The Samoa Imprisonment for Debt Limitation Order, 1930.

 BLEDISLOE, Governor-General.

ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government House at Wellington, this 23rd day of June, 1930.

Present :

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL IN COUNCIL.

HIS Excellency the Governor-General of the Dominion of New Zealand, acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of that Dominion, and in pursuance of the authority to make regulations for the peace, order, and good government of Samoa conferred on him by the Samoa Act, 1921, and of all other powers and authorities enabling him in that behalf, doth hereby make the following regulations.

REGULATIONS.

1. THESE regulations may be cited as "The Samoa Imprisonment for Debt Limitation Order, 1930," and shall come into operation on the 1st day of July, 1930.
2. In this Order, if not inconsistent with the context,—
 - "Court" means the High Court of Western Samoa;
 - "Registrar" means the Registrar of the High Court of Western Samoa and includes a Deputy Registrar of that Court.
3. (1) Subject to the provisions hereinafter mentioned, the Court may commit to prison for a term not exceeding three months, or until payment of the sum due, any person who makes default in payment of any debt or instalment of any debt due from him in pursuance of any order or judgment of the Court.
 - (2) The jurisdiction given by this clause shall be exercised only—
 - (a) By an order of a Judge made in open Court; and
 - (b) In the cases hereinafter mentioned.
 4. (1) Whenever and as often as any sum of money due under any judgment or order of the Court remains unsatisfied, it shall be lawful for the person entitled to recover such money (hereinafter called "the judgment creditor"), whether any writ of sale or any other writ or any warrant to levy on goods or any other warrant has or has not been issued for the same, to obtain in manner hereinafter prescribed and from time to time from the Registrar a summons (hereinafter called "the judgment summons") directed to the person liable to pay such money.
 - (2) If the person summoned (hereinafter called "the judgment debtor") appears in pursuance of the summons he may be examined on oath—
 - (a) As to his estate and effects and as to the property and means he has of paying, satisfying, and discharging such sum of money;
 - (b) As to the disposal he may have made of any property;
 - (c) As to his intention to leave Samoa without paying such money as is still unsatisfied with intent to evade payment;
 - (d) As to the mode in which the liability the subject of such judgment or order was incurred.
 5. The judgment creditor, and all other witnesses whom the Court thinks requisite, may be examined on oath touching the inquiries authorized to be made as aforesaid.
 6. If the judgment debtor—
 - (a) Does not attend as required by the judgment summons, and does not allege a sufficient cause for not attending; or
 - (b) If attending, refuses to be sworn or to disclose any of the things referred to in clause 4, subclause (2), hereof; or
 - (c) If he does not make answer touching any of the things referred to in clause 4, subclause (2), hereof to the satisfaction of the Court; or
 - (d) If it appears to the Court by oral testimony or affidavit, or by both, that the judgment debtor contracted the liability which was the subject of such judgment or order by fraud, or that he has made or caused to be made any gift, delivery, or transfer, of any property, or charged, removed, or concealed the same, with intent to defraud the judgment creditor, or with intent to defeat any execution issued upon such judgment or order; or
 - (e) If it appears to the satisfaction of the Court by oral testimony or affidavit, or by both, that the judgment debtor has then or has had since the time of obtaining such order or judgment sufficient means and ability (after providing for the reasonable maintenance of himself and his family) to pay the sum so recovered against him and so due and unsatisfied as aforesaid (or any instalment thereof when an order to pay by instalment has been made); or
 - (f) If the Court is satisfied that he is about to leave Samoa without paying such money as is still unsatisfied with intent to evade payment;

then, in any or either of the cases aforesaid, it shall be lawful for the Court if it thinks fit so to do (by order to be called a "judgment order"), to order that, unless the judgment debtor pays into Court, either forthwith or by such instalments as the Court may fix, or within the time limited in such order, the money so unsatisfied and the costs of any fruitless writs or warrants of execution and of levies thereunder, together with the costs of and occasioned by such summons and examination, he shall be committed to prison for a period not exceeding three months.

7. Where it appears to the Court that the hearing of a judgment summons cannot fairly proceed owing to the absence of either the judgment debtor or the judgment creditor, or a witness through illness, accident, or other reasonable cause, the Court may adjourn the same, subject to the payment of such costs as it thinks just. Except as aforesaid, no judgment summons shall be adjourned unless it is shown at the original hearing thereof that sufficient grounds exist for the making of an order of committal. And in no case shall an adjournment be made sine die. All such costs shall, if the Court so directs, form part of the costs of the judgment summons for all purposes.

8. For the purpose of this order the Court may direct any debt due from any person in pursuance of any order or judgment to be paid by instalments and may from time to time vary or rescind such order.

9. Whenever any judgment order has been made under this Order, and the money and the costs specified therein or any part thereof or any instalment has not been paid into Court in pursuance thereof, the Registrar upon the request in writing of the judgment creditor shall issue a warrant of committal in the form hereinafter prescribed, and the constable and the keeper of the prison to whom such warrant is directed shall respectively execute and obey such warrant, and all constables shall aid and assist in the execution of such warrant.

10. No imprisonment under this Order shall operate as a satisfaction or extinguishment of any debt or cause of action, or deprive any person of any right to issue execution against the lands, goods, or chattels of the person imprisoned, in the same manner as if such imprisonment had not taken place.

11. Any person imprisoned under this Order shall be discharged out of custody—

- (a) Upon payment of the moneys in respect of which he was imprisoned;
- (b) Upon being adjudged a bankrupt;
- (c) Upon the Court granting a rehearing under clause 13 hereof.

12. (1) Where a judgment debtor shall, upon the return day of a judgment summons, satisfy the Court that he has been adjudicated a bankrupt, and the debt was provable in bankruptcy, a judgment order shall not be made.

(2) Where a judgment debtor is adjudged a bankrupt after the making of a judgment order, but before the issue of the warrant of committal, the said warrant shall not be issued.

13. (1) Every person against whom a judgment order has been made may apply for a rehearing of the summons on which the order was made, and, upon the Court granting the application, all proceedings on the former summons shall be vacated.

(2) The rehearing shall take place at a time to be fixed by the Court, and shall be in all respects in accordance with the provisions of this Order relating to the hearing of a judgment summons in the first instance.

14. All summonses and orders issued or made under this Order in Council shall be served personally upon the judgment debtor, and shall be accompanied by a translation in the Samoan language if the judgment debtor is a Samoan, or by a translation in the Chinese language if the judgment debtor is a Chinese: Provided that service of a judgment order shall not be necessary where the order was pronounced in open Court in the presence of the judgment debtor.

15. (a) Clause 83 of the Order in Council of the 30th day of June, 1924, known as "The Rules of the High Court of Western Samoa Consolidation Order, 1924," is hereby repealed.

(b) Clauses 3 and 4 of the Order in Council of the 23rd day of July, 1928, known as "The Rules of the High Court of Western Samoa Consolidation Amendment, 1928," are hereby repealed with the exception of the words following:—

"83B. In clause 82A hereof the words 'Samoan' and 'Native land' have the meanings given to them respectively in sections 3 and 266 of the Samoa Act, 1921."

16. Every application for the issue of a judgment summons shall be in writing in the form prescribed herein, or to like effect signed by the judgment creditor or his solicitor, or agent duly authorized in writing: And every such application shall be accompanied by an affidavit or a statutory declaration made by the applicant, his solicitor or agent, as aforesaid in the form prescribed herein or to the like effect.

17. The forms set out in the First Schedule hereto shall be used in all proceedings under this Order with such variations as the circumstances of any particular case may require.

18. All matters and proceedings commenced under any of the rules hereby repealed and pending or in progress on the coming into operation of this Order may be continued, completed, and enforced as if this Order had not been passed; subject, however, to the provisions of the next succeeding clause hereof.

19. (1) Any person against whom a judgment order has been made under the rules hereby repealed may apply for a rehearing of the judgment summons upon which the order was made.

(2) If the Court grants the application for a rehearing the former proceedings and any proceedings, convictions, or committal in respect of contempt of Court arising thereon shall be thereupon vacated.

(3) A rehearing granted under this clause shall take place at a time to be fixed by the Court, and shall be in all respects in accordance with the provisions of this Order relating to the hearing of a judgment summons in the first instance.

(4) A rehearing shall not be granted under this clause if the judgment debtor has paid the fine or has served the imprisonment imposed upon him in respect of the offence of contempt of Court arising out of his failure to pay moneys in accordance with a judgment order.

20. (a) The Court shall have power on the application of a judgment creditor to set aside any conviction for contempt of Court arising out of the failure of a debtor to obey a judgment order made under the rules hereby repealed if such debtor has not actually served any sentence of imprisonment or any part thereof imposed upon him therefor.

(b) Upon such conviction being set aside the judgment creditor may proceed under this Order, and all the provisions thereof shall apply in the same manner as if no proceedings had been taken under the rules hereby repealed and no such conviction obtained.

21. The fees set out in the Second Schedule hereto shall be payable in respect of proceedings under this Order and shall be prepaid in stamps.

GENERAL.

19. If a Judge or a Commissioner of the High Court is satisfied by information on oath that there is reasonable ground for suspecting that any dangerous drugs are, in contravention of the provisions of this Order, in possession or under the control of any person in any premises, or that there is in the possession or under the control of any person in any premises any document directly or indirectly relating to or connected with any transaction or dealing which was, or any intended transaction or dealing which would, if carried out, be an offence against this Order, or in the case of a transaction or dealing carried out or intended to be carried out in any place outside Samoa, an offence against the provisions of any law corresponding with or having objects similar to this Order in that place, he may grant a search warrant authorizing the constable named in the warrant or any other constable at any time or times within one month from the date of the warrant, to enter, if need be by force, the premises named in the warrant, and to search the premises and any persons found therein ; and if there is reasonable ground for suspecting that an offence against this Order has been committed in relation to any such drugs which may be found in the premises or in the possession of any such person, or that any document which may be so found is such a document as aforesaid, to seize and detain those drugs or that document, as the case may be :

Provided that in the case of premises being occupied by Chinese and suspected of being used for the preparation of opium for smoking, or for smoking opium, or for the storage or concealment of prepared opium, a constable shall have, and may exercise without a search warrant, all or any of the powers that would be conferred on him by the grant of a search warrant as aforesaid.

20. (1) Any constable, officer of Customs, or any other person authorized by the Administrator shall, for the purposes of the enforcement of the provisions of Part II of this Order, have power to enter the premises of any person carrying on the business of a producer, manufacturer, seller, or distributor of any dangerous drugs, and to demand the production of and to inspect any books or records relating to dealings in any such drugs, and to inspect, weigh, measure, and record the stocks of any such drugs, and to make copies of any entries appearing therein.

(2) Pending the laying of an information against the person so arrested the High Court may either discharge him from custody or adjourn the proceedings for any period not exceeding forty-eight hours, and may, if the proceedings are so adjourned, either remand the accused in custody or release him on recognizance to appear at the time and place to which the proceedings have been so adjourned, in the same manner, so far as may be, as if an information had been laid against the accused by the constable by whom he has been so arrested.

(3) If at the time to which the proceedings have been so adjourned no information for any offence as aforesaid has already been laid in accordance with this Order the accused shall be discharged.

(4) The discharge of any person under the last preceding subclause shall not take away or in any manner affect the right of proceeding against him in respect of any offence under this Order which may have been committed previously to such discharge.

30. (1) In any proceedings under this Order against any person in which it is proved that he had in his possession any dangerous drug, the onus of proving (where such proof would constitute an answer to the charge) that he came into possession thereof in a manner not prohibited by this Order shall lie on the person charged.

(2) In any such proceedings under this Order it shall not be necessary to prove that the dangerous drug was imported into Samoa since the coming into operation of this Order.

NOTE.—The greater part of April was dry and sunny. It was only on the last three days of the month that these conditions changed to dull and wet weather. The month's rainfall at Karori Reservoir, near Kelburn, was 12 per cent. above the April average. Total bright sunshine, 182.6 hours, 55 per cent. of the possible, and two sunless days. Frosts were recorded in low-lying areas during the nights of the 23rd and 26th, but none were actually recorded at Kelburn. Fog was in evidence on six mornings. Mean dew-point, 48.9°; and mean vapour pressure, 0.345 in.

SUMMARY FOR THE MONTH OF APRIL, 1930.

April was remarkable for the high proportion of dry and sunny weather and the relative absence of storms. There was a prevalence of anticyclonic conditions, with southerly winds. Consequently, although the amount of sunshine was above normal, temperature was slightly below, and frosts were rather numerous, especially in the South Island.

The rain which fell did not occur in general heavy falls but was rather erratically distributed. Much of it came in the last three days of the month and was too late, in most districts, to produce much growth of pasture. Taranaki and the Manawatu districts fared well, but in parts of the remainder of the country, and especially Canterbury and Otago, March and April both having been on the whole cool and dry, there is likely to be some shortage of feed during the winter. The total rainfall was above normal in North Auckland, about East Cape, over the low-lying parts of Taranaki and Wellington, most of Marlborough, and about Nelson. In other parts it was almost everywhere below average, and in the South Island especially the deficits were large.

Throughout the month storms were almost continually developing in subtropical waters to the north of the Tasman Sea and thence eastward to beyond New Zealand. The majority of these failed to affect the Dominion directly to any great extent, though they assisted in the production of the prevailing high pressure and southerly and south-easterly winds. Though causing fine weather over most of the Dominion, the latter were responsible for unpleasant and showery weather in North Auckland and north of Napier.

There was remarkably little wind in most places during the month, and such gales as occurred were shortlived.

Snow fell on the highlands of the South Island on the 9th and 10th and the 29th and 30th, but the amounts were not large, and the mountains are unusually free from snow.

There were only three periods when rain was at all widespread. The first was from the 8th to the 11th. Between these dates all parts of the country received rain, and the total registrations were heavy at many places. The rain was due to a cyclone which appeared near Tasmania on the 5th. Pressure was high to the east of New Zealand, and the storm centre, moving slowly eastward, gradually lost intensity. It crossed the Dominion on the 8th, producing only light to moderate rains. On the 9th, however, a secondary developed west of the South Island and moved across northern Otago. The rain became more general and there were many heavy falls, especially in the South Island. Some violent thunderstorms were reported. Exceptionally heavy rain fell on the 9th in the Motueka and Moutere districts and as far inland as Tapawera.

At Upper Moutere, 8.19 in. were recorded, and the resulting floods were the heaviest ever experienced. The railway-line was damaged in several places and motor traffic was interrupted. In the district about Woodville, Pahiatua, and Waipukurau also, there were severe thunderstorms and heavy downpours. Conditions remained rather disturbed until the 12th. On that day, a cyclone centre passing north of North Zealand, caused southerly gales in North Auckland.

On the 19th a cyclone which seemed likely to bring good rains to the Dominion appeared in the North Tasman Sea. Unfortunately, it took a northward course and passed between New Zealand and Norfolk Island on the 20th. Some rain fell in the northern and western parts of the North Island, Taranaki and the Wanganui and Manawatu districts experiencing some heavy falls. Luckily for the Easter holiday-makers most of the rain fell during the night.

On the 24th another cyclone of considerable intensity developed near Tasmania. Pressure was again high to the east of New Zealand and, as in the beginning of the month, the storm made slow progress towards New Zealand and lost intensity. However, while it was crossing the Dominion on the 28th, northerly winds brought very warm and sultry weather, and conditions became favourable for rain when the southerly set in. On the 29th the depression developed a secondary centre west of the North Island. This crossed the Dominion and finally died out on the 30th. By that time general rains had fallen, with many heavy falls from Nelson and Marlborough northwards. These came for the most part on the night of the 28th and on the 29th and were accompanied in places by thunderstorms. At Auckland the lightning was particularly severe, and a house in Remuera was struck.
