

SUPPLEMENT

TO THE

NEW ZEALAND GAZETTE

OF

THURSDAY, JUNE 17, 1920.

Published by Authority.

WELLINGTON, FRIDAY, JUNE 18, 1920.

Revoking Part of a Proclamation taking Additional Land at Greatford for the Purposes of the Foxton - New Plymouth Railway, and for Road-diversions in connection therewith.

[L.S.] LIVERPOOL, Governor-General.

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS by the Public Works Amendment Act, 1909, it is enacted that if at any time after the issue or making of any Proclamation taking land under the Public Works Act, 1908, and before the payment or award of any compensation in respect of the taking thereof, it is found that the land or any part thereof is not required for the purpose for which it was taken the Governor-General may, by a subsequent Proclamation gazetted, revoke the former Proclamation, either wholly or so far as he thinks necessary:

And whereas it is found that part of the land at Greatford taken for the purposes of the Foxton - New Plymouth Railway by a Proclamation made under the Public Works Act, 1908, dated the twenty-second day of November, one thousand nine hundred and nineteen (hereinafter termed "the said Proclamation"), and published in the New Zealand Gazette No. 138, of the twenty-seventh day of November, one thousand nine hundred and nineteen, page 3569, is not required for the purpose for which it was taken:

And whereas compensation in respect of the taking of the said land has not been paid or awarded:

Now, therefore, I, Arthur William de Brito Savile, Earl of Liverpool, the Governor-General of the Dominion of New Zealand, in pursuance and exercise of the powers vested in me by the Public Works Amendment Act, 1909, and of all other powers enabling me in this behalf, do hereby revoke so much of the said Proclamation as affects the land described in the Schedule hereto.

GOD SAVE THE KING!

Proclaiming Native Land to be Crown Land under Section 14 of the Native Land Amendment Act, 1914.

[L.S.] LIVERPOOL, Governor-General.

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS by section fourteen of the Native Land Amendment Act, 1914, it is provided, inter alia, that on being satisfied that the purchase of any Native land has been duly completed by or on behalf of the Crown under the authority of the Native Land Act, 1909, the Governor-General may issue a Proclamation that such land become Crown land:

And whereas the purchase of the Native land set out in the Schedule hereto has been duly completed by or on behalf of the Crown under the authority of the Native Land Act, 1909:

Now, therefore, in pursuance and exercise of the power and authority so conferred upon me by section fourteen of the Native Land Amendment Act, 1914, I, Arthur William de Brito Savile, Earl of Liverpool, the Governor-General of the Dominion of New Zealand, do hereby proclaim the land set out in the Schedule hereto to be Crown land.

GOD SAVE THE KING!

Regulations under the Orchard and Garden Diseases Act, 1908, for the Better Control of Fire-blight.—Notice No. 2019.

LIVERPOOL, Governor-General.

ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government House at Wellington, this fifteenth day of June, 1920.

Present:

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL IN COUNCIL.

IN pursuance and exercise of the powers and authorities conferred on him by the Orchard and Garden Diseases Act, 1908 (hereinafter termed "the said Act"), His Excellency the Governor-General of the Dominion of New Zealand, acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of the said Dominion, doth hereby make the following regulations for the better control and eradication of disease and defining certain powers and functions of Inspectors appointed under the said Act.]

REGULATIONS.

1. In these regulations "Inspector" means an Inspector appointed under the said Act.

2. If an Inspector finds the disease known as fire-blight (Bacillus amylovorus) present in a nursery or orchard, or if such disease is known to exist in such proximity to a nursery or orchard as in the opinion of an Inspector to have rendered the infection of such nursery or orchard probable, the Inspector may by notice served on the occupier of such nursery or orchard prohibit the removal therefrom of any plant or portion of a plant of any variety of apple, pear, quince, or crataegus.

3. Such prohibition shall remain in force until withdrawn by notice served on the occupier of the nursery or orchard by an Inspector on being satisfied that the disease has been eradicated and that no risk of infection remains.

4. While such prohibition is in force in respect of any nursery or orchard no person shall take, remove, or send out of such nursery or orchard any plant or portion of a plant of any apple, pear, quince, or crataegus, or, knowing such prohibition to be in force, shall receive any such plant or portion of a plant as aforesaid from such nursery or orchard:

Provided that nothing herein contained shall prevent any Inspector from sending, under proper safeguards, specimens of plants out of such nursery or orchard for identification of disease.

5. Every person who does or omits any act in contravention of these regulations commits an offence, and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding £20.

F. D. THOMSON,
Clerk of the Executive Council.

Regulations under the Orchard and Garden Diseases Act, 1908, prohibiting the Removal of certain Plants from the Auckland District.—Notice No. 2018.

LIVERPOOL, Governor-General.

ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government House at Wellington, this fifteenth day of June, 1920.

Present:

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS in terms of the Orchard and Garden Diseases Act, 1908 (hereinafter termed "the said Act"), the Governor-General may prohibit absolutely or except in accordance with regulations under the said Act, the bringing into any specified portion of New Zealand from any other portion or specified portion of New Zealand of any specified plant, fruit, fungus, parasite, insect, or other thing which in his opinion is diseased or is likely to spread disease:

And whereas the unrestricted bringing of plants and bees from the area hereinafter prescribed into other portions of New Zealand is likely to spread the disease known as fire-blight (Bacillus amylovorus):

Now, therefore, His Excellency the Governor-General of the Dominion of New Zealand, in pursuance and exercise of the powers and authorities conferred on him by the said Act, and acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of the said Dominion, doth hereby make the following regulations governing the bringing of plants and bees from the area defined in the said regulations into any other portion of New Zealand.

REGULATIONS.

1. In these regulations "prescribed area" means that portion of New Zealand comprised within the North Auckland and Auckland Land Districts.

2. No plant or portion of a plant of any variety of apple, pear, quince, or crataegus shall be sent or brought from the prescribed area into any other portion of New Zealand:

Provided that nothing in this regulation shall apply to the sending by an officer of the Department of Agriculture, under proper safeguards, of plants or portions of plants of any of the above-mentioned kinds from the prescribed area for the purpose of the identification of disease.

3. (1.) Every package of trees or shrubs, or portions of trees or shrubs, sent from the prescribed area to any other portion of New Zealand must be accompanied by a certificate in the form set out in the Schedule hereto, signed by the consignor, that no plant or portion of a plant of any variety of apple, pear, quince, or crataegus is contained in the package.

(2.) The certificate shall be endorsed on a tag or label securely attached to the package in a prominent position.

4. No bees shall be sent or brought from the prescribed area to any other portion of New Zealand.

5. Every person who does or omits any act in contravention of these regulations commits an offence, and is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding £20.

SCHEDULE.

CERTIFICATE TO ACCOMPANY PACKAGES OF PLANTS.

I, the undersigned, hereby certify that no plant or portion of plant of any variety of apple, pear, quince, or crataegus is contained in this package.
