Further Proroguing the General Assembly.

JELlicoe, Governor-General.

To the LEGISLATIVE COUNCILLORS of the Dominion of New Zealand, and the Members elected to serve in the HOUSE of REPRESENTATIVES of the said Dominion, summoned and called to a Meeting of the General Assembly of the said Dominion, at the City of Wellington, on the thirteenth day of the month of April, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-two, to have been commenced and held, and to every of you: GREETING.

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS on the thirteenth day of February, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-two, the General Assembly of New Zealand was prorogued to the thirteenth day of the month of April, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-two, at which time you were held constrained to appear: Now KNOW YE that for divers causes and considerations I have thought fit to relieve you and each of you of your attendance at the time aforesaid, hereby convoking and by these presents enjoining you and each of you that on Thursday, the eighteenth day of May next, you meet in Parliament, at the City of Wellington, there to take into consideration the state and welfare of the said Dominion of New Zealand, and therein to do as may seem necessary.

Given under the hand of His Excellency the Governor-General of the Dominion of New Zealand; and issued under the Seal of that Dominion, at the Government House at Wellington, this seventh day of April, 1922.

R. HEATON RHODES,
 For the Minister of Internal Affairs.
