WELLINGTON, FRIDAY, DECEMBER 7, 1906.

Assets Realisation Board to cease to exist.

PLUNKET, Governor.
ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government House, at Wellington, this seventh day of December, 1906.

Present:

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS by section twenty-two of "The Bank of New Zealand Act, 1903," it is enacted that at the respective times therein mentioned or referred to the Chief Auditor shall cause the properties then vested in the Assets Realisation Board to be valued, and the actual deficiency between such value and the amount of the outstanding debentures of the said Board, with the interest due or accruing due thereon, to be ascertained: And whereas by section twenty-three of the same Act it is enacted that if on making any such valuation, and the confirmation thereof by the Valuer-General, it is found that the assets of the said Board are sufficient to meet the outstanding liabilities of that Board, the Governor may by Order in Council declare that the said Board shall, from a date to be named in the order, cease to exist: And whereas it hath been shown to the satisfaction of the Governor in Council that valuations as aforesaid have been duly made, and have been confirmed by the Valuer-General, and that the assets of the said Board are sufficient to meet the outstanding liabilities of that Board:

Now, therefore, His Excellency the Governor of the Colony of New Zealand, in pursuance and exercise of the power and authority vested in him by the hereinbefore-in-part recited Act, and acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of the said colony, doth hereby declare that the Assets Realisation Board shall from the seventeenth day of December, one thousand nine hundred and six, cease to exist.

J. F. ANDREWS,
Acting Clerk of the Executive Council.

Additional Regulations under "The Beer Duty Act, 1880."

IN exercise of the powers in me for this purpose vested by "The Beer Duty Act, 1880" (hereinafter termed "the said Act"), and of all other powers and authorities in this behalf enabling me, I, John Andrew Millar, Minister of Customs, do hereby revoke the regulations made by me on the 30th day of November, 1906, and do hereby make and prescribe the following regulations for the administration of the said Act, and declare that they shall take effect upon the 8th day of December, 1906, and shall be read with the Customs Regulations made and gazetted on the 27th day of December, 1888.

Given under my hand, at Wellington, this seventh day of December, one thousand nine hundred and six.

J. A. MILLAR,
Minister of Customs.

Minister's Order No. 827.]

REGULATIONS.

1. No permit under section 32 of "The Beer Duty Act, 1880," shall be granted or, if hereafter lawfully granted, shall be used for the removal of beer from a brewery to any depot, warehouse, or other place of storage or sale, as mentioned in that section, situate within any licensing district where for the time being no licenses exist as the result of a licensing poll, or within five miles of the boundary of any such district.

2. For the purpose of preventing evasions of duty and insuring the better administration of the aforesaid Act, it is hereby declared that, except in special cases and with the previous consent in writing of the Collector of the district in which any place of storage or sale as aforesaid is situate, it shall not be lawful to remove beer from such place of storage or sale between the hours of 5 o'clock in the evening and 8 o'clock of the following morning.
