WELLINGTON, THURSDAY, JULY 5, 1917.

Declaring certain Industries to be Industries Essential for the Public Welfare.

LIVERPOOL, Governor-General.

ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government House at Wellington, this fifth day of July, 1917.

Present:

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS by clause one of the regulations made on the sixteenth day of February, one thousand nine hundred and seventeen, under the War Regulations Act, 1914, and the amendments thereof, relating to seditious strikes and lockouts, it is provided that the Governor, if satisfied that any industry is essential for the public welfare, may, by Order in Council, declare that industry to be an industry essential for the public welfare: And whereas the Governor-General is satisfied that the industries mentioned in the Schedule hereto are essential for the public welfare:

Now, therefore, the Governor-General of the Dominion of New Zealand, acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of the said Dominion, and in pursuance and exercise of the powers conferred upon him as aforesaid, doth hereby declare that the industries mentioned in the Schedule hereto are industries essential for the public welfare.

SCHEDULE.

The manufacture and supply of coal-gas.
 The manufacture and supply of electricity for light or power.
 The supply of water for domestic or industrial purposes.

J. F. ANDREWS,
 Clerk of the Executive Council.
