TO THE
NEW ZEALAND GAZETTE
OF
THURSDAY, OCTOBER 6, 1892.

Published by Authority.

WELLINGTON, MONDAY, OCTOBER 10, 1892.

Allocating Land reserved and taken for a Railway to the Purposes of a Road in Manganui Road District.

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS the land mentioned in the Schedule hereto forms part of land taken for the purposes of the Foxton and New Plymouth Railway, and it is considered desirable to allocate such land to the purposes of a road:

And whereas it has been certified by the New Zealand Railway Commissioners that such land is not required for railway purposes: And whereas such land is situated in the Manganui Road District, the local authority of which has consented to the issue of this Proclamation:

And whereas His Excellency the Governor is of opinion that the said local authority can conveniently construct and maintain the said road:

Now, therefore, I, David, Earl of Glasgow, the Governor of the Colony of New Zealand, in exercise and pursuance of the powers and authorities in me vested by section five of "The Public Works Acts Amendment Act, 1889," and of every other power and authority in anywise enabling me in that behalf, do hereby proclaim and declare that the land described in the Schedule hereto shall, upon the publication hereof in the New Zealand Gazette, become a road, and that the said road shall be under the control of the Manganui Road Board, and shall be maintained by the said Board in like manner as other public highways are controlled and maintained by the said Board.
