Notice of Request to amend Specification.

Patent Office,
Wellington, 20th February, 1895.

A REQUEST to be allowed to amend the specification (including drawings) relating to the under-mentioned application for Letters Patent has been received, and is open to public inspection at this office. Any person may, at any time within one month from the date of this Gazette, give me notice in writing of opposition to the amendment. Such notice must set forth the particular grounds of objection, and be in duplicate. A fee of 10s. is payable thereon:—

No. 7263.—12th November, 1894.—FREDERICK PRATT, of Sumner, Canterbury, New Zealand, Solicitor. An invention for improvements in aerating vessels or reservoirs used in combination with counter or bar fountains, or other appliances by which the aerated water is drawn off.

The nature of the proposed amendments is as follows, viz.:—

1. By striking out the words, &c., as follows, i.e., "A rose-nozzle or sprayer d (or other suitable device) is fitted to the lower end of the supply-pipe D (inside aerating vessel or reservoir), in order to finely divide the water so that it may present a large surface to the gas and be quickly aerated," pages 3 and 4, lines 70-76, and inserting in place thereof the following words, &c., viz.: "Attached to the lower end of the supply-pipe D, inside the aerating vessel or reservoir, is the device E for dividing the water in order to quickly aerate it. This device consists of a number of circular trays of metal fastened together in a perpendicular series, the bottoms of the trays being about three-quarters or an inch apart, and are perforated with small holes. The water falls on the top tray from the supply-pipe D, and in dripping through the trays from top to bottom becomes aerated. Other suitable devices might be adapted for the purpose."

2. By striking out the words "it will not be necessary to attach the spraying," page 4, lines 86-88, and by inserting before and after the word "device," page 4, line 88, the word "the" and letter "E" respectively.

3. By substituting for the words "as the water in oozing through," in lines 89 and 90, page 4, the words "may be fitted to the lower end of."

4. By striking out the words "and, dropping therefrom, will become sufficiently aerated," in lines 90-92, page 4.

5. By altering Figure I. of the drawings in accordance with the foregoing.

The reasons given by the applicant for the amendments are as follows:—

"I find that the sprayer d' fastened below the rose-nozzle d, although fulfilling its object, does not cause the water to be as well aerated as the device now specified, and also that it is better to fasten the device now specified below the filter, in order to give additional facility to the aeration of the water. This amendment does not involve any alteration and addition to the claim."
