3. The onus of proving that parcels are not forwarded to an agent for distribution rests with the consignor in each case.

4. Where a bona fide trading firm (not being a forwarding agency) consigns goods to itself, its branch, or its representative in the ordinary course of its business, whether such goods are to be held as stock or are for delivery to customers, the ordinary and not the distribution rate will apply. Every such consignment must be handed to the Department and taken delivery of from the Department as a single consignment, and under no circumstances are deliveries to be split to permit of distribution being made direct from the railway premises.
