Extension to New Zealand of Convention between the United Kingdom and Poland respecting Legal Proceedings in Civil and Commercial Matters.

Department of Justice,
Wellington, 24th January, 1933.

IT is hereby notified for general information that the Convention between the United Kingdom and Poland regarding Legal Proceedings in Civil and Commercial Matters, signed at Warsaw on the 26th day of August, 1931, and in respect of which ratifications were exchanged at London on the 31st day of May, 1932, has been extended to the Dominion of New Zealand pursuant to the provisions of Article 17 of the said convention, as from the 8th day of December, 1932.

The authority to which requests for service or for the taking of evidence are to be transmitted is the Supreme Court of New Zealand, and communications should be addressed to the Registrar of the Supreme Court at Wellington in the English language.

The text of the said Convention is set out hereunder.

JOHN G. COBBE, Minister of Justice.

CONVENTION.

His Majesty the King of Great Britain, Ireland, and the British Dominions beyond the Seas, Emperor of India, and the President of the Polish Republic, being desirous to render mutual assistance in the conduct of legal proceedings in civil and commercial matters which are being dealt with or which it is anticipated may be dealt with by their respective judicial authorities, have resolved to conclude a Convention for this purpose and have appointed as their Plenipotentiaries:—

His Majesty the King of Great Britain, Ireland, and the British Dominions beyond the Seas, Emperor of India—

For Great Britain and Northern Ireland:

The Right Honourable Sir William Forbes Erskine, G.C.M.G., M.V.O., His Majesty's Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary to the Polish Republic; and

The President of the Polish Republic:

M. Auguste Zaleski, Minister for Foreign Affairs for the Polish Republic;
M. Stefan Sieczkowski, Under-Secretary of State to the Ministry of Justice for the Polish Republic;

Who, having communicated their full powers, found in good and due form, have agreed as follows:—

I.—PRELIMINARY.

Article 1.

(a) This Convention applies only to civil and commercial matters including non-contentious matters.

(b) In this Convention the words—

- (1) "Territory of one (or of the other) High Contracting Party" shall be interpreted (a) in relation to His Majesty the King of Great Britain, Ireland, and the British Dominions beyond the Seas, Emperor of India, as meaning at any time England and Wales and all territories in respect of which the Convention is in force by reason of extensions under Article 15 or accessions under Article 17; (b) in relation to the President of the Polish Republic as meaning at any time, without prejudice to the provisions of Article 16, Poland;
- (2) "Persons" shall be deemed to mean individuals and artificial persons;
- (3) "Artificial persons" shall be deemed to include partnerships, companies, societies, and other corporations;
- (4) "Subjects or citizens of a High Contracting Party" shall be deemed to include artificial persons constituted or incorporated under the laws of the territory of such High Contracting Party;
- (5) "Subjects of one (or of the other) High Contracting Party" shall be deemed (a) in relation to His Majesty to mean all subjects of His Majesty wherever domiciled, and all persons under His protection; (b) in relation to the President of the Polish Republic to mean, without prejudice to the provisions of Article 16, all Polish citizens;
- (6) "Consular Officer" shall be deemed to include diplomatic officer.

II.—SERVICE OF JUDICIAL AND EXTRA-JUDICIAL DOCUMENTS.

Article 2.

(a) When judicial or extra-judicial documents drawn up in the territory of one of the High Contracting Parties are required by a judicial authority situated therein to be served on persons in the territory of the other High Contracting

Party, such documents may be served on the recipient, whatever his nationality, by any of the methods provided in Articles 3 and 4.

(b) In Part II of this Convention, the expression "country of origin" means the country from which the documents to be served emanate, and the expression "country of execution" means the country in which service of documents is to be effected.

Article 3.

(a) A request for service shall be addressed and sent by a Consular Officer acting for the country of origin to the competent authority of the country of execution, requesting such authority to cause the document in question to be served.

(b) The request for service shall be drawn up in the language of the country of execution and shall state the names and descriptions of the parties, the name, description, and address of the recipient, and the nature of the document to be served, and shall enclose the document to be served in duplicate. Where the document is of considerable length, a duplicate of the material parts sufficient to identify it will be accepted.

(c) The document to be served shall either be drawn up in the language of the country of execution, or be accompanied by a translation into such language. Such translation shall be certified as correct by a Consular Officer acting for the country of origin or an official or sworn translator of one of the two countries concerned.

(d) Requests for service shall be addressed and sent:—

In England, to the Senior Master of the Supreme Court of Judicature;

In Poland, to the Ministry of Justice in Warsaw.

If the authority to whom a request for service has been sent is not competent to execute it, such authority shall (except in cases where execution is refused in accordance with paragraph (f) of this Article) of his own motion forward the request to the competent authority of the country of execution.

(e) Service shall be effected by the competent authority of the country of execution, who shall serve the document in the manner prescribed by the municipal law of such country for the service of similar documents, except that, if a wish for some special manner of service is expressed in the request for service, such manner of service shall be followed in so far as it is not incompatible with the law of that country.

(f) The execution of a request for service, duly made in accordance with the preceding provisions of this Article, shall not be refused unless (1) the authenticity of the request for service is not established, or (2) the High Contracting Party in whose territory it is to be executed considers that his sovereignty or safety would be compromised thereby.

(g) In every instance where a request for service is not executed by the authority to whom it has been sent, the latter will at once inform the Consular Officer by whom the request was sent, stating the ground on which the execution of the request has been refused or the competent authority to whom it has been forwarded.

(h) The authority by whom the request for service is executed shall furnish a certificate proving the service or explaining the reason which has prevented such service, and setting forth the fact, the manner, and the date of such service or attempted service, and shall send the said certificate to the Consular Officer by whom the request for service was sent. The certificate of service or of attempted service shall be placed on one of the duplicates or attached thereto.

Article 4.

(a) Service may be effected, without any request to or intervention of the authorities of the country of execution, by any of the following methods:—

- (1) By a Consular Officer acting for the country of origin;
- (2) By an agent appointed for the purpose either by the judicial authority of the country of origin or by the party on whose application the document was issued;
- (3) Through the post; or
- (4) By any other method of service which is not illegal, under the law existing at the time of service, in the country of execution.

(b) All documents served in the manner provided in (1) of the preceding paragraph shall, unless the recipient is a subject or citizen of the High Contracting Party from whose territory the document to be served emanates, either be drawn up in the language of the country of execution or be accompanied by a translation into such language, certified as correct as prescribed in Article 3 (c).

(c) The High Contracting Parties agree that in principle it is also desirable that the provisions of paragraph (b) of this Article should apply to documents served in the manner provided in (2), (3), and (4) of paragraph (a) of this Article.

Nevertheless, in the absence of any legislation in their respective territories making translations obligatory in such cases, the High Contracting Parties do not accept any obligation in this respect.

Article 5.

(a) In any case where documents have been served in accordance with the provisions of Article 3, the High Contracting Party, by whose Consular Officer the request for service was addressed, shall repay to the other High Contracting Party any charges and expenses which are payable under the law of the country of execution to the persons employed to effect service, and any charges and expenses incurred in effecting service in a special manner. These charges and expenses shall not exceed such as are usually allowed in the courts of that country.

(b) Repayment of these charges and expenses shall be claimed by the competent authority by whom the service has been effected from the Consular Officer by whom the request was addressed, when sending to him the certificate provided for in Article 3 (h).

(c) Except as provided above no fees of any description shall be payable by one High Contracting Party to the other in respect of the service of any documents.

III.—TAKING OF EVIDENCE.

Article 6.

(a) When a judicial authority in the territory of one of the High Contracting Parties requires that evidence should be taken in the territory of the other High Contracting Party, such evidence may be taken, whatever the nationality of the parties or witnesses may be, in any one of the ways prescribed in Article 7, 8, or 9.

(b) In Part III of this Convention, the expressions—

- (1) "Taking of evidence" shall be deemed to include the taking of the statements of a plaintiff, defendant, expert, witness, or any other person on oath or otherwise; the submission to a plaintiff, defendant, expert, witness, or any other person of any oath with regard to any legal proceedings; and the production, identification, and examination of documents, samples, or other objects.
- (2) "Witness" shall be deemed to include any person from whom any evidence, as defined above, is required to be taken.
- (3) "Country of origin" shall be deemed to mean the country by whose judicial authority the evidence is required, and "country of execution," the country in which the evidence is to be taken.

Article 7.

(a) The judicial authority of the country of origin may, in accordance with the provisions of the law of his country, address himself by means of a Letter of Request to the competent authority of the country of execution, requesting such authority to take the evidence.

(b) The Letter of Request shall be drawn up in the language of the country of execution, or be accompanied by a translation into such language. Such translation shall be certified as correct by a Consular Officer acting for the country of origin or by an official or sworn translator of one of the two countries concerned. The Letter of Request shall state briefly the nature of the proceedings for which the evidence is required, the names and descriptions of the parties thereto, and the names, descriptions, and addresses of the witnesses. They shall also either (1) be accompanied by a list of interrogatories to be put to the witness or witnesses, or, as the case may be, by a description of the documents, samples, or other objects to be produced, identified, or examined, and a translation thereof, certified as correct in the manner heretofore provided; or (2) shall request the competent authority to allow such questions to be asked viva voce as the parties or their representatives shall desire to ask.

(c) Letters of Request shall be transmitted—

In England, by a Polish Consular Officer to the Senior Master of the Supreme Court of Judicature:

In Poland by a British Consular Officer to the Ministry of Justice.

In case the authority to whom any Letter of Request is transmitted is not competent to execute it, such authority shall (except in cases where execution is refused in accordance with paragraph (f) of this Article) of his own motion forward the Letter of Request to the competent authority of the country of execution.

(d) The competent authority of the country of execution shall give effect to the Letter of Request and obtain the evidence required by the use of the same compulsory measures and the same procedure as are employed in the execution of a commission or order emanating from the authorities of his own country, except that if a wish that some special procedure should be followed is expressed in the Letter of Request, such special procedure shall be followed in so far as it is not incompatible with the law of the country of execution.

(e) The Consular Officer, by whom the Letter of Request is transmitted, shall, if he so desires, be informed of the date when and the place where the proceedings will take place, in order that he may inform the interested party or parties, who shall be permitted to be present in person or to be represented if they so desire.

(f) The execution of a Letter of Request which complies with the preceding provisions of this Article can only be refused—

- (1) If the authenticity of the Letter of Request is not established;
- (2) If, in the country of execution, the execution of the Letter of Request in question does not fall within the functions of the Judiciary;
- (3) If the High Contracting Party in whose territory it is to be executed considers that his sovereignty or safety would be compromised thereby.

(g) In every instance where a Letter of Request is not executed by the authority to whom it is addressed, the latter will at once inform the Consular Officer by whom it was transmitted, stating the grounds on which the execution of the Letter of Request has been refused, or, in the case provided for in Article 7 (c), the competent authority to whom it has been forwarded.

(h) When a Letter of Request has been executed, the competent authority to whom it was transmitted or forwarded shall send to the Consular Officer by whom it was transmitted the necessary documents establishing its execution.

Article 8.

(a) The judicial authority of the country of origin may, in the Letter of Request addressed to the competent authority of the country of execution, request such authority to appoint to take the evidence an individual specially designated in the Letter of Request.

A Consular Officer acting for the country of origin or any other suitable individual may be so designated.

(b) Where this procedure is adopted the provisions of paragraphs (b), (c), (f), (g), and (h) of Article 7 shall apply, but the following paragraph shall be substituted for paragraphs (d) and (e) of that Article.

(c) The competent authority of the country of execution shall give effect thereto and shall appoint the individual designated to take the evidence, unless such individual shall be unwilling so to act. In addition, if necessary, such authority shall make use of such compulsory powers as it possesses under its own law to secure the attendance of and the giving of evidence by the witnesses before the individual so appointed.

(d) The individual thus appointed shall have power to administer an oath, and any person giving false evidence before him shall be liable in the courts of the country of execution to the penalties provided by the law of that country for perjury.

(e) The evidence shall be taken in accordance with the law of the country of origin, provided such method is not contrary to the law of the country of execution, and the parties shall have the right to be present in person or to be represented by barristers or solicitors or by any other persons who are competent to appear before the courts of either the country of origin or of execution.

Article 9.

(a) The evidence may also be taken, without any request to or the intervention of the authorities of the country of execution, by an individual in that country directly appointed for the purpose by the court of the country of origin. A Consular Officer acting for the country of origin or any other suitable individual may be so appointed.

(b) An individual so appointed to take evidence may request the persons named by the court appointing him to appear before him and to give evidence. He may take all kinds of evidence which are not contrary to the law of the country of execution, and shall have power to administer an oath. The attendance and giving of evidence before any such individual shall be entirely voluntary and no measures of compulsion shall be employed.

(c) Requests to appear issued by such individual shall, unless the recipient is a subject or citizen of the High Contracting Party for whose judicial authority the evidence is required, be drawn up in the language of the country of execution or be accompanied by a translation into such language.

(d) The evidence may be taken in accordance with the procedure recognized by the law of the country of origin, and the parties will have the right to be present in person or to be represented by barristers or solicitors of that country or by any representatives who are competent to appear before the courts either of the country of origin or of the country of execution.

Article 10.

The fact that an attempt to take evidence by the method laid down in Article 9 has failed owing to the refusal of any witness to appear or to give evidence does not preclude a request being subsequently made in accordance with Article 7 or 8.

Article 11.

(a) Where evidence is taken in the manner provided in Article 7 or 8 the High Contracting Party, by whose judicial authority the Letter of Request was addressed, shall repay to the other High Contracting Party any charges and expenses incurred by the competent authority of the latter in the execution of the request in respect of any charges and expenses payable to witnesses, experts, interpreters, or translators, the costs of obtaining the attendance of witnesses who have not appeared voluntarily, and the charges and expenses payable to any person whom such authority may have deputed to act, in cases where the law of the country of execution permits this to be done, and any charges and expenses incurred by reason of a special procedure being requested and followed. These charges and expenses shall be such as are usually allowed in similar cases in the courts of the country of execution.

(b) The repayment of these charges and expenses shall be claimed by the competent authority by whom the Letter of Request has been executed from the Consular Officer by whom it was transmitted when sending to him the documents establishing its execution as provided in Article 7 (h).

(c) Except as above provided no fees of any description shall be payable by one High Contracting Party to the other in respect of the taking of evidence.

IV.—JUDICIAL ASSISTANCE FOR POOR PERSONS, IMPRISONMENT FOR DEBT, AND SECURITY FOR COSTS.

Article 12.

The subjects or citizens of one High Contracting Party shall enjoy in the territory of the other High Contracting Party a perfect equality of treatment with subjects or citizens of that High Contracting Party as regards free judicial assistance for poor persons and imprisonment for debt; and, provided that they are resident in the territory of the other High Contracting Party, shall not be compelled to give security for costs in any case where a subject or citizen of such other High Contracting Party would not be so compelled.

V.—GENERAL PROVISIONS.

Article 13.

Any difficulties which may arise in connection with the operation of this Convention shall be settled through the diplomatic channel.

Article 14.

The present Convention, of which the English and Polish texts are equally authentic, shall be subject to ratification. Ratifications shall be exchanged in London. The Convention shall come into force one month after the date on which ratifications are exchanged and shall remain in force for three years after the date of its coming into force. If neither of the High Contracting Parties shall have given notice through the diplomatic channel to the other not less than six months before the expiration of the said period of three years of his intention to terminate the Convention, it shall remain in force until the expiration of six months from the day on which either of the High Contracting Parties shall have given notice to terminate it.

Article 15.

(a) This Convention shall not apply, ipso facto, to Scotland or Northern Ireland, nor to any of the Colonies or Protectorates of His Majesty the King of Great Britain, Ireland, and the British Dominions beyond the Seas, Emperor of India, nor to any territories under His suzerainty, nor to any mandated territories in respect of which the mandate is exercised by His Government in the United Kingdom, but His Majesty may at any time, while this Convention is in force under Article 14, by a notification given through His Ambassador at Warsaw, extend the operation of the Convention to any of the above-mentioned territories.

(b) Such notification shall state the authorities in the territory concerned to whom requests for service under Article 3 or Letters of Request under Articles 7 or 8 are to be transmitted, and the language in which communications and translations are to be made. The date of the coming into force of any such extension shall be one month from the date of such notification.

(c) Either of the High Contracting Parties may, at any time after the expiry of three years from the coming into force of an extension of this Convention to any of the territories referred to in paragraph (a) of this Article, terminate such extension on giving six months' notice of termination through the diplomatic channel.

(d) The termination of the Convention under Article 14 shall, unless otherwise expressly agreed to by both High Contracting Parties, ipso facto, terminate it in respect of any territories to which it has been extended under paragraph (a) of this Article.

Article 16.

(a) The High Contracting Parties agree that the Government of the Republic of Poland, acting in virtue of Article 104 of the Treaty of Peace signed at Versailles on the 28th June, 1919, and of Articles 2 and 6 of the Convention concluded between Poland and Dantzic on the 9th November, 1920, may at any time while the present Convention is in force, under Article 14 or by virtue of any accession under Article 17, declare that the present Convention shall apply to the Free City of Dantzic, by a notification given through the diplomatic channel.

(b) Upon such notification being made, the provisions of the present Convention shall apply to the territory of the Free City of Dantzic and the citizens of the Free City.

(c) Either High Contracting Party may terminate the application of the Convention to Dantzic at any time after the expiry of three years from the date of the coming into force of the notification referred to in paragraph (a) of this Article, by giving six months' notice of termination through the diplomatic channel.

(d) The termination of the Convention under Article 14 shall, unless otherwise expressly agreed to by both High Contracting Parties, terminate it in respect of the Free City of Dantzic.

Article 17.

(a) The High Contracting Parties agree that His Majesty the King of Great Britain, Ireland, and the British Dominions beyond the Seas, Emperor of India, may at any time, while the present Convention is in force, either under Article 14 or by virtue of any accession under this Article, by a notification given through the diplomatic channel, accede to the present Convention in respect of any Member of the British Commonwealth of Nations whose Government may desire that such accession should be effected, provided that no notification of accession may be given at any time when the President of the Polish Republic has given notice of termination in respect of all the territories of His Majesty to which the Convention applies. The provisions of Article 15 (b) shall be applicable to such notification. Any such accession shall take effect one month after the date of its notification.

(b) After the expiry of three years from the date of the coming into force of any accession under paragraph (a) of this Article, either of the High Contracting Parties may, by giving six months' notice of termination through the diplomatic channel, terminate the application of the Convention to any country in respect of which a notification of accession has been given. The termination of the Convention under Article 14 shall not affect its application to any such country.

(c) Any notification of accession under paragraph (a) of this Article may include any dependency or mandated territory administered by the Government of the country in respect of which such notification of accession is given; and any notice of termination in respect of any such country under paragraph (b) shall apply to any dependency or mandated territory which was included in the notification of accession in respect of that country.

In witness whereof the undersigned have signed the present Convention, in English and Polish texts, and have affixed thereto their seals.

Done in duplicate at Warsaw, the 26th August, 1931.

Extension to New Zealand of Convention between the United Kingdom and Portugal respecting Legal Proceedings in Civil and Commercial Matters.

Department of Justice,
Wellington, 24th January, 1933.

IT is hereby notified for general information that the Convention between the United Kingdom and Portugal regarding Legal Proceedings in Civil and Commercial Matters, signed at London on the 9th day of July, 1931, and in respect of which ratifications were exchanged at Lisbon on the 13th day of April, 1932, has been extended to the Dominion of New Zealand pursuant to the provisions of Article 16 of the said Convention, as from the 28th day of October, 1932.

The authority to which requests for service or for the taking of evidence are to be transmitted is the Supreme Court of New Zealand, and communications should be addressed to the Registrar of the Supreme Court at Wellington in the English language.

The text of the said Convention is set out hereunder.

JOHN G. COBBE, Minister of Justice.

CONVENTION.

His Majesty the King of Great Britain, Ireland, and the British Dominions beyond the Seas, Emperor of India, and the President of the Portuguese Republic, being desirous to render mutual assistance in the conduct of legal proceedings, in their respective territories, in civil and commercial matters which are being dealt with or which it is anticipated may be dealt with by their respective judicial authorities, have resolved to conclude a Convention for this purpose and have appointed as their Plenipotentiaries:—

His Majesty the King of Great Britain, Ireland, and the British Dominions beyond the Seas, Emperor of India—

For Great Britain and Northern Ireland:

The Right Honourable Arthur Henderson, M.P., His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs; and

The President of the Portuguese Republic:

His Excellency General Thomas Antonio Garcia Rosado, Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary of the Portuguese Republic in London;

Who, having communicated their full powers, found in good and due form, have agreed as follows:—

I.—PRELIMINARY.

Article 1.

- (a) This Convention applies only to civil and commercial matters, including non-contentious matters.
- (b) In this Convention the words—
 - (1) "Territory of one (or of the other) High Contracting Party" shall be interpreted as meaning at any time any of the territories of such High Contracting Party to which the Convention at that time applies;
 - (2) "Persons" shall be deemed to mean individuals and moral persons;
 - (3) "Moral Persons" shall be deemed to mean partnerships, companies, societies, and other corporations;
 - (4) "Subjects or citizens of a High Contracting Party" shall be deemed to include "moral persons" constituted and incorporated in accordance with the laws of the territory of such High Contracting Party;
 - (5) "A subject of one (or of the other) High Contracting Party" shall in relation to His Majesty the King of Great Britain, Ireland, and the British Dominions beyond the Seas, Emperor of India, be deemed to mean all subjects of His Majesty wherever domiciled.

II.—SERVICE OF JUDICIAL AND EXTRA-JUDICIAL DOCUMENTS.

Article 2.

When judicial or extra-judicial documents drawn up in the territory of one of the High Contracting Parties are required by a judicial authority situated therein to be served on persons in the territory of the other High Contracting Party, such documents may be served on the recipient, whatever his nationality, in the manner provided in Article 3.

Article 3.

(a) A request for service shall be addressed by a Consular Officer of the High Contracting Party from whose territory the document to be served emanates to the competent authority of the country where the document is to be served, requesting such authority to cause the document to be served. The request shall be sent by such Consular Officer to such authority.

(b) The request for service shall be drawn up in the language of the country where service is to be effected. The request for service shall state the names and descriptions of the parties, the name, description, and address of the recipient, and the nature of the document to be served, and shall enclose the document to be served in duplicate.

(c) The document to be served shall either be drawn up in the language of the country in which it is to be served, or be accompanied by a translation in such language. Such translation shall be certified as correct by a Consular Officer of the High Contracting Party from whose territory the document emanates.

(d) Requests for service shall be addressed and sent—

In Portugal, to the President of the Court of Appeal in the district of which the document is to be served;

In England, to the Senior Master of the Supreme Court of Judicature.

If the authority to whom a request for service has been sent is not competent to execute it, such authority shall of his own motion transmit the document to the competent authority of his own country.

(e) Service shall be effected by the competent authority of the country where the document is to be served, who shall serve the document in the manner prescribed by the municipal law of such country for the service of similar documents, except that, if a wish for some special manner of service is expressed in the request for service, such manner of service shall be followed in so far as it is not incompatible with the law of that country.

(f) The execution of the request for service duly made in accordance with the preceding provisions of this Article shall not be refused unless—

- (1) The authenticity of the request for service is not established; or
- (2) The High Contracting Party in whose territory it is to be effected considers that his sovereignty or safety would be compromised thereby.

(g) The authority by whom the request for service is executed shall furnish a certificate proving the service or explaining the reason which has prevented such service, and setting forth the fact, the manner, and the date of such service or attempted service, and shall send the said certificate to the Consular Officer by whom the request for service was made. The certificate of service or of attempted service shall be placed on one of the duplicates or attached thereto.

Article 4.

(a) The provisions of Articles 2 and 3 in no way prejudice the right to use in the territory of either High Contracting Party, without any request to or intervention of the authorities of the country where service is to be effected, any of the following methods of service in connection with judicial or extra-judicial documents drawn up in the territory of the other High Contracting Party:—

- (1) Service by a Consular Officer of the High Contracting Party from whose territory the document emanates;
- (2) Service by an agent appointed for the purpose either by the judicial authority by whom service of the document is required or by the party on whose application the document was issued;
- (3) Service by registered post, with notice of receipt;
- (4) Service by any other method which is not illegal under the law existing at the time of service in the country where it is to be effected.

(b) The methods of service referred to in (1) and (2) of paragraph (a) of this Article may not be used for service on persons who are subjects or citizens of the High Contracting Party, in whose territory the documents are to be served, unless such persons are willing to accept service; and, when these methods of service are employed, the documents to be served shall, unless the recipient is a subject or citizen of the High Contracting Party from whose territory the document to be served emanates, either be drawn up in the language of the country in which service is to be effected or accompanied by a translation into such language certified as correct as prescribed in Article 3 (c).

(c) It is understood that the validity of any service effected by the use of any of the methods referred to in paragraph (a) of this Article will remain a matter for the determination of the respective Courts of the High Contracting Parties in accordance with their law.

Article 5.

(a) In any case where documents have been served in accordance with the provisions of Article 3, the High Contracting Party, by whose Consular Officer the request for service was addressed, shall pay to the other High Contracting Party any charges and expenses which are payable under the law of the country where the service is effected to the persons employed to effect service, and any charges and expenses incurred in effecting service in a special manner. These charges and expenses shall not exceed such as are usually allowed in the Courts of that country.

(b) Repayment of these charges and expenses shall be claimed by the competent authority by whom the service has been effected from the Consular Officer by whom the request was addressed when sending to him the certificate provided for in Article 3 (g).

(c) Except as provided above, no fees of any description shall be payable by one High Contracting Party to the other in respect of the service of any documents.

III.—TAKING OF EVIDENCE.

Article 6.

(a) When a judicial authority in the territory of one of the High Contracting Parties requires that evidence should be taken in the territory of the other High Contracting Party, such evidence may be taken in any of the ways prescribed in Articles 7 and 8.

(b) For the purposes of the present convention the words—

- (1) "Taking of evidence" shall be deemed to include the taking of the statements of a Plaintiff or Defendant, on oath or otherwise, the submission to a Plaintiff, Defendant, expert, or any other person of any oath with regard to any legal proceedings and the production, identification, and examination of documents, samples, or other objects;
- (2) "Witness" includes any person (whether Plaintiff, Defendant, expert, or other person) from whom any evidence as defined above is required to be taken.

Article 7.

(a) The judicial authority by whom the evidence is required may, in accordance with the provisions of his law, address himself by means of "Letters of Request" to the competent authority of the country where the evidence is to be taken, requesting such authority to take the evidence.

(b) The "Letter of Request" shall be drawn up in the language of the country where the evidence is to be taken, or be accompanied by a translation in such language. Such translation shall be certified as correct by a Consular Officer of the High Contracting Party from whose judicial authority the request emanates. The "Letters of Request" shall state the nature of the proceedings for which the evidence is required, giving all necessary information in regard thereto, the names and descriptions of the parties thereto, and the names, descriptions, and addresses of the witnesses. They shall also either be accompanied by a list of interrogatories to be put to the witness or witnesses, or as the case may be, by a description of the documents, samples, or other objects to be produced, identified, or examined, and a translation thereof certified as correct in the manner heretofore provided or shall request the competent authority to allow such questions to be asked visa voce as the parties or their representatives shall desire to ask.

(c) The "Letters of Request" shall be transmitted—

In England, by a Portuguese Consular Officer to the Senior Master of the Supreme Court of Judicature:

In Portugal, by a British Consular Officer to the President of the Court of Appeal in the district in which the evidence is to be taken.

In case the authority to whom "Letters of Request" are transmitted is not competent to execute them, the "Letters of Request" shall be forwarded without any further request to the competent authority of his own country.

(d) The competent authority to whom the "Letters of Request" are transmitted or forwarded shall give effect thereto and obtain the evidence required by the use of the same compulsory measures and the same procedure as are employed in the execution of a commission or order emanating from the authorities of his own country, except that, if a wish that some special procedure should be followed is expressed in the "Letters of Request," such special procedure shall be followed in so far as it is not incompatible with the law of the country where the evidence is to be taken.

(e) The Consular Officer, by whom the "Letters of Request" are transmitted, shall, if he so desires, be informed of the date and place where the proceedings will take place, in order that he may inform the interested party or parties who shall be permitted to be present in person or to be represented if they so desire.

(f) The execution of "Letters of Request" which comply with the preceding provisions of this Article can only be refused—

- (1) If the authenticity of the "Letters of Request" is not established;
- (2) If in the country where the evidence is to be taken the execution of the "Letters of Request" in question does not fall within the functions of the Judiciary;
- (3) If the High Contracting Party in whose territory the evidence is to be taken considers that his sovereignty or safety would be compromised thereby.

(g) In every instance where the "Letters of Request" are not executed by the authority to whom they are addressed, the latter will at once inform the Consular Officer by whom they were transmitted, stating the grounds on which the execution of the "Letters of Request" has been refused, or the judicial authority to whom they have been forwarded.

Article 8.

(a) The evidence may also be taken, without any request to or the intervention of the authorities of the country in which it is to be taken, by a person in that country directly appointed for the purpose by the court by whom the evidence is required. A Consular Officer of the High Contracting Party whose court requires the evidence or any other suitable person may be so appointed.

(b) A person so appointed to take evidence may request the individuals named by the court appointing him to appear before him and give evidence. He may take all kinds of evidence which are not contrary to the law of the country where the evidence is being taken and shall have power to administer an oath.

(c) Requests to appear issued by such person shall, unless the recipient is a subject or citizen of the High Contracting Party for whose judicial authority the evidence is required, be drawn up in the language of the country where the evidence is to be taken, or be accompanied by a translation into such language.

(d) The evidence may be taken in accordance with the procedure recognized by the law of the country for whose judicial authority the evidence is required, and the parties will have the right to be present or to be represented by barristers or solicitors of that country or by any persons competent to appear before the courts of either of the countries concerned.

(e) It is understood that where the method of taking evidence referred to in this Article is employed, the procedure must be entirely voluntary and no measures of compulsion can be employed and the admissibility of evidence so taken remains a matter for the determination of the respective courts of the High Contracting Parties in accordance with their law.

Article 9.

The fact that an attempt to take evidence by the method laid down in Article 8 has failed owing to the refusal of any witness to appear or to give evidence, does not preclude a request being subsequently made in accordance with Article 7.

Article 10.

(a) Where evidence is taken in the manner provided in Article 7, the High Contracting Party, by whose judicial authority the "Letters of Request" are addressed, shall repay to the other High Contracting Party any expenses incurred by the competent authority of the latter in the execution of the request in respect of any charges and expenses payable to witnesses, experts, interpreters, or translators, the cost of obtaining the attendance of witnesses who have not appeared voluntarily, and the charges and expenses payable to any person whom such authority may have deputed to act in cases where the law of his own country permits this to be done, and any charges and expenses incurred by reason of a special procedure being requested and followed. These expenses shall be such as are usually allowed in similar cases in the courts of the country where the evidence has been taken.

(b) The repayment of these expenses shall be claimed by the competent authority by whom the "Letters of Request" have been executed from the Consular Officer by whom they were transmitted when sending to him the documents establishing their execution.

(c) Except as above provided, no fees of any description shall be payable by one High Contracting Party to the other in respect of the taking of evidence.

IV.—JUDICIAL ASSISTANCE FOR POOR PERSONS, IMPRISONMENT FOR DEBT, AND SECURITY FOR COSTS.

Article 11.

The subjects or citizens of one High Contracting Party shall enjoy in the territory of the other High Contracting Party a perfect equality of treatment with subjects or citizens of that High Contracting Party as regards free judicial assistance for poor persons and imprisonment for debt; and, provided that they are resident in any such territory, shall not be compelled to give security for costs in any case where a subject or citizen of such other High Contracting Party would not be so compelled.

V.—GENERAL PROVISIONS.

Article 12.

Any difficulties which may arise in connection with the operation of this Convention shall be settled through the diplomatic channel.

Article 13.

The present Convention, of which the English and Portuguese texts are equally authentic, shall be subject to ratification. Ratifications shall be exchanged in Lisbon.

The Convention shall come into force one month after the date on which ratifications are exchanged and shall remain in force for three years after the date of its coming into force.

If neither of the High Contracting Parties shall have given notice through the diplomatic channel to the other not less than six months before the expiration of the said period of three years of his intention to terminate the Convention, it shall remain in force until the expiration of six months from the day on which either of the High Contracting Parties shall have given notice to terminate it.

Article 14.

(a) This Convention shall not apply, ipso facto, to Scotland or Northern Ireland, nor to any of the Colonies or Protectorates of His Majesty the King of Great Britain, Ireland, and the British Dominions beyond the Seas, Emperor of India, nor to any territories under His suzerainty, nor to any mandated territories administered by His Government in the United Kingdom, but His Majesty may at any time, while the Convention is in force, under Article 13, by a notification given through His Ambassador at Lisbon, extend the operation of this Convention to any of the above-mentioned territories.

(b) Such notification shall state the authorities in the territory concerned to whom requests for service or for the taking of evidence are to be transmitted, and the language in which communications and translations are to be made.

The date of the coming into force of any such extension shall be one month from the date of such notification.

(c) Either of the High Contracting Parties may, at any time after the expiry of three years from the coming into force of an extension of this Convention to any of the territories referred to in paragraph (a) of this Article, terminate such extension on giving six months' notice of termination through the diplomatic channel.

(d) The termination of the Convention under Article 13 shall, unless otherwise expressly agreed to by both High Contracting Parties, ipso facto, terminate it in respect of any territories to which it has been extended under paragraph (a) of this Article.

Article 15.

(a) This Convention shall not apply, ipso facto, to any of the Colonies of the Portuguese Republic, but the President of the Portuguese Republic may at any time while the Convention is in force under Article 13 extend this Convention to any of such Colonies by a notification given through his Ambassador in London.

(b) The provisions of paragraph (b) of Article 14 shall apply to any such notifications.

(c) The provisions of paragraph (c) and (d) of Article 14 shall apply to any Colonies of the Portuguese Republic to which this Convention has been extended.

(d) This Convention shall apply, ipso facto, to Madeira and the Azores, and requests for service or for the taking of evidence in these territories shall be transmitted to the President of the Court of Appeal at Lisbon.

Article 16.

(a) The High Contracting Parties agree that His Majesty the King of Great Britain, Ireland, and the British Dominions beyond the Seas, Emperor of India, may at any time, while the present Convention is in force, either under Article 13 or by virtue of any accession under this article, by a notification given through the diplomatic channel, accede to the present Convention in respect of any Member of the British Commonwealth of Nations whose Government may desire that such accession should be effected, provided that no notification of accession may be given at any time when the President of the Portuguese Republic has given notice of termination in respect of all the territories of His Majesty to which the Convention applies.

The provisions of Article 14 (b) shall be applicable to such notification. Any such accession shall take effect one month after the date of its notification.

(b) After the expiry of three years from the date of the coming into force of any accession under paragraph (a) of this Article, either of the High Contracting Parties may, by giving a six months' notice of termination through the diplomatic channel, terminate the application of the Convention to any country in respect of which a notification of accession has been given. The termination of the Convention under Article 13 shall not affect its application to any such country.

(c) Any notification of accession under paragraph (a) of this Article may include any dependency or mandated territory administered by the Government of the country in respect of which such notification of accession is given; and any notice of termination in respect of any such country under paragraph (b) shall apply to any dependency or mandated territory which was included in the notification of accession in respect of that country.

In witness whereof the undersigned have signed the present Convention, in English and Portuguese texts, and have affixed thereto their seals.
