Notice to be given under "The Native Claims and Trusts Definition and Registration Act, 1893."

GLASGOW, Governor.

By his Deputy,
JAMES PRENDERGAST.

ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government House, at Wellington, this seventh day of November, 1893.

Present:

HIS EXCELLENCY THE DEPUTY-GOVERNOR IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS by "The Native Trusts and Claims Definition and Registration Act, 1893" (hereinafter referred to as "the said Act"), it is among other things enacted that notice of the passing, and of the effect, of the said Act shall immediately be given to the Natives affected, in such manner as the Governor in Council determines:

Now, therefore, in pursuance and exercise of the power and authority conferred by the said Act, His Excellency the Governor of the Colony of New Zealand, by his duly-appointed Deputy, Sir James Prendergast, Knight, Chief Justice, acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of the said colony, doth hereby order and determine as follows:—

1. As soon as conveniently may be after the making of this Order in Council, a notice in the form or to the effect hereinafter set forth shall be given to the Natives affected by the said Act, by publishing such notice in the New Zealand Gazette in the English language, and by publishing a like notice in the Kahiti in the Maori language.

2. The Native Minister shall also cause inquiry to be made as to what Natives are affected by the said Act, so far as the same can be reasonably ascertained, and shall cause a like notice in the Maori language to be given to every such Native, by delivering the same to him or her personally, or by leaving the same at, or addressing it by post to, his or her usual or last-known place of abode.

3. Every such notice shall be signed by the Native Minister, or by some other Minister, being a member of the Executive Council of the colony, acting for such Native Minister, and may, when addressed to one or more individuals, be varied or altered as circumstances may require.

FORM OF NOTICE.

To all Native persons interested in lands in the Bay of Plenty which are referred to in "The Whakatane Grants Validation Act, 1878."

Notice is hereby given that the General Assembly of New Zealand has lately passed an Act the Short Title of which is "The Native Trusts and Claims Definition and Registration Act, 1893."

Section 2 of this Act relates to lands in the Bay of Plenty which have been granted to trustees under the circumstances mentioned in "The Whakatane Grants Validation Act, 1878," and a copy of the Schedule to the latter Act is set out in the First Schedule to this notice, showing what land was originally granted, to whom it was granted, and the nature of the trusts comprised in the grant. In "The Native Equitable Owners Act, 1886," the preamble states that in many cases grants have been made to Natives as absolute owners, when in fact they were only intended to be trustees for themselves and others, members of their tribe, or hapu, or otherwise; and then, in sections 2 to 5, inclusive, provision is made enabling the Native Land Court to inquire into the nature of the title of any Native interested in any such land, to declare who are the persons beneficially entitled thereto, and empowering the Court to declare such beneficial owners to be tenants in common of the land, as if their names had been inserted in the grant or certificate affecting such land. These sections are set out at length in the Second Schedule to this notice. By "The Native Trusts and Claims Definition and Registration Act, 1893," before mentioned, it is enacted that cestuis que trustent may apply to the Native Land Court to become certificated owners of the lands above-mentioned. The legal expression cestuis que trustent means persons for whom other persons are trustees. In this case the persons to whom the grant is made are the legal owners; and the persons who are entitled to the rents or proceeds of the land are the equitable owners. The effect, then, of the second section of the last-mentioned Act is that equitable owners of these lands mentioned in the First Schedule may apply to the Native Land Court, under "The Native Equitable Owners Act, 1886," to ascertain who are the persons beneficially entitled to such lands and to be declared the owners thereof as therein provided. Every such application would of course be dealt with in accordance with the law affecting it. Section 2 of "The Native Trusts and Claims Definition and Registration Act, 1893," is set out in the Third Schedule to this notice.

"The Native Equitable Owners Act, 1886" (Sections 2, 3, 4, and 5).

2. Upon the application of any Native claiming to be beneficially interested in any land as aforesaid, the Native Land Court of New Zealand may make inquiry into the nature of the title to such land, and into the existence of any intended trust affecting the title thereto.

3. According to the result of such inquiry the Court may declare that no such trust exists, or, if it finds that any such trust does or was intended to exist, then it may declare who are the persons beneficially entitled.

4. The Court may thereupon make order that the persons so declared entitled to such beneficial ownership shall be owners as tenants in common of the land the subject of such trust, and they shall be deemed to be such owners in like manner as if their names had been inserted in the certificate or grant affecting such land.

5. The foregoing enactments shall not apply where the land the subject of such certificate or Crown grant as aforesaid, or any share therein, has heretofore been sold or conveyed by such nominal owners or any of them or their successors; but this exception shall not apply to land in the South Island portions whereof have been disposed of to the Government: Provided always that no Native claimant shall have any claim on the Government, or be allowed to question the title of the Government to any land purchased by it. Where land subject to this Act is also subject to a lease for an unexpired term of years, any order made as aforesaid shall not prejudice the estate or term of the lessee, but the lessee after notice of such order shall pay any rent to accrue due under his lease to the Public Trustee, whose receipt shall be a good discharge for the same.

Such rent shall be paid out to and among the parties beneficially entitled in accordance with any partition or determination of interest as aforesaid.

Notice of the passing and of the effect of this Act shall immediately be given to the Natives affected, in such manner as the Governor in Council shall determine.

This block is situated on the New Zealand and Australian Land Company's Pareora Estate, to the south of the Pareora River, and west of the main line of railway, the nearest station on which is St. Andrew's, distant about two miles. The block is also connected with Timaru by the Main South Road, the distance being about eight miles. The sections comprise open, level, agricultural land, of good quality, at present laid down in English grasses. Substantial gorse and wire fences surround and intersect the block, and have, with two exceptions, been adopted as the boundaries of the allotments. The Otaio Water-race supplies some of the sections with a good stream of water, which could easily be led into other allotments by means of natural channels and branch races. On the sections which could not be served in this way water could probably be obtained by sinking shallow wells. All the roads surrounding the settlement are well metalled, and in good repair; the intersecting roads are unformed. Altogether the block is well adapted to the purpose for which it was acquired by Government—namely, the provision of homestead allotments of a convenient size for working-men, gardeners, and others.

As witness the hand of His Excellency Sir James Prendergast, Knight, Chief Justice, as such Deputy as aforesaid, this fourth day of November, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-three.

GLASGOW, Governor.
By his Deputy,
JAMES PRENDERGAST.

WHEREAS by section six of "The Hospitals and Charitable Institutions Act 1885 Amendment Act, 1886," it is provided that the Governor, by Order in Council, shall, before the month of November next ensuing, and at the same period in every third year thereafter, apportion the representation of the various contributory local authorities in any district on the Board of such district in the manner therein set forth:

And whereas it is necessary that regulations shall be made for the elections of members of the Boards of such districts by such contributory local authorities as are grouped together in terms of the above-mentioned section:

Now, therefore, His Excellency the Right Honourable David, Earl of Glasgow, the Governor of the Colony of New Zealand, by his duly-appointed Deputy, Sir James Prendergast, Knight, in exercise and pursuance of the powers vested in him by section ninety-nine of "The Hospitals and Charitable Institutions Act, 1885," doth hereby make and prescribe the regulations hereinafter set forth for the conduct of the said recited elections, and the proceedings incidental thereto, namely:—

1. The local authorities named in the first column of the Schedule hereto shall have respectively the number of votes set opposite them in the second column of the said Schedule, and their representative or representatives shall meet at the time and place set opposite the names of such local authorities in the third and fourth columns of the said Schedule respectively to elect such member or members as have been apportioned to such local authorities by Order in Council of the fourteenth day of October, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two.
