

SUPPLEMENT

TO THE

NEW ZEALAND GAZETTE

OF

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 12, 1907.

Published by Authority.

WELLINGTON, THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 12, 1907.

Colony of New Zealand to be styled Dominion of New Zealand.

Prime Minister's Office,

Wellington, 12th September, 1907.

BY resolutions passed by the House of Representatives on the 12th July, 1907, and by the Legislative Council on the 16th July, 1907, addresses were forwarded to His Majesty the King respectfully requesting that the necessary steps might be taken to change the designation of New Zealand from the Colony of New Zealand to the Dominion of New Zealand; and it is hereby notified that His Majesty the King, by Order in Council dated 9th September, 1907, and by Proclamation issued 10th September, 1907, has been graciously pleased to change the style and designation of the Colony of New Zealand to "The Dominion of New Zealand"; such change to take effect on and from Thursday, the 26th day of September, 1907.

JOSEPH GEORGE WARD,

Prime Minister.

Tutor

Analyse

1. The first part of the document is a general introduction to the project, outlining the objectives and the scope of the work. It also mentions the names of the project manager and the team members.

2. The second part of the document is a detailed description of the project's goals and objectives. It explains why the project is important and what the team hopes to achieve through it.

3. The third part of the document is a description of the project's methodology. It explains the different steps that the team will follow to complete the project, from planning to execution and evaluation.

4. The fourth part of the document is a description of the project's budget and resources. It explains how much money the project will cost and what resources the team will need to complete it.

5. The fifth part of the document is a description of the project's risks and challenges. It explains what potential problems the team might face and how they plan to deal with them.

6. The sixth part of the document is a description of the project's timeline and milestones. It explains when the project will start and end, and what the team expects to accomplish at different points in time.

7. The seventh part of the document is a description of the project's communication plan. It explains how the team will stay in touch and how they will report progress to their superiors.

8. The eighth part of the document is a description of the project's conclusion and next steps. It explains what the team will do after the project is completed and how they will evaluate the project's success.