nine hundred and five, respectively) is compulsorily taken under the said Acts.

(L.S.) PLUNKET, Governor.

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS by a notice published in the New Zealand Gazette of the twelfth day of February, one thousand nine hundred and three, it was therein stated that it was the intention of the Governor to take compulsorily, under the powers in that behalf conferred by "The Land for Settlements Consolidation Act, 1900," and its amendment, the lands mentioned in such notice:

And whereas, in pursuance of such notice, a claim for compensation was made by Sir George Hugh Charles Clifford, Bart., Walter Lovelace Clifford, Francis Charles Clifford, and Charles William Clifford, and the claim has been determined by the Compensation Court sitting at Blenheim, in the Provincial District of Marlborough, in manner provided by such Acts:

And whereas, in pursuance of the said Acts, an order was made by the said Court on the seventeenth day of December, one thousand nine hundred and four (now duly filed in the office of the Supreme Court at Blenheim aforesaid), declaring the land which the Minister is entitled to take, being the land specified in the Schedule hereto: And whereas, pursuant to leave granted by the said Court, the requisition of the Minister was duly amended, and the said claimants duly amended their claims: And whereas, in further pursuance of the said Acts, a separate order was made by the said Court sitting at Blenheim aforesaid on the nineteenth day of April, one thousand nine hundred and five, declaring the amount of compensation and costs to be paid in respect to the taking of such land, which order is now duly filed in the office of the Supreme Court at Blenheim:

Now, therefore, I, William Lee, Baron Plunket, the Governor of the Colony of New Zealand, in pursuance and exercise of the power and authority conferred upon me by the said Acts, and of all other powers and authorities in anywise enabling me in that behalf, do hereby proclaim and declare that the land described in the Schedule hereto (being the land specified in the aforesaid Orders dated the seventeenth day of December, one thousand nine hundred and four, and the nineteenth day of April, one thousand
