321. He shall keep the Assistant Quartermaster-General informed of all expenditure on votes, with the view to assist him to prevent any vote being exceeded.

322. He shall be responsible that all accounts in the Command Pay Office are kept strictly in accordance with the Public Revenues Act and Treasury Regulations. He shall take such steps as will ensure that the accounts of sub-accountants and imprestees are properly kept, and that no excessive balance is held.

He shall inspect such accounts at least once monthly, and at each inspection will obtain and have the bank pass-book made up by the bank for the purpose of checking transactions and verifying the balance.

323. A Paymaster shall be held liable for the amount of any disallowances arising from errors or overissues made or authorized by him in disregard of regulations or without proper authority.

324. Ledger accounts will be kept containing the ledger accounts of all sub-imprestees and such other ledger accounts as the nature of the Paymaster's transactions may render necessary. The ledgers will be retained for six years from the date of last entry therein.

325. The full terms of all contracts or agreements, as notified to the Paymaster by the heads of services and departments, will be carefully recorded by or under the personal supervision of the officer responsible for the detailed examination of the bills or claims connected therewith.

In the case of members of the Forces travelling on duty, where extended absence is probable and cash payments have to be made, an advance may be made up to 75 per cent. of the maximum allowance that can be claimed. Applications for such advances must be made on the prescribed form.

332. He shall not advance any moneys to a member of another military district on account of travelling or other expenses, unless authority has first been obtained for so doing from the Command Paymaster of the district to which the expenditure is to be charged.

333. The Paymaster will carry out a systematic periodical examination of the office records of claims, rents, or other revenue due to the public, adopting such measures as will secure the prompt discharge of claims and the necessary credit to public funds.

334. Should difficulty be experienced in recovering vouchers supporting receipts, statements, &c., or money due from officers or others, the Paymaster shall at once represent the circumstances in writing to the Assistant Quartermaster-General, who shall, if necessary, transmit same to the Director of Financial Services. Upon receipt from the Ordnance Officer of a claim for damages or deficiencies against a unit, the Command Paymaster shall demand payment from the Commanding Officer or other officer responsible, and in the event of such claim not being satisfied within thirty days of such demand the Command Paymaster shall report the fact to the Assistant Quartermaster-General, who shall immediately take such action as may be necessary to obtain immediate settlement of payment, and shall furnish to the Director of Financial Services, within fourteen days of the taking of such action, a report if the claim be then unsatisfied.

SUMMARY FOR THE MONTH OF DECEMBER, 1918.

The weather during December proved very changeable owing to the unusual number of westerly low-pressure areas which passed in the south.

The only settled weather was experienced generally between the 14th and 20th, when anticyclonic conditions ruled.

Some heavy rainfall accompanied electrical conditions in different parts of the North Island on the 8th and 28th, and on this account the middle districts of the North Island had a total rainfall above the average. Generally, however, the rainfall was of a showery nature, and the aggregate fall for the month was less than the mean.

D. C. BATES, Director.

Dealing with the four metropolitan areas only, it is found that the inclusion of the suburban portions lowers the death-rate in Auckland, Wellington, and Christchurch.

	Death-rate per 1,000 of Population.
Auckland City	2.08	1.67
Auckland Metropolitan Area	6.62	5.81
Wellington City	2.09	1.81
Wellington Metropolitan Area	2.64	2.81
Christchurch City
Christchurch Metropolitan Area
Dunedin City
Dunedin Metropolitan Area

Including the suburban portions, the rate at Wellington is the highest and at Auckland the lowest.

Compared with December, 1917, the results are—

	1917.	1918.
Auckland Metropolitan Area	1.00	1.67
Wellington Metropolitan Area	0.65	5.81
Christchurch Metropolitan Area	1.08	1.81
Dunedin Metropolitan Area	0.83	2.81

The total births registered for the four metropolitan areas amounted to 724, as against 597 in November—an increase of 127. The deaths registered in December were 1,137—a decrease of 666 as compared with the previous month. Of the total deaths, males contributed 673, females 464. One hundred and one of the deaths were of children under five years of age, being 8.88 per cent. of the whole number. Fifty-two of these were under one year of age.

The following table shows the deaths in various age-groups occurring in the four metropolitan and total of nine suburban areas during the month of December, 1918:—

GENERAL DESCRIPTION.

Maungateparu Settlement, formerly the property of Alexander Bell, Esq., is situated between Morrinsville (railway junction, 103 miles from Auckland) and Tahuna, the main road between the two places running through the centre of the property. The site of the proposed township, which is located in the middle of the settlement, is about six miles northward from Morrinsville.

The whole of the block consists of low downs, with soil of a free nature, practically all ploughable and easily worked. The settlement is watered by running streams, and the Piako River and tributaries from the eastern boundary; some of the subdivisions have no permanent water, but it is believed that sufficient supplies are obtainable anywhere by sinking. The pasture consists of English grasses, and is generally in good order, but portions will require breaking up and regrassing before dairying can be carried on to the best advantage. Provision has been made for a small township subdivision in the centre of the block, where no doubt the usual country facilities will be established as soon as circumstances permit. In the meantime the Township of Morrinsville, to which there is access by good metalled road, makes all conveniences readily accessible. The new roads through the settlement are being formed.

Sale posters and full particulars may be obtained at this office.

SCHEDULE.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 8th day of November, 1918.

Present:

THE KING'S MOST EXCELLENT MAJESTY.

Lord Privy Seal. Mr. Chancellor of the Duchy* of Lord Steward. Lancaster.
Lord Somerleyton. Sir Auckland Geddes.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a report from the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council dated the 22nd day of October, 1918, in the words following, viz.:-

"Whereas by virtue of His late Majesty King Edward the Seventh's Order in Council of the 18th day of October, 1909, there was referred unto this Committee a humble petition of Hineiti Rirerire Arani in the matter of an appeal from the Native Appellate Court of New Zealand between the petitioner appellant and the Public Trustee of New Zealand, respondent, setting forth that in 1896 Erueti Arani, a Native Chief residing with his wife, Mariana Pine, at Moawhango, in New Zealand, took into their care and control the petitioner soon after she was born and named her Hineiti Rirerire Arani: That the petitioner's parents were both of the Maori race: That in 1897 Erueti Arani and his wife also took into their care and control a second female infant, whom they named Hurihuri Matilda Arani: That this infant was of European parentage: That on the 11th January, 1900, Erueti Arani applied for and obtained an Order of Adoption under the Adoption of Children Act, 1895, in favour of Hurihuri Matilda Arani: That as to this form of adoption the petitioner submits that proceedings under this Act could have no force or effect as regards succession to Native lands according to Native custom: That in 1900 Erueti Arani and his wife also took into their care and control a brother of the petitioner, and named him Whaitiketike Arani: That his parents were also of the Maori race: That soon after Erueti Arani evinced a desire to adopt another infant, afterwards named Te Oiroa Arani Patare, a daughter of Robert Thompson Batley and Emily Batley, European settlers residing at Moawhango: That in 1901 the Native Land Claims Adjustment and Laws Amendment Act (No. 65L) was passed, by which it was enacted by section 50 that no claim by adoption to the estate of any Native dying after the 31st March, 1902, should be recognized unless such adoption should have been registered in the Native Land Court in accordance with regulations to be made as therein provided: That on the 23rd October, 1903, Erueti Arani and his wife made application for the registration under section 50 of the adoption of each of the three children (1) the petitioner, (2) Hurihuri Matilda Arani, and (3) Whaitiketike Arani, and Erueti Arani himself also at the same time made application for the registration of the adoption of Te Oiroa Arani Patare: That accordingly notices were in respect of the four children gazetted on the 19th November, 1903: That Erueti Arani died on the 21st November, 1907: That up to the date of his death the three children had continued under his care and control: That Te Oiroa Arani Patare remained under the care and control of her own parents, and was never taken into the care and control of the deceased: That in 1908 the Public Trustee applied to the Native Land Court for succession orders in favour of all of the four children in respect of freehold interests of the deceased in certain Native lands: That the Native Land Court on the 30th April, 1908, decided in effect that only the two children—namely, the petitioner and Whaitiketike Arani, both of Maori parentage, were entitled to succeed: That against this decision the Public Trustee appealed to the Native Appellate Court, and that Court on the 8th October, 1908, varied the judgment of the Native Land Court by admitting Hurihuri Matilda Arani, although she was of European parentage: And humbly praying Your Majesty in Council for special leave to appeal from the judgment of the Native Appellate Court dated the 8th October, 1908, or for such further or other Order as to Your Majesty in Council may seem proper:

"And whereas by virtue of the aforesaid Order in Council there was also referred unto this Committee the matter of a petition of the same petitioner in the matter of an appeal from the Native Appellate Court of New Zealand between the petitioner appellant and the Public Trustee of New Zealand, respondent, setting forth that in 1896 Mariana Pine, a Native woman, the wife of Erueti Arani (along with her husband), took the petitioner into their household soon after she was born: That in 1897 Mariana Pine (along with her husband) took another female child into their household: That her name was Matilda Lindsay, and both her parents were Europeans: That this child was given the name of Hurihuri Matilda Lindsay Arani: That on the 11th January, 1900, Mariana Pine (along with her husband) obtained an order under the Adoption of Children Act (New Zealand), 1895, adopting Hurihuri Matilda Lindsay Arani in terms of that Act: That the petitioner is advised that this Order of Adoption could have no force or effect as regards the right of succession according to Native custom: That by Notice of Adoption dated the 23rd October, 1903, gazetted on the 19th November, 1903, in accordance with the regulations made in that behalf under section 50 of the Native Land Claims Adjustment and Laws Amendment Act (New Zealand), 1901, Mariana Pine notified that she along with her husband had taken the petitioner and Whaitiketike Arani to be their adopted children according to Native custom (New Zealand Gazette, 1903, Vol. 2, p. 2439): That the petitioner is advised there could be no adoption 'according to Native custom' in the case of Hurihuri Matilda Lindsay Arani, she being a pure blooded European child: That the petitioner and Hurihuri Matilda Lindsay Arani and Whaitiketike Arani continued under the care and control of Mariana Pine and her husband until his death in 1907, and thereafter under the care and control of Mariana Pine until her death: That Mariana Pine died in 1908, and the respondent was appointed by the Native Land Court as the administrator of her estate: That shortly afterwards, following the decision of the Native Appellate Court in the matter of the lands of Erueti Arani, deceased, as already recited, the respondent obtained succession orders from the Native Land Court in favour of (1) the petitioner, (2) Hurihuri Matilda Lindsay Arani, and (3) Whaitiketike Arani in respect of the lands of the deceased: That one of the next-of-kin of the deceased appealed against these orders: That on the hearing of the appeal the respondent appeared to support the orders, and on the 18th July, 1910, the Appellate Court dismissed the appeal: That the petitioner attained the age of twenty-one years on the 1st October, 1917, and soon after sought legal advice as to the right of herself and Whaitiketike Arani as the two Maori children adopted by the deceased to be her only two successors 'according to Native custom': That after investigation and consideration of the records and facts the petitioner has been advised that the judgment of the Native Appellate Court in confirming the succession orders issued by the Native Land Court by including Hurihuri Matilda Lindsay Arani is bad law: That until recently the petitioner was under the belief that Whaitiketike Arani would attain the age of twenty-one years during June, 1918, when the petitioner and Whaitiketike Arani intended to join in one petition for special leave to appeal against the judgment of the Native Appellate Court of the 18th July, 1910, but now it has been ascertained that Whaitiketike will not attain the age of twenty-one years for about three years: And humbly praying Your Majesty in Council for special leave to appeal against the judgment of the Native Appellate Court dated the 18th July, 1910, or for such further or other order as to your Majesty in Council may seem proper.

"The Lords of the Committee in obedience to His late Majesty's said Order in Council have taken the humble petitions into consideration, and having heard counsel in support thereof their Lordships do this day agree humbly to report to Your Majesty as their opinion (1) that leave ought to be granted to the petitioner to enter and prosecute her appeals against the judgments of the Native Appellate Court of New Zealand respectively dated the 8th day of October, 1908, and the 18th day of July, 1910, upon depositing in the Registry of the Privy Council the sum of £300 as security for costs; (2) that the two appeals ought to be consolidated and heard together upon one printed case on each side; (3) that liberty ought to be granted to the said Hurihuri Matilda Arani and Whaitiketike Arani to intervene in the appeals to lodge printed cases and to appear by counsel at the hearing if they should be so advised; (4) that the matter ought to be referred to the Native Appellate Court in order that that Court may direct advertisements to be published in suitable newspapers within the Dominion of New Zealand for any persons claiming to be the next-of-kin according to the Maori law or custom of Erueti Arani, deceased, and of

Mariana Pine, deceased, living at the time of their respective deaths, or claiming to be the legal representatives of such of the next-of-kin as are now dead, or claiming to be otherwise interested in the estates of Eructi Arani, deceased, and Mariana Pine, deceased, such claims to be entered in the Native Appellate Court by a date to be fixed by that Court; (5) that the proper officer of the Native Appellate Court ought to be directed to transmit to the Registrar of the Privy Council, with the record hereinafter referred to, the names of any such persons claiming to be such next-of-kin or otherwise interested as aforesaid, and liberty ought to be granted to such persons (if any) to intervene in the appeals to lodge printed cases and to appear by counsel at the hearing if they should be so advised; and (6) that the proper officer of the Native Appellate Court ought to be directed to transmit to the Registrar of the Privy Council an authenticated copy under seal of the record proper to be laid before Your Majesty on the hearing of the appeals upon payment by the petitioner of the usual fees for the same."

His Majesty having taken the said report into consideration was pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order as it is hereby ordered that the same be punctually observed, obeyed, and carried into execution.

Whereof the Governor-General, Lieutenant-Governor, or Officer administering the Government of the Dominion of New Zealand and its Dependencies for the time being, and all other persons whom it may concern, are to take notice and govern themselves accordingly.

ALMERIC FITZROY.
