Telephone Regulations: Amendments.

MICHAEL MYERS, Administrator of the Government.

ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government House at Wellington, this 18th day of March, 1930.

Present:

HIS EXCELLENCY THE ADMINISTRATOR OF THE GOVERNMENT IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS by Orders in Council dated the seventeenth day of September, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-three, published in the Gazette on the seventeenth day of the same month at page 2449; the sixth day of February, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-four, published in the Gazette on the fourteenth day of the same month at page 493; the sixth day of April, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-five, published in the Gazette on the sixteenth day of the same month at page 1060; the twenty-eighth day of September, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-five, published in the Gazette on the first day of October, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-five, at page 2684; the first day of November, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-six, published in the Gazette on the fourth day of the same month at page 3122; and the third day of October, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-seven, published in the Gazette on the sixth day of the same month at page 3046; regulations were made under the authority of the Post and Telegraph Act, 1908, and its amendments, for the control of telephone exchanges and for the other purposes specified therein: And whereas the Post and Telegraph Act, 1908, and its amendments, were repealed by the Post and Telegraph Act, 1928, but all regulations made thereunder and subsisting on the coming into operation of the last-mentioned Act enure for the purposes of that Act: And whereas it is desirable to amend and add to the above-recited regulations in the manner hereinafter set forth:

Now, therefore, His Excellency the Administrator of the Government of the Dominion of New Zealand, in pursuance and exercise of the power and authority conferred upon him by the Post and Telegraph Act, 1928, and of all other powers and authorities in that behalf enabling him, and acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of the said Dominion, doth hereby make the regulations and amendments set forth in the Schedule hereto; and doth hereby revoke so much of the above-recited regulations as is inconsistent herewith, and doth further order that the said revocation shall take effect and the regulations and amendments hereby made shall come into force on the date of the publication of this Order in Council in the New Zealand Gazette, and that the regulations and amendments hereby made shall form part of and be read together with the above-recited regulations.

SCHEDULE.

TELEPHONE REGULATIONS.

PART I.—TELEPHONE EXCHANGE SERVICE.

Rates.

17. Where two or more main stations are required by a subscriber on the same premises and in connection with the same establishment, the annual rental in respect of each main station in excess of one shall be reduced by 10 per cent. of the prescribed base-area rate.

Poles on Private Property.

Regulation 23 is hereby amended by adding the following thereto: "In the case of poles erected on private property which are not within the exceptions outlined in the foregoing paragraph, the cost of renewal with the exception of the pole nearest the public road, shall be borne by the subscriber, irrespective of whether such poles have been erected prior or subsequent to the coming into force of these regulations."

Telephone Connection with Public Hospitals and Charitable Institutions.

46. Subject to the Minister's approval, telephone service may be afforded at the residential rate, to—

- (a) Primary public schools;
- (b) Public hospitals and benevolent and charitable institutions having for their object the relief of poor, destitute, or afflicted persons in New Zealand, and which are supported wholly or partly by voluntary subscriptions or from the funds of a local body.

Temporary Telephone Service.

Regulation 47 is hereby amended by adding the following thereto: "Temporary extension telephones may be installed on payment of the usual installation charges as for temporary connections. Rental shall be charged at the rate of 2s. 6d. per station for each seven days or fraction thereof, with a minimum charge of 5s."

Removals.

49. Subject to the approval of the Department, subscribers may have their telephones and apparatus removed to other premises, or the positions of their telephones and apparatus altered, upon giving sufficient notice, and paying the fees specified hereunder.

Removal to other premises within the base-rate area, 17s. 6d. for each main-station telephone and 10s. for each extension telephone; except that, in cases in which the period of contract has not expired, the subscriber shall pay, in addition to the foregoing fee or fees, the estimated cost of the labour involved in erecting any new wire required to establish a connection between the exchange and the new premises.

Removal from one room to another in the same premises, 12s. 6d. per telephone.

Removal from one position to another in the same room, or substitution of a desk telephone for a wall set, or vice versa, 10s. per telephone.

Removal of extension bell or any other item of miscellaneous equipment which involves labour in fitting, 5s. per instrument.

In the case of internal removals and alterations not covered by the foregoing provisions, the subscriber shall pay the cost of the labour and incidental expenses involved in effecting the removal or alteration, with a minimum charge of 10s.

The foregoing charges shall be applicable only to ordinary removals. The charges for the removal of private-branch-exchange switchboards or interphone stations shall be as follows:—

Internal removal: The cost of the labour and incidental expenses involved in the removal of key-boxes, associated apparatus, and cable, with a minimum charge of 10s.

External removal: The cost of the labour and incidental expenses involved as for the internal removal of private-branch-exchange switchboards or interphone stations and, in addition, the charge of 17s. 6d. applicable in the case of ordinary external removals.

51. For removals beyond the base-rate area the subscriber shall pay, in addition to the charges prescribed in Regulation 49, the estimated cost of the workmen's travelling time and expenses beyond the boundary of the base-rate area.

52. In the event of a subscriber removing from or giving up possession of the premises in which the telephone is situated without making arrangements approved of by the Secretary for the removal of the telephone or the discontinuance of the service, the Secretary may disconnect the telephone and remove any instruments and fittings and, notwithstanding such disconnection and removal, may recover from the subscriber the rental and other charges payable to the end of the term agreed upon, or which may be due under these regulations.

Regulation 58 is hereby amended by omitting therefrom the following words: "In a private-residence entry the only word permitted in addition to the title and address is the word 'residence' or an abbreviation of that word."

Supply of Equipment and Inspection thereof.

68. All telephone lines, instruments, and fittings in connection with the telephone exchange system, except where otherwise provided by these regulations, shall be supplied and erected by the Department and, except with the authority of the Department, no person other than an employee of the Department provided with proper means of identification shall interfere with or make any additions or alterations to any wire, instrument, or fitting under the Department's control. In the event of any such interference by any unauthorized person, the subscriber concerned shall be liable to have his service discontinued.

PART II.—AUXILIARY SERVICES AND MISCELLANEOUS EQUIPMENT.

Extension Telephones and Miscellaneous Equipment.

84. Extension telephones and other miscellaneous equipment required within the same building or upon the same premises as the main station will be furnished and maintained by the Department upon payment of the installation charges and the annual rates prescribed in Regulation 91.

90. Where an extension telephone or other item of miscellaneous equipment is required in a position exposed to the weather the subscriber shall pay, in addition to the installation charges and annual rates prescribed in Regulation 91 hereof, the cost of a suitable box for the protection of the instrument.

90A. When an extension telephone or any other item of miscellaneous equipment is installed in a subscriber's premises situated beyond the boundary of the base-rate area, the subscriber shall pay, in addition to the installation charge provided for in Regulation 91 hereof, the estimated cost of the workmen's travelling time and expenses between the boundary of the base-rate area and the subscriber's premises. This additional charge, however, shall not be made when the installation of an extension telephone or other item of miscellaneous equipment is undertaken in conjunction with the installation of the main telephone.

Regulation 91 is hereby amended by inserting after item of equipment "Battery gong, annunciator drop, and battery" the item—"Annunciator drop only, including wiring up to a length of 110 yds. Installation charge, 10s.; annual rate, 15s."

PART V.—TOLL SERVICE.

109. The rates for urgent toll communications shall be double the rates shown in Regulation 108. Urgent communications shall be given precedence over ordinary communications.

109A. Toll communications over the telephone system connecting the North and South Islands of New Zealand shall be subject to a special fee of 3d. in respect of each call in addition to the rates ordinarily applicable.

120A. Particulars of a toll communication to or from his telephone number and in respect of which the relative toll call card has been forwarded to the General Post Office, may be obtained by an exchange subscriber upon payment, in advance, of a fee of 1s., if the necessary particulars to enable the call card or cards to be found without delay are supplied, or 2s. 6d., if such particulars are not furnished. Should search extend beyond one hour an additional charge of 2s. 6d. for each and every subsequent hour shall be made. Satisfactory proof of identity of the applicant as the lessee of the telephone exchange connection from which the communication originated or at which it was received, or the agent of either, must in all cases be given.

PART VI.—TOLL FACILITIES AT NIGHT AT EXCHANGES WITH RESTRICTED ATTENDANCE.

Regulation 123 is hereby amended by adding the following thereto: "In addition to the foregoing annual fee the subscriber or subscribers concerned shall pay the cost of any labour involved in installing repeating-coils or making other necessary circuit alterations."

PART VII.—PRIVATE-LINE CIRCUIT FOR DIRECT COMMUNICATION BETWEEN PLACES OF BUSINESS.

Regulation 125 is hereby amended by omitting the first subparagraph and substituting the following therefor:—

Circuits composed of bronze wire weighing 40 lb. per mile, or circuits in telephone cables: For the first mile or fraction thereof of single-wire circuit, £4 10s. per annum and £1 2s. 6d. for every additional quarter of a mile or fraction thereof.

For the first mile or fraction thereof of metallic circuit, including circuits in telephone cables, £6 10s. per annum, and £1 12s. 6d. for every additional quarter of a mile or fraction thereof.

Regulations under the Explosives and Dangerous Goods Amendment Act, 1920, to take effect as By-laws within the County of Kaikoura.

BLEDISLOE, Governor-General.

ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government House at Wellington, this 26th day of March, 1930.

Present :

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS the Minister of Internal Affairs, in pursuance of the powers conferred on him by section fifteen of the Explosive and Dangerous Goods Amendment Act, 1920, did, by requisition dated the twenty-third day of December, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine, require the Kaikoura County Council, being a licensing authority under the said Act, to make by-laws under and for the purpose of the said Act :

And whereas the said Council did not, within three months from the receipt of the said requisition, make such by-laws in the manner required by the said requisition :

Now, therefore, His Excellency the Governor-General of the Dominion of New Zealand, acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of the said Dominion, and in pursuance and exercise of the powers conferred on him by section fifteen aforesaid, doth hereby make the regulations set forth in the Schedule hereto, to give effect to the said requisition.

SCHEDULE.

REGULATIONS TO TAKE EFFECT AS BY-LAWS.

1. IN the following by-laws, if not inconsistent with the context,—

“ Approved ” means approved by an Inspector :

“ In bulk,” as applied to liquid dangerous goods, means such goods stored or kept in receptacles of a capacity greater than 90 gallons :

“ Inspector ” means an officer appointed by the Council for the purposes of the Explosive and Dangerous Goods Amendment Act, 1920 :

“ Dangerous goods,” “ petroleum,” “ petroleum oil,” “ petroleum spirit,” and “ fuel oil ” have the meanings assigned thereto respectively by the Explosive and Dangerous Goods Amendment Act, 1920 :

“ Dangerous goods of Class I,” “ dangerous goods of Class II,” “ dangerous goods of Class III,” and “ dangerous goods of Class IV ” have the meanings assigned thereto respectively by the regulations for the time being in force under the Explosive and Dangerous Goods Amendment Act, 1920.

NOTE.—Under the Dangerous Goods Regulations, 1928—

“ Dangerous goods of Class I ” includes aviation motor spirit, benzene, benzole, benzoline, distillate, gasoline, motor spirit, naphtha, and petroleum ether, also liquids or materials consisting wholly or in part of petroleum spirit, acetone, carbon bisulphide, amyl acetate, or ether, and having a true flashing-point less than 73° Fahr. :

“ Dangerous goods of Class II ” includes petroleum oil, kerosene, and power kerosene, methyl alcohol, turpentine, and turpentine substitutes, absolute alcohol, methylated spirits, and spirits of wine :

“ Dangerous goods of Class III ” includes phosphorus (yellow) and calcium carbide :

“ Dangerous goods of Class IV ” includes fuel oil when stored in bulk.

2. No person shall keep or store dangerous goods within the county except in pursuance of a written license in that behalf as hereinafter mentioned, and then only in the place, to the extent, and in the manner permitted by such license and by these by-laws : Provided always that it shall not be an offence hereunder to keep or store dangerous goods without a license in the quantities and under the conditions of storage shown hereunder :—

(a) In quantities not exceeding 3 gallons of dangerous goods of Class I, if such goods are kept in separate glass, earthenware, or metal vessels, each of which contains not more than one-half pint, and is securely stopped :

(b) In quantities not exceeding 8½ gallons of dangerous goods of Class I, kept for private use and not for the purposes of sale, and not used or intended for use in the premises in which the same are kept or stored, in connection with any trade or business or any purpose incidental thereto, if such goods are kept in substantial vessels of metal or other approved material so securely closed that neither liquid nor vapour can escape therefrom, and not within a dwelling or an outhouse attached to a dwelling, and if due precautions are taken to prevent accident by fire or explosion, and to prevent the escape of any such dangerous goods into a sewer or drain :

(c) In quantities not exceeding 17 gallons of dangerous goods of Class II, kept for the purpose of sale, or not exceeding 50 gallons of such goods kept for private use only and not for the purpose of sale, if no dangerous goods of Class I are kept by any person within a distance of 20 ft. from such dangerous goods of Class II :

(d) In quantities not exceeding 250 gallons of dangerous goods of Class I or of Class II, kept on any farm premises not less than 10 acres in area, for private use or use in connection with the work on such farm and not for purpose of sale, if all such dangerous goods are kept in a thoroughly ventilated building situated not less than 40 ft. from any other building, and if all such dangerous goods are kept in substantial metal vessels so securely closed that neither liquid nor vapour can escape therefrom, and if all due precautions are taken to prevent accident from fire or explosion :

(e) In quantities not exceeding 2 lb. of phosphorous kept under water in securely closed containers :

(f) In quantities not exceeding 50 lb. of calcium carbide contained in waterproof and airtight tins, each containing not more than 7 lb., and labelled with a distinctive label or mark denoting the nature of the contents :

(g) On a ship, carriage, railway-station, or wharf while being conveyed in accordance with the regulations under the Explosive and Dangerous Goods Amendment Act, 1920 :

(h) In a fuel tank of a motor-carriage or motor-propelled ship, or the fuel-tank of a stationary internal-combustion engine :

Provided that nothing in this by-law shall authorize the keeping in unlicensed premises of more than 3 gallons at any one time of petroleum spirit used or intended for use in such premises in connection with any trade or business or any purpose incidental thereto.

3. No person shall store or keep within the county any gunpowder, blasting-powder, gelignite, detonators, or other explosives for which a license is required under the Explosive and Dangerous Goods Act, 1908, save in pursuance of and under the conditions prescribed by a license under that Act issued by a Government Inspector.

4. No license to store dangerous goods of Class I shall be issued in respect of any premises within the “ brick area ” of the county (as defined in any by-laws for the time being in force relating to the erection of buildings in the county) unless such dangerous goods are stored either in an underground tank or in an approved fire-resisting depot.

5. Any person desirous of keeping “ dangerous goods ” in or upon any premises in the county shall deliver to the County Clerk a written application for a license in such form as may be approved by the Council.

6. Upon receipt of such application the County Clerk shall cause an inspection of the premises therein named to be made by an Inspector, and it shall be the duty of such Inspector to examine such premises and report in writing to the County Clerk as to their fitness and otherwise for the storage of any such dangerous goods as aforesaid, having regard to the character of the business carried on therein, the situation and construction of the proposed storage-place, the nature of adjoining premises, and the precautions (if any) which the applicant has taken to guard against the risk of fire or explosion, and to the regulations for the time being in force under the Explosive and Dangerous Goods Amendment Act, 1920.

7. If the officer making such inspection reports that the premises are satisfactory, the County Clerk shall, on payment of the license fee, forthwith issue a license under his hand authorizing the applicant to keep such quantity of all or any such dangerous goods as aforesaid as may be approved by the Inspector :

Provided that no license shall be issued for the storage of any quantity of liquid dangerous goods exceeding 1,000 gallons unless the Council has first approved of the issue of such license.

8. Every such license shall be in such form as may be approved by the Council, and shall terminate on the 31st day of March in each year.

9. The following fees shall be payable by the applicant for a license upon the issue thereof to him :—

(a) For the storage of any quantity of dangerous goods of Class I not exceeding 50 gallons, kept for private use only and not for trade purposes or purpose of sale, and in addition such quantities of calcium carbide as may be approved by an Inspector	0	5	0
(b) For the storage of a quantity of dangerous goods of Classes I and II not exceeding 225 gallons, or dangerous goods of Class IV not exceeding 1,000 gallons, and in addition such quantities of dangerous goods of Class III as may be approved by an Inspector	1	0	0
(c) For the storage of a quantity of dangerous goods of Classes I and II exceeding 225 gallons but not exceeding 1,000 gallons, and in addition such quantities of dangerous goods of Class III as may be approved by an Inspector	2	0	0
(d) For the storage of a quantity of dangerous goods of Classes I, II, and IV exceeding 1,000 gallons but not exceeding 2,000 gallons, and in addition such quantities of dangerous goods of Class III as may be approved by an Inspector	3	0	0
(e) For the storage of a quantity of dangerous goods of Classes I, II, and IV exceeding 2,000 gallons, but not exceeding 16,000 gallons, and in addition such quantities of dangerous goods of Class III as may be approved by an Inspector	5	0	0
(f) For the storage of dangerous goods of Classes I, II, and IV in quantities exceeding 16,000 gallons but not exceeding 250,000 gallons	10	0	0
(g) For the storage of dangerous goods of Classes I, II, and IV in quantities exceeding 250,000 gallons	15	0	0
(h) For the storage of dangerous goods of Class III only	0	10	0

Provided that in the case of any storage of dangerous goods of Classes I, II, and IV in bulk, the license shall be issued for the maximum capacity of the tank or tanks, less an allowance for expansion of 5 per cent.

10. Every license issued hereunder shall be issued subject to the conditions, requirements, and restrictions contained in the Explosives and Dangerous Goods Amendment Act, 1920, and any regulations issued thereunder, and all such conditions, requirements, and restrictions shall be implied in every such license and be binding on the licensee.

11. If upon inspection of any licensed premises it appears that the licensee is keeping on his premises a greater quantity of any "dangerous goods" than is specified in his license, or has committed a breach of any of the conditions of his license or of the regulations for the time being in force under the Explosive and Dangerous Goods Amendment Act, 1920, he shall be guilty of an offence against these by-laws, and in such case, or in case the Council shall in its absolute discretion consider it expedient so to do, it shall be lawful for the Council to revoke forthwith such license, and to cause a note of such revocation, under the hand of the County Clerk, to be left at the premises of the licensee, and thereupon such license shall be absolutely void and of no effect.

These by-laws shall come into force on the 1st day of April, 1930.

F. D. THOMSON,

Appointment of Hospital Board Representative.

ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government House at Wellington, this 26th day of March, 1930.

Present:

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS by section fifty-eight of the Hospitals and Charitable Institutions Act, 1926, it is provided that when and so long as in any part of a hospital district there is no contributory local authority the Governor-General may, if he thinks fit, having regard both to the population and to the rateable value of the property in any such part of a hospital district, by Order in Council in the month of December in each year appoint such number of members as he thinks fit as representatives of that part of the district on the Board:

And whereas the Marlborough Hospital District was constituted as from the thirty-first day of March, one thousand nine hundred and thirty, by Order in Council dated the twenty-first day of January, one thousand nine hundred and thirty, and published in the Gazette of the twenty-third day of January then instant at page 158:

And whereas the Sounds County, being a county in which the Counties Act, 1920, is not in force, is a part of the Marlborough Hospital District in which there is no contributory local authority:

And whereas by section one hundred and fifty-one it is provided that the Governor-General may from time to time, by Order in Council, make all such regulations consistent with the said Act as he thinks necessary or expedient for carrying into full effect the provisions thereof:

Now, therefore, His Excellency the Governor-General of the Dominion of New Zealand, acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of the said Dominion, and in pursuance and exercise of the powers conferred upon him by the said Act, doth hereby declare by way of regulation under the said Act that an appointment of a member as a representative of the Sounds County on the Marlborough Hospital Board may be made for the current year, and in pursuance of such regulation doth hereby appoint Albert Henry Derbyshire to represent the Sounds County on the Marlborough Hospital Board.

F. D. THOMSON,
Clerk of the Executive Council.
