WHEREAS the Feilding Borough Council did, on the twenty-sixth day of January, one thousand nine hundred and nine, by special order, make a special rate of one-seventieth of a penny in the pound for providing the interest and other charges on a loan of four hundred and twenty-five pounds, authorised to be raised by the Council of the Borough of Feilding, under the provisions of "The Local Bodies' Loans Act, 1908," for paying the Council's share of cost of construction of Lower Gorge Bridge in terms of Governor's Warrant, duly gazetted on the twenty-sixth day of April, one thousand nine hundred and six: And whereas the said special order, making and levying the said special rate of one-seventieth of a penny in the pound on the rateable value of all the rateable property of the Borough of Feilding, was duly passed at a properly constituted special meeting of the Council of the said borough on the twenty-sixth day of January, one thousand nine hundred and nine, and was duly published once in each week for a period of four weeks thereafter, but was not published once in each full week intervening between the date of the passing of the said special order and the date of its confirmation on the fourth day of March, one thousand nine hundred and nine, as required by paragraph (c) of section sixty-five of "The Municipal Corporations Act, 1908":

And whereas it appears that the ratepayers have not been misled by such irregularity, and it is expedient to validate the same:

Now, therefore, His Excellency the Governor of the Dominion of New Zealand, in pursuance and exercise of the powers and authorities conferred by section one hundred and twenty-one of "The Local Bodies' Loans Act, 1908," and acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of the said Dominion, doth hereby order and declare that the said special order shall be and be deemed to have been as good and effectual as if such special order had been duly published once in each full week intervening between the two meetings, and that such special order shall not be called into question by reason only of any such irregularity as aforesaid.

11. The said rights, powers, and privileges may be at any time resumed by the Governor, without payment of any compensation whatever, on giving to the company three calendar months' previous notice in writing. Any such notice shall be sufficient if given by the Minister, and delivered at or posted to the last known registered office of the company in New Zealand.
