WELLINGTON, TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 3, 1914.

Prohibiting the Export of Wool except to Specified Places.

LIVERPOOL, Governor.

ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government House at Wellington, this second day of November, 1914.

Present:

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS by section forty-seven of the Customs Act, 1913, as extended by section twenty-four of the Regulation of Trade and Commerce Act, 1914, it is enacted that the Governor may from time to time, by Order in Council gazetted, prohibit the exportation of any goods the prohibition of the exportation of which is in his opinion necessary in the public interest: And whereas in the opinion of the Governor it is necessary in the public interest that the exportation of wool, except as hereinafter specified, should be prohibited:

Now, therefore, His Excellency the Governor of the Dominion of New Zealand, in pursuance and exercise of the powers and authorities conferred upon him by section forty-seven of the Customs Act, 1913, and section twenty-four of the Regulation of Trade and Commerce Act, 1914, and of all other powers and authorities enabling him in that behalf, and acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of that Dominion, doth hereby prohibit the exportation of wool from the said Dominion, save and except to other parts of the British Empire, and ports in the territory of any of His Majesty's Allies in the present war, in British ships or ships of such Allies, and save and except where in the case of any other country the Minister of Customs consents to the exportation to that country of any specified quantity of wool in a specified ship and authorizes the lading and exportation thereof accordingly.
