The Deputy Superintendent shall assist and act under the direction of the Superintendent, in whose absence he shall take command of the brigade, and undertake all the duties and responsibilities of the office of Superintendent while so acting.

Subject to the Fire Brigades Act, 1908, and these by-laws, the brigade may make rules and by-laws regulating the duties and elections of such other officers as are not otherwise provided for in these by-laws, and the internal management of the affairs of the brigade, and may from time to time amend, revoke, and make new rules. A copy of all such rules shall be forwarded to the Secretary of the Board for approval.

Any member of the brigade who misconducts himself at a fire, meeting, or practice, or at any gathering where the brigade is represented, or appears in a state of intoxication at any fire, meeting, or practice, or gathering as aforesaid, or is insubordinate, or uses foul language, or wilfully neglects to carry out the instructions of the Superintendent or officer in charge, shall be liable to instant dismissal, and shall be guilty of an offence against this by-law.

(c.) If any inflammable packings or other explosive or combustible materials are placed, stored, or kept, or suffered to remain in or upon any land or buildings in such quantities or in such manner as to create or cause a risk of fire, the Superintendent shall, by notice in writing duly served upon the occupier of such land or premises and (in case there is no occupier) upon the owner thereof, direct the occupier or owner thereof, within a time to be specified in the notice, to remove the whole or any part of such inflammable packings or other explosive or combustible materials therefrom, or may direct the said occupier or owner to place or store the same in a manner to the satisfaction of the Superintendent; and every occupier or owner who fails to perform or comply with the directions contained in any such notice shall be guilty of an offence, and shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding £20, and in the case of a continuing offence to a further penalty not exceeding £2 for every day after the expiration of the time specified in such notice.

(d.) It shall not be lawful to make or place, or keep stored, or to suffer to remain on any premises within the Fire Board District any stack of hay, corn, straw, or other agricultural produce belonging to the class of cereals, or cover such stack with any inflammable material, in the open air at a distance of less than 30 ft. from any building, fence, street, private street, or public place, or adjacent land.

Every occupier of premises, within six days in the case of stacks of agricultural produce, and forty-eight hours in the case of other materials, after the service upon him of a notice in writing from the Superintendent so to do, shall remove from such premises all stacks of hay, corn, straw, or other inflammable matter or combustible material which shall have been made, deposited, or kept on such premises prior to the coming into force by these by-laws, but which it would have been under any of the foregoing by-laws illegal to have made, deposited, or kept thereon had this part of these by-laws been in force.

6. ELECTRICAL FIRE-ALARM CIRCUITS.

The Board may establish, or contract with any person or corporation for the establishment of, an electric fire-alarm circuit, and may from time to time extend such circuit and provide for the connection therewith of street alarms and public and private buildings and premises. The Superintendent may render such assistance as he may deem necessary at any fire taking place outside the district, provided he can do so without jeopardizing the safety of the Foxton Fire District. For such assistance the Board may charge the owner of the property endangered such fees as will recoup the Board the costs incurred.

8. INSPECTION OF ELECTRICAL INSTALLATIONS.

The owner or occupier of any building within the district shall not connect up any electrical installation in such building until the same has been inspected and approved by an officer appointed by the Board for such purpose.

The fee payable by the owner or occupier for such inspection and approval shall, for the first inspection and approval, be as follows:—

The officer appointed by the Board for such purpose shall have free access at all reasonable times to any building or premises, and to any part thereof, in which any electrical installation shall be used, to view and inspect the state and condition thereof, and it shall be the duty of the owner and occupier of the said building and premises to cause the said electrical installation to be inspected and approved by the said officer at least once in every three years.

SCHOOL FOR THE DEAF, NEAR SUMNER, CHRISTCHURCH.

UNDER THE CONTROL AND SUPERVISION OF THE EDUCATION DEPARTMENT.

Director: Mr. J. E. STEVENS.

FOR Deaf Children of sound intellect. The pupils are taught to understand and use ordinary speech. The full charge for board and education is £40 a year, but less is accepted from parents who cannot afford to pay this amount. In case of necessity admission is free.

By the Education Act it is compulsory for deaf children to come under instruction at the age of six, and to continue until the age of twenty-one unless the Education Department previously grants exemption. Though a child is, as a rule, best fitted to begin the school course at the age of six, advice should be obtained as soon as any sign of deafness is observed.

The following classes of deaf children are admitted to the School for the Deaf (sound intellect being always a necessity):—

1. Children born deaf, or who have lost their hearing before learning to speak.
2. Children who can hear a little, but are too deaf to be taught in a public school.
3. Children who have lost their hearing after having learned to speak.

The Act imposes upon every parent, teacher of a school (either public or private), constable, or officer of a charitable or kindred institution who is aware of the place of residence (either temporary or permanent) of a deaf child, and the householder in whose house any such child resides, an obligation to send notification of the fact to the Minister of Education, giving the name, age, and address of the child; and any neglect or failure to comply with this provision involves liability to a fine.

Information and advice may be obtained from the Director, or from the

SECRETARY TO THE EDUCATION DEPARTMENT,
WELLINGTON.
