WHEREAS the land known as Awapuni 1A, situate in the Land District of Hawke's Bay, is held under a partition order of the Native Land Court bearing date the thirteenth day of October, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six, and is part of the land originally comprised in a memorial of ownership bearing date the twenty-fourth day of October, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-seven:

And whereas amongst the owners of the said land there appears the name of Tawa Wakaatere:

And whereas it is alleged that the name of the said Tawa Wakaatere was erroneously inserted in the said memorial of ownership, and that the name of one Rota Wakaatere should have appeared therein instead of the name of the said Tawa Wakaatere:

And whereas section two of "The Land Titles Protection Act, 1902," provides, inter alia, that in the case of Native land the validity of any order of the Native Land Court which has subsisted for not less than ten years prior to the passing of that Act shall not be called in question in any Court unless with the consent of the Governor in Council first had and obtained:

Now, therefore, His Excellency the Governor of the Dominion of New Zealand, in pursuance and exercise of all powers and authorities in that behalf vested in him by "The Land Titles Protection Act, 1902," and acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of the said Dominion, doth hereby consent to inquiry being made by the Native Land Court to ascertain whether or not the name of the said Tawa Wakaatere was erroneously inserted in the aforesaid memorial of ownership, and whether or not the name of Rota Wakaatere was intended to be inserted in such memorial of ownership in lieu of the name of the said Tawa Wakaatere, and for the purpose of rectifying such error (if any) doth hereby authorise the said Court to make such amendment in the said memorial of ownership, and in any documents of title issued pursuant thereto, as to the said Court shall appear to be necessary and equitable.

THE "NEW ZEALAND NAUTICAL ALMANAC AND TIDE-TABLES," AND SUPPLEMENT TO THE "NEW ZEALAND PILOT," EDITION 1901.

Marine Department,
Wellington, N.Z., 19th November, 1907.

NOTICE is hereby given that the Marine Department has now published the "New Zealand Nautical Almanac and Tide-tables," and supplementary information to date relating to the "New Zealand Pilot," edition 1901.

The work contains altogether 380 pages, twenty-four folded plans of New Zealand harbours and wharves, three coloured maps of New Zealand, one illustrating the different kinds of lighthouses, and the others showing the railway and steamer communication up to date.

There is also a twofold coloured page giving the international code flags, and illustrating their use in signalling by single, two-flag, three-flag, and four-flag hoists.

About a dozen of the single pages in different parts of the book are illustrated by diagrams, semaphore and flag signals, &c., some of which are coloured.

Besides the information, with plans, about the principal harbours of New Zealand, there are this year no less than eighty pages supplementary to the "New Zealand Pilot," edition 1901, to keep that work up to date. Twenty-five pages have been given this year of cautions and information, &c., relating to fires on ships. Several pages are devoted, as in previous editions, to courses and distances around New Zealand, and to many oversea ports; composite and great circle courses having been calculated with great care between New Zealand and South African ports, and also between New Zealand ports and Cape Horn.

The work may be obtained at the shipping offices at Auckland, Wellington, Lyttelton, and Dunedin, at the Customhouses in other ports, and from any booksellers who stock it, price 2s.

Examination of Masters and Mates in Signalling.

Marine Department,
Wellington, N.Z., 19th November, 1907.

IN pursuance and exercise of the power vested in me by section 23 of "The Shipping and Seamen Act, 1903," I do hereby revoke the rule as to the examination in signalling which was made on the 12th April, 1907, and published in the New Zealand Gazette of the eighteenth day of the same month, and I do hereby make the following additional rule for the conduct of examinations of masters and mates, and do order that it shall come into force on the 1st day of January, 1909.

J. A. MILLAR,
Minister of Marine.

RULE.

CANDIDATES for the extra master's certificate will, in addition to the ordinary examination in the method of signalling dealt with in the International Code and British Signal Manual, be required to show practical proficiency in both the Morse and movable semaphore methods of signalling—i.e., the ability to make and take in signals by both these methods with reasonable speed and accuracy.

This examination will also be open to officers holding, or candidates for, certificates of competency as master or mate, as a voluntary examination, and, should the candidate pass the examination, the fact, with the date and place of passing, will be recorded on his certificate of competency. The fee for this voluntary examination will be £1. Attention is drawn to the fact that the Pyrotechnic Morse Code at present given in the British Signal Manual will in the new edition now in preparation by the Admiralty be omitted. The Board of Trade have in consequence decided that this code shall not form a subject of the examination.

Candidates for all grades of certificates will be required to be conversant with the Morse and semaphore alphabets, and with the British Signal Manual.

Education Department,
Wellington, 6th November, 1907.

NOTICE is hereby given that the sum of £3,000 has been voted by Parliament for distribution to public libraries.

The distribution will take place on the 4th February, 1908, and no claim will be entitled to consideration that shall not have been sent in in due form and received by the Secretary for Education, Wellington, on or before the 27th January, 1908.

1. A library to be entitled to a subsidy must be public in the sense of belonging to the public, and of not being under the control of an association, society, or club whose membership is composed of a section of the community only, and if within a borough it must be open to the public free of charge. The receipts for the year from subscriptions and donations must not have been less than £2, exclusive of moneys received from endowments, or from Government, or from Borough or County Councils, or for special building purposes, or as rent, hire, or consideration for the use of any room, or building, or land belonging to the institution, in respect of none of which will subsidy be allowed. The net proceeds of concerts, lectures, or other entertainments on behalf of the current expenses of the library will be regarded as voluntary contributions. A subsidy will not be given to more than one library in the same town.

2. In the division of the vote a nominal addition of £25 will be made to the amount of the income of each library derived from subscriptions, donations, and rates, and the vote will be divided according to the amounts thus augmented; but no library will receive credit for a larger income than £75—that is, in no case will the augmented amount on which distribution is based exceed £100.

3. The whole of the subsidy must be expended without delay in the purchase of books for the library.

4. Application to share in the distribution must be by means of a statutory declaration by the Chairman, or Secretary, or Treasurer of the institution on behalf of which it is made, and must be accompanied by a statement of the receipts and expenditure of the institution for the year ending on the 31st day of December, 1907; and such declaration must be on the form provided for the purpose, which form shall be as follows:—

DECLARATION.

I, [Name], of [Place of abode], [Occupation], do solemnly and sincerely declare that I am Chairman [or Secretary, or Treasurer] of the [Name of institution]; that during the year ending on the 31st day of December, 1907, the receipts of the aforesaid institution for the maintenance of the library only were as follows: From rates levied by a local governing body under "The Public Libraries Act, 1869," or "The Municipal Corporations Act, 1900," pounds shillings and pence; from the subscriptions of members, pounds shillings and pence; and from voluntary contributions other than members' subscriptions, pounds shillings and pence; that the library is public in the sense of belonging to the public, and is not under the control of an association, society, or club whose membership is composed of a section of the community only; that the information hereinafter furnished by me in the appendix hereto is correct in every particular; that the abstract of accounts is a true statement of the receipts and expenditure of the institution for the year herein specified; that the whole of the subsidy received during the year was expended in the purchase of books for the library; and that by the rules of the library it is open to the public free of charge.

Locality and Description.

Tekapo Village is situated at the southern end of Lake Tekapo, on the eastern side of the Tekapo River. It is distant twenty-six miles from Fairlie Township and Railway-station, and fronts upon the main road from Fairlie to Mount Cook Hermitage, being connected with both places by motor-car service. The position of the village on the shore of Lake Tekapo, which extends for eighteen miles into the midst of the mountains, the high altitude (2,360 ft. above sea-level), the dry and bracing climate, the magnificent view, and the proximity to mountain and glacier scenery, all combine to render the village admirably adapted for a week-end or holiday resort for town residents and others.
