HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS by Order in Council dated the thirteenth day of July, one thousand nine hundred and fourteen, and published in the New Zealand Gazette of the sixteenth day of July, one thousand nine hundred and fourteen, regulations were made, under the authority of section nine of the Post and Telegraph Amendment Act, 1913 (hereinafter termed "the said Act"), for the control of ships carrying wireless-telegraph apparatus while within the territorial waters of New Zealand :

SCHEDULE.

REGULATIONS.

1. In these regulations, if not inconsistent with the context,—
 - "Territorial waters of New Zealand" means and includes all tidal waters included within the Dominion of New Zealand, and all parts of the open sea within one marine league of the coasts of that Dominion measured from low-water mark :
 - "In harbour" means inside any harbour in New Zealand or within three miles of the entrance of any such harbour which a ship is about to enter or leave :
 - "Minister of Telegraphs" means the Minister of Telegraphs for the time being :
 - "Wireless telegraphy" has the same meaning as in section 162 of the Post and Telegraph Act, 1908 :
 - "Telegraph" has the same meaning as in section 119 of the Post and Telegraph Act, 1908 :
 - "Naval signalling" means signalling by means of any system of wireless telegraphy between two or more ships of His Majesty's Navy, between ships of His Majesty's Navy and naval stations, or between a ship of His Majesty's Navy or a naval station and any other wireless-telegraph station, whether a coast station or a ship station :
 - "The Admiralty" means the Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland :
 - "Coast station" means a wireless-telegraph station which is established on land or on board a ship permanently moored, and which is open for the service of correspondence between the land and ships at sea :
 - "Ship station" means a wireless-telegraph station established on board a ship which is not permanently moored.
2. These regulations shall apply only to foreign merchant ships and to British merchant ships not registered in New Zealand, while such British or foreign ships are within the territorial waters of New Zealand, or in harbour.
3. These regulations shall not apply to the use of wireless telegraphy for the purpose of making or answering signals of distress.

Ships in Territorial Waters.

4. All apparatus for wireless telegraphy on board a merchant ship while in the territorial waters of New Zealand shall be worked in such a way as not to interfere with Naval signalling, or with the working of any wireless-telegraph station lawfully established, installed, or worked in the Dominion of New Zealand or the territorial waters thereof ; and, in particular, the said apparatus shall be so worked as not to interrupt or interfere with the transmission of messages between wireless-telegraph stations established on ships at sea and wireless-telegraph coast stations.

5. If and whenever an emergency shall have arisen in which it is expedient in the public interest that His Majesty's Government shall have control over the transmission of messages by the said apparatus, it shall be lawful for any officer of His Majesty's Navy or Army, or for any other person authorized in that behalf by the Admiralty, or by the Minister of Telegraphs, to take possession of or to cause the said apparatus or any part thereof to be taken possession of in the name and on behalf of His Majesty, and to be used for His Majesty's service, and, subject thereto, for such ordinary services as to the said officer or person may seem fit ; and in that event any person authorized by the said officer or person may enter upon any ship on which such apparatus is installed and take possession of the said apparatus and use the same as aforesaid.

6. Any such officer or person may in such event as aforesaid, instead of taking possession of the said apparatus as aforesaid, direct and authorize such persons as he may think fit to assume the control of the transmission of messages by the said apparatus, either wholly or partly, and in such manner as he may direct, and such persons may enter upon any ship on which the said apparatus is installed accordingly ; or the said officer or person may direct the person or persons in charge of the said apparatus to submit to him, or any person authorized by him, all messages tendered for transmission or arriving by the said apparatus, or any class or classes of such messages, to stop or delay the transmission of any messages, or deliver the same to him or his agent, and generally to obey all such directions with reference to the transmission of messages as the said officer or person may prescribe, and the said person or persons in charge of the said apparatus shall obey and conform to all such directions.

Ships in Harbour.

7. No apparatus for wireless telegraphy on board a merchant ship shall be worked or used while such ship is in harbour, except with the consent in writing of the Minister of Telegraphs.

8. When a British ship arrives in harbour, the aerial leads of its wireless-telegraph apparatus shall be disconnected from the leading-in insulators, and be made fast to and be placed in good metallic connection with the nearest metallic portion of the ship's structure in direct connection with the ship's hull. This disconnection shall continue during the whole time the ship is in harbour.

9. Except as otherwise provided for, the wireless cabin shall be vacated and locked while the ship is in harbour, and the Customs shall seal the cabin as soon as practicable. The seal shall not be broken by any one other than a Customs officer until the ship is no longer in harbour. Entry shall be made in the ship's log of the time of locking the cabin and of making and breaking the seal.

10. In cases where wireless cabins include silence cabinets containing parts of the transmitting apparatus, the wireless cabin shall not be required to be locked and sealed. The transmitting apparatus in the silence cabinet shall be disconnected from the time of the ship's arrival in harbour, and the silence cabinet shall be locked. It shall be sealed by the Customs as soon thereafter as practicable. The seal shall not be broken by any person other than the Customs until the ship is outside of harbour limits. The auxiliary wireless apparatus shall at the time of the ship's arrival in harbour be rendered inoperative by the hammer-break of the coil being tied back and sealed with a seal approved by the master. The Customs seal shall be applied to the auxiliary wireless apparatus when the sealing of the silence cabinet is being effected. An entry shall be made in the ship's log of the time at which the silence cabinet was locked and the seals made and broken.

11. Foreign ships, whether flying allied or neutral flags, shall be subject to the foregoing regulations numbered 9 and 10. At the time of their arrival in harbour their aerial wires shall be taken down completely, and shall be disconnected from the leading-in insulator. The aerial wires shall remain down and disconnected from the leading-in insulator until the vessel is outside of harbour limits.

12. Notwithstanding anything contained in regulations 7 to 11 inclusive, it shall be permissible for authorized Government officers to inspect and to permit repairs to be effected to the wireless apparatus of vessels from time to time, proper precaution being taken for the locking and sealing of the wireless cabin, of the silence cabinet, and of the auxiliary apparatus.

Penalties.

13. If any breach of these regulations is committed by any person on board any ship while in the territorial waters of New Zealand or in harbour, the person so committing the same and the owner and master of the ship shall be severally liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding £100.

14. Whenever the Minister of Telegraphs or the Secretary of the Post and Telegraph Department has reasonable cause to believe or suspect that any breach of these regulations has been committed on board any ship while in the territorial waters of New Zealand or in harbour, he may give notice in writing to the Collector of Customs at any port in New Zealand to detain the ship under section 9 of the Post and Telegraph Amendment Act, 1913, until the sum of £100, or such smaller sum as may be specified in the notice, has been deposited with the Collector by or on behalf of the owner of the ship.

15. If on the receipt of that notice, or at any time within three months thereafter, the ship is found within such port, the Collector of Customs shall withhold the certificate of clearance of the ship, under section 35 of the Customs Act, 1913, until and unless the aforesaid sum is deposited with him or the aforesaid notice of detention is withdrawn.

16. If within six months after the date of the offence in respect of which the ship has been detained a conviction for that offence is obtained against any person, the sum so deposited shall be available for the satisfaction of any fine and costs imposed or awarded by the conviction, and the residue, if any, shall be returned to the person by whom or on whose behalf the deposit was made.

17. If within the period of six months aforesaid no such conviction is obtained, the sum so deposited shall be returned to the person by whom or on whose behalf it was deposited.

Minister of Defence.

Precedence and Wearing of Badges of Companions of the Orders of the Bath, the Star of India, Saint Michael and Saint George, and the Indian Empire.

Department of Internal Affairs,

Wellington, 28th January, 1918.

THE following despatch, received from the Secretary of State for the Colonies, is published for general information.

G. W. RUSSELL,
Minister of Internal Affairs.

Received 20th December, 1917.—G.H. No. 3380/17.—
G.H.N.Z.

(New Zealand.—Honours.)

Downing Street, 17th October, 1917.

MY LORD,—I have the honour to transmit to Your Excellency copies of a notification dated 1st June last, issued from the Central Chancery of the Orders of Knighthood, prescribing the manner in which the badge of the Third Class or Companions of the Orders of the Bath, the Star of India, Saint Michael and Saint George, and the Indian Empire shall in the future be worn, and of a further notification dated 10th August with regard to the manner in which the cost of the necessary alterations in the badges of Companions may be defrayed.

2. I have to explain that, as indicated in the first of these notices, the change is due to His Majesty's decision that henceforward the grade of Companion in these four Orders should rank as senior to that of Commander in other Orders which are later in date. The effect is to place the rank of Commander of the Royal Victorian Order lower than that of the Companionships in question. His Majesty's commands so far as they affect Companions of the Order of Saint Michael and Saint George, which may be of more particular interest in the majority of the Oversea Dominions, have been embodied in a new statute of the Order dated 1st June, 1917.

3. I think it may be useful to explain certain points arising out of His Majesty's recent decision, for the guidance of those who hold the dignities affected by it:—

(a.) The new rule will apply to all Companions of the Orders, and a period of grace will enable Companions residing in distant parts of the Empire to have the necessary alterations of their badges made. The length of the period will not be prescribed.

(b.) The new riband to be worn will be of the breadth prescribed by the existing statutes of the Order (one inch and a half).

(c.) (i.) The Knight Commander of an Order who is also a Companion of a senior Order will, of course, treat the badge of the Order of which he is a Knight Commander as senior for all purposes.

(ii.) A Companion or Commander of more than one of the Orders affected will wear the badge of the senior Order just below the collar of the tunic or uniform coat, the other badges being worn one below the other, suspended on riband which emerges from between the buttons of the coat.

(iii.) With evening dress the badge of the senior Order will be worn under the white tie, the others, in miniature, on the lapel of the coat.

(d.) When a Companion is in service dress the riband of the Order will be worn on the left breast as heretofore

I have, &c.,

WALTER H. LONG.

Governor-General His Excellency the Right Honourable the Earl of Liverpool, P.C., G.C.M.G., M.V.O., &c.

Commencing with January, 1917, a new system of collection of monthly vital statistics was inaugurated. Metropolitan areas have been created at each of the four chief centres, and suburban areas at nine of the more important secondary centres. Each area includes, in addition to the central boroughs, a considerable non-municipalized area adjacent to and contingent on the centre.

An objection to the old system of publishing statistics for municipal areas only was that these were constantly being extended or otherwise altered, and no proper comparison could be made between one period and another, and no satisfactory record kept of the social condition and progress of the community. The creation of fairly extensive areas fixed for a long period will remove these disabilities. There was also the consideration that the populations of the various boroughs used in the old system were too small to give any satisfactory periodic comparison, especially when the period treated was only one month. The new system considers only the central borough of the metropolitan or suburban area, the remainder of that area, and the total.

The populations of these areas at the census of October, 1916, were as follow:—

Auckland Metropolitan Area	133,712	Wanganui Suburban Area	19,517
Wellington Metropolitan Area	95,235	Palmerston North Suburban Area	14,006
Christchurch Metropolitan Area	92,733	Nelson Suburban Area	9,962
Dunedin Metropolitan Area	68,716	Grey Valley Boroughs Suburban Area	8,373
Gisborne Suburban Area	12,660	Timaru Suburban Area	13,716
Napier Suburban Area	15,131	Invercargill Suburban Area	17,862
New Plymouth Suburban Area	9,795

The total population covered by the present investigations therefore amounts to 511,418 persons, or a little less than one-half the population of the Dominion at the census of 1916 (excluding Maoris and the residents of Cook and other Pacific islands).

BIRTHS AND BIRTH-RATES.

The total number of births registered as occurring in the four metropolitan areas in 1917 was 9,064, the rates being as follow:—

	Birth-rates per 1,000 of Population.
Auckland City	22.29
Auckland Metropolitan Area		22.33
Wellington City	24.46
Wellington Metropolitan Area		25.25
Christchurch City	23.25
Christchurch Metropolitan Area		22.96
Dunedin City	21.57
Dunedin Metropolitan Area		22.47

By the inclusion of the suburban portions the birth-rate is raised in the case of three of the metropolitan areas—the Christchurch rate being lowered. Excluding these suburban portions, it will be observed that Wellington has the highest rate, Christchurch next highest, Auckland and Dunedin following.

The birth-rates for two of the central boroughs last year show increases when compared with 1916. These are Wellington and Christchurch. Both Auckland and Dunedin show decreases when compared with 1916. The rates for the five years 1913 to 1917 are—

	Births per 1,000 of Population.
	1913.	1914.	1915.	1916.	1917.
Auckland City	23.23	23.94	21.95	23.26	22.29
Wellington City	24.88	25.25	24.04	24.08	24.46
Christchurch City	23.56	20.56	21.54	23.13	23.25
Dunedin City	21.61	20.87	19.68	23.11	21.57

DEATHS AND DEATH-RATES.

The total number of deaths registered in the four metropolitan areas during 1917 was 4,109—viz., 2,882 in the cities, and 1,227 in the suburban portions.

By including the suburban portions the death-rate is lowered in the case of all four metropolitan areas. The rates for the year are—

	Death-rates per 1,000 of Population.
Auckland City	12.36
Auckland Metropolitan Area		10.45
Wellington City	10.05
Wellington Metropolitan Area		9.37
Christchurch City	12.13
Christchurch Metropolitan Area		11.04
Dunedin City	12.23
Dunedin Metropolitan Area		11.58

The death-rates for the cities, including suburban boroughs, for five years are as below:—

	Deaths per 1,000 of Population.
	1913.	1914.	1915.	1916.	1917.
Auckland (including suburbs)*	10.61	9.42	9.05	9.58	10.45
Wellington	9.08	10.47	9.71	9.45	9.37
Christchurch	10.15	9.58	9.01	10.77	11.04
Dunedin	11.03	10.22	11.03	11.73	11.58

* Metropolitan areas in 1917.

If the number of deaths of infants under one year be excluded, the mortality among the rest of the population is found to have been for 1913, 1914, 1915, 1916, and 1917 in the following ratio to the 1,000 living:—

	Deaths per 1,000 of Population.
	1913.	1914.	1915.	1916.	1917.
Auckland (including suburbs)*	8.74	8.19	7.39	8.39	9.29
Wellington	7.79	8.59	8.19	8.06	8.14
Christchurch	8.82	8.25	7.80	9.28	10.14
Dunedin	9.59	9.25	9.53	10.70	10.93

* Metropolitan areas in 1917.

The degree of infantile mortality is perhaps best shown in the proportion of deaths of children under one year of age to every 100 births. For 1913, 1914, 1915, 1916, and 1917 the proportions at the chief centres were—

	Deaths per 1,000 of Population.
	1913.	1914.	1915.	1916.	1917.
Auckland (including suburbs)*	8.08	5.76	7.17	5.92	6.10
Wellington	6.02	8.26	6.28	6.51	5.65
Christchurch	6.35	6.82	5.42	6.67	4.93
Dunedin	7.34	5.43	7.23	5.47	4.02

* Metropolitan areas in 1917.

Again, the percentage of deaths of children under five years to the total number of deaths is—Auckland, 18.61; Wellington, 21.19; Christchurch, 15.14; Dunedin, only 10.93.

Excluding suburban portions, and dealing with the deaths at all ages in the four cities only, the rates for 1917 are found to be higher than in the previous year in all cases except that of Dunedin. The figures for five years are given:—

	Deaths per 1,000 of Population.
	1913.	1914.	1915.	1916.	1917.
Auckland City	11.49	10.43	9.99	11.10	12.36
Wellington City	9.30	10.73	10.02	9.73	10.05
Christchurch City	10.40	10.02	9.58	11.14	12.13
Dunedin City	11.98	11.00	11.58	12.37	12.23

Omitting the deaths of infants under one year, and calculating the rate on the population of one year of age and upwards, all four cities show higher rates in 1917 than in the previous year. The mean rates for five years are also given:—

	Deaths per 1,000 of Population, excluding Infants under One Year of Age.					Mean of Five Years.
	1913.	1914.	1915.	1916.	1917.
Auckland City	9.42	9.14	8.38	9.60	11.02	9.51
Wellington City	8.03	8.72	8.73	8.26	8.73	8.49
Christchurch City	9.06	8.64	8.53	9.87	11.22	9.46
Dunedin City	10.54	10.00	10.23	11.29	11.58	10.73

Subjoined is a table showing the rates of infant mortality in the four cities for each of the past five years, together with the means of those years:—

	Deaths of Children under One Year to every 100 Births.					Mean of Five Years.
	1913.	1914.	1915.	1916.	1917.

Arrivals and Departures in 1917.

Census and Statistics Office, Wellington, 26th January, 1918.

TABLES showing the numbers of arrivals in and departures from New Zealand during the year 1917, with totals for the previous nine years by way of comparison, are published for general information.

The total number of persons who arrived in the Dominion during 1917 was 15,649, and the departures during the year numbered 13,869, the excess of arrivals over departures for the year being 1,780.

According to returns furnished by the Immigration officers, 2,931 persons arrived from the United Kingdom, and 1,501 persons departed therefor during the year. From the Commonwealth of Australia the arrivals are returned as numbering 10,146 persons, and the departures thereto as 10,449 persons. Arrivals and departures from and to other countries were 2,572 and 1,869 persons respectively.

Of the 15,649 persons who came to New Zealand last year, 1,732, or 11.06 per cent. of the total, were children—i.e., under twelve years of age; and of the 13,869 departures the children numbered 1,301, or 9.38 per cent.

The arrivals and departures shown do not include members of the Expeditionary Forces.

Maruia Hot Springs Reserve, Nelson Land District, for Lease by Public Auction.

District Lands and Survey Office,
Nelson, 29th January, 1918.

NOTICE is hereby given that the undermentioned reserve will be offered for lease by public auction at the District Lands and Survey Office, Nelson, at 11 o'clock a.m. on Wednesday, 27th March, 1918, under the provisions of section 329 of the Land Act, 1908.

SCHEDULE.

NELSON LAND DISTRICT. — MURCHISON COUNTY. — MARUIA HOT SPRINGS RESERVE.

LOTS 1 and 2 of Section 2, Square 182, Block IV, Lewis Survey District, and Block I, Travers Survey District: Area, 4,593 acres; upset annual rent, £30.

The reserve is about one mile wide, and extends up the Maruia Valley, starting at a point about half a mile above the Alfred River confluence, and running for a distance of about seven miles and a half to a point close to the forks of the Maruia at the entrance of the Cannibal Gorge.

The flats along the river-bed and the river-bed itself are covered with patches of grass, scrub, and light bush, and carry English grasses, mostly self-sown. The balance of the block is steep broken hillside, covered with brown and silver birch.

The hot springs are situated on the north side of the river, at a point about six miles up from the Alfred River confluence.

Bath-rooms have been constructed close to the springs. These consist of two small buildings, one containing two rooms and the other one room, used as bathing-sheds for ladies and gentlemen respectively. These buildings (viz., the bathing-sheds) are connected by a light suspension foot-bridge with the south side of the river, where three small cottages have been erected, two of them having three rooms each used as bedrooms and kitchens, and the other building containing only one room used as a sleeping-room.

The road from Reefton, Upper Grey, and Murchison runs through the valley towards Culverden and other places of the East Coast, crossing either by the Lewis Pass, Henry Pass, or Ada Pass.

The access from Reefton, a distance of thirty-nine miles, is, first, by formed dray-road thirty miles, by the Inangahua and Rahu Valleys to the Maruia Plains; secondly, by formed dray-road, thence by about four miles across plains, road formed in patches, thence one mile of river-bed road, and thence four miles of road formation.

From Murchison the access is by total distance of fifty-three miles, comprised as follows: By formed road for thirty-eight miles, thence by road partly across plains and partly of river-bed for six miles, and thence a further nine miles as last described above.

ABSTRACT OF TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF LEASE.

1. Term of lease, twenty-one years, without right of renewal.

2. One half-year's rent at the rate offered, together with lease fee £1 ls., to be paid on the fall of the hammer.

3. Possession will be given on day of sale, when rent will commence.

4. Rent to be paid half-yearly in advance.

5. All persons duly authorized in that behalf shall have free right of ingress, egress, and regress for such purpose as the Commissioner of Crown Lands may deem expedient.

6. The lessee shall prevent the growth and spread of gorse, broom, and sweetbrier on the land, and he shall with all reasonable despatch remove, or cause to be removed, all gorse, broom, sweetbrier, ragwort, or other noxious weeds or plants, as may be directed by the Commissioner.

7. The lessee shall pay all rates, taxes, and other assessments that may become due or payable.

8. The lessee shall not fell or destroy any bush on the land, nor effect any substantial improvements, without the permission in writing of the Commissioner first had and obtained.

9. The lessee shall have no right to sublet, assign, or part with the possession of the said land and premises, or any part thereof, except with the written consent of the Commissioner first had and obtained.

10. Improvements made with permission will, prior to the expiry of the term, be valued, and the value thereof shall be a charge on the land in favour of the outgoing lessee when the land is again leased.

11. During the first year of the term the lessee shall erect on a site to be approved by the Commissioner of Crown Lands, at or near the Maruia Hot Springs, a suitable accommodation-house of cob or wood, containing at least one public room and twelve bedrooms, comfortably furnished with at least twenty good beds with clean and suitable bedding, sheets, and blankets; he will also erect on such site a good eight-stalled stable.

12. On or before the 1st January, 1919, he shall securely fence and lay down in English grass a convenient paddock for such site containing not less than 5 acres; he will also throughout the term of his lease provide a sufficient supply of food and other provisions for man and beast at charges not exceeding the following: Meals, 2s.; beds, 2s. 6d.; horse-feeds with oats, 2s. He will furnish travellers with meals, clean and well cooked; and will also keep upon the premises a supply of good sound chaff and oats, and will provide the horses of travellers with so much thereof as their owners may reasonably demand at the prices above mentioned.

13. On or before the 1st January, 1919, the lessee will fence in a paddock of not less than 20 acres, to be used exclusively for the accommodation of travelling stock, upon the following charges for each night: Horses, 1s. per head; cattle, 3d. per head; sheep, ½d. per head.

14. The lease shall be liable to forfeiture in case the lessee shall fail to fulfil any of the conditions of the lease within thirty days after the date on which the same ought to have been fulfilled.

15. The present two small cottages shall remain the property of the Crown until completion of the accommodation-house, and thereupon shall be removed at the option of the Crown or disposed of to the lessee at an assessment then to be determined.

16. On or before the 1st October, 1919, the lessee shall erect a bath-house upon a site to be approved by the Minister, of twelve cubicles, six for male and six for female bathers.

17. An area of 80 acres or thereabouts, as shown on the plan, is set aside as a camping-ground for the public under regulations to be hereafter provided in that respect.

18. One-third of the flow of the water from the springs is reserved by the Crown for the use of such of the public as shall be permitted the use of the same, but so as not to interfere with the proper working of the bath-house hereinbefore referred to or the bath-house to be erected in its stead.

Full particulars may be obtained at this office.
