CHAPTER X.—VICTUALLING, CLOTHING, ETC.

Cancel present Article 238 and substitute :—

238. Losses of, or damage to, uniform, &c.—Officers and men who sustain, as a result of a casualty of the service loss of, or damage to, any necessary articles of clothing or equipment, or any books, instruments, or tools necessary for the proper performance of their duties will be compensated for such loss or damage, subject to a certificate being furnished that the following conditions have been fulfilled, viz. :—

- That the claimants are acquitted of all blame as to the cause of the loss or damage;
 - That the loss or damage occurred in circumstances altogether unavoidable by them;
 - That it was not by neglect nor fault of the applicant; and
 - That every exertion was used by them to prevent the loss or damage.
2. No claim will be admitted for—
- Losses or damage sustained when proceeding on or returning from leave;
 - Losses of money;
 - Losses of, or damage to, civilian clothes;
 - Losses of, or damage to, mess stock, except when it has been laid in, by order, for passengers; and

3. Claims are to be submitted, within one month from the date of loss or damage, to the Commanding Officer, who will arrange for a thorough investigation and forward the claim, together with complete details, for the consideration of the Naval Board.

It should be clearly indicated in this report whether the loss or damage is considered to be due to default by the officer or rating himself or by any other person serving on board at the time the loss or damage occurred.

4. In the case of the loss of, or damage to, uniform clothing and tools by chief petty officers, petty officers, and men, any absolutely necessary articles may be issued immediately, with the approval of the commanding officer, and value charged on the ship's ledger against the ratings to whom the issues are made.
