(2.) If after communicating with any society recognized under the said Act or any person interested in the case of any inmate in the Higher Grade or the Special Grade, the Visiting Committee is satisfied that there is a reasonable probability that such inmate, if released, will lead a useful and industrious life and abstain from crime and that employment will be found for him on his release, the Committee may submit to the Board a report concerning him.

(3.) On receiving such a report the Board shall as soon as practicable review the case of the inmate named therein, and may thereupon, if it thinks fit, recommend the Minister to release him on license.

The Minister, before releasing any inmate on license from an institution, may demand from any person under whose supervision or control it is proposed to place such inmate a guarantee, in the form of a bond for such amount as the Minister may determine, that the inmate will be kept under such proper supervision or control as to ensure the fulfilment by the inmate of the terms of his license.

(2.) The full amount of such bond, or such part thereof as the Minister may determine, may be estreated on the escape of the licensee from supervision or control, or on the Minister being satisfied that the person charged with such supervision or control has failed to exercise the same effectively.

24. (1.) When any person returns to an Institution after his license has been revoked or forfeited he may be placed in the Penal Class for such period as the Visiting Committee deems necessary, having regard to all the circumstances of the case, and on the expiration of such period he shall be placed in the Probationary Grade.

(b.) If he considers that the offence warrants the infliction of more severe punishment, report the offender to the Chairman of the Visiting Committee.

SUMMARY FOR THE MONTH OF MAY, 1925.

During May the most remarkable meteorological feature was the number of cyclonic disturbances which passed in the North. On this account rainfall was greatly in excess of the average over the North Island and in the east coast portions of the South Island, and deficient in the western and southernmost districts of the South. There were two periods when fair weather prevailed over the Dominion as a whole—viz., between the 7th and 11th and the 24th and 28th; but during the remainder of the month, except in Westland and Otago, unsettled and wet weather predominated. Heavy rains and floods occurred in the northern districts about the 12th, 14th, and 15th, and very stormy conditions were experienced over the Dominion on the 22nd and 23rd, with further floods in the North. Both these stormy periods resulted from ex-tropical cyclones, and an intense cyclone also made the close of the month extremely unpleasant for the northern districts.
