Amending Regulations as to Financial Assistance for Soldiers of the New Zealand Expeditionary Force.

LIVERPOOL, Governor-General.

ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government House at Wellington, this sixth day of August, 1917.

Present:

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL IN COUNCIL.

I, ARTHUR WILLIAM DE BRITO SÁVILE, Earl of Liverpool, the Governor-General of the Dominion of New Zealand, acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of that Dominion, do hereby, in pursuance of the authority conferred upon me by the Military Service Act, 1916, and of all other powers and authorities enabling me in that behalf, revoke the Order in Council relating to financial assistance for soldiers of the New Zealand Expeditionary Force, made on the twenty-fifth day of June, one thousand nine hundred and seventeen, and in lieu thereof do hereby amend, in the manner set forth in the Schedule hereto, the regulations of the sixteenth day of January, one thousand nine hundred and seventeen, relating to the same matter.

SCHEDULE.

CLAUSE 17 of the regulations made on the 16th day of January, 1917, under the Military Service Act, 1916, relative to financial assistance for soldiers of the Expeditionary Force, as amended by the said Order in Council of the 25th day of June, 1917, is hereby further amended by revoking the words following: "such date as the Minister approves in that behalf, not being earlier than the date of the application to the Minister for financial assistance, and not being earlier than the date at which the recruit first becomes entitled to receive continuous pay as a member of the Expeditionary Force," and substituting therefor the words following: "such date as the Minister approves in that behalf, not being more than three months earlier than the date of the application to the Minister for financial assistance, and not being earlier than the date at which the recruit first becomes entitled to receive continuous pay as a member of the Expeditionary Force."

J. F. ANDREWS.

Clerk of the Executive Council.

Appointment of Munitions and Supplies Board.

LIVERPOOL, Governor-General.

WHEREAS by section twenty-seven of the Expeditionary Forces Act, 1915, it is enacted that for the purpose of the raising, equipment, training, administration, maintenance, transport, and service of an Expeditionary Force under that Act the Minister of Defence may on behalf of the Crown enter into such contracts as he thinks fit: And whereas by the War Regulations Amendment Act, 1915 (No. 2), it is enacted that the Minister of Defence may requisition military supplies as therein defined from the owner or occupier of any factory or workshop: And whereas Arthur Mielziner Myers, Esquire, a Member of the Executive Council (hereinafter referred to as the Minister in Charge of Munitions and Supplies), is duly authorized and empowered to act for and in aid of the Minister of Defence in the exercise of the powers so conferred upon him: And whereas it is expedient that a Board should be appointed with advisory powers in respect of the purchase, requisition, or other acquisition, in pursuance of the powers so conferred upon the Minister of Defence, or in pursuance of any other powers or authorities existing in that behalf, of all military supplies required for the Expeditionary Forces raised under the Expeditionary Forces Act, 1915:

Now, therefore, I, Arthur William de Brito Savile, Earl of Liverpool, Governor-General of the Dominion of New Zealand, do hereby appoint

ALFRED HENRY MILES, Esquire, of Wellington;
ALEXANDER MACINTOSH, Esquire, of Wellington; and GEORGE WILSON, Esquire, of Wellington, to hold office during my pleasure as a Board to be known as the Munitions and Supplies Board, and to exercise and perform the powers, functions, and duties herein set forth in accordance with the following provisions, that is to say:—

1. The said Alfred Henry Miles shall be the Chairman of the said Board.
2. Meetings of the Board shall be held at such times and places as the Chairman or any two members of the Board may appoint, and at any such meeting two members shall form a quorum.
3. The decision of a majority of the members of the Board present at any such meeting shall be the decision of the Board.
4. The functions of the Board shall be, at the request of the Minister in Charge of Munitions and Supplies, to inquire into all matters relative to the purchase, requisition, or other acquisition of military supplies required for the use of the Expeditionary Forces raised under the Expeditionary Forces Act, 1915, and to advise the Minister of Defence and the Minister in Charge of Munitions and Supplies with respect to all such matters.
5. The term "military supplies" means munitions, clothing, equipment, food, and all other goods, wares, and merchandise required in respect of the equipment, maintenance, training, and transport of the said Expeditionary Forces.
6. The Board shall also, at the request of the Minister in Charge of Munitions and Supplies, inquire into all matters relative to the execution by him of the powers and functions vested in him by the Coal Trade Regulations, and, when required, advise the Minister as to all such matters as may be conducted by the Munitions and Supplies Department.
7. The functions of the Board shall not extend to the chartering or other acquisition of transports for the carriage of the said Expeditionary Forces, or the structural fitting of such transports for the service in which they are so engaged.
8. The Chief Executive Officer to the Minister in Charge shall attend all meetings of the Board, and duly convey to the Minister in Charge such advice as may be tendered in respect of each subject-matter placed before the Board for consideration.
9. The Assistant Executive Officer to the Minister in Charge shall act in the capacity of Secretary to the Munitions and Supplies Board, and shall keep a proper record of the deliberations of the Board.

At witness the hand of His Excellency the Governor-General, this third day of August, one thousand nine hundred and seventeen.

J. ALLEN,
Minister of Defence.

Prohibiting the Exportation of Empty Bottles and Jars.

LIVERPOOL, Governor-General.

ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government House at Wellington, this sixth day of August, 1917.

Present :

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS by section forty-seven of the Customs Act, 1913, as extended by section twenty-four of the Regulation of Trade and Commerce Act, 1914, it is enacted that the Governor-General may, by Order in Council gazetted, prohibit the exportation of any goods the prohibition of the exportation of which is in his opinion necessary in the public interest :

And whereas, in the opinion of the Governor-General, it is necessary in the public interest that the exportation of empty glass and earthen bottles and jars should be prohibited.

Now, therefore, His Excellency the Governor-General of the Dominion of New Zealand, in pursuance and exercise of the powers and authorities conferred upon him by section forty-seven of the Customs Act, 1913, and section twenty-four of the Regulation of Trade and Commerce Act, 1914, and of all other powers and authorities enabling him in that behalf, and acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of that Dominion, doth hereby prohibit the exportation of empty glass and earthen bottles and jars save with the consent of the Minister of Customs.

J. F. ANDREWS,
Clerk of the Executive Council.

Prohibiting the Exportation of Bicarbonate of Soda.

LIVERPOOL, Governor-General.

ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government House at Wellington, this sixth day of August, 1917.

Present :

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS by section forty-seven of the Customs Act, 1913, as extended by section twenty-four of the Regulation of Trade and Commerce Act, 1914, it is enacted that the Governor-General may from time to time by Order in Council prohibit the exportation of any goods the prohibition of the exportation of which is in his opinion necessary in the public interest :

And whereas, in the opinion of the Governor-General, it is necessary in the public interest that the exportation of bicarbonate of soda should be prohibited to the extent and in the manner hereinafter appearing :

Now, therefore, His Excellency the Governor-General of the Dominion of New Zealand, in pursuance and exercise of the powers and authorities conferred upon him by section forty-seven of the Customs Act, 1913, and section twenty-four of the Regulation of Trade and Commerce Act, 1914, and of all other powers and authorities enabling him in that behalf, and acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of that Dominion, doth hereby prohibit the exportation of bicarbonate of soda from the said Dominion, save with the consent of the Minister of Customs.

J. F. ANDREWS,
Clerk of the Executive Council.
