Fixing the Maximum Price of Milk.

LIVERPOOL, Governor.
 ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government Buildings at Wellington, this eighteenth day of January, 1917.

Present:

THE HONOURABLE JAMES ALLEN PRESIDING IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS by section two of the Regulation of Trade and Commerce Act, 1914, it is enacted that at any time when His Majesty is at war with any foreign Prince or State the Governor may, by Order in Council gazetted, fix and determine the maximum price in New Zealand of any class of goods: And whereas it is expedient to exercise in respect of milk the powers so conferred upon the Governor in Council:

Now, therefore, His Excellency the Governor of the Dominion of New Zealand, in pursuance of the authority so conferred upon him by the said Act, and acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of that Dominion, doth hereby fix and determine the maximum price of milk in New Zealand in accordance with the provisions of the Schedule hereto; and doth hereby, with the like advice and consent, declare that this Order in Council shall come into operation on the nineteenth day of January, one thousand nine hundred and seventeen.

SCHEDULE.

1. THE maximum wholesale price of milk sold for retail distribution within the district to which this Order in Council relates shall be tenpence halfpenny per gallon when sold and delivered on the usual trade terms as established at the date of this Order in Council.

2. In the case of milk sold for retail distribution within the district to which this Order in Council relates, otherwise than on the usual trade terms aforesaid, the maximum wholesale price thereof shall be a price equivalent as regards the seller to the maximum price above mentioned.

3. The district to which this Order in Council relates shall consist of the boroughs of Wellington, Miramar, Karori, Onslow, Lower Hutt, Petone, and Eastbourne, the town districts of Johnsonville and Upper Hutt, and the counties of Hutt and Makara.

J. F. ANDREWS,
 Clerk of the Executive Council.

Declaring Notes of certain Banks to be a Legal Tender for a Further Period.

[L.S.]

LIVERPOOL, Governor.

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS by section two of the Banking Amendment Act, 1914, it is enacted that the Governor in Council may from time to time by Proclamation declare that the notes payable on demand by any bank and then issued or thereafter to be issued or reissued within New Zealand under any lawful authority in that behalf shall during the period limited by the Proclamation be everywhere within New Zealand a good and legal tender of money to the amount therein expressed to be payable: And whereas by successive Proclamations published in the New Zealand Gazette it was declared that the notes payable on demand by any of the banks named or described in the Schedule hereto and then issued or thereafter to be issued or reissued within New Zealand under any lawful authority in that behalf should, for the periods therein set forth, be everywhere within New Zealand a good and legal tender of money to the amount therein expressed to be payable: And whereas occasion for the further exercise of such power in respect of the aforesaid banks has now arisen: And whereas the Governor in Council is satisfied, in pursuance of clause seven of the regulations made under section forty-four of the Finance Act, 1916, on the twenty-first day of August, one thousand nine hundred and sixteen, and published in the Gazette of the same date, that in respect of each of the said banks the total amount of the notes issued or re-issued in New Zealand by that bank and then in circulation is within the limit of the note-issue of that bank as determined by the said regulations of the twenty-first day of August, one thousand nine hundred and sixteen:

Now, therefore, His Excellency the Governor of the Dominion of New Zealand, in exercise and pursuance of the powers and authorities conferred upon him by section two of the Banking Amendment Act, 1914, and of all other powers and authorities enabling him in that behalf, and acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of the said Dominion, doth hereby declare that the notes payable on demand by any of the banks named or described in the Schedule hereto and now issued or hereafter to be issued or reissued within New Zealand under any lawful authority in that behalf shall on and after the date of the gazetting of this Proclamation, until and including the thirtieth day of June, one thousand nine hundred and seventeen, be everywhere within New Zealand a good and legal tender of money to the amount therein expressed to be payable.

THE SCHEDULE.

The Bank of New Zealand.
 The National Bank of New Zealand (Limited).
 The Union Bank of Australia (Limited).
 The Bank of Australasia.
 The Bank of New South Wales.
