WELLINGTON, THURSDAY, JUNE 22, 1893.

Convention between Great Britain and Ecuador relative to Trade-marks.

Department of Justice,
Wellington, 22nd June, 1893.

THE following despatch, received from Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Colonies, is published for general information.

A. J. CADMAN.

Downing Street, 13th April, 1893.

SIR,—With reference to my circular despatch of the 24th October, 1892, enclosing a copy of a Convention between Great Britain and Ecuador relative to trade-marks, I have now the honour to state, for the information of your Government, that the ratifications of that Convention were exchanged at Quito on the 3rd February last, and I enclose, for publication in the colony under your government, a copy of the Convention as ratified and presented to Parliament.

I have, &c.,

RIPON.

The Officer administering the Government of New Zealand.

CONVENTION between GREAT BRITAIN and ECUADOR relative to Trade-marks: signed at Quito, 26th August, 1892; Ratification exchanged at Quito, 3rd February, 1893.—(English text.)

HER Majesty the Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, Empress of India, and His Excellency the President of Ecuador, desiring to conclude a Convention for the reciprocal protection of trade-marks and designs, have appointed as their Plenipotentiaries, that is to say,—

Her Majesty the Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, Empress of India, William Henry Doveton Haggard, Esq., Her Britannic Majesty's Minister Resident and Consul-General at Quito, &c., &c.; and

His Excellency the President of Ecuador, Señor Don Pedro Jose Cevallos, his Minister, Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, &c., &c.—

Who, having communicated to each other their full powers, found in good and due form, have agreed upon the following articles:—

ARTICLE I.

The subjects of each of the contracting parties shall have in the dominions and possessions of the other the same rights as are now granted, or may hereafter be granted, to native subjects or to subjects of the most favoured nations, in all that relates to trade-marks, industrial designs, and patterns.

In order that such rights may be obtained, the formalities required by the laws of the respective countries must be fulfilled.

ARTICLE II.

The stipulations of the present Convention shall be applicable to all the colonies and foreign possessions of Her Britannic Majesty, excepting to those hereinafter named—that is to say, except to India, the Dominion of Canada, Newfoundland, the Cape of Good Hope, Natal, New South Wales, Victoria, Queensland, Tasmania, South Australia, Western Australia, and New Zealand—provided always that the stipulations of the present Convention shall be made applicable to any of the above-mentioned colonies or foreign possessions on whose behalf notice to that effect shall have been given to Her Britannic Majesty's representative to the President of Ecuador within one year from the date of the exchange of the ratifications of the present Convention.

ARTICLE III.

The present Convention shall be ratified and the ratifications shall be exchanged at Quito as soon as possible.

It shall come into operation one month after the exchange of the ratifications, and shall remain in force until the expiration of one year from the day on which either party may give notice of its intention to terminate it.

In witness whereof the undersigned have signed the same, and have affixed thereto the seal of their arms.

Done in duplicate, at Quito, this twenty-sixth day of August, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two.

W. H. D. HAGGARD.
PEDRO JOSE CEVALLOS.
