Proposed Revision of Customs-Tariff.

Office of the Minister of Customs,

Office of the Minister of Customs,
Wellington, 18th May, 1933.

I T is hereby notified for public information that it is probable that the Customs Tariff will be revised during the next session of Parliament as a result of the report of the Customs Tariff Commission which has just be appointed.

The attention of all those interested is drawn to the following provisions of section 130 of the Customs Act, 1913 (as amended by the Customs Amendment Act, 1921):

"130. (1) If, after any agreement is made (whether in New Zealand or elsewhere) for the sale of goods, any alteration takes place in the law relating to the liability of such goods to duty or in the rate or amount of such duty, then, in the absence of express written provision to the contrary, the agreement shall be deemed to be modified as follows:—

"(a) In the event of the alteration being a new or increased duty, the seller, after payment thereof, may add to the agreed price the difference caused by the alteration:

"(b) In the event of the alteration being the reduction of duty, the purchaser may deduct from the agreed price the difference between the amount of duty which the seller would have paid had the alteration not been made and the amount of duty actually paid by him:

"(c) In the event of the alteration being the abolition of the duty, the purchaser may deduct from the agreed price the duty which the seller would have paid had the alteration not been made.

"(2) When any such alteration of duties takes place so as to operate retrospectively from any date this section shall also apply retrospectively in like manner as from the same date.

"(3) Any money paid by a buyer to a seller in excess of the amount payable under this section may be recovered from the seller as money paid by mistake whether the error was one of fact or law.

"(4) All the provisions of this section with respect to an alteration of the law shall extend and apply to any alteration of the tariff by authority of the Governor-General in Council or by any other lawful authority."

J. A. YOUNG, Minister of Internal Affairs.

Department of Internal Affairs, Wellington, 24th, May, 1933.

HEREWITH is published for general information, in accordance with the Auctioneers Act, 1928, a list of persons licensed to carry on business as auctioneers as on the 15th day of May, 1933.

REGISTER OF LICENSES ISSUED UNDER THE AUCTIONEERS ACT, 1928.

Norg.-The Register is arranged alphabetically under the names of holders of licenses; but when an individual holds a license on behalf of a firm or registered company, the name of such firm or company, and not the name of the holder of the license, is placed in its alphabetical order.

In the case of a firm or company the name of which consists of the Christian name or names (or initials) and surname or surnames of some person or persons, the index letter is the first letter of the Further, where an individual holder of a license trades under a particular name, the trade-name appears in its alphabetical order.

Register of Engineers.

Office of the Minister of Public Works, Wellington, 27th April, 1933.

No pursuance of section 13 of the Engineers Registration Act, 1924, a certified copy of the names, qualifications, and addresses entered in the Register of Engineers, as at 31st March, 1933, is published for general information.

Under the heading of "Qualifications" is shown the particular clause of section 6 of the Act under which the applicant has been registered

Section 6 of the Act is as follows:—

"6. (1) Every person shall, on payment of the prescribed fee, be entitled to be registered under this Act as an engineer who-(a) Holds some recognized certificate as hereinafter defined, and who satisfies the Board that he has had not less than three years' practical experience in engineering; or

"(b) Has attained the age of twenty-five years, and has been engaged during a period of not less than six years before the commencement of this Act in the acquisition of professional knowledge or in the practice of engineering in a manner satisfactory to the Board, and who makes application for registration within twelve months after the commencement of this Act; or

"(c) Passes or has passed an examination or examinations approved by the Board, and who satisfies the Board that he has had not less than three years' practical experience in engineering.

"(2) For the purposes of this section the term 'recognized certificate' means a certificate, diploma, degree, or license granted by some university, college, or other public institution (whether in New Zealand or elsewhere), and which is recognized by the Board as furnishing sufficient evidence of the possession of the requisite knowledge and skill for the efficient recognized by the Board as furnishing sufficient evidence of the possession of the requisite knowledge and skill for the efficient practice of the profession of engineering."

In 1928 an amendment to the Act was passed.

Subsection (1) of section 2 of the amendment reads as follows:—

"2. (1) In addition to the classes of persons entitled to be registered as engineers under the principal Act any person may on payment of the prescribed fee be registered as an engineer who, being registered at the date of the passing of the principal Act as a licensed surveyor under the Surveyors' Institute and Board of Examiners Act, 1908, satisfies the Board that he had prior to the coming into operation of the principal Act substantial practical experience in engineering as part of his practice or employment, whether on his own account or otherwise howsoever, and who makes application for registration within six months after the passing of this Act."

Applicants who have qualified for registration under the 1928 amendment are shown accordingly, under the heading of "Qualifications."
