

SUPPLEMENT
TO THE
NEW ZEALAND GAZETTE

OF
THURSDAY, APRIL 1, 1920.

Published by Authority.

WELLINGTON, TUESDAY, APRIL 6, 1920.

Notification of Vacancy in the House of Representatives for the Stratford Electoral District.

Wellington, 6th April, 1920.

WHEREAS the Court for the trial of an election petition under the provisions of the Legislature Act, 1908, has determined that Robert Masters was not duly elected as a member of the House of Representatives for the Electoral District of Stratford at the last general election of members of that House, and that the election for that electoral district was void: And whereas the said Court has, on the 27th day of March, 1920, certified such determination in accordance with law: And whereas the vacancy so created has occurred at a time when there is no Speaker of the House of Representatives:

His Excellency the Governor-General of New Zealand therefore directs it to be notified in the Gazette, and it is hereby notified accordingly, in pursuance of section 100 of the Legislature Act, 1908, that a vacancy exists in the seat of the member of the House of Representatives for the Electoral District of Stratford, and that the cause of such vacancy is the determination and declaration of the said Court as hereinbefore recited.

W. F. MASSEY,
Minister in Charge of Electoral Department.

By Authority: MARCUS F. MARKS, Government Printer, Wellington.
