said colony, doth hereby incorporate the members of the Poverty Bay Agricultural and Pastoral Association, and such persons as shall hereafter be admitted members of the said association agreeably to the rules of the said association and the provisions of the said Act, into a body corporate under the said Act, under the style and title of the Poverty Bay Agricultural and Pastoral Association.

ALEX. WILLIS,
Clerk of the Executive Council.

Declaring Northern Oyster Fishery, and Subdivisions wherein Oysters may and may not be taken.

GLASGOW, Governor.

IN pursuance of the power and authority vested in me by "The Oyster Fisheries Act, 1892" (hereinafter termed "the said Act"), I, David, Earl of Glasgow, the Governor of the Colony of New Zealand, do hereby declare that the bays, estuaries, tidal waters, and tidal lands situated between the south head of Whangaruru Harbour on the south and North Cape on the north (including the bays, estuaries, tidal waters, and tidal lands of any island situate between such points) to be an oyster fishery, under the name of "The Northern Oyster Fishery;" and I do hereby divide the same into three subdivisions, namely:—

First. "The Southern Subdivision," which shall extend from the south head of Whangaruru Harbour to the south side of the entrance to the River Waitangi, in the Bay of Islands; and shall include all the bays, estuaries, tidal waters, and tidal lands situated between these points.

Second. "The Middle Subdivision," which shall extend from the north side of the entrance to the Waitangi River, in the Bay of Islands, to Cape Wiwiki; and shall include all the bays, estuaries, tidal waters, and tidal lands situated between these points; and Third. "The Northern Subdivision," which shall extend from Cape Wiwiki to North Cape; and shall include all the bays, estuaries, tidal waters, and tidal lands situated between these points.

And I do hereby further declare and prescribe that it shall be lawful to take oysters, within the periods prescribed in that behalf, in the Southern Subdivision aforesaid; and that it shall be unlawful to take oysters in the said Middle and Northern Subdivisions of the oyster fishery aforesaid. And, further, that the said oyster fishery and the several subdivisions thereof shall be marked out by distinguishing posts or marks (to be approved by the Collector or Officer in Charge of Customs at the Port of Russell), in the manner provided by section eighteen of the said Act, as nearly as may be.

As witness the hand of His Excellency the Governor, this seventh day of September, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two.

GLASGOW, Governor.

WHEREAS by the two hundred and twenty-seventh section of "The Land Act, 1885," it is enacted that the Governor may from time to time, either by general or particular description, and whether the same has been surveyed or not, reserve from sale temporarily, notwithstanding that the same may be then held under pastoral license, any Crown lands which in his opinion are required for any of the purposes in the said section mentioned:

And whereas by the two hundred and twenty-eighth section of the said Act it is provided that land temporarily reserved under the said two hundred and twenty-seventh section may, at the expiration of one month but not later than six months after the publication in the Gazette of notice of such temporary reservation, be permanently reserved, and that notice of such permanent reservation shall be published in the Gazette:

And whereas the lands specified in the first column of the Schedule hereto were, by the warrants the dates of which are specified in the third column of the said Schedule, and the notifications of which were published in the Gazette specified in the fourth column, temporarily reserved under the authority of the said Act for the purposes specified in the second column of the said Schedule:

Now, therefore, I, David, Earl of Glasgow, the Governor of the Colony of New Zealand, in pursuance and exercise of the power and authority vested in me by the said Act, do hereby permanently reserve the lands so temporarily reserved as aforesaid, and enumerated in the first column of the Schedule hereto, for the purposes specified in the second column of the said Schedule, being the same purposes for which the said lands were so temporarily reserved as aforesaid.

Notice to Local Boards of Health (Borough Councils, Town Boards, &c.).

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Wellington, 5th September, 1892.

THE Central Board of Health, in view of the fact that Asiatic cholera now exists in many parts of Europe, and is apparently spreading, considers it expedient to call the attention of Local Boards of Health to the importance of at once ascertaining, by careful inspection and inquiry, that all sanitary arrangements in their districts are in a satisfactory condition, and that the sources of water-supply are free from any danger of contamination.

The Central Board would also urge upon Local Boards the necessity of enforcing generally the provisions of "The Public Health Act, 1876," and its amendments, and of any other enactments giving powers to local authorities in matters connected with the preservation of the health of the people.

P. A. BUCKLEY,
Colonial Secretary,
And Chairman, Central Board of Health.

P. A. BUCKLEY.

MOA ROAD BOARD.

RESULT of poll of ratepayers of the Richmond Special Rating District upon the following proposal, viz:—

(1.) To grade, form, and improve the Richmond Road from Lincoln Road northwards. (2.) To borrow for such purpose the sum of £160 under "The Government Loans to Local Bodies Act, 1886." (3.) To lay aside each year the sum of £8 from all revenue accruing to the road to provide the charges on the loan. (4.) To strike as security a special rate of 1½d. in the pound on all rateable value within the district hereinafter described. (5.) To constitute the Richmond Special Rating District, to comprise the following lands: Sections 215, 220, 221, 227, 229, 230, 232, 233, Huirangi.

Number of ratepayers on special roll, representing 1 vote each, 10; number of ratepayers who voted for the proposal, 6.

I hereby declare the proposal carried.

Notice to Mariners, No. 26 of 1892.

Marine Department,
Wellington, 2nd September, 1892.

THE following Notices to Mariners, received from the Department of Ports and Harbours, Melbourne, Victoria, are published for general information.

R. J. SEDDON.

VICTORIA.—PORT PHILLIP BAY.

(All bearings are magnetic.)

REFERRING to Notice to Mariners published the 14th September, 1891, regarding change of form and colour of buoys and beacons, it is hereby notified that during the last week of September, 1892, the existing North and South Channel buoys and wreck buoy in Cole's Channel will be removed, and in lieu thereof three upright cone buoys, painted red, will be substituted and moored in the positions indicated by the following bearings from the several proposed buoys:—

North Buoy: North-west edge of west sand, in 18ft. of water, High Light, Queenscliff, bearing S.S.W., and Pile Light, West Channel, E.  $\frac{3}{4}$  S.

Middle Buoy: Western edge of west sand, in 20ft. of water, with Pile Light, West Channel, bearing N.E.  $\frac{3}{4}$  E., and Red Bluff beacon N. by W.

South Buoy: South-west edge of west sand, in 18ft. of water, Pile Light, West Channel, bearing N.E. by N., and conspicuous tree on north end of Duck Island bearing N.W. by W.  $\frac{1}{4}$  W.

SOUTH CHANNEL.

Referring to Notice to Mariners published the 6th February, 1889, containing general information regarding lights, buoys, beacons, &c., notice is hereby given that on and after the 6th October, 1892, the green light shown from No. 15 gas buoy, eastern end of South Channel, will be removed, and in lieu thereof a white occulting light will be exhibited, showing therefrom eight flashes and eclipses every minute.

WRECKED STEAMSHIP "GAMBIER."

Referring to Notice to Mariners published the 28th August, 1891, regarding the position of the sunken wreck "Gambier," it is hereby notified that during the destruction and removal of the "Gambier," which operation commences forthwith, six buoys will be moored around the wreck, and distant therefrom about 300ft.

The signal lanterns and balls will continue to be exhibited as heretofore, either from the wreck or from a wreck-marking vessel, until such wreck has been removed.

The wreck lies distant from the Pope's-eye Fort about 5 cables, the fort bearing therefrom E. by S.  $\frac{3}{4}$  S., and Swan Beacon N.

Mariners are warned to give the position indicated a wide berth.

ALEXR. WILSON,
Engineer in Charge, Ports and Harbours.
Department of Ports and Harbours,
Melbourne, 8th August, 1892.

Notice of the Laying-off of a Road over Land in the Wellington Land District.

NOTICE is hereby given, by direction of His Excellency the Governor of the Colony of New Zealand, under the authority of "The Native Land Court Act, 1886," and its amendments, that the road described in the Schedule hereto was, in September, 1891, duly taken and laid off through the land specified in the said Schedule, under the authority of the Governor of the said colony, by a warrant of the date mentioned therein.

SCHEDULE.

ALL that area in the Nukumarū Survey District, containing by admeasurement 15 acres and 19 perches, more or less, being a road of not less than 100 links in width, the centre-line of which commences at a point on the southern boundary-line of the Rangitatau No. 1c Block (marked A on the plan hereinafter referred to) distant north 21618 links and east 12560 links from Mount Smith Trig. Station; and proceeds in a north-westerly direction over the said block to a point on its northern boundary (marked B on the plan hereinafter referred to) distant north 33853 links and east 5867 links from the above-named trig. station: be all the aforesaid linkages more or less; the same being more particularly delineated upon the plan marked P.W. 596, deposited in the District Land and Survey Office, Wellington.

Date of Governor's warrant, 22nd May, 1891.

Dated this 30th day of August, 1892.

JOHN MCKENZIE,
Minister of Lands.

Bonus for the Manufacture of Pig-iron from Ironsand or Iron-ore.

Mines Office,
Wellington, 24th February, 1892.

NOTICE is hereby given that a bonus of £1 per ton will be paid on the production of the first 500 tons of pig-iron of marketable quality manufactured in the colony after this date from magnetic or titaniferous ironsand or iron-ore, all material, fuel, and fluxes being the produce of New Zealand, on the following conditions, that is to say:—

1. The bonus must be claimed before the 31st March, 1893.

2. The bonus will be payable in instalments of £50 as each lot of 50 tons of iron is manufactured, on the certificate of an officer appointed by the Minister of Mines that the iron is of good marketable quality.

3. In the event of more than one person manufacturing the required quality of pig-iron before the date named, inquiry will be made by the officer above referred to, when, if it is found that each applicant is equally entitled to a bonus, the amount will be divided; but in no case shall the total amount of money paid by way of bonus exceed £500.

4. The iron in respect of which any bonus is claimed and the ironsand or ore from which it is manufactured will be examined by the officer aforesaid, who may require proof that not only the ore, but that the lime, coal, and any other material used in the manufacture, is of genuine New Zealand production, and that sales of pig-iron have been made at fair market prices.

R. J. SEDDON,
Minister of Mines.

Bonus for the Manufacture of Salt.

Mines Department,
Wellington, 24th February, 1892.

NOTICE is hereby given that a bonus of £1 per ton will be paid on the production of the first 500 tons of salt, exclusively either by evaporation of salt-water or from rock mined in the colony, on the following conditions, that is to say:—

1. The bonus must be claimed before the 31st March, 1893.

2. Not more than £250 will be paid for salt manufactured in the North Island, and not more than £250 for salt manufactured in the South Island.

3. The bonus will be payable in instalments of £50 as each lot of 50 tons of salt is manufactured, on the certificate of an officer appointed by the Minister of Mines that the salt is of good marketable quality.

4. In the event of more than one person manufacturing the stated quantity of salt in the North or South Islands respectively before the 31st March, 1893, inquiry will be made by the officer above referred to, when, if it is found that each applicant is equally entitled to a bonus in either the North Island or the South Island, the amount will be divided, but in no case shall more than £250 be paid for salt manufactured in the North Island and £250 for salt manufactured in the South Island.

5. The salt in respect of which any bonus is claimed and the material used in its manufacture will be examined by the officer aforesaid, who may require proof that the salt is of genuine New Zealand production, and that sales have been made at fair market prices.

R. J. SEDDON,
Minister of Mines.

Te Makarini Scholarships, held at Te Aute College, Hawke's Bay.

THREE scholarships of the yearly value of £35, tenable for two years, are offered for competition. One of these scholarships, to be called the senior scholarship, is open to all Maoris under sixteen years of age at the end of the month preceding the date of the examination; the other two scholarships are junior scholarships, and are open to all Maoris under fifteen years of age at the end of the month preceding the date of the examination who have not been pupils at Te Aute or St. Stephen's, and whose attendance at school during the previous year is considered by the Inspector of Native Schools to have been satisfactory. The senior scholarship is offered for competition among Maori boys on the conditions laid down in the regulations of the Trustees of the Te Makarini Scholarships Fund, as printed in the Native Schools Code, 1886, and in the supplementary regulations that have been sent out to all teachers. Candidates for the junior scholarships will be examined in the subjects specified for Standard IV. in the Native Schools Code, 1886. The questions set will, however, be more difficult than those given at the standard examinations. The examination will be held at convenient centres on the 19th and 20th December, 1892.

Candidates must, either directly or through their teachers, send notice to the Inspector of Native Schools, Education Department, Wellington, of their intention to present themselves for examination. Such notice must be posted not later than the 31st October next.

Copies of the regulations and forms of notice may be obtained from teachers of Native schools and boarding institutions, the Secretaries to Education Boards, or the Secretary for Education.

JAMES H. POPE,
Inspector of Native Schools.

Wellington, 31st May, 1892.

Civil Service Senior Examination.

Education Department,
Wellington, 16th September, 1891.

IN LIQUIDATION.

AT an extraordinary general meeting of the shareholders of the Clinton Meat-preserving Company (Limited), held at Clinton on the 8th day of August, 1892, the following extraordinary resolutions were passed:—

1. "That it has been proved to the satisfaction of the company that the company cannot, by reason of its liability, continue its business, and that it is advisable to wind up the same.
2. "That the company be wound up voluntarily; and that Angus McDonald, Donald Alexander McLachlan, and Henry Garforth be appointed Liquidators, at the usual remuneration." 476

In the matter of "The Companies Act, 1882," and of the Clinton Meat-preserving Company (Limited).

NOTICE is hereby given that a petition for the winding-up of the above-named company by the Supreme Court, or, in the alternative, subject to the supervision of the Supreme Court, was, on the 30th day of August, 1892, presented to Mr. Justice Williams by Charles Heath, of Clinton, late manager of the said company, a creditor of the said company; and the said petition is directed to be heard before His Honour Mr. Justice Williams, a Judge of the said Court, at Dunedin, on the 16th day of September, 1892, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon, and any creditor or contributory of the said company desirous to oppose the making of an order for the winding-up of the said company by the Supreme Court under the above Act, or, in the alternative, under its supervision under the above Act, should appear at the time of hearing, by himself or his counsel, for that purpose; and a copy of the petition will be furnished to any creditor or contributory of the said company requiring the same, by the undersigned, on payment of the regulated charge for the same.
