Open pastoral country with bush in gullies, comprising steep sunny faces and spurs, with good flat along the river to the north, and generally unimproved steep faces and spurs, with fern, manuka scrub, and roughly 40 acres of light bush to the south; thick blackberry along the river-flats and terraces, and in the Ruatoitoi Stream; generally well grassed and watered. Good soil on clay. Distant about twenty-five miles from Napier by coach-road.

Section 2, Block XIV: Area, 445 acres; capital value, £3,230; instalment on deferred payment (excluding interest), £161 10s.; half-yearly rent on lease, £72 13s. 6d.

Altitude, from sea-level to 750 ft. Generally open pastoral country. The portion to the north-west side of the Arapawanui Road comprises easy ridges, with steep broken spurs and faces; about 80 acres of light bush, remainder grass, fern and manuka scrub. The portion to the south-east of the road comprises steep well-grassed spurs and faces, with roughly 50 acres of light bush in the gullies, and about 13 acres of white-pine bush flat and about 8 acres of swampy flat along the Waipatiki Stream. The whole well watered. Good soil on clay, with limestone outcrop. Thick blackberry along the Ruatoitoi and Waipatiki Streams. Distant twenty-two miles from Napier by coach-road.

GENERAL DESCRIPTION.

The Arapawanui Block of 3,670 acres, divided into seven sections, lies to the north of Napier about twenty miles by the main Wairoa Road, and twenty-two miles by the Tongoio Settlement and Arapawanui Roads. Altitude, from sea-level to 1,217 ft.

Situated between the Arapawanui River and the Waipatiki Stream, and running from the coast to the Wairoa Road, it has the Tongoio Settlement on the south, the Tutira and Arapawanui Runs on the north, and the Purahotangihia Discharged Soldiers Settlement on the west.

It was formerly held under Native lease and formed part of the old Tongoio Run, and has been improved by felling, burning, and grassing, but has gone back of recent years, there having been little stock on it for the past two years.

It comprises fairly easy ridges and spurs, with steep faces, and small flats along the Arapawanui River and Waipatiki Stream. Generally well grassed, and watered by numerous small streams, with some fern, manuka scrub, and light bush in the gullies, and blackberry in the Arapawanui, Waipatiki, and Ruatoitoi valleys. Good soil on clay, with limestone outcrop.

It is proposed to construct a road along the main ridge from the Wairoa to the Arapawanui Road, along which small homestead-sites will be found, but water will have to be collected in tanks for household purposes.

The whole block is admirably adapted for sheep and cattle raising, and is capable of great improvement.

The mail-coach via the Wairoa Road leaves the post-office, Napier, at 6.30 a.m. every Tuesday and Friday, returning on the following days; and via Arapawanui Road on Thursday at 6.30 a.m., returning the same day.

The north and south boundaries of the block along the Arapawanui River and Waipatiki Stream respectively are fenced for the most part with a give-and-take fence-line.

Successful applicants will require to make arrangements with adjoining owners with regard to their share of these fences.

SPECIAL CONDITION.

The existing track along the main ridge is reserved until the road is constructed.

Sale posters and full particulars may be obtained from this office.
