15. No restrictions shall be imposed by the Minister regarding the type and dimensions of the antenna of a broadcasting station: Provided that the requirements as to operating wave-lengths are strictly complied with; that the type or dimensions of antenna employed do not cause interference with the operation of other radio stations; and that adequate steps are taken to so construct the antenna as to prevent swinging.

16. The electromagnetic waves emitted by a broadcasting station shall be reasonably free from harmonics and other spurious transmissions, and steps shall be taken forthwith by the licensee to minimize such (by the use of coupled transmitting circuits or otherwise) should the Chief Telegraph Engineer of the Post and Telegraph Department advise that such action is necessary.

17. (1.) The studio or room housing the microphone apparatus shall be separate from the room containing the transmitting-apparatus, reasonably free from interior reverberation, and so designed as to conduce to maximum efficiency of operation.

20. (1.) Except as provided in subsection (2) of this regulation, the transmitting-apparatus in a broadcasting station shall be operated only by a person holding an amateur operator's certificate endorsed to authorize the operation of a broadcasting station: Provided that the Minister may waive the requirements of the Amateur Radio Regulations, 1925, in respect of Morse operating, and substitute therefor a requirement that a candidate for an amateur operator's certificate with an endorsement as hereinbefore provided shall possess an adequate knowledge of the theory of radio-telephony and of the adjustment and working of the apparatus used for radio-telephony.

(2.) The Minister may permit of the operation of a broadcasting station by a person holding a certificate of a class higher than the endorsed amateur operator's certificate prescribed in this regulation.

21. The operator of a broadcasting station shall be present and shall personally supervise the operation of the apparatus in a broadcasting station during the whole time radio communications are being transmitted.

22. Each broadcasting station shall be allotted an official call signal by which the station shall be identified, and which is to be used in the manner prescribed in Regulation 30 hereof whenever a radio communication is transmitted from the said broadcasting station.

23. The licensee shall maintain at each broadcasting station a broadcasting service of a minimum duration of twelve hours weekly (Sundays not included), and the Minister shall determine the daily duration of the programme transmitted by each such broadcasting station: Provided that the Minister may approve in writing of any broadcasting station remaining silent for one day in each week (Sunday not included).

26. 27. The licensee shall not conduct point-to-point communication, but shall transmit from broadcasting stations radio communications of general public interest only.

28. Subject to the provisions of Regulation 29 hereof, neither direct nor indirect advertising shall be undertaken by the licensee from any broadcasting station, unless specially authorized by the Minister.

29. (1.) (2.) The licensee shall supervise with all reasonable care, to the satisfaction of the Minister, the matter broadcasted, and shall carefully select the matter to be broadcasted in order to give effect to the requirements of this regulation.

30. At the commencement of each item of a broadcasting programme the operator or announcer shall announce the call signal of the broadcasting station; and in addition thereto may announce the full name and address of the station, and make brief remarks relevant to the matter about to be broadcasted.

The licensee shall at all reasonable times furnish the Minister with such technical and other information in reference to the broadcasting stations as may be required, and in addition thereto shall furnish the names of the operators proposed to be employed in the operation of the broadcasting stations.

38. The licensee may, with the written authority of the Minister, install and operate in any broadcasting station apparatus for the relaying of radio communications from or to any broadcasting station established and operated by the said licensee, to or from any other broadcasting station situated either within New Zealand or elsewhere: Provided that the secrecy of public correspondence remains inviolate, that the requirements of any International Convention or Agreement in reference to the matter shall be strictly observed, and that the licensee, before relaying is performed shall enter into such agreements as may be required by the Minister, and take steps to acquire whatever rights that may be involved.

39. The licensee shall arrange that each broadcasting station shall be connected by telephone with the telephone-exchange system of the Post and Telegraph Department.

Broadcasting stations shall be open to inspection at all times by a Radio Inspector or other officer of the Post and Telegraph Department appointed by the Minister in that behalf, and every reasonable facility shall be given for ascertaining the condition of the station and whether these regulations are being complied with.

43. If and whenever an emergency shall have arisen in which it is expedient in the public interest that His Majesty's Government shall have control over the transmission of radio communications by the apparatus at any broadcasting station, it shall be lawful for any officer of His Majesty's Navy or Army, or for any other person authorized in that behalf by the Admiralty or by the Minister, to take possession of or to dismantle, or to cause the apparatus or any part thereof to be taken possession of or to be dismantled in the name and on behalf of His Majesty, and to be used, where such use may be deemed necessary for His Majesty's Service, and subject thereto, for such ordinary services as the said officer or person may deem fit; and in that event any person authorized by the said officer or person may enter any broadcasting station in which any such apparatus is installed and take possession of or dismantle the said apparatus and use the same as aforesaid.

44. Where difficulties inherent to the nature of radio communication may be overcome, or particularly in circumstances in which the broadcasting service of a broadcasting station may be rendered efficient by no means other than by a reasonable extension of the powers normally conferred under these regulations, the Minister may grant to the licensee, in writing, such privileges as in his opinion may be necessary.

4. Declaration of Secrecy.

45. (1) The licensee and every operator, agent, or servant of the licensee having access to the apparatus in a broadcasting station, shall execute a declaration of secrecy that he will not divulge to any unauthorized person any information whatsoever relating to public correspondence that may come to his knowledge; that he will by every means in his power preserve the secrecy of such information; and that he will adopt all reasonable precautions to prevent unauthorized persons becoming acquainted therewith.

New Zealand and South Seas Exhibition (1925-26).—Modification of Various Acts. (C. No. 20.)

CHARLES FERGUSSON, Governor-General.

ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government House at Wellington, this 9th day of March, 1925.

Present :

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL IN COUNCIL.

IN pursuance and exercise of the powers and authorities conferred upon him by Part IV of the Finance Act, 1924, and of all other powers and authorities enabling him in this behalf, His Excellency the Governor-General of the Dominion of New Zealand, acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of the said Dominion, doth hereby modify the provisions of the various Acts indicated hereunder in their application to goods for the New Zealand and South Seas Exhibition (1925-1926) to be held at Dunedin, to the extent and subject to the conditions set out hereunder :

MODIFICATIONS OF THE CUSTOMS ACTS.

1. The land and buildings occupied by the New Zealand and South Seas Exhibition Company (Limited) for the purposes of an exhibition at Dunedin shall for the purposes of this Order and of the Customs Acts be deemed to be a licensed warehouse and is hereafter referred to as the Exhibition Bond. No license fee shall be payable in respect of the Exhibition Bond. Goods (including materials and fittings) imported from places outside of New Zealand for exhibition or use in the said Exhibition may be received into and delivered from the Exhibition Bond on the conditions set out in this Order.

2. Warehousing entries for such goods shall be made and delivered to the Customs, and duplicate invoices containing the detailed descriptions and values thereof shall be produced. These invoices will be stamped by the Customs and one copy will be returned to the exhibitor and the other retained by the Customs.

3. Goods imported for the purposes of the Exhibition will be exempt from payment of primage duty, except as provided in clause 6 of this Order.

4. Duty (other than primage duty) chargeable on dutiable goods intended for sale shall be deposited with the Customs before they are either exhibited or sold.

Exhibitors may, at the close of the Exhibition (or previously if they so desire), enter dutiable goods to be warehoused under bond in a licensed warehouse other than the Exhibition Bond, instead of entering them for re-exportation, and in such cases the goods shall, for all the purposes of the Customs Acts (including liability to primage or other duty) be deemed to be, at date of such warehousing, imported for the first time.

7. The Customs officers will be present simply as revenue officers, and will not be in any way responsible for the goods stored in the Exhibition Bond.

8. The Collector of Customs at Dunedin shall allow goods imported for the purposes of the Exhibition to be cleared without payment of duty in any of the following cases, that is to say :—

(a.) Pictures, statuary, and works of art exhibited at the Exhibition and subsequently purchased by any public institution (meaning thereby any public institution or Art Association registered as a corporate body, or any public school, college, or university) for display in the buildings of such institution, and not to be sold or otherwise disposed of by such institution.

(b.) Samples of small value distributed free of charge within the Exhibition buildings or grounds by exhibitors and having relation to the goods of exhibitors.

(c.) Handbills, circulars, posters, show-cards, calendars, postcards, and other advertising matter and articles relating to exhibits from beyond New Zealand and displayed or distributed free of charge within the Exhibition buildings or grounds.

(d.) Stationery bona fide used in the Exhibition buildings or grounds by exhibitors in connection with their exhibits from beyond New Zealand.

9. Where any picture, statuary, or work of art exhibited at the Exhibition is subsequently purchased by any person and duty is payable thereon, the Collector may assess the value for duty at one-half the price paid by the purchaser, and in such case the duty shall be payable accordingly, provided that duty so computed shall not exceed the amount which would, apart from this order, be payable under the Customs Acts.

10. Where goods, show-cases, stands, fittings, or materials imported for the purposes of the Exhibition and used in the Exhibition buildings or grounds by any exhibitor or the company or any other person are sold, removed, or disposed of for use or consumption in New Zealand, the Collector shall assess them at a fair value for duty after making allowance for depreciation in value through use, and the duties of Customs shall be paid on them in accordance with such assessment, which shall be final. Goods imported for the purposes of the Exhibition which are liable to duty other than ad valorem duty shall be dealt with in a similar way and a corresponding concession shall be made in the duty payable thereon.

11. Where goods exhibited are injured, depreciated in value, or destroyed in the process of judging by juries of awards, or by reason of their being exhibited, the Collector may, in his discretion, remit the whole or any part of the duty payable thereon :

Provided that where the whole of the duty on any such goods is remitted the goods shall be abandoned to the Crown in accordance with clause 12 hereof.

12. (a.) In lieu of paying duty on any article (whether an exhibit, or any stand, fitting, show-case, or material used by him for the purposes of his exhibits), the exhibitor may abandon the article to the Crown on giving the Collector three days' previous notice of abandonment and delivering the article to such person as the Collector appoints to receive the same on behalf of the Crown.

(b.) All articles so abandoned shall be sold by auction at such times and in such manner as the Collector directs, and the net proceeds of the sale (less expenses of and incidental to the sale) shall be paid into the Public Account as part of the Consolidated Fund.

(c.) If in the opinion of the Collector the abandoned article is not worth selling as aforesaid, it shall be destroyed or otherwise disposed of as the Minister of Customs directs.

(d.) Any articles which, within sixty days after the official closing of the Exhibition, have not been exported, entered for warehousing elsewhere, or otherwise dealt with to the satisfaction of the Collector, shall be deemed to have been abandoned as aforesaid, and may be taken possession of by the Collector and dealt with in accordance with paragraph (b) or paragraph (c) hereof.

13. If by any fraud, misrepresentation, or deceit any person obtains or attempts to obtain in respect of any goods any concession of duty under this Order to which he is not legally entitled, he shall be liable to the penalties provided in that behalf by the Customs Acts. Such penalties may include forfeiture of the goods.

14. Before granting any concessions of duty under any of the foregoing provisions in that behalf, the Collector must be satisfied by declaration of some responsible and reputable person, and by such other evidence as he thinks fit to require, that the case comes properly within such provision.

15. All declarations and certificates required by the Collector shall be in such form as he directs, and shall be deemed to be made under the Customs Acts. Any such declaration may be made before any Collector or other officer of Customs, or before a Customs Agent or solicitor or notary public, or before any Postmaster or person acting for a Postmaster, or before such other person as the Collector of Customs at Dunedin may, in writing, permit.

MODIFICATIONS OF OTHER ACTS.

16. Goods (including birds or animals) imported for the purposes of the Exhibition, shall, subject to the provisions of this clause, be exempt from—

(a.) The Animals Protection and Game Act, 1921-22.

(b.) The Arms Act, 1920.

(c.) The Explosive and Dangerous Goods Act, 1908.

(d.) The Opium Act, 1908, and the Opium Regulations made by an Order in Council on thirty-first July, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-two, and gazetted on third August, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-two.

(e.) The Poisons Act, 1908.

(f.) The Sale of Food and Drugs Act, 1908, and so much of the Customs Acts as prohibits the importation of articles the sale of which in New Zealand would be an offence against that Act.

(g.) The Footwear Regulation Act, 1913, and an Order in Council made on twenty-sixth day of February, one thousand nine hundred and fifteen, and gazetted on fourth day of March, one thousand nine hundred and fifteen, which prohibited the importation of certain footwear.

But such goods shall on delivery or removal from the Exhibition (for purposes other than that of being exported or destroyed under Customs supervision) be liable to the provisions contained in such Acts and Orders in Council as if the goods had then been imported for the first time.

CONSTRUCTION OF ACTS.

17. All references in this Order to any Act shall be deemed to include every Act amending the same.

PRESS OPINIONS.

The Hon. G. M. Thomson in writing this manual has evidently taken up a labour of love. He writes not so much for the scientific as for the general reader. It is a valuable and likely to be one of the most popular works issued by the Board of Science and Art. It is a notable addition to Mr. Thomson's other works.—Evening Post, Wellington, N.Z.

A bright little book. Mr. Thomson has provided a book sufficiently scientific to be authoritative, and yet informal and simple enough to be interesting to the young and uneducated. We shall look forward eagerly to Part II.—Herald, Timaru, N.Z.

It is a book of unusual interest. There is nothing like it in print, and the wonder is that it has not been done before. Mr. Thomson is to be thanked for producing a work so useful and so timely. Technical terms and scientific language have been avoided as far as possible, with the result that we have a narrative as interesting as any romance. It will prove a valuable and useful book.—Evening Star, Dunedin, N.Z.
