GENERAL REGULATIONS.

LETTERS AND LETTER-CARDS.

3. A letter shall not exceed 4 lb. 6 oz. in weight, and the dimensions shall not exceed 18 in. in any direction; with the exception that if made up in the form of a roll it may be 30 in. in length, but the diameter shall not exceed 4 in.

4. A letter shall not contain a communication, note, or document addressed to any person other than the addressee of the letter or person residing with the addressee.

7. The sender of a letter containing any article liable to Customs duty, addressed to a place beyond the Dominion that admits dutiable articles enclosed in letters, shall affix to the letter a Customs docket, and shall fill in on the docket the nature and weight of the dutiable article or articles. Failure to affix a Customs docket may result in the letter being returned by the country of destination as inadmissible.

International Reply Coupons.

8. For the purpose of prepaying postage on replies to letters addressed to places abroad, the Department issues, on payment of a fee of 5d., international reply coupons of a nominal value of 40 centimes. The coupons are exchangeable in any country of the Postal Union for a stamp or stamps representing the postage on a single-rate letter originating in that country for abroad. When a reply coupon received from abroad is presented at any post-office in New Zealand, the Postmaster shall give in exchange a 2½d. stamp. Coupons are valid for six clear months. The sale or exchange of reply coupons shall be limited to ten for any one applicant on any one day.

British Empire Reply Coupons.

9. Coupons for use solely within the British Empire may be purchased and exchanged on the same conditions as those applicable to international coupons, save that the sale price shall be 2½d. and the amount received when a coupon is exchanged shall be the equivalent of the single-rate letter postage from the country of exchange to another country within the Empire.

Late-fee Letters, &c.

10. Late-fee letters shall be prepaid 1d. in addition to the ordinary postage. Such letters are accepted for most mails. The mail notice exhibited at the post-office shows the mails for which late fee is provided, as well as the time at which the late-fee mail closes. Letters posted in the late-fee box at a post-office without the late fee prepaid and addressed to places for which mails are about to close are included in such mails, the late fee being collected on delivery. Late-fee letters may also be posted in the railway travelling post-offices, guards' vans, and on board coastal steamers up to the time of departure of train or steamer. Late-fee letters posted on board trains and steamers without the fee shall be charged the late fee on delivery. A concession is, however, made in respect of letters, &c., posted on trains standing at a flag station or railway-siding. On letters, &c., so posted, no late fee shall be charged provided the words "Posted at [Name of flag station or siding]" are written or printed on the address side of the letter. This concession, however, does not apply to correspondence posted on mail-days at a flag station or railway-siding at which there is a post-office.

Posted in Window Envelopes.

15. The transmission of correspondence contained in covers made wholly of transparent paper shall not be permitted, but covers which have a panel of transparent paper through which the address may be read shall be allowed. For unregistered letters addressed to any place, and for registered letters addressed for delivery within the Dominion, the panel may either form an integral part of the envelope or be securely attached to the envelope on the inside by means of gum or other adhesive. For registered letters addressed to places beyond the Dominion the panel shall form an integral part of the envelope. The panel shall also be placed so as not to interfere with the application of the date-stamp.

16. A letter or other article enclosed in a cover the panel of which is not sufficiently transparent for the address to be perfectly legible even in artificial light, or which reflects artificial light, or which will not take writing, shall not be forwarded beyond New Zealand. A letter or other article for a place within New Zealand the address of which cannot be read with ease will be placed aside during the sorting, and will be dealt with when the work is less pressing, even if it should thereby be delayed in despatch or delivery.

If enclosed in an open cover and bearing a personal communication a post-card shall be subject to letter-postage.

6. Postage-stamps shall, as far as possible, be affixed to the upper right hand corner of the front. The address also shall appear on the front, of which the right half at least is reserved for this purpose. The sender disposes of the back and of the left part of the front subject to the stipulations of the following paragraph. Post-cards with the address side divided into spaces for the reception of successive addresses are forbidden.

7. With the following exceptions, the public may not join or attach to post-cards any objects whatever; illustrations, photographs, stamps of any kind, address labels or slips to fold back for address purposes. Labels and cuttings of any kind may be affixed, provided that they are not of such a nature as to alter the character of the post-cards, that they consist of paper or other very thin substance, and that they adhere completely to the card. With the exceptions of address labels or slips, these articles may only be affixed to the back or to the left-hand half of the address side of post-cards. Stamps of any kind liable to be mistaken for postage-stamps may not be affixed to the address side of a post-card.

Reply-cards.

15. Reply post-cards shall bear in French, as a title on the front of the first part, "Post-card with reply paid" (Carte postale avec réponse payée); and on the second part "Reply Post-card" (Carte postale réponse). The two parts shall, moreover, each fulfil the other conditions of a single post-card; they shall be folded one on the other, and shall not be closed in any manner. Reply post-cards of which the two halves are not postage fully prepaid at the time of posting shall be sent to the Dead Letter Office.

16. It is permissible for the sender of a reply post-card to indicate his name and address on the front of the "reply" part, either by writing or by a gummed label. The address of the reply half shall be on the inside of the fold.

Private Cards.

23. Private cards, including pictorial cards, bearing adhesive stamps also may be used as post-cards. They shall be composed of ordinary cardboard not thicker than that used for post-cards of the post-card pattern, and sufficiently stout as to be easy of manipulation. The size shall not be more than $5\frac{1}{2}$ in. by 4 in., and not less than 4 in. by $2\frac{1}{2}$ in. Single cards and reply-cards for places within New Zealand may be entirely plain, but reply-cards for places beyond New Zealand shall bear the words "Post-card with Reply Paid," and "Reply Post-card." To other than English-speaking countries these words shall appear in French, "Carte Postale avec Réponse Payée," "Carte Postale—Réponse." They shall be otherwise treated as officially issued post-cards.

BOOK-POST.

1. The book-post is divided into two classes: (A) Commercial Papers, and (B) Printed Papers. For transmission by book-post as a "commercial paper" or "printed paper" an article shall be posted either without a cover or in a cover entirely open at one or both ends, or in an open envelope with the flap turned inside.

NOTE.—Letters will not pass as commercial papers even if they are sent in open covers. The only way to send a letter is by letter-post, or by writing it on a post-card or on a letter-card. Writing in commonly unknown characters such as Chinese, &c., will render a packet liable to letter rates of postage. A printed slip drawing attention to the necessity for addressing correspondence by the private-box number may be attached by boxholders to accounts, circulars, and other commercial and printed papers without rendering the articles liable to letter rates of postage.

Postal packets weighing not more than $6\frac{1}{2}$ lb. and containing exclusively matter prepared in raised characters for the use of the blind are not subject to postage within New Zealand. For transmission within New Zealand such packets may be enclosed by the senders in wicker protectors. For other places such packets shall be fully prepaid at the rate of $\frac{1}{4}$ d. for each 2 lb. The nature of the contents shall be indicated on the cover.

(A.) COMMERCIAL PAPERS.

4. Commercial papers may be accompanied by reference slips or statements (a) giving a list of articles comprising the packet, or (b) furnishing references to correspondence between the sender and addressee, or similar particulars.

5. The following documents, provided they conform to the conditions, are regarded as commercial papers:—

Description of Document.	Conditions.
(a) Acceptances, bills of exchange, invoices, bills of lading (separately or enclosed with invoices), consignees' advice - notes (marked "Consignee"), drafts, promissory notes, orders for goods (sent by commercial travellers), pay-sheets, ships' manifests, way-bills	Nothing may appear in writing in the documents save dates, the names and addresses of the parties, the particulars and prices of any goods, the amount or rate of discount, the date up to which discount may be allowed, or the particulars of any sums of money to which the document relates, and the mode of consignment of any such goods or money. References to discount may be made by means of a gummed label, a printed statement, or a rubber-stamp impression. Any other matter shall be wholly in print, or shall be stamped on the account by means of a rubber stamp, and shall relate exclusively to the subject-matter of the document, or the terms on which business is transacted by the person or firm issuing the document.
(b) Accounts (receipted or unreceipted), formal receipts, invoices, premium renewal notices	The words "With thanks" may be added to receipted accounts, but anything, printed or written, in the nature of a request for payment will subject the account to letter rates of postage.
(c) Affidavits, briefs, deeds, depositions, powers of attorney, recognizances	Nothing to appear in writing or print which does not form part of the document as a legal instrument.
(d) Specifications (with and without plans), examination-papers ^(b) , pupils' exercises with corrections, and comments bearing directly on the way in which the work was done, copy drawings which are pupils' exercises, paintings, written music	Any written or printed matter not forming part of the document itself must relate exclusively to its subject-matter.

(b) Packets of examination-papers addressed to the Registrar, New Zealand University, are to be prepaid at parcel-post rates.

(B.) PRINTED PAPERS (INCLUDING BOOKS).

11. The following is a list of the more prominent articles accepted as "Printed Papers":—

Description of Article.	Remarks.
(a) Books, magazines, &c. (stitched or bound), printed or engraved drawings, engravings, fashion - plates, maps, printed music, notices of all kinds entirely printed, proxy forms (blank), balance - sheets (wholly printed), papers im pressed for the use of the blind, or cardboard drawing models stamped in relief, photographs and albums containing photographs, pictures, plans, valentines	A dedication, defined as a simple expression of regard, may be added to pamphlets, and all literary or artistic productions, whether printed, engraved, lithographed, or mimeographed; and the invoice relating to any such work enclosed.
(c) Cards, invitation, notices of meetings	The name of the person invited, and the date, object, and place of gathering may be added in manuscript. In notices of meeting of friendly and other societies the amount of any subscription due also may appear in writing. No additions in manuscript, however, may be made to such articles if addressed to places beyond New Zealand.
(d) ——— pictorial or plain	For all places may not be used to make any communication of the nature of a letter. "Post-card" may appear on cards fulfilling the conditions of printed matter. "Tinselled" cards must be enclosed in covers. Their delivery to places other than New Zealand and Great Britain and Ireland cannot be guaranteed.
(e) ——— travellers'	Cards not to be larger than 5½ in. by 4 in., and not to be smaller than 4 in. by 2½ in., merely advising customers of the intended visit of the traveller. The name of the traveller, the place, the temporary address, the hour, and the date of his visit, may be inserted in writing, and a list of prices current may be printed on the back of the card. The list of prices may be in writing, but no other matter, except as stated under the heading "When writing is permitted," at page 59 of the Post and Telegraph Guide, March, 1927, whether printed or written, will be permitted. Cards may be folded, but when folded they must conform with the above measurements.
(e) Ships' advices	The name of the ship, the hours and dates of arrival and of departure, and names of the ports of arrival and of departure may be added in writing.

When Writing is permitted.

14. Printed papers, of which the text has been modified after printing, either by hand or by means of a mechanical process, except as specified herein or which bear any mark whatever of such a kind as to constitute a conventional language, cannot be sent at printed-paper rates.

15. As exceptions to the above rule, it shall be permitted —

- (a) To indicate by hand or by a mechanical process, outside or inside the packet, the name, position, profession, and address of the sender and of the addressee, as well as the date of despatch, the sender's signature, telephone number, telegraphic address and code, and postal or banking account.

Limits of Size and Weight.

20. The limits of size for book-packets shall be 18 in. in any direction. But if made up in the form of a roll, a packet may measure up to 2 ft. 6 in. in length and 4 in. in diameter. Packets exceeding these limits will be detained and sent to the Dead Letter Office. The weight shall not exceed 5 lb. for places within New Zealand and 4 lb. for other places, except in the case of literature for the blind printed in the raised Braille characters, addressed to places within or beyond the Dominion, for which the limit of weight shall be 6½ lb.

Short-paid or Irregularly Posted.

21. Book-packets posted partly or wholly unpaid, if addressed to countries beyond New Zealand shall be detained, advertised for one month on a list exhibited at the office of posting, and, if not paid for in the meantime, sent to the Dead Letter Office. Unpaid or insufficiently prepaid packets addressed to any place within New Zealand shall be sent to destination, and charged on delivery double the amount of the deficiency.

22. If "commercial papers" or "samples" are enclosed with "printed papers" for places beyond New Zealand, the rates for "commercial papers" or "samples" respectively shall be paid. Printed matter for the use of the blind cannot be enclosed in the same cover with commercial papers, samples, or printed papers.

PATTERNS AND SAMPLES.

3. If "commercial papers" are included in a pattern or sample packet for a place beyond New Zealand the rates applicable to "commercial papers" shall be paid on the packet. "Printed papers" may be enclosed with pattern and sample packets. A stamped envelope for reply may be enclosed with a sample at sample-post rates of postage.

Definitions.

5. The pattern and sample post for places beyond New Zealand shall be restricted to bona fide trade patterns or samples of merchandise, live bees, and natural-history specimens not forwarded for commercial purposes. Patterns or samples shall be of no saleable value, or they will be detained and sent to the Dead Letter Office. Packets containing articles of saleable value may be sent at sample rates to any place within New Zealand. Packets containing watches, jewellery, &c., may be sent under this regulation, but shall be registered.

How to Pack.

9. Patterns or samples, when practicable, shall be sent in covers open at the end, and packed in such manner as to be easy of examination; but samples of seeds, drugs, and such-like articles, which cannot be sent in covers of this kind, may be posted enclosed in boxes or bags of linen, or other material, fastened in such a manner that they may be readily opened.

Articles, such as tinned foods, which would be spoiled if packed in the manner prescribed may be exceptionally admitted in a cover hermetically sealed, but the Post Office may require the sender or the addressee to assist in the check of the contents, either by opening certain packets indicated by them or in some other satisfactory manner. Packing shall not be obligatory for articles consisting of one piece, such as pieces of wood, metal, &c., which it is not the custom of the trade to pack, provided that the address and postage-stamp appear on a label, and the address is repeated on the article itself. Samples of liquids, fatty substances, and substances which easily liquify, as well as samples enclosed in linen or paper envelopes of little strength shall have attached a label, preferably of parchment, bearing the name and address of the addressee and the postage stamps. In addition the name and address of the addressee shall be repeated on the article itself.

No Writing Allowed.

10. It shall be permissible to indicate by hand or by a mechanical process, outside or inside the packet, the name, position, profession, and address of the sender and of the addressee, as well as the date of despatch, the sender's signature, telephone number, telegraphic address and code, banking account, a manufacturer's mark, or trade-mark, numbers, prices, and particulars relating to weight, measurement, and size, or to the quantity to be disposed of, and such as are necessary to determine the origin and the character of the goods.

Dangerous Articles.

15. Liquids, oils, fatty substances, and substances which easily liquefy shall be enclosed in glass bottles hermetically sealed. Each bottle shall be placed in a special box of wood, of metal, or of strong corrugated cardboard containing sawdust, cotton, or spongy material in sufficient quantity to absorb the liquid in the event of the bottle being broken. The box itself, if it is of thin wood, shall be enclosed in a second case of metal, of wood with a lid screwed down, of strong corrugated cardboard, or of stout thick leather. When hollow wooden blocks, with minimum thickness of 2½ millimetres (about ¼ in.), provided with a lid, are used with sufficient quantity of absorbent material inside, the blocks need not be enclosed in a second case. Liquids, oils, fatty substances, and substances which easily liquefy, if insecurely packed, shall be stopped. The transmission of soft fruit shall be prohibited unless the fruit is enclosed in liquid-tight tins and is securely packed. The transmission of mushrooms shall be subject to similar restrictions. Sugar and tins of condensed milk to any address may be forwarded only by parcel-post.

16. Fatty substances such as ointments, soft-soap, resin, &c., which are not easily liquefied, and which are less likely to injure other postal packets, shall be enclosed in an inner cover (box, bag of linen, parchment, &c.), which must itself be placed in a second box of wood, metal, strong corrugated cardboard, or stout thick leather.

17. Dry non-colouring powders shall be securely packed in boxes of metal, wood, or cardboard, which must themselves be enclosed in bags of linen or parchment. Dyes such as aniline, &c., shall be enclosed in stout tin boxes, placed inside wooden boxes with sawdust between the two covers.

18. Strychnine is admitted in powder form only. It shall be enclosed in a glass bottle, which must be packed in a wooden case not less than $\frac{1}{4}$ in. thick in the thinnest part, made from a solid piece of wood bored out to the size of the bottle, and fitted with a secure wooden lid. Strychnine may be sent only by registered packet-post, and the cover of the packet must be marked "Poison."

19. Packets containing any of the above-mentioned articles insecurely packed come within the category of articles "likely to injure any postal packet or any person," and are therefore prohibited from being sent by post. The senders of such packets are liable to penalties under the Post and Telegraph Act, 1908, whether the packets are sent by letter or by parcel-post.

Limits of Size and Weight.

21. Packets addressed to places within New Zealand, Australia, or Great Britain and Ireland shall not exceed 2 ft. in length, or 1 ft. in width or depth.

22. Pattern and sample packets sent to any other place shall not exceed 1 ft. 6 in. in length, 8 in. in width, 4 in. in depth, and 1 lb. in weight, unless they are in the form of a roll, for which the maximum dimensions shall be 1 ft. 6 in. in length and 6 in. in diameter.

23. The maximum weight for places within New Zealand and in Great Britain and Ireland and for places against which the limitation is shown in column 6 of the Table of British and Foreign Places, pages 10-40 of the Post and Telegraph Guide, March, 1927, shall be 5 lb., all other places 1 lb.

MAGAZINES.

5. When a registered magazine and a registered newspaper are enclosed in the same wrapper printed-paper rates of postage shall be charged.

NEWSPAPERS.

Rates of Postage.

1. Newspapers printed and published in New Zealand addressed to places in Great Britain and Ireland and weighing over 8 oz. which it is desired to have sent by the San Francisco or Vancouver route shall be specially superscribed and prepaid at the rate of $\frac{1}{4}$ d. for each 2 oz. or fraction thereof.

The postage rate on newspapers for countries other than those for which a different rate has been specially prescribed, also for newspapers not printed and published in New Zealand addressed to Great Britain and Ireland, &c., shall be $\frac{1}{4}$ d. for each 2 oz. or fraction thereof.

4. Newspapers for Great Britain posted wholly unpaid, and newspapers for other places beyond New Zealand posted partly or wholly unpaid, shall be detained and sent to the Dead Letter Office. Insufficiently prepaid newspapers for Great Britain are forwarded to destination surcharged double deficient postage at printed-paper rates. Unpaid and insufficiently prepaid newspapers for delivery within New Zealand are forwarded to destination charged double deficient postage at newspaper rates.

Conditions of Transmission.

6. If the title or the place of publication of a registered newspaper is changed, the newspaper shall be re-registered.

7. A newspaper is a publication consisting wholly or in great part of political or other news, or of articles relating thereto or to other current topics, with or without advertisements, and whether printed for sale or gratuitous distribution. It shall be printed and published in New Zealand, and shall be published in numbers at intervals of not more than thirty days. The full title and date of publication shall be printed at the top of the first page, and the whole or part of the title and the date of publication at the top of every subsequent page.

8. A supplement to a newspaper shall be deemed to be part of such newspaper for the purpose of the regulations, and shall consist wholly or in great part of matter like that of a newspaper, printed on a sheet or sheets of paper, or consisting wholly or in part of engravings, prints, or lithographs, or any other sort of picture illustrative of articles in the newspaper. The supplement shall in every case be printed in New Zealand and published with the newspaper, and shall have the title and date of publication of the newspaper printed at the top of every page, or, if it consists of engravings, prints, or lithographs, at the top of every sheet or side. Insets, advertising-sheets, posters, or handbills will not be allowed to pass as supplements.

10. When a registered newspaper is enclosed in the same cover as a registered magazine, printed-paper rates of postage shall be charged.

Must not contain Enclosure or Writing.

14. A newspaper for any place within New Zealand shall not contain any enclosure other than the supplement or supplements proper to the newspaper. Any other printed enclosure contained therein will render the addressee liable to pay double deficient postage at printed-paper rates. A contents-bill, being actually an index to the newspapers with which it is posted under one wrapper, may be regarded as an integral portion of a newspaper, notwithstanding it may not be marked as a supplement or be dated. An advice-note relating to a package of newspapers shall be sent as a commercial paper.

Posted in Quantity unstamped.

21. Newspapers may be posted by newspaper-proprietors or distributing agents unstamped, subject to the observance of the following conditions:—

(1.) Application, addressed to the Chief Postmaster, for authority to post newspapers unstamped shall be forwarded by the publisher or distributing agent of the newspaper in respect of which the concession is applied for. Such authority shall apply to newspapers addressed to places within New Zealand only. The postage on newspapers for places beyond New Zealand shall be affixed in stamps prior to the newspapers being posted. The minimum period for which an authority shall be issued shall be six calendar months. The minimum number of newspapers that shall be received at any one posting shall be 100. The wrappers of the papers should be superscribed to show not only the title of the newspaper, but also the words "Postage paid."

(2.) Newspapers shall be presented at the post-office from which they are to be despatched, accompanied by a certificate in the prescribed form. They shall be tied in bundles or enclosed in a bag or other receptacle, the number of papers contained therein being clearly indicated in each case, so that they may be readily counted before distribution. Any misstatement, whether intentional or otherwise, may lead to withdrawal of the privilege.

(3.) An account shall be rendered after the end of each accounting period—viz., on the 1st, 8th, 16th, and 24th days of each month, covering the postage due on papers posted during the periods ended the 7th, 15th, 23rd, and last days of each month. Settlement thereof shall be effected within forty-eight hours, failing which the concession may be withdrawn. News-vendor's packets (including packets from newspaper offices), unless they are addressed singly to addressees, shall not be received under the permit system, but shall be prepaid in stamps. Bundles of packets addressed singly come under the permit system, and may be prepaid in cash.

REGISTERED ARTICLES.

Fees in addition to Postage.

2. The sender of a registered article may obtain an acknowledgment of its due receipt by the addressee on payment, at the time of posting of the article, of an "acknowledgment fee" of 2½d., in addition to the postage and registration fee. An inquiry as to the delivery of a registered letter may be made subsequently to the posting of the letter by means of an Acknowledgment of Delivery form, to which must be attached the fee of 2½d. Inquiry for a registered article addressed to a place beyond New Zealand cannot be made if the inquiry is not lodged within one year counting from the day after that of posting.

What may be registered.

3. Any letter, letter-card, post-card, book or other packet, newspaper, or inland parcel will be accepted for registration. Parcels for places beyond New Zealand, except the United States of America, cannot be registered.

4. No article directed to initials, or to a fictitious name, or addressed in pencil (except copying-ink pencil), can be registered. An article addressed in Chinese or other commonly unknown characters cannot be accepted for registration unless the address is written also in English characters. No registered letter addressed to a private box by number only may be delivered except to the holder of the box or on his written order. A letter showing signs of having been opened and refastened shall not be accepted for registration.

14. The Postmaster-General shall not accept liability in the case of registered articles for which the addressees have given a receipt and accepted delivery, nor shall he accept liability for registered articles which cannot be accounted for in consequence of the destruction of official documents through a cause beyond control.

Compulsory Registration.

18. Valuable articles sent in unregistered letters are exposed to risk. All inland and Australian letters or packets, therefore, which are supposed to contain watches, or jewellery, or coin, or bank-notes, even though they are posted without registration, shall be treated as "registered," and charged double the registration fee; and any such letters, &c., which cannot be registered in time to be forwarded by the mail for which they are posted may be detained for the next despatch. If on being opened in the presence of an officer of the post-office the letters are found not to contain such aforementioned articles or any of them, the registration fee and amount of the surcharge shall be refunded. Coin, bank-notes, gold, cheques, money-orders, and postal notes (except the last three in bankers' packets) may not be sent to Australia except in letters, and such letters containing coin, bank-notes, or gold shall be registered.

INSURANCE OF LETTERS.

2. Every letter insured may not contain other than bank-notes, bonds, coupons, unobliterated postage-stamps, securities, or other documents of the kind. Unobliterated postage stamps may be insured up to their face value, but obliterated postage stamps cannot be insured. Post-cards, packets of "printed papers" or "commercial papers," sample packets, or letters which contain articles other than documents as aforesaid will not be insured. Objects of value which cannot be sent in insured letters may generally be sent in insured parcels or insured boxes.

5. Insured letters addressed to Great Britain and Ireland, or to any country via Great Britain, will, while this regulation remains in force, be sent via San Francisco or Vancouver.

6. A letter containing any such documents as aforesaid addressed to any country which has the insurance-of-letters system in force, and bearing on the outside a declaration of the value of the contents must be insured.

11. The amount for which an article is insured shall be written by the sender both in words and in figures at the top of the address side of the cover, thus: "Insured for fifteen pounds (£15)." The amount shall also be shown in gold francs placed at the side or below that representing the insured value in English currency, but this will not apply to inland insured letters or those addressed to Great Britain and Ireland. No alteration or erasure of the inscription is allowed. If a mistake is made, the entry shall be completely obliterated and an entirely new one made by the sender.

12. A letter cannot be insured for more than its actual value. A letter of which the contents have no saleable value may, however, be insured for a nominal sum in order to obtain the safeguards of the insurance system; the fee payable in such a case shall be the minimum one of 4d. for inland letters and 8d. for those addressed to other countries. Insurance in excess of the value of the contents will bar the payment of any compensation in respect of any insured letter.

Insured Box Service.

1. There is in operation between New Zealand and Great Britain and Northern Ireland an "insured box" service. An "insured box" may contain articles of gold, silver, precious stones, jewellery, and other articles of like nature which are prohibited transmission by the insured-letter service. The following articles shall be prohibited transmission in insured boxes: Articles, the admission or circulation of which in Great Britain or Northern Ireland is prohibited; letters or notes which may serve as a substitute for correspondence; current coin; bank-notes or securities payable to bearer; bonds and articles included in the category of commercial papers. It shall be, however, permissible to enclose in an insured box an open invoice confined to the particulars which constitute an invoice, and also a simple copy of the addressee's name and address and the name and address of the sender.

2. The maximum weight for an insured box shall be 2 lb., and the maximum measurements—length, 12 in.; breadth, 4 in.; and height, 4 in. The box employed for packing shall be strongly made of metal or wood. When a wooden box is used the wood shall be at least $\frac{3}{4}$ in. thick.

3. An insured box shall be tied crosswise with a single strong string (not two or more pieces joined), the two ends of the string being held together under a seal of fine wax bearing a private mark. The box shall also be sealed on the four sides with seals identical with that used for the end of the string. The box shall not be wrapped in paper; but the surfaces of the top and bottom shall be covered with white paper for the inscription of the addressee's name and address and the insured value of the contents, and for the impression of the official stamps.

4. An insured box shall be accompanied by a Customs declaration prepared by the sender. The Customs declaration used for parcels should be used for insured boxes, but the word "parcel" wherever it occurs shall be altered to "insured box." The Customs declaration must be prepared with great care. It shall specify precisely the style of packing, and include a description of the box. The gross weight of the box and the total value of the contents of each of the different kinds of article contained in the box shall be shown separately.

5. The postage and insurance fees on an insured box shall be fully prepaid. The postage rate shall be 2d. per ounce, with a minimum charge of 10d. The insurance fees shall be the same as those in respect of insured letters. The limit of insurance shall be £400.

6. Except where herein stated to the contrary, the general regulations governing the transmission of insured letters shall apply also to insured boxes.

REDIRECTION.

5. The Department cannot undertake to intercept and to redirect correspondence delivered through a private box, except when the box is closed either temporarily or permanently. The Department is unable also to undertake to intercept and to redirect correspondence delivered through private mail-bags, but it will endeavour to do so as far as circumstances permit.

6. The Department cannot undertake to redirect a letter before it reaches the office to which it is addressed. It cannot undertake the redirection of letters, &c., for persons temporarily leaving home unless the house is left uninhabited, nor can it undertake to redirect letters, &c., addressed to clubs, hotels, boardinghouses, &c.

7. Persons presenting redirection orders are requested to add their title, Mr., Mrs., or Miss. This applies also to telegrams addressed to Postmasters requesting redirection of correspondence.

BUSINESS HOURS.

3. Post-office and Telegraph Holidays.—The statutory post-office and telegraph holidays are New Year's Day, Easter Monday, the King's Birthday, Labour Day, and Boxing Day. When New Year's Day, the King's Birthday, or Boxing Day falls on a Sunday, the next day is observed as a holiday. Good Friday, Anzac Day, and Christmas day are observed as Sundays.

DELIVERY.

1. To facilitate the delivery of letters, a letter-box should be affixed to every house door. Any person whose house lies back from the street may be required by the Chief Postmaster at any time to provide on the street-line a box for the reception of mail-matter. Failing compliance such person may be excluded from the postman's delivery. Delivery by postman will not be made above the first floor of any business building unless an elevator is available for use. If a person whose place of business is above the first floor in a building in which an elevator is not available desires to have his correspondence delivered by postman, he shall provide on either the ground or the first floor a suitable locked box for the reception of his mail-matter, or some responsible person on either of those floors must be authorized to receive the correspondence. In the case of an apartment house, delivery will not be made to the different rooms or suites whether or not an elevator is available. If in such case delivery by postman is desired, a suitable locked box shall be provided on the ground floor. In the case of rural deliveries, settlers off the road-line must provide a suitable box on the road-line in which their correspondence can be deposited.

EXPRESS DELIVERY SERVICE.

1. "Express delivery" is delivery by special means in advance of the ordinary delivery, or by special despatch to the delivery-counter or delivery-wicket in the post-office. Express delivery begins at an office on arrival of the postal packet at that office. In the case of city branch offices, as distinguished from suburban offices, the express delivery may be made from the chief post-office.

4. A redirected "express delivery" article shall be treated as an ordinary packet.

5. "Express delivery" articles, with the exception of parcels, shall be received up to the time for receiving late letters. Parcels intended for "express delivery" will not necessarily be forwarded by the latter mail unless the "express transit" fee of 6d. also is paid thereon.

9. Express delivery will not be made on Sundays.

PREPAYMENT OF POSTAGE IN CASH.

3. Authority will be obtained by the Postmaster from the Chief Postmaster, and a permit will then be issued by the Postmaster to the person applying therefor. No permit will be issued in the name of a person or firm for whose identity the Postmaster cannot vouch.

4. Postal packets will be accepted postage-prepaid in cash under the following conditions:—

(2) In the upper right-hand corner of the face or address side of the envelope, wrapper, address label, or tag of each separately addressed packet there shall be printed a statement showing the amount of postage paid for the packet, the word "Paid," and the name of the post-office at which posted, followed by the permit number in the form and within the sizes of type prescribed in the next following paragraph. In the case of the prepayment in cash at bulk rate of the postage on printed matter, the "permit" stamp is required to appear on each packet, the amount of postage being left blank.

PRIVATE BOXES AND CALL-BOXES AND PRIVATE BAGS.

2. Private boxes.—Each private box is opened and closed from without the office by means of a door, lock, and key, which shall be kept in repair at the holder's expense, fair wear-and-tear alone excepted.

4. Private boxes shall be let as under:

- (1.) For a year ending 31st March.
- (2.) For a half-year ending 30th September or 31st March.
- (3.) For a period less than six months, to any person wishing to hold a box for a short period only, upon payment of at least three months' rental.

In cases (1) and (2), if a period not exceeding three months is to elapse before the year or the half-year begins, the rental therefor will be added to the rental due for the succeeding year or half-year, and the total collected. If the period is greater than three months, the rental may be paid to the end of the then current half-year.

In case (3), if the period from date of letting to the end of a quarter ending 31st March, 30th June, 30th September, or 31st December is less than one month, and the applicant wishes to hold the box for a longer period, the rental for the succeeding quarter will be added to that for the unexpired portion of the quarter. If the period from date of letting to end of quarter is a month or more, a full quarter's payment must be made as for the then current quarter.

Where there are two or more applicants for the one box at the one time, preference will be given to the person desiring to rent the box for the longest term.

14. (1.) Private Mail-bags.—The fees for a private mail-bag shall be as follow:—

- (a.) For a private mail-bag measuring 20 in. by 36 in. carried by a mail contractor for a year ended 31st March, £2; for a bag measuring 24 in. by 45 in., if the quantity of correspondence requires it, £3.
- (b.) For a private mail-bag measuring 20 in. by 36 in. carried by a mail contractor for a half-year ended 30th September or 31st March, £1; for a bag measuring 24 in. by 45 in., if the quantity of correspondence requires it, £1 10s.
- (c.) For a private mail-bag measuring 20 in. by 36 in., if delivery is taken at the post-office where it is made up, for a year ended 31st March, £1; for a bag measuring 24 in. by 45 in., if the quantity of correspondence requires it, £1 10s.

CHARLES FERGUSSON, Governor-General.

ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government House at Wellington, this 15th day of August, 1927.

Present:

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS by Orders in Council dated the twenty-third day of August, one thousand nine hundred and fifteen, the twentieth day of December, one thousand nine hundred and fifteen, the ninth day of December, one thousand nine hundred and eighteen, and the first day of November, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-one, and published in a supplement to the New Zealand Gazette of the nineteenth day of August, one thousand nine hundred and fifteen, and in the New Zealand Gazette of the twenty-third day of December, one thousand nine hundred and fifteen, the twelfth day of December, one thousand nine hundred and eighteen, and the third day of November, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-one, respectively, regulations were made and rates of postage fixed under the authority of the Post and Telegraph Act, 1908, for the conveyance of parcels by means of the Post Office: And whereas it is desirable to amend such regulations and to alter such rates of postage in the manner hereinafter set forth.

Now, therefore, His Excellency the Governor-General of the Dominion of New Zealand, in pursuance and exercise of the power and authority conferred upon him by the said Act and of all other powers and authorities in that behalf enabling him, and acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of the said Dominion, doth hereby make the regulations and fix the rates of postage set forth in the Schedule hereto; and doth hereby revoke so much of the regulations and rates in the Schedules to the above-recited Orders in Council as is inconsistent herewith; and doth further order that the said revocation shall take effect and the regulations hereby made and the rates of postage hereby fixed shall come into force on the date of the publication of this Order in Council in the New Zealand Gazette, and that the regulations made shall form part of and be read together with the above-recited regulations.

SCHEDULE.PARCEL-POST.*Rates of Postage.

THE special rate of 2s. 1d. charged on parcels not exceeding 11 lb. in weight, but exceeding 4 ft., length and girth combined, shall not apply to parcels not more than 1 in. in thickness, unless the length and width combined exceed 4 ft.

GENERAL REGULATIONS.Customs Declaration.

4. The sender of a parcel addressed to any place beyond New Zealand shall make a Customs declaration (on a form to be obtained at any post-office) describing the contents and stating the value, and also giving the name of the office of destination and the sender's signature and place of residence. In the case of parcels addressed to certain foreign countries, two or more declarations are required. A false declaration involves the forfeiture of the parcel, and renders the sender liable to prosecution under the Customs laws. The contents of a parcel should not be described on the Customs declaration in general terms, such as "Presents," "Groceries," &c.; but each article should be enumerated, and, in the case of parcels containing foodstuffs addressed to Great Britain and Ireland the actual weight of each commodity shown. When there is not sufficient room on the form of Customs declaration, the necessary details should be shown on the cover of the parcel.

An invoice in an open envelope, giving merely particulars of the goods contained in the parcel, may be enclosed in any parcel.

Disposal of Undeliverable Parcels addressed to certain Countries.

5. The sender of a parcel addressed to any place within the British Empire, or to Argentine Republic, Austria, Belgian Congo, Belgium, Brazil, Bulgaria, China, Colombia, Cuba, Czecho-Slovakia, Danzig, Denmark, Dutch West Indies, Ecuador, Egypt, Estonia, France or any French colony, Germany, Greece, Guatemala, Holland, Iceland, Kingdom of Serbs, Croats, and Slovenes, Lettonia, Liberia, Lithuania, Luxemburg, Mexico, Norway, Palestine, Panama Republic, Peru, Poland, Portuguese East Africa, Siam, Soviet Socialistic Republics (Union of), Sudan, Sweden, Switzerland, Syria (West), Trinidad, Uruguay, Venezuela, or the United States of America may request, at the time of posting, that if the parcel cannot be delivered as addressed it may be either (a) treated as abandoned, or (b) tendered for delivery at a second address in the country of destination. No other course is admissible. If the sender avails himself of this provision, his request shall be written on the parcel, and shall be in one of the following forms:—

“ If not deliverable as addressed, abandon.

“ If not deliverable as addressed, deliver to”

In the absence of a definite request for abandonment, a parcel which is undeliverable at the original address and at the alternative address, if one is furnished, will be returned to the sender at his expense and without previous notification.

Special Fee charged for Conveyance of Inland Fragile Parcels.

12. Inland parcels (except parcels containing fishing-rods, golf-clubs, and similar articles), which the senders desire to be forwarded to destination in hampers, shall be charged an additional fee of 6d. if they do not exceed 4 ft. length and girth combined, and of 9d. if they exceed 4 ft. length and girth combined. The parcels will be labelled “Fragile.” The special “Fragile” fee of 6d. shall be charged on parcels containing fishing-rods, golf-clubs, &c., which do not exceed 3 ft. 6 in. in length, but if the length of such parcels exceeds 3 ft. 6 in. no “Fragile” fee shall be payable.

In the case of parcels not exceeding 1 in. in thickness the “Fragile” fee of 9d. shall be charged only when the length and width combined exceed 4 ft.

All inland parcels, except those mentioned in the preceding sentence, on which the “Fragile” fee is not paid will be forwarded to destination in bags.

Bullion and Jewellery.

16. Parcels of bullion may be accepted for inland transmission and for transmission to places beyond New Zealand, subject to the provisions of any law prohibiting the exportation of gold from New Zealand. No parcel of bullion may exceed 3 lb. in weight except in the case of a parcel addressed to Australia, when the parcel may weigh up to 11 lb., or in the case of an inland parcel sent by a bank addressed to a bank at Auckland, Wellington, Dunedin, or Greymouth, when the parcel may weigh up to 8 lb. Parcels containing bullion addressed to any place within New Zealand or Australia shall be insured if the contents are over 10s. in value. Such insurance is, however, limited to a maximum of £2. The Postmaster-General reserves the right to refuse to accept any package of bullion for despatch by any mail, or to despatch any such package by any mail, on the ground that the mail may by such acceptance or such despatch be exposed to the risk of violation. No parcel addressed to Great Britain and Ireland or for any place served through Great Britain and Ireland may contain bullion exceeding £5 in value. Packages containing gold, if addressed to countries beyond New Zealand, can only be posted (if not prohibited as aforesaid) at money-order offices, and senders must pay thereon the export duty of 2s. per ounce troy for gold mined in the North Island, and also a duty of 6d. per ounce troy for gold mined in any part of New Zealand other than gold produced by alluvial mining or dredge-mining, in addition to the usual parcel-postage. Parcels containing jewellery, watches, articles of manufactured gold or silver, and suchlike valuables should be insured and specially packed as instructed in Regulation 9, under the heading of “Insurance of Parcels,” page 209 of the Post and Telegraph Guide, March, 1927, and such parcels, if addressed to any place within New Zealand, may be insured and registered if desired, but their insurance or registration is not compulsory unless the contents are over 10s. in value. The transmission of parcels of jewellery, &c., and bullion to certain countries is prohibited.

Delivery of Parcels.

25. A parcel (other than one containing jewellery or any article of gold or silver or any precious stone) received from a place beyond New Zealand, addressed to a post-office “to be called for,” or for other reason required to lie at a post-office, shall, after it has remained in the office fourteen clear days (excluding Sundays and holidays), be charged demurrage at the rate of 1d. a day (including Sundays and holidays). A parcel containing jewellery, or any article of gold or silver, or any precious stone, received from a place beyond New Zealand, after it has remained in the office fourteen days (excluding Sundays and holidays), shall be charged demurrage at the rate of one per centum per diem (including Sundays and holidays) on the declared value thereof; with the reservation that the maximum amount chargeable shall not exceed £2 for each period of three months or fraction thereof, computed as provided herein. In other words, demurrage ceases to accrue after the sum of £2 has been reached, until the commencement of another three-monthly period, if the parcel has not been disposed of in the meantime. No demurrage, however, will be charged on a parcel addressed to a place at which there is no house-to-house delivery, or for a person on board ship. In this regulation the term “jewellery” does not include watches.

Undelivered and Unclaimed Parcels.

28. Received from Places beyond the Dominion.—Parcels originating at any place in the British Empire, or in Argentine Republic, Austria, Belgian Congo, Belgium, Brazil, Bulgaria, China, Colombia, Czecho-Slovakia, Danzig, Denmark, Dutch West Indies, Ecuador, Egypt, Estonia, France or any French colony, Germany, Greece, Guatemala, Holland, Iceland, Kingdom of Serbs, Croats, and Slovenes, Lettonia, Liberia, Lithuania, Luxemburg, Mexico, Norway, Palestine, Panama Republic, Peru, Poland, Portuguese East Africa, Siam, Soviet Socialistic Republics (Union of), Sudan, Sweden, Switzerland, Syria (West), Trinidad, Uruguay, Venezuela, or the United States of America which bear only one address will be held at the disposal of the addressee for thirty days, and if not delivered within that period, and not marked "Abandon," will be returned to the senders. If, however, the parcels bear an alternative address they will be held at the disposal of the first addressee for fifteen days, and if not delivered at the expiration of that period they will be held at the disposal of the second addressee for fifteen days. If finally undelivered the parcels (except those marked "Abandon") will be returned to the senders. Parcels marked "Abandon," if not delivered within the prescribed period, will be forwarded to the Dead Letter Office. Parcels originating in other countries which cannot be delivered will be kept at the office to which they are addressed for one clear month irrespective of the one in which they were received, and if not claimed, will be forwarded to the Chief Post-office. The senders will be advised through the Post Office of the country of origin; and in the absence of instructions the parcels will be retained for six months from the date of posting of the advice of non-delivery and then forwarded to the Dead Letter Office. Parcels with perishable contents may be destroyed immediately they become offensive.

Redirected Parcels.

29. Redirected parcels shall be liable to a new rate of postage for each redirection, except where the original and corrected addresses are both within the delivery of the one post-office. A fresh "Fragile" fee, however, shall not be charged on a fragile parcel for each redirection.

INSURANCE OF PARCELS.

2. In addition to the insurance fees the special "Fragile" fee of 6d. or 9d. shall be paid on all inland insured parcels which the senders desire to be forwarded in a hamper, and unless this special fee is paid no claim arising out of the damage to any inland insured parcel will be entertained. The special "Fragile" fee of 6d. is charged on parcels containing fishing-rods, golf-clubs, or similar articles that do not exceed 3 ft. 6 in. in length, but if the length of such parcels exceeds 3 ft. 6 in. no "Fragile" fee is payable.

ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government House at Wellington, this 15th day of August, 1927.

Present:

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS by Orders in Council dated the seventeenth day of January, one thousand nine hundred and ten, the twelfth day of July, one thousand nine hundred and fifteen, the tenth day of September, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-three, the first day of April, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-four, and the twentieth day of April, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-six, and published in the New Zealand Gazette of the eighteenth day of January, one thousand nine hundred and ten, the fifteenth day of July, one thousand nine hundred and fifteen, the thirteenth day of September, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-three, the first day of May, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-four, and the twenty-ninth day of April, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-six, respectively, regulations were made under the authority of the Post and Telegraph Act, 1908, for the transmission of messages by telegraph: And whereas it is desirable to amend and add to such regulations in the manner hereinafter set forth:

Now, therefore, His Excellency the Governor-General of the Dominion of New Zealand, in pursuance and exercise of the power and authority conferred upon him by the said Act, and of all other powers and authorities in that behalf enabling him, and acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of the said Dominion, doth hereby make the regulations set forth in the Schedule hereto, and doth hereby revoke so much of the regulations in the Schedules to the above-recited Orders in Council as is inconsistent herewith; and doth further order that the said revocation shall take effect and the regulations hereby made shall come into force on the date of the publication of this Order in Council in the New Zealand Gazette, and that the regulations hereby made shall form part of and be read together with the above-recited regulations.

SCHEDULE.

TELEGRAMS.

GENERAL REGULATIONS.

Receipts for Charges.

8. Receipts for the amounts paid for cable, radio, and inland telegrams may be obtained by the senders at the telegraph-office at the time of presenting such telegrams for transmission on payment of a fee of 1d. for each receipt, irrespective of the amount or number of telegrams concerned. Nevertheless, if particulars of more than one telegram are required to be shown on the receipt-form a fee of 1d. for each message shall be charged. Books of 100 forms with receipt-foils attached may be purchased at the telegraph-office at a cost of 3s. each, and when these forms are used the receipt-foils will be completed without charge.

General Rules for writing Telegrams.

10. Printed forms upon which telegrams should be written may be obtained at any telegraph-office on application; but all telegrams, whether written upon the prescribed form or upon any other form, shall be (subject to the provisions hereinafter stated) considered as presented for transmission under the several conditions contained in these regulations: Provided that telegram forms other than those supplied by the Government shall be first approved of by the Minister of Telegraphs. Books of telegram forms, interleaved with white forms for use with carbonic paper, may be purchased at the principal telegraph-offices at 1s. 4d. per book. One hundred forms, in duplicate, are contained in each book. Books of telegram forms with or without lines, the latter made specially for use with the typewriter, may be purchased at telegraph-offices at 9d. per book.

11. All telegrams presented for transmission must be legibly written. Inland telegrams may be written in ordinary lead-pencil; but cable and radio messages, if written by hand, must be written in ink, in indelible pencil, or in manifold.

12. Telegrams may be written in plain, code, or cipher language. For definitions and counting of each see "Rules for Counting," Regulation 43 hereof.

Address.

19. The address of a telegram (except in the case of a code address or the address of a well-known firm) must be sufficiently full to enable delivery to be effected without reference to other sources of information. The name of the street and the number of the house therein, if known, or the profession or occupation of the addressee should be given. A telegram the address of which consists of only two words, one representing the addressee but not being a registered code indicator, and the other the station of destination, or otherwise insufficiently addressed, will be accepted only at the sender's risk. An address ordinarily used for letters is not necessarily correct or sufficient for telegrams.

Replies may be prepaid.

27. The cost of a reply may be prepaid, and a reply form will then be delivered to the addressee, who may send another telegram of the value prepaid, from any telegraph-office, at any time within six weeks. Should the form not be used its value will be refunded upon application being made within three months, accompanied by the form itself, to the Controller of Accounts, General Post Office. A reply form need not necessarily be used for a reply, but may be used in payment or part payment of any single telegram. The sender of the original telegram must write in the space for instructions the words "Reply paid," or, when the amount to be deposited exceeds the minimum charge for an ordinary inland telegram on a week-day, "Reply paid (amount deposited for reply)."

Inland Multiple Telegrams.

31. A prepaid telegram may be addressed on one form to several persons in the same town, or to the same person in different parts of the same town (multiple telegram). All the addresses in a multiple telegram must be in the same town and must be written before the text. Telegrams addressed to different telegraph-offices or those bearing a common text but presented as separate messages, will not be accepted at multiple rates. In multiple telegrams, each address must be complete in itself; consequently, the office of destination must appear as many times as there are names of addressees. The text, and all the addresses, and the signatures shall be counted and charged for as a single message, with an additional fee of 4½d. per address for each copy excepting the first, provided that the number of chargeable words therein does not exceed 50. For copies containing more than 50 words the charge shall be 4½d. per 50 words or fraction thereof. "Urgent" telegrams may be accepted at double the above tariff. The number of addresses will be indicated to the office of destination by the insertion of "T.M. [No. of addresses]" in the "Instructions"; but this information will be omitted from the message actually delivered, which will show one address only unless the sender has inserted and paid for the instruction "Communicate all addresses." Multiple telegrams cannot be sent "collect."

Rules for Counting.

43. (a) Telegrams may be written in plain or secret language, or partly in plain and partly in secret language.

(i) Plain-language telegrams are those composed of words, figures, and letters that offer an intelligible meaning in any language, including Esperanto. They must be written in Roman characters. Except as provided in Regulation 43 (b), plain language words exceeding fifteen letters shall be counted at the rate of fifteen letters for each word, plus one word for any excess. Plain language may not consist of illegitimate combinations, or words or abbreviations contrary to the usage of such language, Webster's Dictionary being taken as the standard for the English language. (For counting of figures see Regulation 49 hereof.)

(ii) Secret language may be expressed in either code or cipher.

(iii) Code language is that which is composed of words not forming intelligible phrases, but capable of pronunciation in any one of the following languages: Dutch, English, French, German, Italian, Latin, Portuguese, or Spanish. For the purposes of counting, words in code language exceeding ten letters shall be regarded as cipher. Combinations not fulfilling these conditions are charged for as cipher.

(iv) Cipher language is that which is formed (a) of Arabic figures having a secret meaning, (b) of letters or groups of letters having a secret meaning, (c) of words, names, expressions, or combinations of letters not fulfilling the conditions of plain language or of code language. Words expressed in cipher language will be counted at the rate of five characters to a word, plus one word for any excess up to five characters.

(b) With the exception of the names of post-offices, public telegraph-offices, or railway telegraph-offices in New Zealand words in plain language inserted in the text of a mixed telegram—i.e., composed of words in plain language and of words in code language—shall be counted each at the rate of one word for each indivisible series of ten characters which they contain. If the telegram contains, in addition, passages in cipher language, the passages in cipher shall be counted according to the provisions of Regulation 43 (a) (iv). If the text of a telegram is composed of passages in plain language and of passages in cipher language, the passages in plain language shall be counted according to the provisions of Regulation 43 (a) (i), and the passages in cipher language according to the provisions of Regulation 43 (a) (iv); while if the text be composed of code words and cipher only the code words shall be counted as provided for in paragraph (iii), and the cipher as provided for in paragraph (iv) of Regulation 43 (a).

(c) Words registered with the Department as telegraphic code addresses shall be counted as plain language words in the address, text, or signature of any telegram. Nevertheless, when such a word appears in the text or signature, it shall be so counted only when it refers to the registered address.

52. All punctuation signs and underlines shall be counted and charged for a one word each; while parentheses or inverted commas shall be counted and charged for as one word for each pair.

Redirected and Undelivered Telegrams.

62. A telegram delivered at a corrected address in accordance with instructions given at the original address shall be liable to a charge of 6d., if delivery at the new address can be effected from the original receiving office; but if the new address furnished necessitates retransmission of the telegram, a charge at ordinary or urgent rates, as the case may be, shall be made.

Transmission of Telegrams by Telephone.

67. (1) Subscribers to telephone exchanges and owners of private telephone-lines connected with public telephone-offices may, by prearrangement in writing, have telegrams that are addressed to them other than those subject to delivery by post, forwarded by telephone from the office of destination to their business or private addresses. Such messages will, after transmission, be enfaced "Transmitted by telephone," and will be delivered by post.

69. (1) At an office at which a telephone exchange is established, and at which provision is made for the regular delivery of telegrams, charges for messages telephoned over a subscriber's line to or from a destination within the limits of the free delivery of telegrams (except as provided for in Regulation 74 hereof) shall be as follows:—

For each separate transmission, if the telephone conversation does not exceed three minutes	£	s.	d.

For each additional three minutes or fraction thereof	£	s.	d.

One conversation may include two or more messages.

70. No charge will be made for telephoning telegrams—

- Over an exchange subscriber's line to or from a destination beyond the limits of the free delivery of telegrams;
- To or from an office at which the delivery of telegrams is irregular or is not provided for;
- Over privately owned telephone-lines connected with an office at which an exchange is not established;
- At the office of destination when "Telephone" or "Telephone No." appears in the address. (See Regulation 74.)

74. PRESS OPINIONS.

The Hon. G. M. Thomson in writing this manual has evidently taken up a labour of love. He writes not so much for the scientific as for the general reader. It is a valuable and likely to be one of the most popular works issued by the Board of Science and Art. It is a notable addition to Mr. Thomson's other works.—Evening Post, Wellington, N.Z.

A bright little book. Mr. Thomson has provided a book sufficiently scientific to be authoritative, and yet informal and simple enough to be interesting to the young and uneducated. We shall look forward eagerly to Part II.—Herald, Timaru, N.Z.

It is a book of unusual interest. There is nothing like it in print, and the wonder is that it has not been done before. Mr. Thomson is to be thanked for producing a work so useful and so timely. Technical terms and scientific language have been avoided as far as possible, with the result that we have a narrative as interesting as any romance. It will prove a valuable and useful book.—Evening Star, Dunedin, N.Z.
