EXTRA AND HONORARY CERTIFICATES OF COMPETENCY.

Extra Master.

14. Examination in Navigation.—The candidate will be required to work out and show the construction of any four of the problems* prescribed for the ordinary certificates, and to satisfy the Examiner in the oral subjects prescribed for those certificates. He must also be prepared to be examined in my of the following subjects, showing the construction of all the problems:—

- (a.) To work a lunar observation by either sun, star, or planet; and to compute the altitudes when they are not given.
- (b.) To find the latitude from double altitudes of the sun or of a star.
- (c.) To determine, from simultaneous observations of two different stars, the position of the ship, and the true bearing of the stars, by Sumner's method. The candidate may either determine the four longitudes from the two assumed latitudes which will be given, or solve the question in any other way he may choose.
- (d.) To find the error of a chronometer from the altitude of the sun or of a star, observed with an artificial or with the natural horizon.
- (e.) To explain clearly in writing the principles of—(1) great-circle sailing, (2) windward great-circle sailing, (3) composite great-circle sailing, and their advantages and disadvantages.
- (f.) To show approximately on a terrestrial globe the great-circle track and the distance from one given position to another; also the Latitude and longitude of vertex; and the longitude from vertex; and to explain how the track can then be transferred to a Mercator's chart.
- (g.) To determine the initial great-circle course, and the distance from one given position to another, the latitude and longitude of vertex, the longitude from vertex, and the latitudes and longitudes through which the great circle will pass; laying the track, composite or otherwise, down on a Mercator's chart, and explaining briefly how the course and distance from one point to another on this track is then found. This problem may, subject to the decision of the Examiner, be solved either by calculation, or by any tables, graphic method, or great-circle chart, known to and preferred by the candidate, but it will usually be set so as to leave the choice of method to the candidate.
- (h.) To draw a figure, and write down the trigonometrical ratios.
- (i.) Right-angled plane trigonometry; deducing and writing down the formula for each computation in the problem given.
- (j.) Oblique-angled plane trigonometry; deducing and writing down the formula, or the rule, for each computation in the problem given.
- (k.) To give Napier's rules for circular parts for the solution of right-angled spherical triangles, explaining clearly how the different angles and sides are considered in deducing the formulae.
- (l.) Right-angled spherical trigonometry.
- (m.) The laws of the deviation of the compass in iron ships.
- (n.) To construct a Mercator's chart.
- (o.) The law of storms. The candidate to write a paper of what he knows of this subject.

He must be prepared to answer viva voce questions on the following subjects:—

- (p.) The leading principles of the construction of the sextant and of the vernier.
- (q.) The civil duties of a shipmaster, in which he will be expected to show a more extensive knowledge and aptness than a candidate for an ordinary master's certificate.

* Either of the chart papers Exn. 9c or Exn. 9d may be given as one of these four problems.

† Two or three of these problems may usually be omitted, but all those set in the examination papers given to the candidate must be worked.

15. The construction of the problems mentioned in paragraph 14 must be shown as follows :-

- (a.) A circle should be drawn projected on the plane of the horizon—unless the problem can be solved better otherwise—and a correct figure drawn in it, the magnitude of the sides and angles being estimated approximately by the eye.
- (b.) The sides and angles used in solving the problem should be marked by distinguishing letters in the figure, and the candidate should for each fresh computation write down clearly what is given and what he is required to find, together with the formula which he proposes to "use."
- (c.) Opposite each quantity in the computation he should put the letters denoting the part of the triangle which it represents, writing "comp" before the letters when the quantity is the complement of that part of the triangle.

Candidates will not be required to enter into the mathematical investigation of the rules and formulae used in the solution of problems involving oblique-angled spherical triangles, but credit will be given to any candidate showing such knowledge. When, however, a problem or part of a problem is solved by right-angled spherical trigonometry, the simple process of deducing the formula from the figure, by Napier's rules for circular parts or other method, must be shown.

The rule for finding the latitude by meridian altitude must be proved by the figure.

16. Examination in Seamanship.—In addition to the qualifications required of an ordinary master, the extra master will be expected to give satisfactory answers to any questions in practical seamanship that the Examiner may think proper to put to him.

Extra Master of a Foreign-going Steamship.

17. Examination in Navigation.—The examination in navigation for an extra master's certificate for steamships will be precisely the same as that prescribed for an extra master's certificate.

18. Examination in Seamanship.—In addition to the qualifications required of a master of a foreign-going steamship, the extra master will be expected to give satisfactory answers to any questions appertaining to the management of a steamship that the Examiner may think proper to put to him.

FAILURE IN EXAMINATION.

19. In all cases of failure the candidate must be examined anew. If a candidate fails in seamanship he will not be re-examined until after a lapse of six months. Whether the whole or part of this period must be served at sea must depend upon the subjects in seamanship in which the candidate failed, but the amount of further sea service to be required will be left to the discretion of the Marine Department.

20. The Examiner, in making his report on Form Ea. 14., should state what amount, if any, of further sea service the candidate must perform, and he should also insert this information under Division H in Form Exn. 2.

21. If a candidate fails three times in navigation within three months, he will not be re-examined until after a lapse of three months from the date of the last failure.

22. Candidates form extra master's certificate, or form extra master's certificate for steamships, will not be allowed to present themselves for examination more than three times within a period of twelve months.

23. If a candidate has failed in his examination, but the subjects in which he has failed are not included in the subjects required for a certificate of a lower grade, he may, if he desires it, receive a certificate of such lower grade.

24. If a candidate fails in his examination half the fee will be returned to him.

25. If a candidate fails for bad spelling or writing, he will not be re-examined until after a lapse of at least three months. If he fails for ignorance of the English language, he will not be re-examined until after a lapse of six months.

26. If a candidate fails in seamanship so far as regards the management of square-rigged sailing-vessels, in his examination for an ordinary certificate, he may, if qualified as to service, without further formal application or further payment of fee, proceed with the examination for a certificate of competency for foreign-going steamships, or for fore-and-aft rigged vessels. And if a candidate fails in the same manner in his examination for an extra master's certificate, he may, under the same conditions as above, proceed with the examination for an extra certificate for steamships.

GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS TO EXAMINERS AND CANDIDATES.

27. All instruments necessary for use in the examinations are supplied by the Marine Department.

28. The examination papers of candidates must in all cases be sent to the Principal Examiner in Wellington for his approval together with the report of the examination on the form Exn. 14. The envelopes containing the examination papers when received from Wellington must on no account be opened by any other officer than the Examiner, and by him only at the commencement of the examination. After the envelopes have been opened, and until the examination papers are again sealed up and despatched to Wellington, the Examiner is expected to take special precautions to preclude the possibility of any person having access to them. The responsibility of insuring that this is effectually done will rest with the Examiner. The envelopes in which the examination papers are returned to the Principal Examiner must be carefully sealed with the official seal at both the top and the bottom, and this must be done under the eye of the Examiner. Should the envelope containing the examination papers appear to have been opened or in any way tampered with on its arrival from Wellington, the Examiner should, if he thinks it necessary, defer the examination until the following day, and telegraph immediately to the Principal Examiner in Wellington for a fresh set of papers. In the event of any case of this kind occurring, a full report of the circumstances, and of the steps taken in the matter, should be immediately forwarded to the Principal Examiner.

29. A candidate will not be allowed to undergo examination twice in the same week, unless, under very special and urgent circumstances, the Marine Department or the Examiner should see fit to relax this rule. In that case a special set of problems should be applied for from Wellington.

30. Before commencing the examination, the tables or desks must be cleared of all scraps of paper or books that are not used in the examination, and care should be taken that the candidates do not bring into the examination-room any book or paper of any description whatever. No person should be allowed in the room during the time of the examination, other than those whose duties require them to be present.

31. No instructors will be allowed on the premises.

32. Candidates will under no pretence whatever be allowed to leave the premises while the examination is proceeding. If a candidate has occasion to visit the retiring-room, he will only be allowed to do so on the completion of the paper on which he may be engaged.

33. Candidates should be so placed as to prevent one copying from the other, and a communication whatever between the candidates should be allowed.

34. A sheet of blotting-paper should be issued to each candidate with the first examination paper, and it must be returned to the Examiner when the last paper is completed each day. The Examiner will be careful to see that the blotting-paper has not been used by the candidate in solving his problems, or for conveying information to other candidates.

35. The examination papers should be issued to the candidates in half-sheets only, and one at a time. This will prevent a candidate from spreading out the sheets on the table so as to enable his nearest neighbour to look over the problems. It will also enable the Examiner to look over and report upon the work on one half-sheet while the candidate is at work upon another, and so on. When the errors are not too numerous the incorrect problems may be returned to the candidate for correction, but in no case should the errors be pointed out by the Examiner, neither should any marks be made which would indicate how far or to what extent the work is correct. The incorrect problems should not, however, be returned to the candidate for correction a second time, and should more than one of the problems, or two, if the errors are only slight, be still incorrect, this would involve a failure. It must be understood, however, that the day's work, latitude by meridian altitude of sun and star, chronometer problem by sun and star, and the Sumner problem must always be correct.

36. At those ports where, from the large number of the candidates, it may sometimes be found impossible to look over the work on the day of examination during the office-hours, an hour in the morning of the following day may be allotted for the purpose of correcting the problems, but in no case should a candidate have his problem returned to him for correction after he has made the second attempt.

37. In the examinations for certificates as extra master and extra master of a steamship the candidate will be required to complete the whole of his problems and other papers, and they will be dealt with by the Examiner on their merits as a whole on the mark system. If the candidate does not obtain 85 per cent. of the total number of marks allotted for the papers he will be declared to have failed.

38. The visá voce part of the examination for the certificates will be conducted on the same principle as at present.

39. The examination will commence with a quarter-of-an-hour's dictation to test handwriting and spelling. This, however, is only to be given to those candidates who present themselves for examination for the first time for a foreign-going certificate. The spelling must be reasonably and fairly good, and the writing clear and legible. The spelling and writing of a candidate must be satisfactory, and in cases where there is any doubt about the ability of a candidate to spell correctly he should be specially tested by dictation as at present.

40. The paper of definitions is only for those candidates who present themselves for examination for the first time for a foreign-going certificate.

41. In using this paper the Examiner will place a mark against the questions which he wishes to be answered, not less than ten questions being so selected. The candidate will then write against the questions so marked his definition of the terms in a clear and legible hand, so as to prevent the possibility of any letter being mistaken, and also draw a rough sketch or diagram opposite to each of the questions which he has given written answers, in further illustration of its meaning. The supplementary visá voce test should also be applied as usual.

42. In the questions on the deviation of the compass the Examiner will mark at least twelve of the questions, including the problems. The selected questions will be varied frequently, and no two candidates will have precisely the same questions. The candidate will be furnished with sheets of the blank ruled paper which is supplied for the purpose, with instructions that he is to write only on one side of the paper, and to answer in a clear and legible hand each of the questions against which a mark is placed, and to commence each answer by writing down the number of the question to which it relates in the margin. In answering Question 33, on the tentative method of compass adjustment, the candidate will be tested by Beall's compass deviascope, and it will not therefore be necessary for him to give the written answer and sketcher. A candidate for an extra master's certificate will not be required to answer the questions on the deviation of the compass on Form Exn. 7, but will be examined by the syllabus and "compass deviascope."

43. The examination on the barometer, thermometer, and hydrometer, prevailing winds and currents of the globs, trade routes, and tides, will for the present be conducted orally, and the questions asked by the Examiner, which will be constantly varied, will be confined to and based on the information given in the prescribed text-books, and candidates will be required to have a fair and intelligent knowledge of the contents of those books.

44. Particular attention should be paid to the adjustments of the sextant, the examination in which subject will be conducted orally and practically. Every candidate will be examined practically as to his knowledge of the adjustments, and the use of the various screws; he must be able to read correctly off the arc, a supposed index error being given by the Examiner as additive, as well as reading on the arc in the usual way; he must also be able to find the index error both by the horizon and by the sun.

45. All outstanding or minor corrections should appear in the margin of each problem paper, and on the other papers, and the papers of the candidate will not be considered complete without these corrections.

46. In the visá voce examination a reasonable time should be allowed for the candidate to give his answers. No assistance should be given or leading question put.

47. Examiners should bear in mind that the problems to be solved are required as tests, and for the purposes of an examination, and not for sea-going or practical purposes alone.

48. The candidates will be allowed to work out the various problems according to the method and the tables they have used, accustomed to use.

49. All the problems given in the examinations, both for the ordinary and extra candidates, will be constantly varied; and the mode of stating the times in the astronomical problems, and the mode of wording and setting these and all other problems, will be varied in every possible way, so as to insure that the candidate has a proper knowledge of the subject.

Time allowed for the Papers.

50. Candidates for second mates' ordinary certificates of competency must complete the whole of their examination in navigation in nine hours, including the time allowed for writing the definition on Form Em. 4a, the paper on the chart, and the correction of all errors and oversights; but the quarter-of-an-hour's dictation and all the nautical problems (excepting chart) must be completed within six hours, and without the candidates leaving the premises during that period.

51. Candidates for only and first mates' ordinary certificates must complete the whole of their examination in navigation in twelve hours, including the time allowed for the papers on the chart; cyclones or revolving storms; and the correction of all errors and oversights; but the nautical problems up to and including (k) of the syllabus prescribed for only and first mate must be completed within six hours, and without the candidates leaving the premises during that period.

52. Candidates for ordinary certificates as masters must complete the whole of their examination in navigation in fifteen hours, including the time allowed for the papers on the chart; compass deviation; cyclones or revolving storms; and for the correction of all errors and oversights; but the problems up to and including (k) of the syllabus prescribed for only and first mate must be completed within six hours, and without the candidates leaving the premises during that period.

53. Candidates, after finishing the problems required in the various grades on the first day of examination, should proceed, until the end of that day, with such subjects as the definitions, chart, questions relating to cyclones, compass deviation, &c.

54. The Summer problem must on no account be given out to any of the candidates on the first day of the examination, but should form the commencement of the candidates' work on the second day, and on completion of this problem the candidates for masters' certificates should proceed with the problems (a), (b), (c) of the syllabus for that grade.

55. Candidates for foreign-going steamship certificates of competency will be allowed the same amount of time to complete their navigation work as is allowed in the case of ordinary certificates.

56. Candidates for certificates as masters of pleasure yachts will be allowed the same amount of time for completing their examination as the candidates for ordinary masters' certificates.

57. Extra Masters' Certificates.—The time allowed to candidates for certificates as extra master and extra master of a steamship to complete the whole of the problems and writings, including the compass syllabus, must not exceed twenty-six hours.

58. Deviation of the Compass.—A period not exceeding eleven hours will be allowed to candidates for the completion of the whole of the examination in the syllabus, including the correction of all errors and oversights in both the problems and writings.

59. Punctually at the expiration of the prescribed time all papers will be collected, whether completed or not. If the papers are not completed the candidate will be declared to have failed, unless the Marine Department or the Examiner should see fit to lengthen the period in any special case.

Where such an extension of time is granted, the case must be fully reported to the Marine Department on the Form Exn. 14. It should be noted that the periods prescribed in the foregoing paragraphs were not intended to include the time occupied by the visá voce part of the examination.

60. It is anticipated that but few of the candidates for certificates of competency will require the whole of the time herein allowed for completing their examination in navigation, but ample time has been allowed, so that candidates may perform their work in a careful, clear, and legible manner.

61. Degree of precision required in the solution of the problems:—

- Candidates are expected to work out their answers to all problems where the answer required is a latitude, longitude, or distance within $1\frac{1}{2}'$ of position from a correct result; in finding the ship's position by Sumner's method a margin of $2\frac{1}{2}'$ will be allowed.
- In such problems as the "amplitude" and "alt-azimuth," where the bearing, deviations, &c., only are required, a margin of 3' or 4' from a correct result will be sufficiently accurate.
- In no problem is the candidate for an ordinary certificate required by the regulations to correct for second differences in taking out the quantities from the Nautical Almanac.
- In solving the time-azimuth problems an answer not exceeding half a degree from the exact result will be sufficiently near. But in all cases the actual latitude, declination, and time used, together with the exact bearing from the north or south as given in the tables, must be clearly shown by the candidate on his papers.
- In computing the time at which a given star will be on the observer's meridian, and the name of the stars near the meridian (paragraphs (b) and (e) of syllabus for only and first mate's examination), an approximation only is required, and it will be sufficiently precise if the candidate works throughout with the nearest minute of time. In computing the approximate meridian altitude of a star, paragraph (g), working throughout with the nearest minute of arc will also be sufficiently close.

- (f.) In interpolating for the correct deviation to be applied in solving the chart questions, it will usually be sufficient if the candidate works throughout with the nearest degree of deviation taken from the deviation card; and even in cases where the deviations may vary but little, the nearest half-degree used throughout will be sufficiently precise. It is not necessary that the candidate should waste his time in solving the course to odd minutes, as is sometimes done.
- (g.) In calculating the correction to apply to soundings, the candidate is not required to work to the exact inch, as is sometimes done. It will be sufficient if he brings his answer within half a foot or so of a precise result.
- (h.) In the lunar problem a difference of 3' in the longitude from the correct answer as deduced by a rigorous method by spherical trigonometry will be allowed.

It must be clearly understood in reading the foregoing instructions as to the precision required, that they only apply when the work of the candidate is correct in principle.

Supplementary Vivâ Voce Examination on the Written Papers.

62. Candidates for certificates of competency are not only expected to give correct written answers to the questions set in the papers, but are also expected to possess an intelligent knowledge of the various subjects prescribed in the regulations.

63. The Examiner will therefore put a few vivâ voce questions to the candidate as the papers are brought up for inspection, or during the course of the examination. The questions, which will be based on the papers set, will be such that the Examiner may satisfy himself that the candidate possesses a real knowledge of what he has written.

64. When an Examiner finds it necessary to fail a candidate in this supplementary vivâ voce test, a statement to that effect will be made on the candidate's examination papers before they are forwarded to the Principal Examiner in Wellington.

SPECIAL NOTICE TO CANDIDATES.

65. Candidates are required to appear at the examination-room punctually at the time appointed.

66. Candidates are prohibited from bringing into the examination-room books or papers of any kind whatever. The slightest infringement of this regulation will subject the offender to all the penalties of a failure, and he will not be allowed to present himself for re-examination for a period of three months.

67. In the event of any candidate being detected in defacing, blating, writing in, or otherwise injuring any book or books or any of the forms belonging to the department, the papers of such candidate will be detained until the book or books so defaced are replaced by him. He will not, however, be at liberty to remove the damaged book, which will still remain the property of the department. We will further subject himself to all the penalties of a failure.

68. In the event of any candidate being discovered referring to any book or paper, or copying from another, or affording any assistance or giving any information to another, or communicating in any way with another, during the time of examination, or copying any part of the problems for the purpose of taking them out of the examination-rooms, he will be subject to all the penalties of a failure, and will not be allowed to be examined for a period of six months.

69. No candidate will be allowed to work out his problems on a slate or on waste-paper, or to write on the blotting-paper supplied for his use in the examination. Violation of this rule will subject the candidate to all the penalties of a failure.

70. No candidate will be permitted to leave the examination-room without permission, and until he has given up the paper on which he is engaged. Violation of this rule will subject the candidate to all the penalties of a failure.

71. Candidates will find it more convenient, both during the examination and at sea, to correct the declination and other elements from the Nautical Almanac by the hourly differences which have been given in that work; they will thereby render themselves independent of my proportional or logarithmic table for that purpose.

72. The corrections by inspection of tables given in some of the works on navigation—e.g., Tables IX., XI., and XXI. in Norie's Epitome will not be allowed; every correction must appear on the papers of the candidates.

73. Perfect silence is to be preserved in the examination-room.

74. Any candidate violating any of the regulations, or being guilty of insolence to the Examiner, or of disorderly or improper conduct in or about the room, will render himself liable to the postponement of his examination, or, if he has passed, to the detention of his certificate for such period as the Marine Department may direct.

VOLUNTARY EXAMINATION IN STEAM AND ELECTRICITY.

75. On and after the 1st January, 1898, candidates for the voluntary examination in steam will be required to show a practical knowledge of electricity as applied on board ship.

CERTIFICATES OF COMPETENCY AS MASTERS OF PLEASURE YACHTS.

76. Examination in Navigation.—On and after the 1st January, 1898, the examination in navigation will be the same as that prescribed for an ordinary master's certificate, except that in the civil duties of a shipmaster the master of a yacht will only be expected to possess a knowledge of what he is required to do by the Imperial Merchant Shipping Act and the New Zealand Shipping and Seamen's Acts.

Examination in Seamanship.—The examination in seamanship will remain as laid down in the Examination Regulations of the 6th December, 1894.

W. C. WALKER,
For Minister of Marine.

AUSTRALIAN STATION.

"Orlando," at Sydney,
2nd April, 1896.

(Hydrographic Notice No. 17.)

(1.) Cowes, Port Western.

THE "Karrakatta" reports that Cowes Pier is incorrectly placed on Chart No. 1707; it is one-third of a mile west of the position shown on the chart.

There is a red buoy N. by W. $\frac{1}{2}$ W., two and a half cables, from the end of the pier.

Charts affected, Nos. 1707 and 1695b.

Sailing directions—Australian Directory, Vol. i., page 366. ("Karrakatta," Note No. 1, 13th February, 1896; Office No. 474.)

(2.) Auckland, New Zealand.

The flagstaff formerly on Dépôt Point does not now exist. A flagstaff has, however, been put up in the Admiralty Ground, close to Calliope Dock. It is in front of a small cottage where the caretaker of the Admiralty Ground resides, and from it the following angles were taken to fix its position:—

Hospital, 26° 37', Roman Catholic Church.

Resolution Point, 33° 20', Hospital.

Scotch Church, 11° 31', Chimney, Britomart Point.

Hobson's Point, 64° 14', Scotch Church.

With reference to Australian Station Hydrographic Notice No. 12, of 9th January, 1896, paragraph 9, information has been received from the Hydrographer that Coetlogan Shoal, which is not shown on some copies of Chart No. 1380, should be inserted.

Department of Agriculture (Live-stock Branch),
Wellington, N.Z., 14th December, 1895.

The following are the conditions :-

1. All applications for the bonus must be sent addressed to the Hon. the Minister for Agriculture, Wellington, New Zealand, and must reach him not later than 31st May, 1896. Each application must be accompanied by a full description of the means proposed to be adopted.

2. The Government shall appoint a committee of three or more experts, to whom all applications shall be submitted. Such committee shall, after perusal, state what schemes they deem worthy of further consideration, and are satisfied may be used with absolute safety.

On completion of the committee's preliminary investigations each applicant will be notified of the decision arrived at, and whether or not his individual scheme will be further inquired into.

The committee may afterwards inspect the whole or any of the schemes at any place or places within the colony, or may direct that the whole or any of them be submitted for trial at such time and place as they may think fit.

1. A suitable piece of rabbit-infested land shall be allowed to each applicant (of whose scheme the committee have approved), and on which he will have full power to carry out a trial of his scheme for a period not exceeding two years.

2. Each applicant on expiry of the period named shall submit a detailed and accurate statement of the actual cost incurred in testing his scheme.

On the expiry of the period named the committee shall as soon as convenient thereafter (should they deem it necessary) make a personal inspection of each applicant's allotment, and shall take into consideration—

1. The actual cost incurred by each applicant in testing his scheme for the period above mentioned.

2. The result of the work done on each allotment.

On completion of the tests the committee shall furnish a report to the Minister on all the schemes which they have examined or tested, and shall state—

1. The scheme which they consider on the whole the most practical, efficient, and economic; and if they consider such scheme worthy of the bonus.

2. Whether, in the event of no one scheme being entitled to the whole bonus, they deem any one worthy of a part, and, if so, how much.

The committee has power to withhold all awards if they think none of the schemes submitted of sufficient importance to merit a bonus.

A sum not exceeding 6d. per acre may be paid to each competitor whose scheme is accepted for test by the committee, and who, in the opinion of the committee, has done work deserving of recognition.

Bonuses for Encouragement of New Zealand Hemp (Phormium tenax) Industry.—Notice No. 430.

Department of Agriculture,
Wellington, 1st November, 1895.

Bonus No. 1.

A BONUS of £1,750 is offered for a machine or process for dressing New Zealand hemp (Phormium tenax) which shall be an improvement on the machines or processes now in use, and which shall, after trial, be found to materially reduce the cost of production, improve the product, or increase the quantity of dressed fibre.

The following are the conditions :-

1. All applications for the bonus must be sent addressed to the Hon. the Minister for Agriculture, Wellington, and must reach him not later than the 31st March, 1897. Each application must be accompanied by a description of the machine or process, particularly stating improvements on present machines or processes, and also the cost at which the machine or process can be supplied.

2. The applicants must be prepared to submit their machines or processes to examination at such time and place as the Government may direct.

3. The Government shall appoint a committee of three or more experts, to whom all applications shall be submitted. Such committee shall, after perusal, state what machines or processes they deem worthy of consideration, and may inspect the same at any place within the colony; and, having so inspected the whole or any of them, may direct that the whole or any of them be brought for further trial to such place as they may think fit.

The cost of bringing the machines or appliances on to the ground, from within the colony, supplying the necessary shafting, motive-power, and buildings, to be defrayed by the Government. If any machine sent from beyond the colony is awarded the bonus or part thereof, then the cost of bringing such machine shall be borne by the Government.

The following shall be the basis of the test:—

The committee shall take into consideration—

The cost of labour and time required after the fibre has left the machine or process before it is ready for baling;

The percentage of dressed fibre and tow produced by each machine or process;

The cost of producing the same;

The cost of the machine, and the simplicity and durability of the working parts.

On completion of the tests the committee shall furnish a report to the Minister on all the machines or processes which they have examined or tested, and shall state,—

(1.) The machine or process which they consider on the whole the most efficient and economic.

(2.) Whether they consider that any machine or process tested so materially reduces the cost of production, or improves the product, as to be worthy of the whole bonus or of a part only.

(3.) Whether, in the event of no one machine or process being entitled to the whole bonus, they deem any machine or process worthy of a part of the bonus, and, if so, how much.

Bonus No. 2.

A bonus of £250 is offered for a process of utilising the waste products of the hemp.

The first three conditions of Bonus No. 1 to apply to this also.

The committee shall supply a sufficient and equal quantity of the waste products to each process as a test.

On completion of the tests the committee shall report to the Minister, and shall give the following particulars of each process: (a.) The nature of the article made. (b.) The quantity produced, and the cost of production. (c.) The value of the product. (d.) Whether any of the processes are of sufficient importance to warrant the Minister in giving (1) the whole, or (2) any part, of the bonus; (3) if a part only, how much.

This run is situated on the dividing-range between the Hakateramea and Waihao Rivers, inland of Waimate, and comprises high open hilly country, with generally broad and flat ridges, intersected by deep gullies. The soil varies in quality from fair to good—that on the main tops and southern faces having a cold appearance, whilst other parts are very rocky. The vegetation comprises the ordinary silver-tussock and other native grasses, with an admixture of English grasses; snow-grass is common on the higher lands and southern faces. The general elevation of the country ranges from about 1,500ft. to about 3,500ft. above sea-level. The distance from Waimate by the Pentland Hills road is about twenty-eight miles, all but about three miles of the distance being practicable for drays. The run is also connected with the Sandhurst Railway-station by the Hakateramea Valley and branch roads. The land is adapted only for pastoral purposes, and during the winter is subject to heavy falls of snow.

CONDITIONS OF LEASE.

1. The term of lease is twenty-one years, with the option of renewal for a further period of twenty-one years, at a rent to be fixed by valuation, and improvements being secured to lessee as provided by "The Land Act, 1892," section 182. Each lessee is required to make the declaration as per form printed below.
2. No person can lease more than one run.

* Owing to the altitude of the country and the absence of a suitable homestead-site, the Land Board will be prepared to consider an application from the successful applicant for exemption from residence in terms of sections 143 and 143 of "The Land Act, 1892."

5. One half-year's rent and £1 ls. for the lease, and the sum of £233 7s., being the value of fencing and sheep-yards, must be paid immediately the application is declared successful; the rent to be paid half-yearly in advance during the term of the lease. The next payment of rent will become due on the 1st March, 1897.

6. The lessee has no right to purchase any part of the land; but he can select 150 acres around the homestead through which no road can be taken or other public privilege exercised without compensation.

This section is situated on the northern shore of Lake Ellesmere, about two miles and a quarter to the south-westward of the Greenpark Railway-station on the Little River branch line of railway, and comprises areas both above and below the flood-level. The portion above flood-level consists generally of light sandy soil carrying medium pasture, chiefly rye-grass and clover. The area below flood-level comprises light sandy soil with inferior pasture.

It must be distinctly understood that when the lake and rivers are in flood all the contiguous low-lying lands are subject to inundation, and liable to be under water for long periods. When the lake is low cattle and sheep graze on the low-lying areas, and apparently thrive thereon, provided they have access also to dry pasture. It must be borne in mind that, owing to the fact that the lake fluctuates about 6ft. in level, the area of dry land is very limited as compared with the area liable to flood. With due regard to these facts the land is, in the main, well adapted for grazing. The Taipapu Dairy Factory is about three miles and a half from Greenpark.
