Further Proroguing the General Assembly.

LIVERPOOL, Governor.

To the LEGISLATIVE COUNCILLORS of the Dominion of New Zealand, and the MEMBERS elected to serve in the HOUSE of REPRESENTATIVES of the said Dominion, summoned and called to a Meeting of the General Assembly of the said Dominion, at the City of Wellington, on the tenth day of the month of April, one thousand nine hundred and thirteen, to have been commenced and held, and to every of you: GREETING.

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS on the tenth day of March, one thousand nine hundred and thirteen, the General Assembly of New Zealand was prorogued to the tenth day of the month of April, one thousand nine hundred and thirteen, at which time you were held constrained to appear: Now KNOW YE that for divers causes and considerations I have thought fit to relieve you and each of you of your attendance at the time aforesaid, hereby convoking and by these presents enjoining you and each of you that on Thursday, the eighth day of May next, you meet in Parliament, at the City of Wellington, there to take into consideration the state and welfare of the said Dominion of New Zealand, and therein to do as may seem necessary.

(L.S.) Given under the hand of His Excellency the Right Honourable Arthur William de Brito Savile, Earl of Liverpool, Knight Commander of the Most Distinguished Order of Saint Michael and Saint George, Member of the Royal Victorian Order, Governor and Commander-in-Chief in and over His Majesty's Dominion of New Zealand and its Dependencies; and issued under the Seal of the said Dominion, at the Government House, at Wellington, this second day of April, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and thirteen.

The first part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions. It emphasizes that every entry should be clearly documented and supported by appropriate evidence. This includes receipts, invoices, and other relevant documents that can be used to verify the accuracy of the records.

In addition, the document highlights the need for regular audits and reviews. By conducting periodic checks, any discrepancies or errors can be identified and corrected promptly. This helps to ensure the integrity and reliability of the financial information being reported.

Furthermore, the document stresses the importance of transparency and accountability. All parties involved in the process should be kept informed of the progress and any potential issues. This fosters trust and ensures that everyone is working towards the same goals.

Finally, the document concludes by reiterating the significance of thorough record-keeping. It serves as a foundation for sound decision-making and provides a clear trail of activity that can be referenced at any time.
