WELLINGTON, MONDAY, APRIL 30, 1906.

Prescribing Oyster License Fee for North Island.

PLUNKET, Governor. ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government House, at Wellington, this thirtieth day of April, 1906.

Present:

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS it is enacted by section five of "The Seafisheries Amendment Act, 1903," that the annual fee payable in respect of a license under section sixteen of the principal Act shall be such sum (not exceeding two pounds) as the Governor in Council determines, and that such Order may apply generally to the whole of New Zealand, or to any specified part thereof, and so that such fee may vary in different parts of New Zealand:

And whereas the fee payable in respect of a license in the North Island and the islands adjacent thereto was, by Order in Council dated the tenth day of April, one thousand nine hundred and five, and published in the New Zealand Gazette of the twentieth day of the same month, determined and declared to be one pound:

And whereas it is desirable to revoke the said Order in Council of the tenth day of April, one thousand nine hundred and five, and to determine another fee in lieu of that determined in such Order in Council:

Now, therefore, His Excellency the Governor of the Colony of New Zealand, in exercise of the hereinbefore-recited power and authority, and of all other powers and authorities enabling him in that behalf, and acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of the tenth day of April, one thousand nine hundred and five, and doth hereby determine and declare that the annual fee payable in respect of a license to take ovsters under section sixteen of "The Sea-fisheries Act, 1894," in the North Island and islands adjacent thereto shall be one pound ten shillings.

ALEX. WILLIS, Clerk of the Executive Council.

Declaring Auckland Oyster-fishery, and Portions in which it is lawful and unlawful to take Oysters.
