WELLINGTON, WEDNESDAY, JUNE 22, 1910.

Assumption of the Government of New Zealand by Lord Islington.

ISLINGTON, Governor.

A PROCLAMATION.

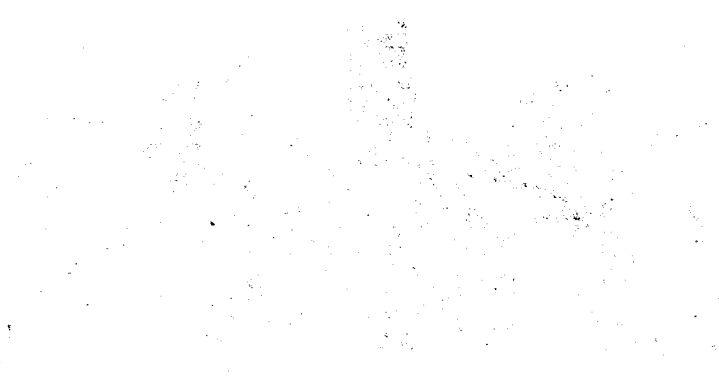

WHEREAS His late Majesty King Edward the Seventh was graciously pleased, by a Commission passed under the Royal Sign-manual and Signet, bearing date at Saint James's, the fourth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and ten, to constitute and appoint me, John Poynder, Baron Islington, to be Governor and Commander-in-Chief in and over His Majesty's Dominion of New Zealand and its Dependencies:

Now, I, the Governor and Commander-in-Chief aforesaid, do hereby proclaim and declare that I have this day taken the prescribed oaths before His Honour Sir Robert Stout, Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of New Zealand, and that I have assumed the said office of Governor and Commander-in-Chief in and over the Dominion of New Zealand and its Dependencies under and by virtue of His Majesty's said Commission.

(L.S.) Given under the hand of His Excellency the Right Honourable John Poynder, Baron Islington, Governor and Commander-in-Chief in and over His Majesty's Dominion of New Zealand and its Dependencies; and issued under the Seal of the said Dominion, at the Government House, at Wellington, this twenty-second day of June, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and ten.

J. G. WARD.
