Amending Regulations under the War Regulations Act, 1914.

LIVERPOOL, Governor-General.

ORDER IN COUNCIL

At the Government House at Wellington, this twentieth day of August, 1917.

Present :

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS by the War Regulations made and gazetted on the second day of May, one thousand nine hundred and sixteen, it is provided that no alien enemy, other than one who is also a British subject, shall be engaged in foreign trade: And whereas it is expedient to amend the said regulations as hereinafter appears:

Now, therefore, His Excellency the Governor-General of the Dominion of New Zealand, acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of that Dominion, doth hereby, in pursuance of the War Regulations Act, 1914, make the following additional regulations under that Act.

REGULATIONS.

1. CLAUSE 1 of the said War Regulations of the 2nd day of May, 1916, shall not apply to any alien enemy who is a British subject by naturalization in any part of the British Empire, or is a subject of the United States of America by naturalization therein: Provided that it shall not be lawful for any such alien enemy to be engaged in foreign trade as defined in the said clause 1 unless he is permitted to do so by a license issued by the Attorney-General; and the Attorney-General is hereby empowered to issue such license accordingly.

2. Clause 26 of the War Regulations made on the 3rd day of April, 1916, shall not apply to any alien enemy to whom a license has been issued by the Attorney-General under the preceding regulation.

3. No person, firm, or company shall act as the agent of any person who is prohibited by the said clause 1 from engaging in foreign trade.

4. These regulations shall be read together with and be deemed part of the War Regulations of the 10th day of November, 1914.

J. F. ANDREWS,
Clerk of the Executive Council.

Additional Regulations under the War Regulations Act, 1914.
