WELLINGTON, WEDNESDAY, APRIL 17, 1901.

Further proroguing the General Assembly.

RANFURLY, Governor.

To the LEGISLATIVE COUNCILLORS of the Colony of NEW ZEALAND and the MEMBERS elected to serve in the HOUSE of REPRESENTATIVES of the said Colony, summoned and called to a Meeting of the General Assembly of the said Colony, at the City of Wellington, on the eighteenth day of the month of April, one thousand nine hundred and one, to have been commenced and held, and to every of you—GREETING:

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS on the twentieth day of February, one thousand nine hundred and one, the General Assembly of New Zealand was prorogued to the eighteenth day of the month of April, one thousand nine hundred and one, at which time you were held constrained to appear: Now KNOW YE that for divers causes and considerations I have thought fit to relieve you and each of you of your attendance at the time aforesaid, hereby convoking and by these presents enjoining you and each of you that on Saturday, the eleventh day of May next, you meet in Parliament, at the City of Wellington, there to take into consideration the state and welfare of the said Colony of New Zealand, and therein to do as may seem necessary.

(L.S.) Given under the hand of His Excellency the Right Honourable Uchter John Mark, Earl of Ranfurly; Knight Commander of the Most Distinguished Order of Saint Michael and Saint George: Governor and Commander-in-Chief in and over His Majesty's Colony of New Zealand and its Dependencies; and issued under the Seal of the said Colony, at the Government House, at Wellington, this sixteenth day of April, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and one.

R. J. SEDDON.

GOD SAVE THE KING!
