Declaring Notes of certain Banks to be a Legal Tender for a Further Period.

LIVERPOOL, Governor.

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS by section two of the Banking Amendment Act, 1914, it is enacted that the Governor in Council may from time to time by Proclamation declare that the notes payable on demand by any bank and then issued or thereafter to be issued or reissued within New Zealand under any lawful authority in that behalf shall during the period limited by the Proclamation be everywhere within New Zealand a good and legal tender of money to the amount therein expressed to be payable: And whereas by Proclamations dated the fifth day of August, the fourth day of September, the fifth day of October, and the seventeenth day of December, one thousand nine hundred and fourteen, and published in the New Zealand Gazette upon the same dates respectively, it was declared that the notes payable on demand by any of the banks named or described in the Schedule hereto and then issued or thereafter to be issued or reissued within New Zealand under any lawful authority in that behalf should; on and after the sixth day of August, one thousand nine hundred and fourteen, until and including the seventh day of April, one thousand nine hundred and fifteen, be everywhere within New Zealand a good and legal tender of money to the amount therein expressed to be payable: And whereas occasion for the further exercise of such power in respect of the aforesaid banks has now arisen: And whereas the Governor in Council is satisfied in pursuance of the requirements of the said Act that in respect of each of the said banks which has its head office in New Zealand the assets of that bank exceed its liabilities as between the bank and its creditors by at least the amount of its paid-up capital, and that in respect of each of the said banks which has its head office out of New Zealand the assets of that bank within New Zealand exceed its liabilities therein as between the bank and its creditors:

Now, therefore, His Excellency the Governor of the Dominion of New Zealand in exercise and pursuance of the powers and authorities conferred upon him by section two of the Banking Amendment Act, 1914, and of all other powers and authorities enabling him in that behalf, and acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of the said Dominion, doth hereby declare that the notes payable on demand by any of the banks named or described in the Schedule hereto and now issued or hereafter to be issued or reissued within New Zealand under any lawful authority in that behalf shall on and after the eighth day of April, one thousand nine hundred and fifteen, until and including the sixth day of August, one thousand nine hundred and fifteen, be everywhere within New Zealand a good and legal tender of money to the amount therein expressed to be payable.

GOD SAVE THE KING!

Prohibiting the Export of Oats.

LIVERPOOL, Governor.

ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government Buildings at Wellington, this fifteenth day of March, 1915.

Present:

THE RIGHT HONOURABLE W. F. MASSEY, P.C., PRESIDING IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS by section forty-seven of the Customs Act, 1913, as extended by section twenty-four of the Regulation of Trade and Commerce Act, 1914, it is enacted that the Governor may, by Order in Council gazetted, prohibit the exportation of any goods the prohibition of the exportation of which is in his opinion necessary in the public interest:

And whereas in the opinion of the Governor it is necessary that the exportation of oats should be prohibited:

Now, therefore, His Excellency the Governor of the Dominion of New Zealand, in pursuance and exercise of the powers and authorities conferred upon him by section forty-seven of the Customs Act, 1913, and section twenty-four of the Regulation of Trade and Commerce Act, 1914, and of all other powers and authorities enabling him in that behalf, and acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of the Dominion, doth hereby prohibit the exportation of oats from the said Dominion, save and except where in any case the Minister of Customs consents to the exportation of any specified quantity of oats in a specified ship, and authorizes the lading and exportation thereof accordingly; and, with the like advice and consent, doth declare that the Orders in Council made and gazetted on the tenth day of August, one thousand nine hundred and fourteen, and on the thirteenth day of August, one thousand nine hundred and fourteen, are hereby revoked so far as they relate to the exportation of oats, but are in all other respects confirmed.

J. F. ANDREWS,
 Clerk of the Executive Council.
