THE RULES OF THE HIGH COURT OF WESTERN SAMOA
CONSOLIDATION, 1924.

JELLICOE, Governor-General.
ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government House at Wellington, this 30th day of June, 1924.

Present :

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS by section seventy-four of the Samoa Act, 1921, it is provided that the Rules of Court determining the practice, procedure, and powers of the High Court, whether in its civil or criminal jurisdiction, shall be such as may be made in that behalf by the Governor-General by Order in Council :

Now, therefore, His Excellency the Governor-General of the Dominion of New Zealand, acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of that Dominion, and in pursuance of the authority so conferred on him by the Samoa Act, 1921, and of all other powers and authorities enabling him in that behalf, doth hereby revoke, as from the date of the coming into operation of the rules hereby made, all Orders in Council heretofore made making regulations determining the practice and procedure of the High Court of Western Samoa, and in lieu thereof doth hereby make the following rules.

RULES.

1. THESE rules may be cited as the Rules of the High Court of Western Samoa Consolidation, 1924, and shall come into operation on the 1st day of August, 1924.

2. Subject to the provisions of these or any other rules of Court, all statements of claim, informations, summonses, warrants, convictions, orders, recognizances, and other documents required or authorized in the course of the civil or criminal jurisdiction of the High Court may be in such form as the Court, or the Judge, Registrar, or other officer by whom the same are issued, made, or received, deems sufficient.

3. Every civil proceeding shall be instituted either by way of action, or by way of petition, or by way of motion, in accordance with the following rules.

4. The following proceedings shall be instituted by way of action :—

- (a.) Every proceeding for the recovery of debt or damages :
- (b.) Every proceeding for the recovery of land or chattels :
- (c.) Every proceeding for injunction, prohibition, or mandamus :
- (d.) Every proceeding for a decree of divorce or nullity of marriage :
- (e.) Every proceeding which by the law for the time being in force in New Zealand must, if instituted in the Supreme Court, be commenced by writ of summons or originating summons.

5. Every proceeding against the Crown shall be commenced by way of petition in accordance with Part VIII of the Samoa Act, 1921.

6. Except where otherwise provided by any Order, all other civil proceedings may be commenced by way of motion.

Actions.

7. Every action shall be commenced by filing with a Registrar of the Court a statement of claim intituled "In the High Court of Western Samoa," setting forth the names and descriptions of the plaintiff and defendant, the nature of the cause of action, and the relief claimed. Forms similar to those in the First Schedule hereto may be used.

8. On the filing of the statement of claim the Registrar or Deputy Registrar shall thereupon issue, under the seal of the Court, a summons to the defendant in Form 1 in the Second Schedule hereto, requiring the defendant to appear at the trial of the action at the time and place mentioned in the summons. A copy of the statement of claim shall be annexed to the summons.

9. The place of trial to be so appointed in the summons shall be in such place as the Registrar thinks fit, having regard to the residence of the parties to the action, the place where the cause of action has arisen, and any other relevant circumstances.

10. The time and place of the trial of the action shall be determined by the Registrar as he thinks fit, and shall be stated in the summons accordingly.

11. As against any defendant who consents to trial without summons, an action duly commenced by the filing of a statement of claim may be tried and determined without the issue or service of any summons.

12. No pleadings other than the statement of claim shall be required in any action where the amount involved does not exceed the sum of £200. Where the amount involved exceeds the sum of £200 the plaintiff may, on filing his statement of claim, apply ex parte for an order directing the defendant to file a statement of defence, and the Court may order the defendant to file a defence to the claim within such time as shall be stated in such order. A sealed copy of such order, together with a sealed copy of the summons and the statement of claim, shall be served on the defendant.

13. The Court may require a plaintiff at or before the trial of the action to file a fuller and more explicit statement of his claim, and may stay further proceedings in the action until this has been done.

14. A plaintiff may at any time before or during the trial amend his statement of claim with the leave of the Court.

15. The summons to a defendant may, as the Registrar thinks fit, be served either by an officer of the Court or by the plaintiff or his agent. Proof of service may be made either by affidavit or by a witness at the trial.

16. The summons shall be served on the defendant in person. Where there are more defendants than one, a separate summons shall, except in the case of a firm of partners, be issued and served on each defendant.

17. The summons may be served upon a corporation by leaving the same at any place of business of the corporation.

18. When partners are sued as partners they may be sued either in the firm-name or in the names of the partners, and in either case the summons may be served by delivering it to any one of the partners or by leaving it at any place of business of the firm.

19. When a defendant is not in Samoa but has in the territory an attorney or agent authorized to defend actions on his behalf, the summons may by leave of the Court be served upon such attorney or agent.

20. The summons may be served anywhere in Samoa, but not elsewhere except in accordance with the provisions hereinafter contained for service outside Samoa.

21. If it appears to the Court that reasonable efforts have been made to effect service of the summons, and either that the summons has come to the knowledge of the defendant or that prompt personal service thereof cannot be effected, the Court may order that the plaintiff be at liberty to proceed as if personal service had been effected, subject to such conditions as the Court thinks fit to impose.

22. A summons may be served out of Samoa by leave of the Court—

- (a.) Where the cause of action or some material part thereof has arisen in Samoa :
- (b.) Where the subject-matter of the action is property situated in Samoa :

(c.) Where it is sought to compel or restrain the performance of any act in Samoa :

(d.) In a suit for divorce under Part XI of the Samoa Act, 1921.

23. Every application for an order for leave to serve a summons out of Samoa shall be supported by evidence by affidavit or otherwise, showing in what place or country the defendant is or probably may be found, and whether the defendant is a British subject or not, and the grounds on which the application is made.

24. If in any action a summons has become inoperative by reason of not being served in due time, or if for any other reason it is considered expedient to issue a further summons to the same defendant, a further summons may be issued accordingly in the same manner as if no previous summons had been issued.

25. No action shall be deemed improperly constituted because of the joinder of plaintiffs or defendants or of different causes of action ; but the Court may, in any case in which such joinder is considered embarrassing or otherwise inexpedient, order any party or cause of action to be struck out.

26. Where there are numerous persons having the same interest in an action one or more of them may sue or be sued, or may be authorized by the Court to defend in such action, on behalf of or for the benefit of all persons so interested.

27. The Court may at any stage of the proceedings, either upon or without the application of either party, and on such terms as appear to the Court to be just, order that the name of any party, whether a plaintiff or a defendant, improperly joined be struck out, and that the name of any person who ought to have been joined, or whose presence before the Court may be necessary to enable the Court effectually and completely to adjudicate upon and settle all the questions involved in the action, be added, whether as plaintiff or defendant.

28. No person shall be added as a plaintiff without his own consent.

29. Infants and lunatics may sue and be sued by a guardian ad litem admitted for that purpose by the Court.

30. A guardian ad litem may be removed by the Court upon sufficient cause being shown.

31. In case of the death, retirement, or removal of a guardian ad litem a fresh guardian shall be appointed by the Court.

32. A guardian ad litem shall not be permitted to retire without the leave of the Court.

33. The guardian ad litem shall be liable for the costs of the action.

35. A Judge, Commissioner, Registrar, or Deputy Registrar of the High Court may in any proceeding before the Court, whether civil or criminal, issue a summons to any person requiring him to appear before the Court at the time and place mentioned in the summons, there to give evidence in that proceeding or to produce any document to the Court in that proceeding.

36. Any person upon whom any such summons has been served and who neglects or fails without sufficient cause shown by him to appear or to produce any document which he is so required to produce, and any person, whether summoned to attend or not, who, being present in Court and being required to give evidence or to produce any document then in his possession, refuses, without sufficient cause shown by him, to be sworn or to give evidence or to produce that document, and any person who, having been sworn to give evidence in any proceeding, neglects or fails without sufficient cause shown by him to appear at such time as the Court directs for the purpose of giving further evidence in the proceeding, shall be guilty of contempt of the High Court, and may be dealt with accordingly.

37. The High Court may, in any civil or criminal proceeding where it appears necessary for the purposes of justice, make an order for the examination on oath before any officer of the Court or any other person or persons, and at any place either in or out of Samoa, of any witness or person, and may order any deposition so taken to be filed in the Court, and may empower any party to the proceeding to give the deposition in evidence therein.

38. In any civil or criminal proceeding in the High Court an affidavit made out of Samoa may, with the leave of the High Court, be received in evidence if made before a solicitor of the Supreme Court of New Zealand, or in any other manner which would make such affidavit admissible in civil proceedings in the Supreme Court of New Zealand under the laws for the time being in force in New Zealand.

39. The High Court may, if it thinks fit, at any time during any proceedings, whether civil or criminal, order all witnesses other than the witness under examination to go and remain outside the Court until required to give evidence; and any witness who disobeys any such order shall be guilty of contempt of Court.

40. (1.) Affidavits in the High Court may be sworn in Samoa before—

- (a.) A solicitor of the Supreme Court of New Zealand :
- (b.) A Registrar or Deputy Registrar of the High Court :
- (c.) A Postmaster :
- (d.) A Collector of Customs :
- (e.) A Medical Officer.

(2.) The making of such affidavits shall be governed by the same rules as are in force for the time being with respect to affidavits in the Supreme Court of New Zealand.

41. In any civil proceedings in the High Court evidence may be taken either orally or by affidavit, but in actions and other proceedings inter partes such affidavits shall not be admissible without the leave of the Court.

42. A summons to a witness in any civil proceeding may be in Form 2 in the Second Schedule hereto.

43. Any such summons may be served either by the proper officer of the Court or by the party at whose instance the witness is summoned or his agent.

44. Without the leave of the Court no such summons shall be issued requiring any witness to attend at any place outside the island in which he is resident or present at the date of the issue of the summons.

45. Witnesses in civil proceedings, whether summoned or not, shall be entitled to such payment in respect of their expenses and loss of time as the Court awards.

46. Save when the Court is exercising jurisdiction as the Native Land and Titles Commission in any proceeding in the High Court, whether civil or criminal, any party thereto may be represented either by a barrister or solicitor of the Supreme Court of New Zealand, or, with the leave of the Court, by any other agent, but any such leave may be at any time withdrawn.

47. In any civil proceeding in the High Court the Court shall have power to make such order as it thinks just for the payment of the costs of the proceeding by or to any party thereto. Such order may be for payment of such sum for costs and such disbursements as the Court shall in its discretion think fit. In the exercise of such discretion the Court shall have regard to the rules as to allowances and payment of costs in force in the Supreme Court and the Magistrates' Courts in New Zealand in like proceedings. Any such order may be made by the Court at the time of delivery of judgment in the proceeding or upon motion to be filed by the party applying for costs within seven days after the date of delivery of judgment.

48. (1.) In any civil proceeding and at any stage thereof the High Court may require a plaintiff or applicant resident out of the jurisdiction of the High Court to deposit any sum of money as security for costs, and may stay the proceeding pending the making of such deposit.

(2.) When any sum has been so deposited as security for costs it shall be disposed of in such manner as the Court directs.

49. The scale of Court fees to be paid in all civil or criminal proceedings in the High Court shall be such as may be prescribed by Ordinance in that behalf. Court fees shall be paid by means of stamps, in accordance, so far as may be, with the practice in force for the time being in New Zealand.

50. If it appears to the satisfaction of the Court that any party is unable or ought not to be called upon to pay any Court fees, the Court may dispense with the payment thereof or may reduce the amount thereof.

51. The Court or the proper officer thereof may refuse to take any step in the course of any proceedings until the proper fee therefor, together with all other fees already due and unpaid in respect of the same proceedings, have been fully paid.

52. If the claim in any action is for a sum of money the defendant may, before trial of the action, pay into Court a sum of money by way of satisfaction, and give notice of such payment to the plaintiff.

53. Any money paid into Court as aforesaid may be paid out to the plaintiff or his duly authorized agent, but the receipt thereof shall not affect the right of the plaintiff to proceed with the action for the recovery of any further sum claimed and not so paid into Court.

54. The fact that money has been so paid into Court shall be taken into consideration in the award of costs as between the plaintiff and defendant.

55. The plaintiff may at any time before trial discontinue his action, either wholly or as to any cause of action, by filing in Court a memorandum of discontinuance.

56. A copy of such memorandum shall be served upon the defendant.

57. On any such discontinuance the Court may award to the defendant such costs of the action as it thinks fit.

58. The discontinuance of an action shall not be a defence to any subsequent action on the cause of action discontinued, provided that the costs of the previous action so awarded have been paid.

59. No judgment shall be given in any action by default, and every action shall be heard and determined in the ordinary course whether the defendant appears on the trial thereof or not.

60. If on the trial of any action the plaintiff does not appear, the Court may either adjourn the trial, or give judgment for the defendant, or nonsuit the plaintiff.

61. The plaintiff in any action may at any time before judgment elect to be nonsuited, and the Court may nonsuit the plaintiff without his consent.

62. After a nonsuit the plaintiff shall not be debarred from commencing a further action on the same cause of action, all the costs of the first action having been first paid.

63. No action shall be tried by a jury.

64. The parties to any action may concur in stating the questions of law arising in the action in the form of a special case for the opinion of the Court.

65. Every such special case shall concisely state such facts and documents as may be necessary for the decision of the questions raised therein.

66. On the argument of the special case the Court shall be at liberty to draw from the facts and documents so stated any inference of fact which might have been drawn therefrom if proved at the trial.

67. On the argument of the questions of law raised in such special case the Court may give judgment in the action, or may order the issues of fact or any of them to be tried before giving judgment.

68. Every judgment debt in excess of one hundred pounds shall carry interest at the rate of six pounds per centum per annum from the time of judgment being given until the same is satisfied, and such interest may be levied under any writ of execution upon such judgment.

69. (1.) Every judgment of the High Court shall be deemed to be complete when a minute thereof has been made in the record-books of the Court and signed by the Judge or Commissioner giving the same.

(2.) When necessary the judgment may at any time thereafter be drawn up under the seal of the Court.

70. A Judge of the High Court, or a Commissioner thereof within his jurisdiction, may at any time amend any minute or judgment of the Court or other record of the Court in order to give effect to the true intent of the Court in respect thereof or truly to record the course of any proceeding.

71. On application made at any time within fourteen days after the date of any judgment given by the High Court in its civil jurisdiction the Court may, if it thinks fit, rehear the matter, and may on such rehearing either affirm, reverse, or vary such judgment.

Execution of Judgments.

72. (1.) Where by any judgment of the High Court in its civil jurisdiction any person is ordered to pay any sum of money, the party to whom the money is payable may cause a writ of sale to be issued.

(2.) When by any judgment of the High Court any person is ordered to deliver possession of land or chattels, the party to whom such land or chattels are ordered to be delivered may cause a writ of possession to be issued.

73. A writ of possession shall authorize the officer to whom it is addressed to deliver to any party named in the writ possession of any land or of any chattels specified in the writ, and for that purpose to eject any other person from such land, or to seize and take possession of any such chattels.

74. (1.) A writ of sale shall authorize the officer to whom it is directed to seize all the chattels (including moneys, cheques, bills of exchange, and other securities for money) of the person against whom it is issued, except wearing-apparel, bedding, tools, and implements of trade, not exceeding in the aggregate twenty pounds in value.

(2.) All chattels so seized may, unless the judgment is sooner satisfied, together with the costs of the execution, be sold or otherwise converted into money by the Registrar of the High Court, and the proceeds of such sale or conversion shall, after payment thereof of the costs of the execution, be applied in satisfaction of the judgment.

75. Every writ of sale or writ of possession shall be issued by a Registrar of the High Court under the seal of that Court, and shall be addressed to an officer of the Court or to a constable.

76. A writ of sale may be in Form 3 in the Second Schedule hereto.

77. A writ of possession may be in Form 4 in the Second Schedule hereto.

78. Any judgment of the High Court in its civil jurisdiction for the payment of any sum of money may be enforced by a charging-order made by the Court against any real or personal property of the person by whom such money is payable (including debts and other moneys due or accruing due to that person, but not including the interest of a Samoan in any Native land). Any such charging-order shall be made and shall have effect in manner hereinafter provided.

79. A charging-order under clause 78 hereof may be made by the Court ex parte on the application of the judgment creditor, and shall specify the property to which it relates.

80. So long as any such order remains in force the amount of the judgment debt shall constitute an equitable charge upon the property specified in the order.

81. (1.) For the purpose of enforcing any such charge the Court may from time to time, and either on the making of the charging-order or any time thereafter, on the ex parte application of the judgment creditor, make such order or orders as it thinks fit against all persons concerned—

(a.) For the appointment of a receiver of the rents, profits, or revenues of any property so charged ; or

(b.) For the payment into Court in satisfaction of the judgment of any such rents, profits, or revenues, or of any moneys subject to the charge ; or

(c.) For the sale of any such property by an officer of the Court.

(2.) Disobedience to any order so made shall constitute a contempt of Court.

82. Any charging-order, or any order so made in pursuance of a charging-order, may be at any time cancelled or varied on the application either of the judgment debtor or the judgment creditor or of any other person concerned.

83. (1.) When judgment for the payment of any debt, damages, or other sum of money has been given by the High Court in its civil jurisdiction, the judgment creditor may at any time thereafter, in pursuance of the judgment, file in Court an application for an order under this clause.

(2.) A Judge, Commissioner, Registrar, or Deputy Registrar of the Court may thereupon issue a summons (hereinafter called a judgment summons) to the judgment debtor to show cause why an order should not be made against him for the payment of the amount of the judgment.

(3.) On the hearing of the application the Court may, if it thinks fit, make an order that the judgment debtor do pay to the judgment creditor the amount of the judgment debt forthwith, or at such time or by such instalments from time to time, as the Court thinks fit.

(4.) Except where the judgment debtor fails to appear in Court in pursuance of the judgment summons, no such order shall be made unless the Court is satisfied either—

(a.) That the judgment debtor is of sufficient ability to pay the judgment debt in accordance with the terms of the order ; or

(b.) That the liability in respect of which judgment was given against him was incurred by fraud ; or

(c.) That before or after the date of the judgment the judgment debtor has made away with any property for the purpose of evading payment of such liability.

(5.) If any judgment debtor disobeys any order made against him under this clause he shall be guilty of contempt of the High Court.

(6.) Nothing in this clause shall exclude any other lawful method of executing any such judgment.

84. An application for an order against a judgment debtor under clause 83 hereof may be in Form 5 in the Second Schedule hereto.

85. A judgment summons under clause 83 hereof may be in Form 6 in the Second Schedule hereto.

86. Every such judgment summons shall be served in the same manner as a summons to a defendant on the commencement of an action, and all the provisions of these rules as to the place and time of hearing of an action shall apply also to the hearing of the application in respect of which such judgment summons is issued.

87. The High Court may in any civil proceedings stay the execution of any judgment for such term as the Court thinks fit.

Absconding Debtors.

88. Where in any action in the High Court for the recovery of any debt, damages, or other sum of money the plaintiff proves to the satisfaction of the Court at any time before final judgment that he has a good cause of action against the defendant to the amount of ten pounds or upwards, and that there is probable cause for believing that the defendant is about to leave Samoa or any island included in the Territory unless he is apprehended, and that his absence from Samoa or such island as aforesaid will materially prejudice the plaintiff in the prosecution of his action, the Court may order the defendant to be arrested and imprisoned for a period not exceeding three months unless and until he sooner gives security to the satisfaction of the Court that he will not leave Samoa or such island as aforesaid without the leave of the Court.

89. The security to be so given shall, as the Court directs, be either the payment into Court of a sum not exceeding the amount claimed in the action or a bond executed by the defendant with one or two sureties in favour of His Majesty in the like amount.

90. If after such security has been given the defendant leaves Samoa or such island as aforesaid without the leave of the Court, all moneys so paid into Court or recovered in pursuance of the bond shall become available as the Court directs for the satisfaction of any sum recovered in the action.

91. Where the action is for a penalty at the suit of the Crown it shall not be necessary to prove that the absence of the defendant as aforesaid will materially prejudice the Crown in the prosecution of the action, and the security to be given shall be security that any sum recovered against the defendant in the action will be paid or that the defendant will be rendered to prison.

92. If, after such security has been given, any sum recovered in the action remains unpaid and the defendant is not rendered to prison as aforesaid, all moneys so paid into Court or recovered in pursuance of the bond shall become available as the Court directs for the satisfaction of the sum recovered in the action.

Motions.

93. Every civil proceeding not required to be commenced by way of action or petition may be commenced by way of motion.

97. Except where otherwise provided, or where the Court is satisfied that the nature of the motion is such that it may properly be made and determined ex parte, every motion shall be heard and determined only after due notice has been given to such persons as the Court may consider entitled thereto. All persons to whom notice has been given by the direction of the Court, or who appear on the hearing of the motion, shall be deemed to be parties to the proceeding.

98. Every proceeding which may be commenced by originating motion may, if the applicant thinks fit, be commenced by way of action instead.

99. Applications under Part IX of the Samoa Act, 1921, for the assessment of compensation shall be made by motion by the Minister of External Affairs, or by the Administrator, or by any person claiming such compensation or any share therein; and notice of such application shall be given to such persons interested as the Court directs.

The account shall be verified by affidavit.

107. If an executor or administrator makes default in filing such an account within the time aforesaid, or if any account so filed is insufficient, the Court may on the application of any person interested, or on the application of the Registrar, order the executor or administrator to file an account or a further account within such time as the Court in such order appoints, and disobedience to such order shall be a contempt of Court.

Proceedings under the Customs Act, 1913.

108. (1.) Every penalty imposed by the Customs Act, 1913, and recoverable in the High Court may be recovered by action in the name and on behalf of His Majesty as a debt due to the Crown.

(2.) The High Court may give leave to serve out of Samoa the summons in any action for the recovery of any such penalty or any duty under the Customs Acts.

(3.) The judgment in an action for the recovery of any such penalty may be enforced by way of proceedings for contempt of the High Court, and the failure of the defendant to satisfy such judgment shall constitute a contempt of Court accordingly.

(4.) Any person imprisoned for such contempt shall be released from custody on satisfaction of the judgment.

(5.) Proceedings for contempt shall not preclude any other method of execution which would otherwise be available.

109. Every criminal prosecution in the High Court for an offence against the Customs Act, 1913, shall be commenced by an information laid by a Collector of Customs in accordance with the ordinary criminal procedure of the High Court.

(3.) Any person claiming to be interested in the goods may appear to oppose the application, and shall thereby become a party to the proceedings.

(4.) If any person appears to oppose the application the Court shall hear and determine the matter and acquit or condemn the goods, but if no person so appears judgment of condemnation shall be given.

(5.) In this regulation the term "goods" includes any boat, vehicle, or other thing forfeited under the Customs Acts.

118. Application for such leave shall be made within twenty-one days after the delivery of the judgment appealed from.

119. On granting such leave the Judge may make such order as he thinks fit as to a stay of execution of the judgment appealed from.

120. When leave to appeal from a conviction is so granted the Judge may, if he thinks fit, release the appellant from custody on bail pending the determination of the appeal.

121. Any person so released on bail may at any time, and for any reason that a Judge of the High Court thinks sufficient, be arrested by warrant and committed to prison there to undergo his sentence.

122. Any period during which an appellant has been so at large on bail shall not be computed as part of the term of imprisonment to which he has been sentenced.

SUMMARY FOR THE MONTH OF APRIL, 1924.

Owing to heavy rainfalls during the first and last weeks, the month's total was considerably in excess of the average generally, but below at most places along the east coast southward of Napier. North Canterbury reported the greatest percentage below the mean. The total at Christchurch—viz., 0.76 in.—was 60 per cent. below and in marked contrast to that at Ross, on the West Coast, where 29.52 in. were recorded, an amount exceeding an average year's fall at Christchurch.

The month opened with dull and misty weather, with the barometer reading about normal in all parts of the Dominion. Without change in this respect a deluge of rain fell in several parts of the North Island on the 3rd, and further heavy falls occurred between the 4th and 8th, while atmospheric pressure was at its highest. From the latter date until about the 25th the weather, though somewhat changeable in the West Coast districts, was mostly fair. Thereafter, until the close of the month, squally conditions ruled, particularly in and southward of Cook Strait, under the influence of an intense and extensive westerly disturbance.

Temperatures were mild for the season, and vegetable growth was, in consequence, generally abundant.

D. C. BATES, Director.
