Northern District (except Poverty Bay) Stonemasons.—Recommendations of Conciliation Council.

WHEREAS an industrial dispute has arisen between the Auckland Stonemasons' Industrial Union of Workers and the Auckland Builders' Association and others: the following are the recommendations of the Council of Conciliation for the settlement of the dispute.

RECOMMENDATIONS.

Hours of Work.

1. THE recognized hours of work shall be forty-four per week—viz., from 8 a.m. till 5 p.m. on the first five days, and from 8 a.m. till 12 noon on Saturdays. One hour shall be allowed for dinner, from 12 noon till 1 p.m. From the 1st May till the 31st July the hours of work shall be from 8 a.m. till 4.45 p.m. on the said five days, in which case three-quarters of an hour shall be allowed for dinner, from 12 noon till 12.45 p.m. Notwithstanding anything in this clause relating to the dinner-hour, the employer and employee may agree to fix such time between half an hour and one hour for the meal-time, as shall be deemed desirable to suit the convenience of the parties, but in no case shall this be allowed to extend the specified hours of work before 8 a.m. or after 5 p.m. or beyond the forty-four hours per week.

Rate of Wages.

2. The minimum wage for journeymen stonemasons shall be 1s. 7d. per hour.

Piecework.

3. No piecework other than kerb and turning shall be allowed in the trade. When kerbs are worked piecework the minimum rates for such work shall be, per foot: 6 in., 1s. 3d.; 8 in., 1s. 6d.; 10 in., 1s. 9d.; 12 in., 2s.

Tools.

4. (a.) Employers shall provide patent axes and dummies.
(b.) When a workman is discharged, or at the completion of any work, all tools shall be sharpened at the employer's expense, or the workman shall be paid an equivalent in money.

Overtime and Holidays.

5. (a.) All time worked beyond the recognized hours of labour as herein mentioned shall be considered as overtime, and shall be paid for at the rate of time and a quarter for time worked between the hours of 5 p.m. and 8 p.m., at the rate of time and a half for time worked between the hours of 8 p.m. and midnight, and at the rate of double time between the hours of midnight and the hours fixed under this award for commencing the ordinary day's work, and at the rate of time and a half for time worked between the hours of 12 noon and midnight on Saturdays.

(b.) Work done on New Year's Day, Easter Monday, Labour Day, or birthday of reigning sovereign shall be paid for at the rate of time and a quarter between 8 a.m. and 10 a.m., time and a half between 10 a.m. and midnight, and double time between midnight and the hours fixed under this award for commencing work on an ordinary day.

(c.) Double time shall be paid for any work done on Sunday, Good Friday, or Christmas Day.

Under-rate Workers.

6. (a.) Any worker who considers himself incapable of earning the minimum wage fixed by this award may be paid such lower wage as may from time to time be fixed, on the application of the worker, after due notice to the union, by the Inspector of Awards or such other person as the Court may from time to time appoint for that purpose; and such Inspector or other person, in so fixing such wage, shall have regard to the worker's capability, his past earnings, and such other circumstances as such Inspector or other person shall think fit to consider, after hearing such evidence and argument as the union and such worker shall offer.

(b.) Whenever occasion arises for so fixing a worker's wage, it shall be fixed for such period, not exceeding six months, as such Inspector or other person shall determine, and after the expiration of the said period, until fourteen days' notice shall have been given to such worker by the secretary of the union requiring him to have his wage again fixed in manner prescribed by this clause; provided that in the case of any person whose wage is so fixed by reason of old age or permanent disability it may be fixed for such longer period as such Inspector or other person shall think fit.

(c.) Notwithstanding the foregoing, it shall be competent for a worker to agree in writing with the president or secretary of the union upon such wage without having the same so fixed.

(d.) It shall be the duty of the union to give notice to the Inspector of Factories of every agreement made with a worker pursuant hereto.

(e.) It shall be the duty of an employer before employing a worker at such lower wage to examine the permit or agreement by which such wage is so fixed.

Payment of Wages.

7. Wages shall be paid weekly, and in money, wherever the work is being performed, and in the employer's time.

Sanitary Arrangements.

8. Employers shall provide necessary sanitary conveniences for their workers.

Sheds.

9. Employers shall, whenever it is reasonably practicable, erect suitable sheds for the use of their workers.

General Conditions.

10. All stonework required for any building, with the exception of light coring and templates, shall be worked and fixed by stonemasons employed by the builder, or in the event of the builder subletting the work the subcontractor must supply all material, labour, and plant necessary for working, fixing, and finishing the work.

11. No stonework shall be deemed light coring which is more than 9½ in. in height. Stonework beyond that dimension shall be fixed by duly qualified stonemasons, provided such are available.

12. Cleaning-down, pointing joints, or anything connected with cut stonework which requires the use of a stonemason's tools shall be done by masons only.

Country Work.

13. "Country work" means work performed by a journeyman or apprentice which necessitates his lodging elsewhere than at his usual place of abode.

14. Any workman or apprentice employed upon country work shall be conveyed by his employer to and from such work free of charge, or his travelling-expenses going to and returning from such work shall be paid by his employer, but once only during the continuance of the work, if such work is continuous and the workman or apprentice is not in the meantime recalled by his employer. The time occupied in travelling shall be paid for at the ordinary rates, but no man shall be paid more than an ordinary day's wage for any day occupied by him in travelling, although the hours occupied may exceed eight, unless he is upon the same day occupied in working for his employer. When the distance requires workmen employed upon country work to sleep away from their homes, an additional allowance of 15 per cent. upon the amount of their wages for the time so occupied shall be paid to them, and their employer shall also provide them with tents or other suitable sleeping-accommodation.

Suburban Work.

15. When the work to be performed is distant more than a mile and a half from the corner of Karangahape Road and Symonds Street, in the City of Auckland, the workman shall be paid at the ordinary rate for the time reasonably occupied in walking to and from such work; provided he shall not be paid for the time occupied in walking the first mile and a half from the corner of Karangahape Road and Symonds Street. But in the event of any workman residing within the mile and a half of such work he shall not be paid for the time occupied in travelling thereto. When the work is more than three miles from the corner of Karangahape Road and Symonds Street the employer shall provide a conveyance, or pay tram or train fares; but by whatever means he is conveyed the workman shall be paid for the time travelling by such conveyance before 7.30 a.m. and after 5 p.m. from the 1st May until the 31st July, and before 7.30 a.m. and after 5.30 p.m. from the 1st August until the 30th April.

Apprentices.

16. The proportion of apprentices to journeymen shall not exceed one apprentice to every three journeymen or fraction of three.

17. Any employer taking an apprentice to learn the trade shall be deemed to undertake the duty which he agrees to perform as a duty enforceable under this award, and shall pay apprentices not less than the undermentioned rates of wages—namely, for the first year, 10s. per week; for the second year, 15s. per week; for the third year, £1 per week; for the fourth year, £1 5s. per week; for the fifth year, £1 10s. per week.

18. The period of apprenticeship shall be five years, but three months' probation shall be allowed the first employer of any apprentice to determine his fitness, such three months to be included in the period of apprenticeship. The obligation of the apprentice to serve his employer shall be deemed to be a duty enforceable under this award.

19. At the end of the period of apprenticeship the employer shall give the apprentice a certificate to show that he has served his apprenticeship. Should the employer at any time before the termination of the apprenticeship wish, for any reason, to dispense with the services of the apprentice, he shall give him a certificate for the time served, and procure him another employer carrying on business within a reasonable distance of the original employer's place of business, who will continue to teach the apprentice, to pay him the wages prescribed by this award according to the total length of time he has served, and generally to perform the obligation of the original employer; provided that it shall not be obligatory upon an employer to find the apprentice another employer if he shall so misconduct himself as to entitle the employer to discharge him, but he shall give him a certificate covering the time actually served.

20. An employer taking an apprentice shall give notice thereof, and of the name of the apprentice, to the Inspector of Factories within one week after the expiration of the period of probation; and an employer transferring an apprentice to another employer shall give notice of such transfer to the Inspector within one week thereof.

21. An employer shall not be deemed to discharge his duty towards his apprentice if he fails to keep him at work owing to slackness of work, but such slackness may form a proper ground for transferring him to a master willing to undertake the responsibility of teaching him.

22. When an apprentice is discharged for cause the employer shall send notice of the discharge, and of the cause thereof, to the Inspector of Factories.

23. All time lost by an apprentice, either through his own default or through sickness, in any year of his apprenticeship shall be made up before such apprentice shall be considered as having entered upon the next succeeding year of his apprenticeship.

Preference.

24. If and so long as the rules of the union shall permit any person who is of good character and sober habits now employed in the trade in this industrial district, and any person residing or who may hereafter reside in this industrial district, and who is of good character and sober habits, to become a member of the union upon payment of an entrance fee not exceeding 5s., and of subsequent subscriptions not exceeding 6d. (whether payable weekly or not) per week, upon a written application of the person so desiring to join, without ballot or other election, then and in such case and thereafter employers shall employ members of the union in preference to non-members, provided that there are members of the union equally qualified with non-members to perform the particular work required to be done and ready and willing to undertake it. This clause shall not interfere with engagements legally subsisting between employers and non-unionists at the date of this award, and any employer may continue to employ any journeyman then legally employed by him as heretofore, although such journeyman may not be a member of the union. This clause shall apply to all places within ten miles of a place where a book is kept in terms of the next clause.

25. The union shall keep at the office of the Inspector of Factories, or such other place at the Court may by order appoint, in the City of Auckland, and also at some convenient place within one mile of the chief post-office at each other town where preference is intended to be claimed, a book to be called the "Employment-book," wherein shall be entered the names and exact addresses of all members of the union for the time being out of employment in the city or town in which such book is kept, with a description of the branch of the trade in which each member claims to be proficient, and the names, addresses, and occupations of every employer by whom such member shall have been employed during the preceding one year. Immediately upon such member obtaining employment a note thereof shall be entered in such book. The executive of the union shall use their best endeavours to verify all the entries contained in such book, and the union shall be answerable as for a breach of this award in case any entry therein shall in any particular be wilfully false to the knowledge of any officer of the union, or in case the executive of the union shall not have used reasonable endeavours to verify the same. Such book shall be open to every employer without fee or charge at Auckland during office hours if kept at the office of the Inspector of Factories, and otherwise and at other localities at all hours between 8 a.m. and 5 p.m. on every working-day except Saturday, and on that day between the hours of 8 a.m. and noon. If the union shall fail to keep such Employment-book in the manner prescribed by this clause, then and in such case, and so long as such failure shall continue, any employer may, if he shall so think fit, employ any person or persons, whether a member of the union or not, to perform the particular work required to be done, notwithstanding the foregoing provisions. Notice by advertisement in the New Zealand Herald and Auckland Star newspapers, published in Auckland, and in a local newspaper circulating at any other town, shall be given by the union of the respective places where such Employment-book is kept, and of any change in such place. The preference hereinbefore given shall not apply to employers at any other town unless a branch of the union has been established and is maintained there.

Term of Engagement.

26. It shall be necessary for an employer to give a journeyman one hour's notice prior to his dismissal, and it shall be necessary for a journeyman to give his employer one hour's notice that he is about to leave his employment.

Monumental Masons' Work.

27. The provisions of this award shall not apply to monumental masons' work, but any monumental mason employing masons upon building work other than monumental work shall come under the provisions of this award.

Scope of Award.

28. This award shall not apply to any employers in the Poverty Bay District, which lies outside a line drawn from the East Cape along the main range to the boundary of the Wellington Industrial District.

Term of Award.

29. Three years.
