Further Proroguing the General Assembly.

[L.S.] BLEDISLOE, Governor-General.

A PROCLAMATION.

To the LEGISLATIVE COUNCILLORS of the Dominion of New Zealand, and the Members elected to serve in the HOUSE of REPRESENTATIVES of the said Dominion, summoned and called to a Meeting of the General Assembly of the said Dominion, at the City of Wellington, on the twenty-second day of the month of January, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-one, to have been commenced and held, and to every of you: GREETING.

WHEREAS on the fifth day of November, one thousand nine hundred and thirty, the General Assembly of New Zealand was prorogued to the twenty-second day of the month of January, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-one, at which time you were held constrained to appear: NOW KNOW YE that for divers causes and considerations I have thought fit to relieve you and each of you of your attendance at the time aforesaid, hereby convoking and by these presents enjoining you and each of you that on Thursday, the twenty-sixth day of March next, you meet in Parliament, at the City of Wellington, there to take into consideration the state and welfare of the said Dominion of New Zealand, and therein to do as may seem necessary.

Given under the hand of His Excellency the Governor-General of the Dominion of New Zealand, and issued under the Seal of that Dominion, this 13th day of January, 1931.

E. A. RANSOM,
 For Minister of Internal Affairs.

The first part of the document is a list of names and their corresponding numbers, arranged in a grid-like fashion. The names are written in a cursive script, and the numbers are written in a simpler, more legible hand. The list appears to be a roster or a record of some kind, possibly related to a military unit or a group of individuals.

The second part of the document contains several paragraphs of text, also written in cursive. The text is somewhat faded and difficult to read, but it appears to be a narrative or a report of some kind. The paragraphs are separated by small gaps, and the overall layout is somewhat irregular.

The third part of the document consists of a few lines of text, possibly a signature or a date. The handwriting is very cursive and difficult to decipher.

The fourth part of the document is a list of names and numbers, similar to the first part, but with a different arrangement. The names are written in a cursive script, and the numbers are written in a simpler, more legible hand.

The fifth part of the document contains several paragraphs of text, similar to the second part, but with a different layout. The text is somewhat faded and difficult to read, but it appears to be a narrative or a report of some kind.

The sixth part of the document consists of a few lines of text, possibly a signature or a date. The handwriting is very cursive and difficult to decipher.

The seventh part of the document is a list of names and numbers, similar to the first and fourth parts, but with a different arrangement. The names are written in a cursive script, and the numbers are written in a simpler, more legible hand.

The eighth part of the document contains several paragraphs of text, similar to the second and fifth parts, but with a different layout. The text is somewhat faded and difficult to read, but it appears to be a narrative or a report of some kind.

The ninth part of the document consists of a few lines of text, possibly a signature or a date. The handwriting is very cursive and difficult to decipher.

The tenth part of the document is a list of names and numbers, similar to the first, fourth, and seventh parts, but with a different arrangement. The names are written in a cursive script, and the numbers are written in a simpler, more legible hand.
