Officers Commanding Districts must, before making their recommendations to General Headquarters, satisfy themselves that every endeavour has been made to obtain the most favourable quotations. Packing-cases and packing will be dealt with as in paragraph (a) (ii) above.

(ii.) The General Officer in Charge Administration may, in exceptional circumstances, authorize a cash payment to the officer, non-commissioned officer, or man concerned, who will then make his own arrangements for the removal of his household effects. Such authorizations will, however, be strictly limited, and will be made according to the following scale:—

Where pay is £600 or over per annum: Up to £60.

(c.) When it is possible for only a portion of the service to be carried out by the Department, and it is considered by the Officer Commanding District that this should be done, then tenders will be called as in paragraph (b) (i) above for the remainder of the service.

In such cases the procedure set out in paragraph (a) above will be carried out where it is applicable.

(d.) All claims for damages incurred in removals carried out by the Department will be investigated by a Court of Inquiry assembled by order of the Officer Commanding District.
