Appointment of a Deputy of the Governor.

TO ALL TO WHOM THESE PRESENTS SHALL COME, I, WILLIAM LEE, Baron Plunket, Knight Commander of the Most Distinguished Order of Saint Michael and Saint George, Knight Commander of the Royal Victorian Order, the Governor and Commander-in-Chief of the Dominion of New Zealand and its Dependencies—SEND GREETING.

WHEREAS by a Commission passed under the Royal Sign-manual and Signet bearing date at Saint James's the twentieth day of November, one thousand nine hundred and seven, His Majesty the King was pleased to appoint me to be Governor and Commander-in-Chief in and over the Dominion of New Zealand and its Dependencies, with all and singular the powers granted to the Governor and Commander-in-Chief of the Dominion in Letters Patent under the Great Seal of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, bearing date at Westminster the eighteenth day of November, one thousand nine hundred and seven, as in the said Commission is particularly set forth :

And whereas in the said Letters Patent it is, among other things, provided that, in the event of the Governor having occasion to be temporarily absent for a short period from the seat of Government or from the Dominion, he may in every such case, by an instrument under the Public Seal of the Dominion, constitute and appoint the Lieutenant-Governor, or, if there be no such officer, then any other person, to be his Deputy during such temporary absence, and in that capacity to exercise, perform, and execute for and on behalf of the Governor during such absence, but no longer, all such powers and authorities vested in the Governor by the said Letters Patent as in and by such instrument are specified and limited, but no others: Provided, nevertheless, that by the appointment of a Deputy as aforesaid the power and authority of the Governor shall not be abridged, altered, or in any way affected otherwise than His Majesty may at any time thereafter think proper to direct:

And whereas I have occasion to visit the Cook Islands, and in so doing shall be temporarily absent from the seat of Government and from the Dominion for a short period, and, there being no Lieutenant-Governor in the Dominion, I have deemed it expedient to appoint a Deputy during such temporary absence, with such powers and authorities on my behalf as are hereinafter mentioned:

Now, therefore, know ye that, for the purposes aforesaid, and in pursuance and exercise of the power and authority vested in me by the hereinbefore-in-part-recited Letters Patent, and of every other power and authority enabling me in that behalf, I, the said WILLIAM LEE, Baron Plunket, as such Governor as aforesaid, do, by these presents issued under the Public Seal of the Dominion of New Zealand, constitute and appoint the Honourable Sir JAMES PRENDERGAST, Knight, to be my Deputy during the period of my temporary absence as aforesaid—that is to say, from the date of my departure from the seat of Government until the date of my return there—and in that capacity for me and on my behalf to exercise, perform, and execute all the powers and authorities vested in me as such Governor by the said Letters Patent.

And I hereby declare that the power and authority hereby conferred shall commence and take effect upon and after the fifteenth day of June, one thousand nine hundred and nine.

And I expressly direct that my said Deputy shall, in the exercise of all or any of the said powers and authorities, conform to and abide by the requirements of any law, statute, or regulation in force in the Dominion respecting the same, and also to the hereinbefore-in-part-recited Letters Patent and the Royal Instructions accompanying the same so far as they are applicable.

(L.S.) In witness whereof I have caused these presents to be passed under the Public Seal of the Dominion of New Zealand, and have hereunto set my hand, this fifteenth day of June, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and nine.

PLUNKET.
