ROBERT J. COLLINS,

Accountant to the Treasury.

J. K. WARBURTON,

Controller and Auditor-General.

THE accounts making up the sum of £11,601 12s. 6d. referred to above had not been received in the Treasury from departments at the time of the closing of the books for the past financial year, and therefore could not be included in the accounts of the year. It is, however, admitted by the Audit Office that "such a contingency has been of invariable occurrence, and may in some measure be unavoidable, notwithstanding the requirements of section 71 of 'The Public Revenues Act, 1891.'" See certificate of Audit Office to the Abstract of Revenue and Expenditure for the Financial Year ended 31st March, 1899.

Treasury, Wellington, 10th May, 1900.
