IT is hereby notified, for public information, that the following is a summary of the conditions prescribed by an Order in Council taking effect on 1st August, 1920, under which the importation from New Zealand into Canada of the following articles of New Zealand origin is permitted.

Hides and skins may be imported when accompanied by one of the following certificates:—

- (a) Abattoir Hides and Skins.—A certificate, signed by an official veterinarian, stating that the hides or skins were taken from animals slaughtered at abattoirs under Government inspection, and that the animals from which the hides or skins were obtained were free from disease at time of slaughter.
- (b) Hard Sun-dried Hides and Skins.—A certificate, signed by an official veterinarian, stating that anthrax is not prevalent in the locality where the hides or skins originated. The bales or hides must be distinctly marked for identification, each shipment showing invoice number, names and addresses of consignee and consignor.
- (c) Other Hides and Skins.—A certificate, signed by an official veterinarian, stating that anthrax is not prevalent, and that foot and mouth disease, rinderpest, or any other epizootic disease does not exist in the locality in which the hides and skins originated, or that the hides and skins have been disinfected in a satisfactory manner, under official supervision, with an effective disinfectant.

Hides and skins may be imported without a certificate, or if accompanied by an unsatisfactory certificate, provided (1) that all bales, hides, or skins in such cases are distinctly marked for identification, and that invoice number of each shipment, also names and addresses of consignor and consignee, are available; and (2) that such shipments leave the port of entry in sealed cars for destinations approved by the Veterinary Director-General, where the goods must be disinfected under prescribed conditions.

Fleshings, hide cuttings, and parings, or glue stock may be imported without disinfection (a) if accompanied by a certificate signed by an official Veterinary Inspector showing the non-prevalence of anthrax in the locality of origin; or (b) if shown upon entry to have been disinfected by heat, acidulation, soaking in a milk of lime or a lime paste; or (c) if shown to have been dried by exposure to the action of the sun and air so that each piece is of the hardness of a sun-dried hide; otherwise the importer must enter into a bond guaranteeing satisfactory handling and disinfection.

Bones, hoofs, and horns which are clean, dry, and free from pieces of hide, flesh, or sinews may be imported without disinfection. Such articles with pieces of hide or tendon attached, and also horn piths, may be imported under a bond guaranteeing satisfactory handling and disinfection.

SCHOOL FOR THE DEAF, NEAR SUMNER, CHRISTCHURCH.

UNDER THE CONTROL AND SUPERVISION OF THE EDUCATION DEPARTMENT.

Director: Mr. J. E. STEVENS.

FOR Deaf Children of sound intellect. The pupils are taught to understand and use ordinary speech. The full charge for board and education is £40 a year, but less is accepted from parents who cannot afford to pay this amount. In case of necessity admission is free.

By the Education Act it is compulsory for deaf children to come under instruction at the age of six, and to continue until the age of twenty-one unless the Education Department previously grants exemption. Though a child is, as a rule, best fitted to begin the school course at the age of six, advice should be obtained as soon as any sign of deafness is observed.

The following classes of deaf children are admitted to the School for the Deaf (sound intellect being always a necessity):—

1. Children born deaf, or who have lost their hearing before learning to speak.
2. Children who can hear a little, but are too deaf to be taught in a public school.
3. Children who have lost their hearing after having learned to speak.

The Act imposes upon every parent, teacher of a school (either public or private), constable, or officer of a charitable or kindred institution who is aware of the place of residence (either temporary or permanent) of a deaf child, and the householder in whose house any such child resides, an obligation to send notification of the fact to the Minister of Education, giving the name, age, and address of the child; and any neglect or failure to comply with this provision involves liability to a fine.

Information and advice may be obtained from the Director, or from the

SECRETARY TO THE EDUCATION DEPARTMENT,
WELLINGTON.
