CHRISTCHURCH TRAMWAY ELECTORAL SUBDISTRICTS.

REPORT OF ELECTORAL COMMISSION.

The Chairman and Members of The Christchurch Tramway Board, Christchurch.

DEAR SIRS,

DEAR SIRS,

WE, the Commissioners appointed by you, in pursuance of the provisions of section 3 of the Christchurch Tramways District Act, 1920, and its amendments, as provided in section 2 of the Christchurch Tramways District Amendment Act, 1921, for the purpose of (vide section 4 of the principal Act and section 4 of its amendment)—

(a.) Altering the boundaries of all or any of the subdistricts; (b.) Naming or re-naming any subdistrict; and (c.) Altering the number of members for any subdistrict, but so that the total number of members of the Board shall not exceed nine (vide section 3 of the principal Act). do but so that the total number of members of the Board shall not exceed nine (vide section 3 of the principal Act), do hereby furnish the following report:—

Due notice, by public advertisement, was given of the business of the Commission, and an opportunity offered on the 14th instant for the submission of any evidence or information likely to be of value to the Commissioners.

The removal, under the Amendment Act, 1921, of certain restrictions contained in the principal Act, relevant to rateable value and boundaries, greatly simplified the work; the factors which guided the partition into subdistricts, with their respective quotas of representation, being population and community of interest. community of interest.

The following Schedule gives the population: Christchurch City 79,318 3,530 3,400 4,500 7,093 Heathcote County (part) Sumner Borough New Brighton Borough. ٠. . . Ricearton Borough . . . Paparua County (part) . . . Halswell County (part) . . 4,328 1,869 544

Average per member (9), 11,620.

We very early came to the conclusion that there was no valid reason why Linwood should be separated from the Central Area, any more than should, say, Sydenham or St. Albans; it forms an integral part of the city proper, and as such should undoubtedly be included therein.

The settlement of this question and its corollary, raising the number of members for the Central Subdistrict from four to five, facilitated our work in no small degree, thus leaving the outskirts of the tramway area divisible into four subdistricts, with one member for each.

In the fixation of the boundaries of these outlying districts into approximately equal population, compatible with community of interest, encroachment upon the city boundaries was unavoidable, but as far as possible we adopted natural boundaries or railway-lines.

The boundaries of the Central Subdistrict thus became self-imposed.

The following Schedule gives the names of the proposed subdistricts and the population in each:—

Name.	Mem- bers.	Population.	Average Population per Member.
Central Subdivision	5	60,174	12,035
Spreydon-Addington Sub- division	1	11,245
Riccarton-Fendalton Sub- division	1	11,272	11,102
Avon-Brighton Subdivision	1	11,205
Hill -Sumner Subdivision	1	10,686

It will be noticed that the population per member in the Central Subdistrict is 12,035 as against 11,102 in the outlying subdistricts. We have adopted this plan for two reasons (a) to obviate disturbing the city area more than is absolutely necessary, and (b) because we believe that the drift of population towards the outskirts will in due course remedy the difference.

The wide extension so far north-east of the Riccarton-Fendalton Subdistrict is practically unavoidable, and the inclusion of this easternmost area with Avon-Brighton would not help matters; in the subdivision of an area so widely scattered as the present tramway district, an apparently unsuitable boundary in some part of it is well nigh inescapable.

We desire to express to your General Manager our thanks for, and appreciation of, much valuable information placed at our disposal, which assisted us in our findings.

We respectfully submit that the proposed subdivision conforms to the Act, and do hereby declare that the Christchurch Tramway District, as defined in section 2 of the said Act, Tramway District, as defined in section 2 of the said Act, has been divided by us into 5 subdistricts, and we do hereby determine the boundaries of the said 5 subdistricts to be those set forth in the Schedule hereto, and also determine that the number of members of the Christchurch Tramway Board to represent each subdistrict respectively shall be as already set forth in this report.

Yours faithfully,

ALBERT FREEMAN, A. W. BEAVEN, A. DUDLEY DOBSON, Commissioners.

29th July, 1924.

SCHOOL FOR THE DEAF, NE CHRISTCHURCH. NEAR SUMNER,

UNDER THE CONTROL AND SUPERVISION OF THE EDUCATION DEPARTMENT.

Director: Mr. J. E. STEVENS.

H OR Deaf Children of sound intellect. The pupils are taught to understand and use ordinary speech. The full charge for board and education is £40 a year, but less is accepted from parents who cannot afford to pay this amount. In case of necessity admission is free.

By the Education Act it is compulsory for deaf children to come under instruction at the age of six, and to continue until the age of twenty-one unless the Education Department previously grants exemption. Though a child is, as a rule, best fitted to begin the school course at the age of six, advice should be obtained as soon as any sign of deafness is observed.

The following classes of deaf children are admitted to the School for the Deaf (sound intellect being always a necessity):—

necessity) :-

1. Children born deaf, or who have lost their hearing

Children born deaf, or who have lost their hearing before learning to speak.
 Children who can hear a little, but are too deaf to be taught in a public school.
 Children who have lost their hearing after having learned to speak.
 The Act imposes upon every parent, teacher of a school (either public or private), constable, or officer of a charitable or kindred institution who is aware of the place of residence (either temporary or permanent) of a deaf child, and the householder in whose house any such child resides, an obligation to send notification of the fact to the Minister of Education, giving the name, age, and address of the child; and any neglect or failure to comply with this provision involves liability to a fine.
 Information and advice may be obtained from the Director, or from the
