2. She shall then have a complete change of clothing.

4. She shall sterilize her hands and forearms by scrubbing them vigorously with a sterilized nail-brush, in hot water and soap for five minutes, then rinsing them in water, and, lastly, immersing them for three minutes in a solution of the strength of one part of biniodide of mercury dissolved in five hundred parts of 70 per cent. methylated spirit. During this time she shall rub the hands and forearms with sterilized gauze wet with the solution, paying special attention to the roots of the nails and in between the fingers, and cleaning beneath the nails with a piece of wood wet with the solution (a wooden match is useful), but avoiding anything that is likely to separate the nail from the surrounding skin. At the end of three minutes she shall wash the antiseptic off in plain methylated spirit.

NOTE.—To make the methylated-spirit solution dissolve two 8·75 gr. biniodide tablets in 4 oz. of boiling water and add sufficient methylated spirit to make 1 pint.

5. She shall remove the contents and lining from her midwifery bag and shall sterilize bag-lining and contents as follows :—

(a) Bag : Wipe over all surfaces, inside and out, with a cloth moistened with a solution of 5 per cent. formalin (formalin 1 oz. to 1 pint of water).

(b) Lining : Boil for twenty minutes.

NOTE.—Where an article has been immersed in or wiped over with 5 per cent. formalin solution it should not be dried but should be left wet and allowed to dry gradually by ordinary exposure to air. The nurse must be careful not to allow the formalin solution to remain in contact with her skin for longer than is avoidable, as it is a skin-irritant.

- A double commission shall be charged to both buyers and sellers on sales of shares of all New Zealand companies not listed in any New Zealand exchange.

On mining transactions both buyer and seller pay stamp duty.

21. A special charge in excess of the above rates may be made according to the circumstances of the case for the negotiation of new flotations and of issues of new or reserve shares (in which case the vendor or issuing company alone is to be charged) or of shares or securities not on the official list or of New Zealand Government land-purchase bonds.

22. No rates other than those fixed in these rules shall be charged, and it shall not be allowable under any circumstances whatever to pay agents or other persons not members of an affiliated exchange, a remuneration of any kind for introducing business except in respect of applications for new issues of shares, bonds, stocks, or debentures.

DELIVERY AND SETTLEMENT.

23. As between brokers, members of different exchanges, ten clear days shall be allowed for delivery of documents by the seller, and for Australian and Tasmanian deliveries twenty-one days shall be allowed, provided that such delivery is agreed upon at time bargain is made, and failing delivery thereof during that period the buyer may instruct the chairman of the seller's exchange to take such action as the buyer may direct under the rules of the seller's exchange. Any deficiency or surplus shall be adjusted between the parties by the chairman acting between them.

24. Sellers shall have the right to require the purchase-money to be paid at the time and place of delivery of documents. In case of failure of payment by the buyer the vendor may, on the expiration of one day after default of settlement or on any future day, either cancel the transaction or sell at the buyer's risk through the chairman of his own exchange, the securities involved, and the defaulting broker shall forthwith pay to the vendor any difference between the original purchase-money, plus any expenses occasioned by the default, and the net proceeds of the securities involved.

25. In the event of the seller being put to any expense through a draft being held over, the buyer shall be liable to make good to the seller all such expense. Should the draft be presented on a stock exchange holiday it shall be payable on the day the exchange re-opens.

26. Accrued interest on debentures up to and including the day of sale, in addition to the price, shall belong to the seller.

26A. All bonds or documents are at the seller's risk until delivered to the buyer.

26B. All dealings in shares shall be "ex div." on the day the dividend is payable.

TIME BARGAINS.

27. The terms of a time sale must, immediately upon agreement to sell and buy, be clearly set out in writing, and a copy of such terms signed by the buyer handed to the seller and vice versa.

Time bargains, the day for completion of which shall fall on a Sunday or public or exchange holiday, shall not be completed until the business day next following.

28. When a broker sends a telegram marked "urgent," and no time limit is stated therein, the receiving broker must lodge an urgent reply within two (2) hours, calculated from the time of dispatch.

Orders sent by ordinary telegram shall hold good, unless otherwise specified, if replied to before twelve midnight of that day.

Mutilated Telegrams.—In cases where the mutilation of a telegram causes monetary loss, and a dispute arises over liability, each case shall be decided on its merits, but it is affirmed as a general principle that the sender is liable for the telegram as it is received.

When an offer is made by telegram to buy or sell shares, the receiving broker may, if the telegram does not contain instructions to the contrary, deal with any reasonable portion of the parcel. For the purposes of this rule a reasonable portion shall be deemed to consist of the following:—

In the case of shares—

Up to £5 per share—market value: 50 shares or a multiple thereof.

Over £5 and up to £10 per share—market value: 25 shares or a multiple thereof.

Over £10 and up to £25 per share—market value: 10 shares or a multiple thereof.

Over £25 per share—market value: 5 shares or a multiple thereof.

DISPUTES.

29. All disputes between members of the same exchange or between a member of an exchange and his client shall be subject to the jurisdiction of such exchange.

30. Disputes between any two exchanges or between any exchange and a member of any other exchange shall be referred direct to the committee of the association.

31. Disputes between members of any two exchanges shall be referred to the arbitration of the committee of another exchange affiliated to the association. The appointment of the exchange to act as arbitrator is to be agreed upon by the exchanges concerned in the dispute; failing such agreement, the arbitrating exchange shall be nominated by the president of the association.

32. Any disputant shall have the right of appeal against the decision of the committee of an exchange to the committee of the association, whose decision shall be final and binding. Notice of appeal must be given in writing to the secretary of association within seven days after the decision of a committee of an exchange being made.

33. Any person lodging an appeal or any exchange bringing a complaint before the committee of the association must, together with a letter reciting the subject matter of the appeal or complaint, enclose a cheque for £15 as a deposit towards costs. The whole cost of the appeal or complaint shall be borne by the person or exchange against whom the decision of the committee of the association shall be given.

34. Appeals to the jurisdiction of the association shall be made only through the committee of an exchange.

35. The committee shall have full and absolute power in the event of an appeal or complaint being made which, in its opinion, justifies such procedure, to call upon any member to produce for inspection all books, letters, telegrams, or certified copies thereof, and other documents in the possession of either party relating thereto, and they shall without delay produce them for inspection accordingly. Members and their clerks when required so to do by the committee shall attend any meeting of the committee, and then and there shall give such information as may be in their possession relative to any matter under investigation.

35A. If it be found on inquiry by the committee of an exchange that a member of such exchange is in difficulties and likely to default by reason of the fact that his cheques are not being met, or of any such like circumstance, the chairman of exchange shall at once notify by wire the chairmen of all other affiliated exchanges.

GENERAL.

36. Country Members.—Any licensed broker carrying on business at a distance of not less than twenty miles from an affiliated exchange may be elected a country member by the metropolitan exchange nearest his place of business by payment of a fee of £5 5s. per annum. Country members shall have the privilege of doing business with any member of an affiliated exchange, but shall not be eligible to attend any "calls" or meeting of such exchange as he is connected with except as a guest. A country member shall be deemed to be on the roll of such exchange as he is connected with, and shall sign the rules of that exchange. All country members must apply and be re-elected annually.

37. No member of an exchange shall do business for or with any broker or other person in New Zealand (other than a member of an affiliated exchange) at net prices or at less than the rates of commission specified in Rule 20.

38. No affiliated exchange shall be at liberty to withdraw from the association unless and until it shall have given not less than six clear months' written notice of such intention to resign, and shall have paid all subscriptions and levies which may be due by it.

39. Should any rule of an exchange clash with any rules of the association the latter shall prevail.

40. No exchange shall (after the date of the adoption of these rules) place any additional stocks, shares, or debentures on its official list until such stock, share, or debenture shall have appeared in the official list of the exchange nearest to the head office of the company, corporation, or other body issuing such stock, share, or debenture.

No company, however, shall be listed unless it supplies a balance-sheet, list of shareholders, and such other information as the exchange shall reasonably require.

A uniform listing fee of £5 5s. shall be charged by all affiliated exchanges for the listing of any investment company.

41. The association may by resolution notify the exchanges forbidding business on any terms by all members with a particular person or firm, or in some particular share, stock, or debentures, should they deem such action to be for the general good, or may, on the request of any affiliated exchange, impose a higher rate of brokerage than prescribed in Rule 20 on any such shares, stock, or debentures, and such rate shall be binding upon members of all affiliated exchanges in the same manner as if it formed part of Rule 20.

42. Broker's Name or Stamp on Documents.—No member of an exchange shall be permitted to print or affix his name-stamp on any transfer or scrip delivered to another broker.

43. Reporting Sales.—No sales shall be quoted on 'change except those which are made between members of any affiliated exchange, and any sale must be quoted not later than the next succeeding call, and only on the day that the sale is made; but sales made after the last call of the day may be reported up to 5 p.m. to the secretary of the exchange for publication.

Sales reported in Monthly Share-lists.—It shall be competent for an exchange to quote, in its monthly share-list, sales reported on any exchange in New Zealand, and in that event it shall head its list of sales with the words "List of sales throughout New Zealand for the month." Transactions or quotations in unlisted companies shall not be reported in either monthly or daily lists.

44. No sales on 'change or reported sales of Government inscribed stock, bonds, or debentures free of income tax shall be officially quoted, unless the sale is of a parcel of £500 or over; but in the case of such stock, bonds, or debentures not free of tax sales of £200 or over may be officially quoted.

No quotation shall be made or sale reported of shares in investment companies or debenture stock, other than New Zealand Government debentures, unless the quotation or sale is of a parcel of at least 100 shares or £100 worth.

NOTE.—The debentures and debenture stock of the New Zealand Breweries, Ltd., come under this rule.

45. No Issue of Private Lists.—No member of an affiliated exchange which publishes an official list of quotations shall be permitted to issue a private list or general report.

46. Advertising.—No member of any affiliated exchange shall advertise in any manner whatsoever in connection with sharebroking business without first obtaining the sanction of the committee of his exchange.

47. Violation of Rules and Penalties.—The rules of the association shall be binding on individual members of the affiliated exchanges, and the committee shall take cognizance of any breach or violation of these rules by an exchange or member who may be bound by them. In the event of an exchange being deemed guilty of a breach of the rules such exchange shall be dealt with by the committee of the association. In the case of an individual member being deemed guilty of a breach of the rules he shall be reported by the chairman of the association to the committee of the exchange of which he is a member, and shall be dealt with by such committee.

48. Country members shall be bound by these rules in the same manner as if they were full members of an exchange.

49. Breach of Rules.—If any affiliated exchange be found guilty of a breach of these rules it shall be competent for the committee to impose a fine not exceeding £50, or such exchange may be called upon to resign by resolution carried by a special general meeting, and failing such resignation being received within one month from date of notice it shall automatically cease to be a member of the association.

50. Any of these rules may be altered, amended, repealed, or added to, but only at a special general meeting of the association, to be called either on the direction of the president, or at the written request of not less than two affiliated exchanges.

51. (a) Twenty-eight clear days' notice shall be given in writing to the secretary of any proposed amendment, repeal, or addition to these rules. (b) The secretary shall immediately send copies of such notices to each affiliated exchange with a request that the same shall be considered at a special meeting of the affiliated exchange called for the purpose. (c) No new amendment of rules shall be introduced at any special general meeting of the association called to consider the amendment of, repeal of, or addition to the rules; but it shall be competent for the chairman of the meeting to admit amendments arising in discussion at the meeting on these motions for alterations of rules for which the meeting has been called; which said notices of motion have been duly discussed and ordered upon by the affiliated exchanges, and concerning which their delegates are instructed as to the views of their respective exchanges. (d) No proposed amendment, repeal, or addition to the rules, if rejected, shall be entertained for six months.

52. Any member of an affiliated exchange who desires to issue a general circular—i.e., a circular to persons not his own clients, wherever located—shall first have the same approved by the committee of his own exchange, and if he desires that the circular be distributed outside the territory of his own exchange, the permission of the committees of the other metropolitan exchanges shall be first obtained by his exchange.

A "client" of a broker is defined as one who has had business transactions with such broker within the preceding five (5) years.

53. Every member of an affiliated exchange shall be debarred from appealing to law against any decision of his exchange or of the Stock Exchange Association of New Zealand.
