"Electric line" means any wire, wires, conductor, or other means used for conveying, transmitting, or distributing electricity for power, lighting, or heating purposes; and includes any instrument, insulator, casing, tubing, pipe-covering, or post enclosing or supporting an electric line, or anything connected therewith.

"Inspecting Engineer" means and includes any Inspecting Engineer appointed by the Minister to inspect the works to be constructed or maintained by virtue of electric-line licenses issued under the Public Works Act, 1908, and any or all of its amendments, or under any one or more of such amendments only, or any Act or Acts passed in amendment thereof or substitution therefor.

"Minister" means Minister of Public Works.

"Telegraph" includes telephone.

"Telegraph line" has the same meaning as "electric line" in the Post and Telegraph Act, 1908, and also includes all telegraph, telephone, and electric signalling wires belonging to the Government Railways Department.

2. The conductors shall not be less than 7/20 S.W.G. hard-drawn wires, firmly attached to porcelain insulators, and erected on supports placed not more than 150 ft. apart. The positive conductor shall be covered throughout, and the covering may consist of vulcanized indiarubber or of triple braiding thoroughly impregnated with weatherproof compound. The negative conductor may be bare.

3. The conductors shall be carried on substantial and durable supports, which shall be designed to have a factor of safety of four in the case of steel, iron, or ferro-concrete, and five in the case of wood, calculated upon the ultimate strength of the material, assuming the wind-pressure to be 20 lb. per square foot upon a plane surface, and 12 lb. per square foot upon a diametral plane upon a cylindrical surface.

4. The conductors shall not in any part thereof be at a less height than 18 ft. from the surface of the ground.

5. A single-pole fuse cut-out shall be inserted in the positive conductor, and arranged to operate with an overload of 100 per cent. above the rated full load of the circuit. Such fuse cut-out shall be placed in a suitable locked or sealed receptacle of fireproof construction fixed at a convenient height on the pole nearest the point where the positive conductor leaves the trolley-wire or feeder. At the distributing-point of a lighting circuit there shall be inserted in the positive conductor a single-pole switch, together with a fuse arranged to operate with an overload of 50 per cent. above the rated full load of such circuit. In a motor circuit there shall be provided, in the immediate vicinity of each motor connected thereto, a double-pole switch and fuse cut-out or circuit-breaker arranged to operate with an overload of 50 per cent. above the rated full load of the motor so controlled. Each motor shall be fitted with a no-volt release and a series resistance.

6. The negative conductor shall, in a lighting circuit, be continuous throughout its length from the lamps to the tramway-rail, to which it shall be effectively bonded, and in a motor circuit from the switch terminal to the tramway-rail, to which it shall be effectively bonded.

7. At telegraph-line crossings the conductors shall pass over or under, as may be decided by the Minister of Telegraphs. In every crossing-span the maximum tension in any conductor shall not exceed one-half the elastic limit of the conductor under the conditions of a minimum temperature of 12° F. and wind-pressure as specified in clause 3 occurring simultaneously. Efficiently earthed guard-wires, to the satisfaction of the Minister of Telegraphs, shall be erected where such protection may be considered necessary by the Minister of Telegraphs, and earth-wires where led down poles shall be protected by a casing for a distance of 8 ft. from the ground. Guard-wires shall be carried on substantial supports at a height of 2 ft. above the said electric lines if the telegraph lines pass over the said electric lines, or 2 ft. above the telegraph lines if they pass under the said electric lines. In addition to the above precautions, telegraph lines shall be suitably insulated if deemed necessary by the Minister of Telegraphs. The cost of all necessary guard-wires and special provisions required to comply with this clause, or deemed to be necessary as a protection to telegraph lines generally, shall be borne by the licensee when the telegraph lines are erected before the said electric lines. In cases where the said electric lines are erected before the telegraph lines, the licensee, on receipt of notice from the District Telegraph Engineer of the Post and Telegraph Department, or his deputy, that it is proposed to run a telegraph line along the route, shall forthwith make the necessary changes required to comply with this clause at any points at which the said electric lines already cross such routes, the cost of such changes being borne by the Post and Telegraph Department.

8. No work of any nature shall be erected or constructed upon, over, or under any part of the New Zealand Government Railways until the licensee has obtained the consent of the Minister of Railways thereto, as required by section 4 of the Government Railways Amendment Act, 1910 (No. 2).

9. The construction of the works hereby authorized shall be substantially commenced on or before the 1st day of July, 1916, and shall be completed on or before the 1st day of October, 1916.

10. The licensee shall, prior to the completion of the said works, give to the Minister at least seven days' notice in writing of the estimated date of such completion.

11. The licensee shall not use the said electric lines, or permit the same to be used, until the Minister has given notice in writing to the licensee that he has received from the Inspecting Engineer a certificate that the work hereby authorized has been satisfactorily carried out.

12. The said electric lines shall be duly and efficiently supervised and maintained by the licensee as regards both electrical and mechanical conditions, and shall not be permitted by the licensee to remain erected after they have ceased to be used for the supply of electricity.

13. This license, and the benefits and obligations hereunder, shall not be assigned by the licensee without the expressed consent in writing of the Minister first had and obtained; but such consent shall not be withheld if it is proved to the satisfaction of the Minister that the transferee is financially and otherwise able to carry out the obligations specified in this license.

14. The Minister may at any time order an inspection to be made of the said electric lines. If any defect is found to exist it must be remedied forthwith; and if, in the opinion of the officer or person inspecting, such defect is serious the Minister may, on receipt of the report, direct the licensee to at once cease transmitting energy either over the whole of the said electric lines or over any specified part thereof until such defect is repaired or remedied. In default of the licensee remedying the defect or ceasing to transmit energy the licensee shall be liable to a penalty of £20 for each day during which the defect remains if energy is transmitted, such penalty to be recoverable by or on behalf of the Minister as a debt due to the Crown. The cost of such inspection shall be borne by the licensee.

15. If the licensee fails to comply with any of the conditions of this license the Minister may, by notice in writing, require the licensee within thirty days to remedy the default specified in that notice; and if the licensee fails to comply with the terms of the notice within the said period, the licensee shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding £20, to be recoverable by or on behalf of the Minister as a debt due to the Crown.

16. Notwithstanding anything in the last preceding clause of these conditions, if the licensee fails to comply with the terms of any such notice for ninety days after the receipt thereof, the Governor in Council may thereupon revoke this license without further notice.

17. For the purpose of ascertaining whether the conditions of this license are being faithfully complied with by the licensee, the Minister, or any person appointed by him in that behalf, may at all reasonable times enter on the lands and works and inspect the said works.

18. Nothing in this license shall be deemed in any way to interfere with, affect, or abridge any rights or powers vested in His Majesty the King, or in the Governor on his behalf, authorizing the construction, management, or working of any public works; nor shall any compensation be payable to or on behalf of the licensee for injury done to the works herein authorized by the construction, management, or working of any such public works as aforesaid, or for the loss occasioned thereby, or for the exercise of any such right or power as aforesaid.

19. The regulations made under section two of the Public Works Amendment Act, 1911, and published in the New Zealand Gazette dated 29th day of April, 1915, shall not apply to this license.

20. This license shall, unless sooner determined in accordance with the provisions hereinafter expressed, continue in force for a period of forty-two years from the date hereof. Upon expiry of the said term, or upon sooner determination of this license by revocation or otherwise, all rights hereby granted to the licensee shall thereupon cease and determine; but such expiration or determination shall not relieve the licensee of any liability theretofore incurred under this license.

The reference in these rules to numbered forms means the forms as numbered in Appendix A hereof, and the appropriate form in the said appendix shall be used in all proceedings to which they apply.

1. The Clerk shall keep for each Court a Judgment Summons Record Book in the form No. 1. The Clerk shall enter in the said book the particulars therein required, taken from the application for a judgment summons, whether such judgment summons is applied for in respect of a judgment or order of that Court or any other Court. Every judgment summons shall be entered in the Record Book in numerical order in each year. No judgment summons shall be issued out of the Court or entered in the Record Book unless and until an application in the form prescribed, together with the necessary affidavit, has been filed in the Court. Every such application shall give in full the names and last known place of address and occupation of the parties in all cases where the same are known.

2. No order under section 6 of the Act shall be made unless a summons to appear and be examined on oath (hereafter called a "judgment summons") shall have been served personally on the judgment debtor. Every order made on a judgment summons shall be recorded in the Civil Record Book of the Court.

3. Every application for a judgment summons under the Act shall be in writing, according to the prescribed form, signed by the judgment creditor or his solicitor, or an agent duly authorized in writing by such judgment creditor; and every such application shall be accompanied by an affidavit made by the applicant, his solicitor or agent as aforesaid, in the appropriate form, or by a statutory declaration to the like effect.

4. When a judgment creditor desires and is entitled to apply to a Magistrate's Court for a judgment summons in respect of any judgment or order of any other Court, he shall obtain from the Clerk or Registrar of such other Court a certified copy of such judgment or order in the form prescribed under the general rules of this Court or of the Court in which the judgment or order was obtained, and shall file the same in the Court out of which he desires to obtain the issue of such judgment summons.

5. Whenever a certified copy of any judgment or order is obtained under the foregoing rule the Clerk or Registrar shall make on the minute of such judgment or order a memorandum of having given such certificate, and no warrant of execution against the goods of the judgment debtor, or judgment summons, or other process shall issue upon such judgment or order out of such other Court issuing the certificate unless it be proved to the Clerk or Registrar thereof that such certificate has not been filed in any Court as in the next rule provided.

6. Whenever any judgment creditor presents to the Clerk any certificate as in the preceding rule mentioned, such Clerk shall enter the particulars thereof in the Civil Record Book of the said Court, and shall add to such entry in the said Civil Record Book the following memorandum: "I certify that the foregoing judgment [or order] was entered herein pursuant to a certified copy of a judgment [or order] of the Court at , which said copy bears date the day of , 19 , and shall sign the same, adding his official designation and the date of such entry, and shall file the said certified copy as a record of the Court, and thereafter such judgment shall for all purposes be deemed to be the judgment of such Court: Provided that for the purposes of the Act any such judgment may again be removed into any other Court in the same manner in all respects as if it were an original judgment of the Court in which the certificate was filed, and the rules shall apply accordingly to every such removal.

7. Upon such entry being made as in the preceding rule provided the Clerk shall, on application under Rule 3 hereof, issue a judgment summons in the prescribed form, as if such judgment or order had been originally given or made in the Court issuing such judgment summons.

8. Whenever, pursuant to section 139 of the Magistrates' Courts Act, 1908, a judgment creditor desires to obtain the issue of a judgment summons calling upon the judgment debtor to appear in a Court other than the Court giving the judgment or making the order, he shall lodge with the Clerk of the Court giving the judgment or making the order an application in the prescribed form, and no such application shall be received by such Clerk unless and until the particulars required by such form have been properly filled in and an affidavit verifying the same has been made and filed with such application.

9. On receipt of such application and verifying affidavit as in the foregoing rule provided the Clerk shall prepare and sign a judgment summons in the prescribed form, and shall certify on such summons the amount still due on such judgment or order, as the same appears from the record of the said judgment or order, and the application for the issue of such summons. Every such certificate shall be conclusive as to the amount owing on such judgment or order, unless the contrary be proved by the judgment debtor at the hearing of such judgment summons.

10. The Clerk signing such summons, after entering the particulars thereof in the Judgment Summons Record Book of the Court, shall issue the same and forward it to the Clerk of the Court for hearing, who shall enter the particulars thereof in the Judgment Summons Record Book of the said Court, and appoint a day for the hearing of the said summons, and the same shall be served out of the Court for hearing.

11. Every judgment summons issued out of the Court shall be in such of the prescribed forms as may be applicable, and shall be served on the judgment debtor not less than seven days before the day of hearing, except as in Rule 13 hereof.

12. The service of a judgment summons shall be effected in the manner prescribed by this Act, or by the general rules made thereunder, in respect of personal service of an ordinary summons.

13. Where the person applying for the judgment summons shall file an affidavit in the prescribed form, setting out that the judgment debtor is about to remove from his dwelling or place of business, or is keeping out of the way to avoid service, then the judgment summons may be issued and served at any time before the hearing: Provided that the Court shall not act upon a summons issued under this rule unless at the hearing such Court is satisfied, by evidence on oath, that at the time of the application for the judgment summons the judgment debtor was about to remove from his dwelling or place of business, or was keeping out of the way to avoid service, in either of which cases service upon such debtor at any time before the time appointed for his appearance shall be sufficient.

14. In any case where the judgment debtor resides or carries on business more than five miles from the Court at which he is required to appear, the application for such summons shall be accompanied by a tender of expenses. The amount to be deposited shall be sufficient, in the opinion of the Clerk of such Court, to enable the judgment debtor to attend and return from the hearing of such summons, and to provide maintenance for the debtor during such attendance. The Clerk shall decline to issue a judgment summons until such expenses are deposited with the application as aforesaid. The amount so deposited shall (unless the Court otherwise orders) form part of the costs of the judgment summons for all purposes.

15. Where it appears to the Court that the hearing of a judgment summons cannot fairly proceed owing to the absence of either the debtor, creditor, or a witness through illness, accident, or other reasonable cause, the Court may adjourn the same subject to the payment of such costs and further conduct money as it thinks just. Except as aforesaid no judgment summons shall be adjourned unless it is shown at the original hearing thereof that sufficient grounds exist for the making of an order of committal. And in no case shall an adjournment be made sine die. All such costs and conduct money shall, if the Court so directs, form part of the costs of the judgment summons for all purposes.

16. Any witness may be summoned to give evidence upon the hearing of a judgment summons or any adjournment thereof in the same manner as witnesses are summoned to give evidence upon the hearing of a plaint. Every such summons shall be according to the prescribed form. Every such witness shall be entitled to such expenses as if summoned to give evidence upon a plaint, which expenses may, if the Court so direct, form part of the costs of the judgment summons for all purposes.

17. Every judgment summons to be served on a Maori or foreign defendant shall be accompanied by a translation thereof in the Maori or foreign language, as the case may be, certified to by a licensed interpreter or by some person who in the opinion of the Court is qualified to make such translation: Provided that if the Court is satisfied at the hearing that the Maori or foreign defendant has a sufficient knowledge of the English language to fully and fairly understand the meaning and purport of such summons, the same may be heard and determined though not accompanied by such translation as aforesaid.

18. When a Maori or foreign interpreter is required at the hearing of a judgment summons, or where any summons, order, or warrant issued by the Court requires to be translated into the Maori or foreign language, the Court or Magistrate may fix the fee for such interpretation or translation, not exceeding the fees allowed to be charged by authorized interpreters, and such fee or fees so fixed shall, if the Court so direct, form part of the costs of the judgment summons for all purposes.

19. Upon the issue of a judgment summons against a party upon an order or judgment the bailiff of the Court issuing the judgment summons, or of the Court giving such judgment or making such order, shall return into the Court any warrant of execution against the goods of such party which may have been issued in the cause out of such Court.

20. When a judgment summons is heard in a Court other than the Court in which the judgment or order was obtained, as provided by Rule 8 hereof, and no order is made thereon by the Court hearing the same, the Court shall endorse on such summons its refusal to make an order, and the Clerk shall return such summons to the Court from which the same was issued, and such judgment or order shall remain the judgment or order of such last-mentioned Court for all purposes. A note of such refusal shall be entered in the Judgment Summons Record Book by the Clerk of the Court to which the summons is returned as aforesaid.

21. When a judgment summons is heard in a Court other than that in which the judgment or order was obtained, as provided in Rule 8 hereof, and an order of commitment or an order altering the terms of the judgment or order is made, all payments under such order or new order shall be made into, and execution or other process thereon shall be issued by, the Court making such order or new order. A copy of such order of committal or new order shall be forwarded to the Clerk of the Court in which such judgment or order was obtained, and such Clerk shall note the same in the Judgment Summons Record Book of such Court.

22. When the Court refuses to make an order on a judgment summons the judgment creditor shall not be entitled to add the cost of the application for such order, or of any certificate of judgment or order obtained in respect thereof, to the judgment debt for any purpose whatever.

23. Where the Court makes an order on a judgment summons altering the terms of the original judgment or order by ordering the payment of the same by instalments, the judgment creditor shall not be entitled to add the cost of obtaining such order to the judgment debt for any purpose whatever unless the Court making such order specially orders the payment of such costs by the judgment debtor. No such order for payment shall be made unless it be proved to the satisfaction of the Court that the judgment debtor has had, since the date of the judgment or order, sufficient money to pay the judgment debt as in the Act provided.

24. Subject to the foregoing rule, whenever an order is made on a judgment summons the costs of obtaining the same shall be added to the judgment debt, and shall form part thereof for all purposes, unless the Court otherwise orders.

25. When the Court has refused to make an order on a judgment summons the judgment creditor may at any time thereafter apply in the prescribed form, accompanied by an affidavit in the prescribed form, for a second or subsequent judgment summons in the same manner and with the same consequences as if no previous judgment summons had been issued: Provided that on the hearing of any such second or subsequent judgment summons the judgment creditor shall not be entitled to examine the judgment debtor as to his means of paying the debt prior to the date of the hearing of the previous judgment summons unless the judgment creditor first satisfies the Court that since the date of the previous hearing he has discovered that the judgment debtor had prior to the previous hearing sufficient money to pay the said debt, and that such money was unknown to the judgment creditor, and he had no reasonable opportunity of discovering the same at or prior to such previous hearing.

26. Whenever and as often as any moneys payable by instalments remain unpaid on any judgment or order of any Court, whether the order for payment by instalments was made at the time of giving or making the judgment or order, or by an order for payment by instalments, without default, made on the hearing of a judgment summons, the judgment creditor may from time to time apply to the Court for a judgment summons in respect of such instalments.

No person shall be punished twice in respect of the same default: Provided that, on any judgment summons issued on default of payment of any instalment, if it appear to the Court at the hearing that the defendant, since the date of the order to pay the debt by instalments, has or has had sufficient money to pay the instalment in respect of which the judgment summons is issued, together with all prior instalments (if any), the Court may make an order in respect of such moneys notwithstanding that a previous order of commitment may have been made in respect of the same moneys on proceedings taken for default in payment of any prior instalment.

27. The Court, on making an order of committal for default in payment of a judgment debt or instalment thereof, may of its own motion, or on the application of either of the parties, order that such warrant of commitment may be suspended as long as the judgment debtor pays into Court such sums at such times as the Court orders. No such warrant shall issue out of such Court so long as the judgment debtor makes such payments as aforesaid. If the judgment debtor fails to make such payment as aforesaid such warrant may issue forthwith in respect of the whole debt, or such part as remains unpaid, as if no such order of payment or of suspension had been made: Provided that before issuing such warrant the Clerk shall note on such warrant any sums paid in pursuance of such order. All payments made under such order shall be paid into Court and not to the judgment creditor.

28. An order made under section 4 of the Act on an order or judgment of a Magistrate's Court shall be in the form No. 20, and an order made under this Act on an order or judgment of any other Court shall be in the form Nos. 21 or 22; and every such order shall, on whatever day it may be issued from the Clerk's office, bear date on the day on which the order on the judgment summons was made, and shall continue in force for one year from such date and no longer.

29. When an order on a judgment summons has been made the judgment debtor may, at any time before his body is delivered into the custody of the Gaoler, pay to the bailiff the amount endorsed on the warrant as that on the payment of which he may be discharged; and on receiving such amount the bailiff shall discharge such debtor, and shall within twenty-four hours after receiving such amount pay over the same to the Clerk of the Magistrate's Court of which he is an officer.

30. The sum endorsed upon the order on a judgment summons, or endorsed upon the warrant of committal as that upon payment of which the prisoner may be discharged, may be paid to the Clerk of the Court from which the order or warrant was issued, or to the Gaoler in whose custody the prisoner is. Where it is paid to the Clerk he shall sign and seal a certificate of such payment, and upon receiving such certificate by post or otherwise the Gaoler in whose custody the prisoner shall then be shall forthwith discharge such prisoner, and where it is paid to the Gaoler he shall, upon payment to him in cash or by post-office order of such amount, together with costs sufficient to pay for transmitting such

31. A certificate as to payment by a prisoner shall be according to the form No. 28.

32. Warrants upon a judgment summons against the same party may be issued concurrently into more than one district; provided that the cost of one warrant only shall be allowed unless the Court shall otherwise direct.

33. The warrant to be issued by the Clerk of a Magistrate's Court under the provisions of section 14 of the Act shall be in the form No. 24, and such warrant shall be deemed to be the "warrant in the prescribed form" required to be issued under the said section.

34. Where a judgment debtor shall, upon the return day of a judgment summons, satisfy the Court that he has been adjudicated a bankrupt, and that the debt was provable in the bankruptcy, or that in respect of the debt the provisions of the Bankruptcy Act for the time being in force have been complied with, no order of commitment shall be made.

35. No warrant of commitment shall be issued where the judgment debtor shall, after the making of an order upon a judgment summons against him, and before the warrant is issued, file in the Magistrate's Court in which the order was made an affidavit in the prescribed form, stating that he has been adjudicated a bankrupt, and that, in respect of the judgment debt, the provisions of the Bankruptcy Act for the time being in force have been complied with.

36. Where a judgment debtor is arrested he may, according to the tenor of the order or warrant of committal, file in the Magistrate's Court within the district in which he is in custody an affidavit as mentioned in the last foregoing rule, and thereupon the judgment debtor shall be discharged out of custody upon the certificate of the Clerk of such Court. 37. All orders and warrants issued out of the Court shall be sealed with the seal of the Court.

38. 41. Every such application shall be supported by an affidavit by the person making the same, and shall be served on the judgment creditor at least three clear days before the hearing thereof.

42. If the warrant of committal is not issued when the application for the rehearing is made the filing of the application shall operate as a stay of proceedings until the application is finally disposed of by the Court, and if the warrant has been issued, and the judgment debtor has been arrested thereunder, the Court or the Magistrate may suspend such warrant, and the Gaoler into whose custody the judgment debtor has been committed shall release such judgment debtor on the certificate of the Clerk of the Court in the form No. 26, and every such warrant shall be suspended until the application is finally disposed of by the Court.

43. If the Court grants the rehearing it shall fix a date for such rehearing, subject to such terms as the Court thinks just. If on the rehearing the Court makes an order altering, cancelling, or varying the former order such former order, or any warrant issued thereunder, shall cease to take effect, and such new order shall become the order of the Court upon such summons; and if the Court refuses to alter, cancel, or vary such order, then such order, or any warrant issued thereon, shall take effect as if no such stay of proceedings or suspension had been made; and any judgment debtor released under Rule 42 hereof shall be rearrested under such warrant, and the same shall take effect for the unexpired term thereof.

COSTS AND FEES.

44. The costs which shall be paid by a person imprisoned under the Act on an order made under this Act shall be the fees specified in Appendix B, and such fees shall be deemed to be the prescribed costs referred to in section 16 of the Act.

ERRATUM IN "NEW ZEALAND NAUTICAL ALMANAC" FOR 1916 AND "MODERN UP-TO-DATE NAVIGATION."

Marine Department,
Wellington, N.Z., 24th May, 1916.

IN example on page 140 of the "New Zealand Nautical Almanac" for 1916, and on page 46 of the small book "Modern Up-to-date Navigation," under the heading "Position from Two Ex-Meridian Observations of Stars Sirius and Canopus," the reduction from table has been wrongly taken out for north latitude instead of for south latitude.

If those interested in the problem will please alter in their books the altitude of star Sirius to $57^{\circ} 43' 1''$ N., and the reduction from table to $2^{\circ} 55' 3''$, the whole of the rest of the work and the figure may stand as it is, and the resulting position will be correct, as fortunately the azimuth for star Sirius was taken out correctly for south latitude.

SUMMARY FOR THE MONTH OF APRIL, 1916.

During the month of April atmospheric pressure was chiefly anticyclonic, this type prevailing between the 1st and 7th, 10th and 13th, and the 19th and 28th. In consequence the weather generally was fine and calm with mild days and cool nights. Unsettled conditions were experienced on the 7th and 8th, with the passage of a small depression in the south. Between the 14th and 17th a more intense westerly held sway, and this was followed by an extra tropical cyclone the centre of which passed over the North Island during the night of the 17th. Heavy rain fell on the 14th over the South Island, and general rains were reported on the 15th. On the 29th, and again on the 30th, when the centre of a disturbance passed in the vicinity of Cook Strait, heavy rain was recorded and caused floods in some of the rivers in the northern districts. Most of the northern districts of the North Island and the whole of the western coast had more than the average rainfall, while the remaining portions of the Dominion recorded slightly below or about the average.
