AMENDMENTS No. 35.

BLEDISLOE, Governor-General.

IN pursuance and exercise of the powers and authorities conferred on me by the Defence Act, 1909, and its amendments, and in conformity with Royal Warrants dated the twenty-third day of September, one thousand nine hundred and thirty, I, Charles, Baron Bledisloe, Governor-General of the Dominion of New Zealand, do hereby amend in the manner and to the extent set forth in the Schedule hereto the regulations for the New Zealand Military Forces published in the Gazette dated the twenty-fifth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-seven, and I do hereby declare that the amendments hereby made shall take effect as from the date of publication in the Gazette except as otherwise provided.

SCHEDULE.

REGULATIONS FOR THE NEW ZEALAND MILITARY FORCES, 1927.

APPENDIX VIII.—DECORATIONS AND MEDALS.

1. PARAGRAPHS 6 to 15 (both inclusive) are hereby revoked, and the following substituted:—

Forfeiture and Restoration.

6. Provision is made for the forfeiture or restoration of orders, and medals of orders, in the Statutes governing the orders.

7. Except as otherwise provided by these regulations and by relevant Royal Warrants in the cases of those decorations and medals referred to in para. 8 hereunder, the conditions under which decorations and medals may be forfeited or restored will be those laid down from time to time in the Royal Warrant for Pay, &c., and the King's Regulations for the Army, which shall be held to apply to any war medal or any decoration or medal for long service, meritorious service, or efficiency awarded to members of the New Zealand Military Forces.

8. In the Royal Warrants respectively governing their provision is made for the forfeiture or restoration of the following decorations and medals—viz., Victoria Cross, Military Cross, Royal Red Cross, Distinguished Conduct Medal, Military Medal, Meritorious Service Medal for Gallantry, and such Royal Warrants are effective in New Zealand.

9. For the conditions governing the forfeiture and restoration of the Efficiency Decoration awarded to officers of the New Zealand Military Forces see subparas. (13)–(15) of para. 17 of this Appendix.

Foreign Orders and Medals.

10. In regard to forfeiture, foreign orders and medals are not affected by these regulations, but are dealt with under special regulations issued by the Foreign Office. A decoration or medal awarded by a foreign Power cannot under any circumstances be replaced.

Loss and Replacement of British Orders, Medals, &amp;c.

11. Every precaution will be taken to ensure that the insignia of military orders, decorations, and medals do not come into the possession of unauthorized persons. Where the loss is incurred during training by an officer, warrant officer, N.C.O., or man, and is due entirely to unavoidable circumstances arising out of the exigencies of the service, lost decorations or medals may be replaced at the public expense, but losses due to the circumstances and accidents of private life will not be chargeable to public funds. The decision in all cases will rest with the General Officer Commanding.

12. Campaign medals lost after the death of the recipient cannot be replaced.

13. An officer may, after taking reasonable steps to recover a lost decoration or medal, submit an application for replacement on prepayment. Officers on the active list will submit their applications through the usual channels, and those on the Reserve of Officers to General Headquarters direct. Duplicates will not be issued until two months have elapsed from the date of the loss.

14. When a warrant officer, N.C.O., or man loses a decoration or medal during training he will immediately report the fact to his Company, &c., Commander, who will record all available evidence regarding the loss and submit it to the O.C. Unit, who will, if practicable, take steps to effect recovery, and, failing recovery, will record his opinion as to whether the loss occurred—

- (i) When the soldier was on duty and from causes entirely beyond his control;
- (ii) By accident; or
- (iii) Wilfully.

Under (i) and (ii) applications to replace the lost medals may be at once submitted to General Headquarters through the usual channel, accompanied by the original record of evidence. Where no testimony as to the loss, except that of the soldier himself, is forthcoming, the Commanding Officer, except in very special circumstances, which he will record, will take the man's character into account in forming his opinion. If application is made for replacement at the public expense the conditions of para. 11 of this Appendix will apply. Lost medals or decorations will be replaced only under the procedure laid down in this paragraph.

In cases under (iii) the soldier will be dealt with under section 24 of the Army Act, in so far as that Act is applicable to the New Zealand Military Forces.

15. When a medal or decoration is lost by a retired officer, or by a warrant officer, N.C.O., or man when not undergoing training, or by an ex-soldier, an application for replacement must be accompanied by a statutory declaration setting out the circumstances under which the original was lost and the steps taken to effect recovery. The application will be forwarded to General Headquarters direct. In certain cases (e.g., D.S.O., M.C., D.C.M., M.M., and Campaign Medals, except for the Great War), the application will require to be transmitted by General Headquarters to the War Office, and postal notes in prepayment should not be submitted by the applicant until he is advised by General Headquarters as to cost and requirements. In all cases replacements will be on prepayment, and new decorations or medals will not be replaced until two months have elapsed from the date of the loss.

2. The regulations relative to the award of the under-mentioned decoration and medals are hereby revoked as from 22nd September, 1931:—

- (i) Colonial Auxiliary Forces Officers' Decoration. (Para. 17.)
- (ii) Colonial Auxiliary Forces Long-service Medal. (Para. 18.)
- (iii) Medal for Long Service and Good Conduct. (Paras. 19 and 21.)
- (iv) New Zealand Long and Efficient Service Medal (Para. 23.)
- (v) New Zealand Territorial Service Medal. (Para. 24.)

The award of the above-mentioned decoration and medals will, however, continue to be awarded to those officers and other ranks of the New Zealand Territorial Force who completed the requisite service for them prior to the 23rd September, 1931.

3. The following regulations governing the award of the Efficiency Decoration, the Efficiency Medal, and the Medal for Long Service and Good Conduct (Military) are hereby made in pursuance of Royal Warrants dated 23rd September, 1930, and will have effect as from 23rd September, 1931.

THE EFFICIENCY DECORATION.

General.

17. (1) The Efficiency Decoration consists of an oak wreath in silver tied with gold, having in the centre the Royal Cipher and Crown in gold.

(2) It will be worn suspended from the left breast from a silver bar-brooch by a green riband  $1\frac{1}{2}$  in. in width, with a yellow stripe down the centre.

Forces whose Members are eligible for the Decoration.

(3) The Efficiency Decoration is conferred on duly qualified commissioned officers of the Territorial Army of Great Britain and of any other Auxiliary Military Forces in the British Empire. In New Zealand it shall be conferred by the Governor-General only on officers of the New Zealand Territorial Force (including the Reserve of Officers of that Force), but prior service in the Auxiliary Forces (i.e., other than Permanent Forces) of any other part of the Empire, duly certified, will count towards the requisite qualifying period.

Subsidiary Title.

(4) The Royal Warrant provides that the decoration shall bear on the bar-brooch a subsidiary title to denote the Force in which at time of award the recipient was serving. Those awarded to officers of the New Zealand Territorial Force will be so inscribed with the title "New Zealand."

Qualifying Service.

(5) To be eligible for the decoration an officer must be or have been a commissioned officer serving on or after 23rd September, 1931, and have completed twenty years' qualifying service, such service being reckoned in accordance with the following subparagraphs:—

- (a) Commissioned service which reckons as single qualifying service:—
  - (i) On the active list of the New Zealand Territorial Force.
  - (ii) On the active list of the New Zealand Volunteer Force which existed prior to 17th March, 1911.
  - (iii) On the active list of the authorized Auxiliary Forces* of the Empire, such service to be qualifying service under the Efficiency Decoration Regulations applicable to the Auxiliary Force in which rendered.
  - (iv) For the actual period of any embodied service other than service covered by the other subparagraphs of this paragraph.
  - (v) On the Reserve of Officers of the New Zealand Territorial Force in any one year in which training equivalent to that required of officers on the active list has been carried out.
  - (vi) In the Royal Navy, the Regular Army, the Royal Air Force, New Zealand Expeditionary Force, or a Permanent Force of a British Dominion or Colony during the period 4th August, 1914, and 31st December, 1921, provided that the officer was commissioned between 4th August, 1914, and 11th November, 1918, and subsequently obtained a commission in an Auxiliary Force.

* The term "authorized Auxiliary Forces of the Empire" means for the purposes of the Efficiency Decoration the Territorial Force of New Zealand, the Territorial Army, Royal Naval Volunteer Reserve, and the Auxiliary Air Force in Great Britain and similar forces in the Dominions, Colonies, &c., in which there are similar obligations for training in peace; it excludes the Army Reserve and the Militia of Great Britain and such like forces.

(b) Commissioned service in West Africa will reckon twofold as qualifying service, but any period spent on leave therefrom will reckon only as single qualifying service.

(c) Half of any time served in the ranks of any of the Auxiliary Forces of the Empire, or in the ranks of the Yeomanry Cavalry, Imperial Yeomanry, or Volunteer Force of Great Britain which existed before 1st April, 1908, after attaining the age of seventeen years; or in the ranks of the Royal Navy, the Regular Army, the Royal Air Force, or the Permanent Force of a Dominion or Colony during the period 4th August, 1914, to 31st December, 1921, or in a recognized O.T. or Cadet Corps* after attaining the age of seventeen years, will reckon as qualifying service towards the requisite twenty years.

(6) An officer of the New Zealand Territorial Force, who was serving on a voluntary agreement in any authorized Auxiliary Force of the Empire or its Reserves on the 4th August, 1914, shall be entitled, provided he actually served, or was attested and thereby accepted the obligation for service beyond the boundaries of the Dominion, Colony, &c., in the forces of which he was serving on the 4th August, 1914, to count as twofold all embodied service as an officer on the active list between 4th August, 1914, and 31st December, 1921, and all such embodied service in the ranks on the active list between those dates as full single qualifying service towards the twenty years required, whether such service was in the Naval Forces, Military Forces, or Air Forces of any part of the Empire: Provided that this paragraph shall not apply to embodied service in the New Zealand or any other forces rendered in the performance of training that would have been required if a state of war had not existed prior to the 31st December, 1921.

(7) In the cases of recipients of the Volunteer Officers' Decoration, the Territorial Decoration, and the Colonial Auxiliary Forces Officers' Decoration, no period of service in the force in which they qualified for any one of those decorations shall be reckoned as qualifying service for the Efficiency Decoration.

Service—

- (a) As a member of any Permanent Force of the Empire, on the permanent staff of the Territorial Army of Great Britain or of any of the Auxiliary Forces of the Empire, except as may be provided in paragraphs (5) (a) (vi) and (5) (c) above;
- (b) In any Reserve or Auxiliary Forces involving a liability for service only and no liability for training in peace; shall not reckon as qualifying service.

(8) The service required to qualify for the Efficiency Decoration shall not necessarily be continuous.

(9) The recipient of any Long Service and Good Conduct Medal or Efficiency Medal or Clasp (including the Colonial Auxiliary Forces Long Service Medal, the New Zealand Long and Efficient Service Medal, and the New Zealand Territorial Service Medal) shall not be permitted to wear such medals or clasps with the Efficiency Decoration until he has completed the full periods of qualifying service in respect of each medal or clasp and the decoration, no qualifying service towards one award being permitted to count for this purpose towards the other.

(10) An officer who has the necessary qualifying service must be recommended by the Commanding Officer of the Unit in which he completes the period of service requisite to qualify for the decoration, and be certified by the Officer Commanding the Command in which he is serving as an efficient and thoroughly capable officer in every way deserving of the Efficiency Decoration. All awards will be subject to the approval of the Governor-General.

(11) An officer of the New Zealand Military Forces awarded the Efficiency Decoration shall be entitled to the addition after his name of the letters E.D.

(12) The names of those officers upon whom the Governor-General confers the decoration will be published in General Orders, and a register of the awards will be maintained at General Headquarters.

Forfeiture and Restoration.

(13) An officer awarded the Efficiency Decoration who has deserted from the Forces during hostilities, or who suffers death by sentence of Court-martial, or who is cashiered, dismissed, or removed from the Defence Forces for misconduct shall, on the approval of the Governor-General, forfeit the decoration.

(14) On the approval of the Governor-General an officer to whom the decoration has been awarded, or who may be entitled to it, shall forfeit the decoration on conviction of an

(15) In any case in which the decoration has been forfeited under these regulations the Governor-General may, on the recommendation of the General Officer Commanding the Forces, approve of its restoration.

(iii) No service shall count more than twofold towards the award of the medal or a clasp.

(7) Service must have been rendered continuously except—

(i) During the period 4th August, 1914, to 31st December, 1921; or

(ii) When rendered in different authorized Auxiliary Naval, or Military, or Air Forces not in the same portion of the Empire, provided that the break does not exceed twelve months; or

(iii) When rendered in the New Zealand Territorial Force, provided the break is due to no fault of the individual and that the break does not exceed six months.

(8) The following periods, although inadmissible as qualifying service (except as provided for in subpara. (5) (iv) above) will not be regarded as breaking the continuity of service:—

(i) Service in any of the Permanent Forces of the Empire (e.g., Royal Navy, Regular Army, or New Zealand Permanent Forces), including service as a member of any such force on the permanent staff of the Territorial Army of Great Britain or any of the authorized auxiliary forces of the Empire.

(ii) Intervals between service in the Royal Navy, the Regular Army, the Royal Air Force, the New Zealand Expeditionary Force, or the New Zealand Territorial Force during the period 4th August, 1914, to 31st December, 1921.

(iii) Periods of leave of absence granted under the provisions of the Regulations for the New Zealand Military Forces.

(iv) Service in the New Zealand Territorial Force Reserve, the Territorial Army Reserve of Great Britain, or any Reserve or auxiliary force involving a liability for service only and no liability for training in peace.

(9) The recipient of any Long Service, Good Conduct, or Efficiency Medal (and clasps) may be permitted to wear them with the Efficiency Medal (with or without clasps), provided that he has completed the full period of qualifying service in respect of each medal or clasp, no service counted towards one medal being permitted to count towards the other.

(10) A period of embodied service of not less than two months in any training year will be allowed to count as the equivalent of the prescribed training for that training year.

Silver Roses to denote Clasps when Ribbons only are worn.

(11) In undress and service dress when ribbons only are worn the grant of clasps will be denoted by the wearing on the ribbon of small silver roses; one or more according to the number of clasps awarded. The rose (or roses) will not be worn on the ribbon when the medal is worn.

(12) All applications for this medal or clasps will be reviewed by General Headquarters, and awards will be subject to the approval of the G.O.C.

THE MEDAL FOR LONG SERVICE AND GOOD CONDUCT (MILITARY).

Forces whose Members are Eligible.

19 (1) The Medal for Long Service and Good Conduct (Military) is a reward for warrant officers, N.C.O.s, and men of the British Regular Army and the other Permanent Military Forces of the Empire for long service and good conduct in those forces under the conditions specified hereunder.

General.

(2) The medal is of silver and bears in relief on the obverse the Royal and Imperial Effigy, and on the reverse the inscription "For Long Service and Good Conduct." It will be worn on the left breast suspended by a crimson ribbon, edged white,  $1\frac{1}{4}$  in. in width.

Subsidiary Title.

(3) The Royal Warrant governing the issue provides that in all cases the medal shall bear a subsidiary title to denote the force in which at time of award the recipient was serving. Those awarded to warrant officers, N.C.O.s, and men of the New Zealand Permanent Forces will bear the title "New Zealand" on a bar attached to the mount of the medal.

Qualifying Service.

(4) The medal will be awarded to warrant officers, N.C.O.s, and men of the New Zealand Permanent Forces who complete eighteen years' qualifying service, whose character and conduct have been irreproachable throughout such service, and who are recommended by their Commanding Officer.

(5) The requisite service must have been performed in the British Regular Army or in the Permanent Military Forces of any British Dominion or Colony. Service of a soldier under eighteen years of age may be included in the eighteen years' service required to qualify, and also mobilized or embodied service in any militia or authorized auxiliary force of the Empire, or Colour Service in any permanent military force of the Empire provided that such service has not been reckoned towards the award of any other long service or efficiency medal. Service of European soldiers on the West Coast of Africa and certain parts of the Sudan is allowed to reckon double, under the same conditions as are laid down in the Pay Warrant for the British Army, for counting double service towards pension.

(6) Previous service in the Royal Navy, the Royal Marines, or the Royal Air Force, or any other regular, naval, or air force of the Empire, if acknowledged on attestation, may be allowed to reckon towards the eighteen years, provided that during such service the character and conduct of the individual were of such a standard as would be admissible towards the award of the Long Service and Good Conduct Medal.

(7) When a soldier awarded the medal is convicted of an offence which renders him ineligible for an exemplary character, as provided by King's Regulations, and in any other case where it is considered that the soldier's conduct ceases to allow his character to be assessed as exemplary, the case will be reported to General Headquarters for such action as may be deemed appropriate, and it shall be competent for the G.O.C. to deprive him of the medal.

(8) The fact that a soldier fulfils the conditions gives him no claim to the medal, and all awards will be subject to the recommendation of the Officer Commanding the Command, or, in the cases of those soldiers who are not serving in a Command, to the recommendation of their Commanding Officer.

(9) Applications will be submitted to General Headquarters through the usual channels, and, if the award is not recommended, must be accompanied by a certificate setting out the reasons why, in the opinion of the officer making the certificate, the award should not be made. Where the award is recommended the application must be accompanied by a certificate from the Officer Commanding the Command or the Commanding Officer, as the case may be, that the soldier is not ineligible for the award of an exemplary character by reason of entries in any official document in his possession.

(10) Applications for the medal will be reviewed by General Headquarters, and awards will be subject to the approval of the G.O.C.
