Writ for the Election of Member of the House of Representatives for Northern Maori Electoral District.

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Wellington, 8th December, 1900.

THE following writ for the election of a member of the House of Representatives of New Zealand for the Northern Maori Electoral District, constituted under "The Maori Representation Act, 1867," is published in the New Zealand Gazette in accordance with the provisions of "The Electoral Act, 1893."

HUGH POLLEN,
Under-Secretary.

VICTORIA, by the Grace of God, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and of the Islands of New Zealand, &c., Queen:

To EDWARD CLARE BLOMFIELD, Esquire, Returning Officer for the Northern Maori Electoral District: Greeting.

WHEREAS it is necessary that an election of a member of the House of Representatives of New Zealand shall take place: Now, therefore, we do hereby require and command you to cause to be elected by the voters duly qualified for that purpose, freely and indifferently, and in manner and form by law and regulations in this behalf prescribed, a legally qualified person to serve as a member of the said House of Representatives for the Northern Maori Electoral District: And we do hereby further require and command that you cause the nomination of the said member to be at the Courthouse, Kororaraka, on the nineteenth day of December, one thousand nine hundred, and the polling, in case it shall be required, to be at the several polling-places on the ninth day of January, one thousand nine hundred and one; and that this our writ, with the name of the person so elected indorsed thereon by you, shall be returned to us here on or before the thirtieth day of January, one thousand nine hundred and one.

In witness whereof His Excellency Uchter John Mark, Earl of Ranfurly, the Governor and Commander-in-Chief of New Zealand, has caused the Public Seal of the Colony of New Zealand to be hereunto affixed, at Wellington, the seventh day of December, one thousand nine hundred.

RANFURLY, Governor.
